FARM DEBT REVISION
When Governor Ross urges a campaign against foreclosure of farm mortgages, he is pointing out to us a thing that the nation as a whole has been short to realize—namely, that American agriculture has slidded down into a situation so critical that action of the most drastic sort is imperatively needed.

ATTACK WILL PROBABLY COME AT TOWN, FORTNER.
IMMEDIATELY UPON HIS ARRIVAL AT THE FRONT, EAST 22 REGIMS REARRANGING HIS MACHINE.
AND ANOTHER THING, THE GENERAL'S GUNNER TO LEAVE HIS POSITION, NO MATTER WHAT HAPPENS.

What is going to happen? Senator Borah asserts that this vast debt will either be scaled down voluntarily by the financial institutions which hold farm paper, or involuntarily through foreclosures, bankruptcy and the remorseless grind of economic forces.

TRIAL BY JURY HITS A SNAG
Every criminal trial which involves a person who then figures in newspaper headlines is apt to bring about a situation in which it is almost impossible to get a jury satisfactory to both prosecution and defense.

QUESTIONS ON INDIA
HORIZONTAL
Answer to President Roosevelt's 17 to 20 will be:
21 To exist or not
22 To be left
23 A general charge with the militia
