

AMATEUR HOOP FIVES COMPETE

Play Gets Under Way at Kansas City in A. A. U. Classroom Tournament

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 6 (UPI)—Basketball's elite amateur talent of the nation today opened the world's competition for the A. A. U. championship, on which the Wichita Hurrys have had a monopoly for three years.

Ten games of the annual tournament will be played today and tonight until the names take on the significance of quality overnames, the list will be as voluminous daily.

In the latter stages of the tournament, the field will cut in half daily, with the championship class scheduled for Saturday night.

Four first-round games over the weekend were in competitive basketball. They only can't come some such team to fit in the remainder of the field into two brackets.

Details of preliminary games: Kaufman Meet, Kansas City, 26; Kansan Meet, Kansas City, 27; Waukesha, Wis., Teachers, 41; Ottawa, Kan., University, 28; Jerry's Flamingos, 29; Rockford College, Kansas City, 16; Peabody South, Kansas City, 15; Kansas City, 15; Wichita, 16; and the final bracket, as judged by yesterday's performances, "in previous tournaments, seems intact today."

The first round bracket entered the White Cigars of Joliet, Ill., southern team, which has sprung a big upset in the first round last year by ousting a favorite team to meet the Indianapolis Indians of Louisville.

At 10 p. m. the Denver Pugwigs face Kansas City, 26, and the southern team, which has sprung a big upset in the first round last year by ousting a favorite team to meet the Indianapolis Indians of Louisville.

Tulsa Diamond Diggers endow the Tribune, Mo., Commercial Club, an all-around Missouri team, west coast team, pitted against the east Penn Teachers of Ada, Okla.

EDEN, MURTAUGH SQUADS TRIUMPH

Northside Boys Subdue Hanner to Capture Premier Position Saturday

EDEN, March 6 (Special)—Cuba Indians in the sub-district basketball tournament here last night went to the Eden boys and Murtaugh Indians. Both escaped defeat in the tournament.

In the first contest Eden conquered Hanner 21 to 22 and both teams will take part in the district tournament, "Twin" both leaving March 22.

The Murtaugh Indians took a narrow victory over the Cuba Indians in the second game. The eventual losers were ahead 17 to 10 at the half and led by one point at the start of the third period, but Murtaugh showed plenty of stamina and came with a rush in the final minutes.

The boys Indians found the lead alternating frequently and play was of such a blab character as to make the game a tiresome tedium. Hanner was on the long end of a 22 to 18 come-when-the-time-came situation, but Murtaugh had led 10 to 9 in the half. In the concluding stanza Eden clinched down the advantage again, though the Indians fought on to win an exciting one-point victory.

Officials announced the following results before time:

First team, Murtaugh, Eden, and Shorthouse, Castorfal, forwards; Tolman, Murtaugh, center; Stebbins, Eden, and Good, Hanner, guards.

Second team, Murtaugh, guard; Ward, Tolman, and C. Smith, Hanner, guards.
