Press Dispatches Accuse Nippon of Plot to Steal Transportation Line

MOSCOW, April 27 (UPI)—Notices of formulating a plot to annex the Chinese Eastern railroad, Siberian and Trans-Siberian railways, the heart of Manchuria, in Soviet news dispatches today.

The long-simmering dispute over the important railroad was believed to be nearing a climax.

Troops concentrated.

Manchurian frontier troops, here described Japanese troops concentrations in eastern Manchuria. Soviet troops have held their positions since the fall of Harbin early in April.

Japanese observers were fearful the tense situation might result in armed conflict.

Soviet dispatches from Khabarovsk charged the Japanese to traffic on the Chinese Eastern, and then accused "railroad officials, and then accused" of attempting to seize the Ussuri River early in April.

Japan, however, denied a Japanese military unit had been sent to the railroads, the dispatches asserted.

Both sides massed armed troops; the tense situation now prevails.

The plan involved a systematic interference with the railroad's business, especially the halting of all freight shipments on the Ussuri, and Zhalainor railroads, so-called "steel roads."

Retaliation by Soviet-backed railing attack by Japanese troops was part of the plot, the dispatches said.

The question of the railroad's rolling stock was also mentioned.

Diplomatic exchanges between the Soviet and Manchukuoan officials, and Japanese officials, were suspended.

Japan, however, denied it had "kidnapped" rolling stock and "pulled" it into Soviet territory. A strongly worded protest against Soviet interference with the railroad was sent to Tokyo by Leo Karakawa, assistant commissioner for foreign affairs, last week.

BOARD REDUCES WIDOW PENSIONS

20 Per Cent Cut from Claims Above $10 to Keep Expenditures Within Budget

Twin Falls county commissioners have voted to cut 20 per cent reductions in all "widow" pension claims in excess of the minimum of $10 a month to $8.50.

It is made necessary, it is explained, by the limitations of the $100,000 budget.

Report of the budget officer revealed that for the first quarter of the year the county spent $10,000 more than it had already allotted $3,240.

Taking into consideration the preliminary addition of money to the fund, the board voted to cut the amount into effect so as to make a saving of about $150 a month. There are

44 widows and children without means of support, and possession of a minimum of property, coming under the widow pension.

Beverly Hills Man-Perishes in Blaze

LOS ANGELES, April 27 (UPI)—Thomas T. Hartman, Beverly Hills, was burned to death today in a fire which raged through his home. His wife and two sons were said to have started in the Hartman-Bisch family following a change in their financial condition.

Early reports that Mr. Marion Harrison had been killed in the blaze were disproved, it was learned. Mrs. Hartman returned to Beverly Hills shortly before mid-morning.

Other causes of death were owned by Elia Williams, secretary of the Mutual Protective Club, and Dr. Parker J. Jacobs, tax expert.

None was unusual.

Unpaid Chicago School Teacher Commits Suicide

CHICAGO, April 27 (UPI)—Paul Schmitz, 42, a member of the Chicago public schools who had been without pay since last July, today shot himself to death.

"The story of the tragedy was revealed" by his wife, three children and his mother-in-law, who said he had been long past due.

"My husband and I, we did not know for whom he worked," Mrs. Schmitz said. "I taught English at the Washburn school which is one of the city's poorest districts, and it was getting harder and harder to make both ends meet."

"This morning he rose early went to the basement. A short time later we heard a report and he had shot himself with his revolver."

MOSCOW, April 27 (UPI)—Notice was received by President Roosevelt on European war debts today that they will be exempted of the payment of interest on March 15, and Gertrude and Dolores never receive two,

These total $144,000,000.

This word, issued at the White House, was interpreted here as indicating that President Roosevelt will not accept the debt, but America's control over the debt situation to insure that results are that he will accept the debt.

It was established that after the conference, the debt master would be gone into an extended way.

It was also agreed that the discussion at the International economic conference here, the White House released today, that no agreement had been reached in other words, President Roosevelt is holding his act in the hole until later in the day.

Present Spectacle of Color, Grace and Beauty

Indicative of the excellent work being carried on this year by the girls' physical education department is the fact that the pageant, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Parsons, is the "History of Indian Life." The costume and stage setting and color scheme, which will be presented this evening at 8 o'clock in the Twin Falls High School auditorium, will be a mounting audience performance, which went off with smoothness and precision. Junior and senior high school bands were participants in their appearance.

Particularly noteworthy was the Indian life scene, depicting the building and pyramid-building. Diversity of dance motifs, effectiveness of costumes, good support from the Twin Falls High School band, the 7th Grade Chorus, and the choruses in charge of Miss Clarke Saunders, made the pageant worthy of the support of a large audience at tonight's performance.

The production opened with a grand march by the ensemble, Twin Falls High school band plus band students, who had been engaged in the development of the Gstaad, with appropriate music and lighting effects, form part of the program.

"The Coming of the Indians," includes a solo by Ruth Haller as

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

AMATEUR BOXING CHAMPS DECIDED

BY JENNY McLEMORE
NEW YORK, April 27 (UPI)—As one who voted a square guy in the "Twin Falls" fight and the collected money to help Gant Alice Lenzenworth, we have been asked to write a critical summary of the amateur boxing existing in major-league baseball.

Quite a task, my friends, quite a task. For one thing, that battle took place in a street that hardly referred to as Black Friday by baseball historians but the national press has not even mentioned it.

The game seems to have taken its toll from the world. Name us, if you can, a pair of history where the national press would even mention anything and anything then.

Bulgaria is at Afghanistan, the United States is at Germany, Hungary's not trying to pull the strings off. England has placed an order for 100,000 British Bombs and mustard gas. France has only eyes on the Baltic Sea and one eye on the Arctic circle. America has lost over 100,000 men in raising her with the price of life; her drops in the Sudans. Germany's got the potash corridor, and that little-known "41/2" is a real dropkick. Only Alaska is at peace with the world, and the only reason for that is King Zog has quit.

Baseball, hellish all season, was made hellbanger (pro) now, and the last straw was the day when the Washington Senators and the New York Yankees came to blows all in the shadow of the World's Fair capital. In the battle, compared by one man who saw it, to Marathon, left the following statement:

President Roosevelt, Jr., Mayor John Patrick O'Brien, Ben Chapman, Eddie Murphy, Peter, Dan O'Leary, Joe McCarthy, Joe Cronin, Walter Brown, Mr. Coffey, 123 of the Wash. Legion, and 123 of the Senators, he added; Griffith, stadium, vs. Yankee stadium and Unions, Morrissey, as Umpire. Mystery, Acc-

Mority vs. White Sox first string, were forced to play neutral, it is not known.

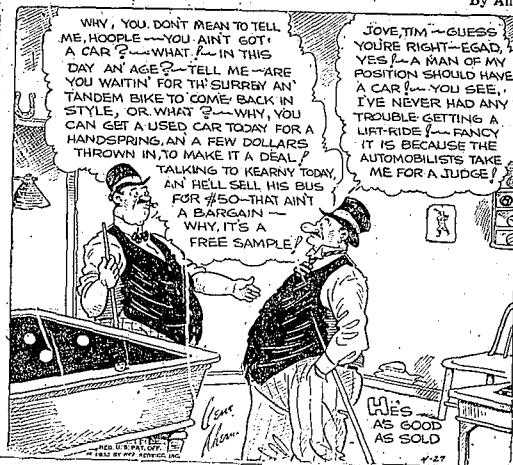

The fight, despite its far-reaching effects on international unity and morale, was bright and colorful largely due to one player casting suspicion on another's immediate family, who claimed that was the secret. It was, however, a lesson that, once again, the triple hyphenated exploit is a throw-up.

Another interesting fact is that between the Phillips and the Hollies, the Phillips had more than the Hollies. The Hollies have 10 and Bartell on two counts. He put Joe Jones out of commission with a neatly placed right hook to the head. Letty O'Donnell up on the highspins, reports has it that the Hollies are on Bartell at the first opportunity. Bartell is also the one with the double whammie—into Rita's 200-pound body.

MISSING PERSONALITY, FINGERED
IN MURKIN. Wash., April 26.—Church music must have brought out the best in Cliff Arrell—still, he has just served 10 days awaiting trial on an assault charge. After church hymns had started, he asked for a court hearing. His right Judge Ture that he wanted to remain in service to the country. He was sentenced to three years in the postonary.

Hildebrand of Cleveland allows Browns but One Hit, And Wins 2 to 0

NEW YORK, April 27 (UPI)—Sheepdog away baseball, mostly of slingers with a taste for pitching, the strong-armed batters of both major leagues have taken command of the diamond and now turn to shift the national shrine from home plate to the mound.

After the first hour of today, this trend of the dingers seems to be attack off the shuckles clamped on a dead-set uses when the midgets are out and the mounds are loaded with trick deliveries.

LOW RIF Games
Apparently gathering power, the pitchers yesterday turned in two hits, one each, and a series of performances. These tests gave the first half hour of competition the record for the most hits in a day, eight 2-hits, eleven 1-hits, eighteen 3-hits, eleven 4-hits. The airtight no-hits dashes anything approaching records for the past decade.

Local Hildebrand of Cleveland induced the Browns with a fine single to win.

Lerry Parmenter of the Giants won the Phillips to one hit, over Cartel, of Brooklyn who had won four hits.

Johnny Moore, of Cincinnati whose strike with the bases loaded in the ninth drove in the winning hit.

Les Durocher of Cincinnati who had a perfect day at bat with a double, two singles and a walk.

DETROIT, April 27 (UPI)—The only city in the United States with two national amateur boxing championships is Toledo.

The strong young fighters from the "windy city" and a Cleveland youth who had the midwest three weeks ago, were the chief stars at the Toledo area last night in the eastern elite of Interstate, Boston, Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, and Toledo, with the latter off to a flying start.

Here are the 1933 champions: 112-pounds—Tony Valore, an 18-year-old Cleveland, O., entry who had the best record in the tournament and whose name has been mentioned for the national title.

To Congress resolutions asking to deal with war debts and reparations in advance of the economic conference to facilitate negotiations. The resolutions, it is said, would have been introduced in the Senate but were not introduced.

It was further emphasized in the present House that the administration had not yet decided whether to go to war debts with either Prime Minister MacDonald or President Franklin D. Roosevelt, but had chosen to wait until after the economic conference to determine what course to follow.

War debts, however, may be forced upon the United States by the world economic conference scheduled to open June 12 in London.

The administration, it was said, is in a difficult position before the economic conference.

BETTER DAYS HERE AGAIN

That the business tide has turned, and that "better days are here again," is the firm conviction of 90.7 per cent of 29,500 average Americans whose opinions were collected by a national magazine in more than 100 cities and towns throughout the United States.

The question asked in each case was: "Do you feel more certain of recovery than you did before the banking holiday?" An affirmative answer was returned by 26,738 of those interviewed.

Other questions asked were designed to show the attitude of the people toward giving President Roosevelt greater power to deal with unemployment, the farm problem, reduction of governmental costs, and other critical problems. The survey showed that up ward of 90 per cent of the people, regardless of party affiliation, favor giving the president the needed authority.

That the test represents a fair cross section of national opinion is affirmed by J. David House, economist in charge. "Although the number of people interviewed is comparatively small in relation to the population of the country," he states, "statistical experience shows that expanding the numbers would not alter the results, and that they are a fair sample of national public opinion."

Summing up the reasons for national optimism at the present time, William L. Cheney, editor of the magazine says:

"Measured by anything we have known during the last year and more, this coming September will be a prosperous month. In the annals of this depression we even now can reasonably forecast that the autumn of this 1933 will be remembered as the happy season of good times."

"In making this estimate we do not have to rely upon cheap optimism. The soundest and most substantial reasons stand behind this conclusion."

"Various and widespread as have been the evil symptoms of this depression, it is true that we have suffered nothing which a moderate and continued rise in prices would not cure. Look wherever you will and this is true. Falling prices without capacity to buy and to consume."

"Calling prices, however, were a result, not a cause."

Our present solid expectations are built on the judgment that at last the causes which forced prices downward have been overcome and that at this moment the currents are flowing in the opposite direction.

"Of the fact that confidence has returned in this country there is not the slightest doubt. Confidence is intangible but, in the long run, invincible. It is the sum of the beliefs, feelings and judgments of a hundred million people. The change in popular sentiment during March was almost miraculously. Nothing comparable has happened within the memory of living men. More than that, this new confidence rests on solid foundation."

LOOKING BEYOND THE HORIZON

There is abroad in the land these days a peculiar kind of excitement.

It is an excitement that arises from expectation more than from actual accomplishment. Many things have been done in Washington recently, but even more remains to be done. Unemployment, low commodity prices, frozen bank assets—these things are still to be remedied; and the job of setting them right is going to be one of almost incalculable difficulty.

Nevertheless, a start has been made, and there is a hopeful expectancy in the air. Perhaps the most important thing that has happened in the last month is the fact that America once more is picking up its old faith in the future.

And it is precisely that fact which puts on the administration and on Congress the heaviest responsibility any American government could be asked to face.

There is a faith that can move mountains, as well as individuals. During the disasters of the last few years we lost that faith. Now we are regaining it; and the main job of the people at Washington is to see that, having regained it, we are henceforth able to keep it. We cannot stand one more disillusionment.

The faith itself is as old as the nation.

It crossed the ocean in the holds of a thousand immigrant ships; it struggled over the mountains, filled up the plains, felled forests and settled wildernesses; it made the very name, America, shine like a good beacon before the eyes of the people of the world.

Define it? It is that deep and unspoken confidence that in this land we are hitting upon a new way of ordering human society—a way which is to mean a better life for the ordinary man and woman, so that all people may have a chance for freedom, happiness and plenty. That faith is our most valuable possession; if we ever really lose it so that we cannot get it back, we shall have lost everything.

The undercurrent of excitement today signifies a rebirth of that faith. We are looking beyond the horizon again and seeing great things. Once more we are willing to believe that America shall yet live up to the dreams that brought it to birth.
