United States Attorney Tells Court Banker Made No Transfers

MORGAN HANDLED DEAL

Medalle Attacks Salary Given Defendant by National City Company

NEW YORK, May 16 (UP)—The stock which Charles E. Mitchell sold to evade income taxes "net losses" for income tax purposes, actually was held by J. P. Morgan Co. security department, a loan of $5,000,000, U. S. Attorney George W. Mitchell today said at the banker's trial on charges of evading his income taxes in 1927 and 1928.

Taking the jury through an intricate maze of financial detail whereby Mitchell escaped payment of $350,000, Medalle charged that the former National City bank chief "never made an actual sale and never received a penny for it."

No Money Passed

1. That no money passed between Mitchell and his wife in the sale of the stock to the National City bank stock, late in 1927.

2. That Mitchell continued to receive dividends on the stock.

3. That Mitchell continued to pay interest to the Morgan firm on the loan for which this stock was collateral.

4. That a transaction by which Mitchell sold $500 shares of American Copper to W. D. Thornton, his friend, also was engineered through the Morgan firm, and the stock never was actually sold to Thornton.

Roosevelt Urges All Nations to Refrain From Warlike Moves

Addresses Historic Request to 54 Countries

HIGHLIGHTS

WASHINGTON, May 16 (UP)—Highlights of President Roosevelt's address to the nations: "I believe that the overwhelming majority of people feel obligated to prohibit the manufacture of offensive arms because they fear some act of aggression against them and not because they themselves seek to aggressors. There is justification for this fear."

"If all the nations will agree to eliminate from possession and use the weapons which make possible a successful attack, defense automatically will be made impracticable, and the frontiers of peace and justice will be secure."

The ultimate objective of the disarmament conference must be the elimination of all offensive weapons. The immediate objective is to bring about the elimination of some of these weapons and the elimination of many others.

But the peace of the world must be assured during the whole period of disarmament and the nations of the world should enter into a definite pact of non-aggression.

The world economic conference will meet soon and make its contribution to the peace of the world. It cannot avoid deliberations drawn out.

The disarmament conference has labored for more than a year. Confused purposes and divergent opinions of the nations of the world should enter into a definite pact of non-aggression.

Councilmen Approve New Milk Grading Ordinance

Measure to Become Enforced After Conference

No Gas, and Bill Signed With Relief

TWIN FALLS, May 16 (UP)—Twin Falls' first milk grading ordinance was notified by the city council for the second time last night, and was ordered published.

The ordinance will become effective upon publication, which will take place within a few days but will not be enforced until after a conference among Dr. J. R. Hood, City Attorney George A. Paulson, and local dairymen.

Principal features of the measure are provisions requiring that fresh milk sold within the city must be graded according to quality, specifying grades for pasteurized milk, and prescribing the equipment for such milk.

The ordinance was first adopted two months ago by the former council, but its publication was held up on account of the election then approaching. J. E. White, who at the time was in charge of the meat and dairy inspection department, explained that the ordinance should have the wholehearted support of the new administration and consideration was postponed until now, permitting the new mayor and council to become familiar with its provisions.

FREING THE FILIPINOS
 Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo, famous Filipino insurrectionist leader of a generation ago, is in Washington to urge enactment of a new Philippine independence bill. His trip emphasizes the fact that the bill passed by the last Congress seems to be satisfactory to nobody and needs a good deal of revision.

The independence which that law grants is neither flesh, fowl nor good red herring. It sets the Filipinos free but keeps them in leading strings that makes their freedom a sham. It threatens to cripple their commerce, and it keeps the United States entangled in Far Eastern affairs. There is little in it to entangle it either to Filipino or American.

If we are going to set the islanders free—and incidentally, we promised to do so more than 30 years ago—we might as well make a clean job of it.

FRANCE'S WAR DEBT
 Senator Berenger of France, chairman of the Senate's Foreign Affairs Committee, remarked in the French Senate recently that his fellow countrymen ought not to count too much on getting substantial concessions from the United States government in regard to the war debts.

President Roosevelt, he agreed, seems well-disposed—but there is still the American Congress to deal with; and he warned his hearers that "we don't want to repeat the experience we had with Wilson and Hoover."

That is probably fair enough, after all. If Presidents Wilson and Hoover could be questioned about it, they would probably say, quite fervently, that they didn't want to repeat the experience they had with France, either.

NEW SOCIAL ORDER EMERGING
 Slowly but steadily the pieces of that gigantic jigsaw puzzle at Washington are falling into place; and as they do it begins to be possible to get an idea of what the outlines of our new society are going to be like.

Those words, "new society," do not go beyond the facts. Almost without realizing it, we have swung off from our old course at something like a right angle. If we have not swung nearly as far as some radical leaders would like, we have certainly swung a great deal farther than anyone thought possible as recently as six months ago.

Whether we like it or not, we seem to have put rugged individualism in the grave and patted the earth down smooth. We are switching from an unrestricted capitalism to a controlled economy. The social responsibilities of the men who employ labor and control money and guide industrial and agricultural production are in the process of getting written into law.

That means a change as tremendous as any that has come to us since we won our independence from Great Britain.

It means that American soil will no longer nurture the picturesque and reckless autoerats of the past—the Jim Fiskes, the Jay Goulds, the Bet-a-Million Gates and the Sam Insults. Such industrial wars as the ones Andrew Carnegie waged, such financial battles as the Hill-Burman struggle early in this century, are out of the picture henceforth. A closely integrated and infinitely complex society like ours simply cannot stand them.

Such things are inevitable in a society resting on a capitalism in which the profit motive is the only thing that lights the fires under the boilers. Unrestricted capitalism cannot operate in any other way.

If we now are demanding that the welfare of the nation as a whole be taken into account from top to bottom of the business and financial structure—which is precisely what the developing program at Washington amounts to—we are not going radical; we are merely trying to adapt capitalism to the requirements of modern society.

There lies today's great opportunity. This country, first to prove that democratic government could work, now has the chance to prove that the escape from the evils of capitalism need not lie in a revolutionary repudiation of capitalism or in a revolutionary repudiation of democracy.

If love is really what makes the world go 'round, perhaps that's why so many of the young folks are dizzy at this time of year.

Latest figures indicate that $11,000,000,000 of the $22,000,000,000 in gold mined since 1492 cannot be located. People are so careless!

Ole to a Nag. Oh, horse, you are a wondrous thing, no human to be like, no bells to ring, no leashes, having every year with planks to stick on front and rear. No spurs, no reins, no girths to straggle, you stand yourself up, you are a noble, you are mounting every day to steal the joy of life away. Your inner tubes are all okay—and thank the Lord they stay that way. Your spurs jingle never miss a beat, your mouth never makes us cross, you are a good, you are a noble, you are a body never changes style. Your yards are low and easy, you may have something on the auto, yet—Manly.

If love is really what makes the world go 'round, perhaps that's why so many of the young folks are dizzy at this time of year.

Latest figures indicate that $11,000,000,000 of the $22,000,000,000 in gold mined since 1492 cannot be located. People are so careless!

Ole to a Nag. Oh, horse, you are a wondrous thing, no human to be like, no bells to ring, no leashes, having every year with planks to stick on front and rear. No spurs, no reins, no girths to straggle, you stand yourself up, you are a noble, you are mounting every day to steal the joy of life away. Your inner tubes are all okay—and thank the Lord they stay that way. Your spurs jingle never miss a beat, your mouth never makes us cross, you are a good, you are a noble, you are a body never changes style. Your yards are low and easy, you may have something on the auto, yet—Manly.

KITCHEN DUTIES ARE NOW EASIER

Factors, Gamers and Others Leading Helpful Hand to Modern Housewife

Housewife, a generation ago, used to spend so many hours in the kitchen that sometimes they would sit down to dinner too tired to enjoy it. Nowadays, the woman who does all her own work has far less drudgery than did her mother. By using the products now on the market, the packers and others who offer delicacies for the table, she can prepare the tables and still feel her family well balanced meals.

Not only has kitchen labor been reduced by modern inventions and developments, but today the progress has been made in improving the digestibility of foods and this in particular has a bearing on the health, as will be demonstrated by Miss Helen E. Green at the Sweeney Store Cooking School, opening tomorrow under the auspices of the Sweeney Store, Inc., Home-Makers' Bureau. Miss Green will use Silvestro's brand, the newly tested softening made by Swift & Company, because she also found that it gives pieces which are soft and hot breads far more tender than any other widely used type of shortening.

The modern housewife or chef makes a shortening which produces perfect pie crust, tender and delicious, which is easy to digest.

INDIANS USED ANAESTHETICS

Central American Tribes Had Them Long Before Time Of Columbus

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 16.—Indians in Central America used an anesthetic long before Columbus made his voyage of discovery, and were acquainted with the fundamentals of mathematics long before whether first learned them, according to Gregory Mason, explorer and archaeologist.

"How many Americans realize?" Mason asked, "that the Totem built a pyramid three times as great in bulk as the biggest in Egypt, that the Peruvians made scientific finer than any of Europe, and that the Mayans invented zero 600 years before the Hindu—which means that the Mayans were able to multiply and divide 1,000 years before Europeans could."

The red-skinned natives of Yucatan, whom Cortez called "Aztecs," were better astronomers than the Europeans, and had a calendar far more accurate than the one Columbus was using and in some ways even superior to the one we use today.

Volcano Luring Men To Death At Tokio

INVENTION AIDS STUDY OF STARS

Power of Microscope by Four Times

ALBANY, N. Y., May 16.—An electrical attachment for astronomical telescopes that increases the power of the telescope four times, permitting study of fainter and more distant stars has been invented by a young University of Wisconsin scientist—the son of Dr. Albert E. Whitford, professor of higher mathematics in Alfred University. Dr. Whitford revealed that his son, Albert E. Whitford, Jr., 27, used the photo-electric cell in his device—a cell which scientists have been trying to use in connection with astronomical telescopes for years. Dr. Whitford calls his invention the photo-electric photometer for stars.

IDAHO WHEAT IS BELOW AVERAGE

Production of Winter Grain Comes to 4,000,000 Bushels Less

HOUSTON.—Production of winter wheat in Idaho is estimated at 2,902,000 bushels based on a May 15 condition of 69 per cent of normal which indicates a yield about 15 bushels per acre on 427,000 acres remaining for harvest. In 1932, production was 34,096,000 bushels and the 1928-1929 average was 12,987,000 bushels.

Of the 787,000 acres planted to winter wheat last fall in Idaho, it is estimated that 120,000 acres or 15 per cent was winter-killed. This is the heaviest average abandonment on record and exceeds that of 1924 when 15 per cent was lost.

Hay stocks larger.—The amount of hay on farms May 1, 1933, held over from the 1932 crop totals 230,000 tons in comparison with 242,000 tons May 1, 1932, and 174,000 tons, less 102,100 tons average.

The late spring has greatly retarded growth of this year's hay crop. There is 15 per cent of considerable winter killing of alfalfa, especially old fields in western and northern counties.

HAZELTON WINS.—Hazelton defeated Rupert here Sunday-8 to 6—in the opening game of the Southern Idaho baseball league. Sparta of heavy slugger, marked the hit, although both hurlers did excellent work on the mound. Burley plays here May 21.

MOVIE PROPERTY MEN ARE UNIQUE

They Devote All Manner of Unusual Gadgets for Motion Pictures

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Movie-land's inventors are the unknown property men.—"Almost daily they are called upon to design strange gadgets for use in pictures. Sometimes they are replicas of things actually in existence. Again they might be purely imaginative creations. Regardless, the prop men must deliver."

"Nor can we just throw things together," says one who will probably explain Bob Arthur, foreman of the Paramount prop department. "Everything we build must look plausible, even though no such instrument actually exists. In almost every instance there is apt to be one or more people with some instrument actually existing to them, they kick about the picture."

The Marx Brothers picture always call for a good deal of ingenious work on the part of the prop men. The mid-Marx scene much of the action in their films on strange contrivances.

"There was a perfect example of that in 'Horace antlers.'" At one time Harold reminded, "you can't burn a candle at both ends"—whereupon Harpo produced from beneath his coat a candle which was burning at both ends. The prop department had to figure out how Harpo could carry the lighted candle without burning either himself or his clothes. It was accomplished by fastening an improvised cylinder inside of his coat. This candle was carried in that way.

SCULPTURAL ART PUT ON DISPLAY

Philadelphia Exposition Has Examples of Many Varied Types

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An international exhibition of sculpture is opened on the terraces and in the Great Stair Hall of the Pennsylvania Museum of Art on the University.

Not only the outstanding figures in American sculpture, but leaders in the art from Russia, Germany, Britain, Spain and Roumania have contributed to what is expected to be one of the most significant shows of the year in the east.

Bronze, stone and plaster work in the traditional mood and creations in the "advanced" school are shown with absolute equality.

The show is under the direction of the Fairmount Park Art Association, which is co-operating with the Philadelphia Art Alliance and the Pennsylvania Museum.

Sculptural pieces executed for New York's Radio City for the Century of Progress Exhibition in Chicago; for the Folger Shakespearean Library in Washington; and for the Roger Kennedy Memorial at Worcester, Mass., are included in the display.

The cabinet at Toledo, Spain, has a sacramental shrine 12 feet high embellished with 200 statuettes of gold. The largest of those statuettes was made from gold which Columbus took to Spain from his first voyage of discovery.

ALL-ELECTRIC KITCHEN

Today, in more than 15,000 homes of customers served by Idaho Power Company, women are now cooking with a modern heat that has no flame! At the snap of a switch flows heat that is as clean as electric light.

Most women worship cleanliness, that's the reason electric cooking, day by day, is winning new friends and users. No smoke, no soot, no grease, no odors come from electric cooking. It keeps your kitchen walls shining and your curtains spotless.

It is automatic, ends "pot-watching," frees women from numberless household tasks and gives them time for other things.

See the beautiful new models on display at your Electric Range Dealer's showroom and judge for yourself what modern electric cookery means to the modern homemaker.
