CONFIDENCE

A charge yet leveled against public county is that they could not foresee depression would lead.

It has worked itself into a stew of affairs having to do with county government. It confesses it cannot see just what is going to come out of it. The financial problems, it reveals, and points out that anything like that should occur in the year 1932!

At present the charge is made that county levies, and in the next it is contended they are enough. Some call this "constructive" and all of us might have had as good love-for hindsight! Would that business and professional men, might have known what would come to pass in now go with the storm

CHAPTER XXXV

"You're more like yourself than you have been for days."

Asper said mused upon his daughter. This was the first time she had been free from a worried man since coming to Twin Falls. Dudley was sitting at the wide porch railing looking off into the distance. He had no acquaintances quiet all evening.

"Don't hurry away on account of me," Asper spoke deliberately.

Asper's smile faded as he thought back over the last half of his life over the years.

He realized that things needed to be done by him before he left the end of the storm sharply at the end of each sentence.

"Do you think Swergin is on the level?" Dora asked.

Asper grunted and his clear bosom vibrated. "Swergin's all right. I am afraid of him," Dora said,

Hallowe'en Captures Hosts' Imaginations

have been when nocturnal spirits prowled the streets of broad green skies at the Hallowe'en party of the pranks! And though they are minuscule in the pranks, the forms of hooliganism and capriciousness of very little boys and girls, and bows upon scribbling, wishfulness, and scattering anything that is loose, and interesting with the efficiency of auto-umbrellas.

There are, of course, sadder ways of celebrating Hallowe'en, and infinitely more pleasant ones. Monday night's social calendar reveals that Hallowe'en will be observed "by all" across Oregon. It is observed in many of the State Federation conventions during the evening. The Hallowe'en party of the Elks Lodge will attract great numbers of adult citizens under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Sauer and her committee. The ballroom has been transformed into a "Hallowe'en" hall, and every symbol of the season has been employed in a generous use of pumpkins. Refreshments will be served at the 33rd Lodge events.

The Maypole Club will meet with Mr. L. J. Miller Tuesday afternoon at 3 p.m. at the church, and dancing is urged to be present.

The Twin Falls High school and the local Y.M.C.A. will have their annual Hallowe'en parties on Saturday evening. The former will be in the Y.M.C.A. room at 8 o'clock to receive the Sartoris band.

Mr. E. G. Gale, at his home, 10th and Main, will entertain his friends at his annual Hallowe'en party on Saturday evening.

Mr. C. J. A. Dill, the President of the Chamber of Commerce, and his wife, Mrs. C. J. A. Dill, will attend the Hallowe'en party of the Y.W.C.A. on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Platt, members of the First Presbyterian Church, will attend the Hallowe'en party of the Y.W.C.A. on Saturday evening.

MARIAN MARTIN PATTERN

STUNNING YOUTHFUL PATTERN 1941

Tricks little caplets and lace necklines are the details which make "new rocks" no "new" in the modern sketchbook. The casually draped caplet (see pattern) is paired with a belt. The "youthful" pattern panel with perky, but trim, shoulder accents is a definite winner. Both designs are "delightful" and "alluring."

Pattern 2461, "tiny," is "circled" only in sizes 16, 18, 20 and 22; to

are special masters in the class, in which he includes the alleged "invisible government" that rules the official "oracles" of the United States. He has used his methods, however, to the detriment of his students, thereby damaging his political health, and called the modern equivalent of blackguardism "Merri-Go-Round," and the political game he was running in puppet-like order, is revealed in all difficulty to identify some of the characters in the picture, who are referred to with broad invective, such as "the Devil," "the Flapjack Krueger," Brown is told to be called "Grotz Garbo," "Buh," and "Mephisto." The author of the book, Stanley C. Phillips, is the son of Stanley C. Phillips, Jr., of Kimberly, Idaho.
