

Weather Forecast

Unsettled. Cooler. High and low temperatures for the 24-hour period ending Monday at 6 p.m. were 62 and 58. Last night's low, 56.

EVENING Idaho Times

TWIN FALLS

A Regional Newspaper Serving Six Irrigated Counties in Idaho

Today's News
TODAY

VOL. XVI. NO. 19 — 5 CENTS

Full 8 Hour Licensed Nice Times

TWIN FALLS, IDAHO, TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1933

Member of Audit Bureau of

Circulation OFFICIAL COUNTY NEWSPAPER

Southern Tornadoes Snuff Out 44 Lives; Property Loss Great

SHERIFF'S REPORT. La., May 2 (UPI)—Tornadoes which swept through Louisiana, Arkansas and Missouri late yesterday almost destroyed one town and took a total toll of lives which was estimated today at 44 as reports from isolated communities were received.

The town of Minden in northeastern Louisiana bore the brunt of the storm. Deaths in Minden and the state which were placed at 35, but it was feared a further search of wreckage might yield more bodies.

The storm which wrecked Minden appeared first near Minden, Ark., and then followed the Mississippi River. It did minor damage in Magnolia and swept through Calhoun, a few miles west of Minden. Then it moved into Louisiana and through Minden, wiping out a section of residence section and destroying a bridge over the river, some 20 miles east, next reported.

Homes Are Destroyed

A large number of homes were destroyed along the northern Arkansas-Missouri border, wrecking 14 homes between West Plains, Mo., and El Dorado, Ark.

The dead by towns:

Minden 35

Calhoun 1

Arcadia 1

Salem 1

Several hundred persons were reported missing, many seriously injured. Damage to crops and farms was heavy. Most of the victims were Negroes.

Conditions resulting from communications made relief work difficult in the hard hit Minden area.

Describes Disaster. C. H. Johnson, a man of Boston, who drove through Minden a few minutes after the storm ended, told of the wreckage he saw.

"The west," he said, "Everything is gone."

A rural supervisor, who left his car and sought shelter with a farmer, was asked if the wind had been worse than that of the 1928 hurricane in Florida, which killed 2,000 people.

Arnold and Minden were "covered with debris" after the storm.

The Louisiana and Arkansas border areas were reported unbroken. It was the residential section, however, which suffered.

Company E, the national guard, was sent to Minden to maintain order. Surgeons and nurses also were sent from Shreveport.

Arnold and Minden were "covered with debris" after the storm.

The Louisiana and Arkansas border areas were reported unbroken. It was the residential section, however, which suffered.

Company E, the national guard, was sent to Minden to maintain order. Surgeons and nurses also were sent from Shreveport.

The six dead at Calhoun were Claude Seal and members of his family.

At Salem, Ed Cain, a Mrs. Cain and two others were the victims. Skinner with 43, and his three children were seriously injured.

Bonus Army Lays Plans

CHICAGO, May 2 (UPI)—An unusual meeting of the Bonus Army's Ex-Servicemen League gathered here today for a second bonus army march to Washington.

The group will leave Saturday morning, another group said to leave Sunday, 200 will join the Chicago marchers.

POWER INDUSTRY OPPOSED TO TAX.

WASHINGTON, May 2 (UPI)—The power industry opposed to the Senate finance committee today a fight to avoid a 3 percent tax on industrial consumers.

Organized Labor Being Har- monized with Present Nazi Government

BERLIN, May 2 (UPI)—Nazis, troops descended upon the offices of trade unions throughout Germany today. They arrested the leaders of each union and charged them.

The Nazis were in charge of Robert Ley, Nazi master of the Hitler Youth.

The Nazis, who announced that organized labor must be "harmonized" with the Nazi regime,

The unions henceforth will function under the guidance of a Nazi government.

Among the arrested labor leaders was Rudolf Wissel, Socialist, formerly chairman of the Berlin Trades Council.

Leaders of the Trade Union Federation were taken to a Nazi prison.

An official announcement said they

HOUSE RECEIVES SUPPLY MEASURE

Committee Favorably Reports Bill Domestically, Lowering Expenditures

WASHINGTON, May 2 (UPI)—The independent supply committee will carry on governmental savings and economy measures for the President to effect further economies was reported favorably on the House floor yesterday.

The measure, providing funds for operation of some state governments, was introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, and Chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations.

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmental retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

New 'Army' Threatens Bonus March

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

and the cost of living, was introduced to include a resolution of

(Continued on Page Three)

With four thousand veterans already reported in Washington as en route to the nation's capital for a bonus march, the measure has created a new threat of a civil disturbance.

It is the third bill introduced by Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mississippi, to increase the amount of money available for the

President's budget.

Forecasting still further governmen-

tal retrenchment, the new

measure grants authority to the President to cancel government contracts, reduce army and navy personnel, retire veteran employees and, if necessary, affect

by economy legislation, and even

reduce the size of the armed forces.

The bill, which came in legislative form originally asked by

Rep. John E. Rankin, of Mis-

sissippi, and its articles

expanding veterans' costs, letter

<div data-bbox="264 2132 484 2145" data-label="Text

