WOULD CUT PAY OF STATE'S OFFICIALS

Senator Reynolds Introduces Bill to Reduce Salaries of All Officials

TOBES, Feb. 11. (AP) Senator Reynolds today introduced his bill No. 118, introduced in the Idaho senate Saturday morning by the senate and county board of trustees.

The bill, drawn by Senator Reynolds, of Coeur d'Alene, would classify all state officials and employees and fix salaries for each classification. Since the time of introduction of individual bills, however, the means of being influenced by the counties and county board of trustees, and county board of trustees, and county board of trustees.

"I have no idea if this bill will pass, since I doubt that the legislature will introduce a measure," Reynolds told newspapermen.

"The one difficulty with this bill is that it is not a bill to reduce public expenditures," Reynolds continued. "At the last election the people asked for a more efficient government and something better for the system and to reduce the tax to help the school children and the home-graduate party."
