HITLER DEMANDS UNITY

Seeks Sweeping Approval for Assumption of Supreme National Power

By FREDERIC W. ORCHINER, Staff Writer. Aug. 18 (UPI)—Hitler prepared today to demonstrate the ultimate of faith in his vaccine to stop the spread of infantile paralysis.

The Temple University professor of medicine and Institute of Cutaneous Medicine research director said he intended to inject the diphylid virus of the scourge of childhood, into the systems of his two children.

They are boys, 11 and 18.

Dr. Kohler announced a successful method of vaccination against infantile paralysis after two years of experimentation with monkeys. Both he and his technical assistant, Anna M. Rule, submitted to inoculation two months ago. The inoculation produced no ill effects.

Dr. Kohler stressed the fact that the vaccine is a preventive measure and not cure for infantile paralysis after infection takes hold. Immunity, he indicated, should last for life.

F. D. R. DECREES JOHNSON STICKS

President Flatly Tells NRA: Chieftain He Must Remain With Administration

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (UPI)—President Roosevelt, today, flatly informed General Hugh S. Johnson he must remain with the NRA and the administration.

Johnson revealed the attitude of Mr. Roosevelt upon leaving the White House, where in an hour's conference he discussed generally the proposed reorganization of the NRA.

"The president told me I could not get away from the NRA or the administration," Johnson said. "He wants me right here with my feet nailed down on the floor."

"And, of course, I'm staying."

The recovery administrator indicated that Monday he would have further information to give out concerning the reorganization of the NRA, the plan for which he said was "coming right along."

Probable Chairman

Johnson's continuance at NRA probably means he will head the administrative board, which he believes should now be placed in charge of the recovery unit.

Johnson contends the NRA has developed now to a point where one-man dominance is impossible and that it should be conducted similarly to a large corporation, with a board of directors determining policies and with a chairman to put them into effect.

According to previous indications, after Mr. Roosevelt's insistence, that Johnson remain, the latter will act as that chairman.

10 SELECTED IN QUEEN CONTEST

Survive Elimination in Move For Choice of Feminine Ruler at Pete

Ten candidates for queen of the Junior Chamber of Commerce's Magic Jubilee were selected last evening at the Idaho theater from the 10 who appeared. These 10 will appear at the Roxy theater next Friday night for the preliminary elimination in which six girls will be chosen. The following Friday, Aug. 31, at the Orpheum theater, the queen will be chosen from the six, and the other five will be asked to serve as her attendants.

Successful Candidates

Last night's successful candidates and their sponsors are: Dorothy Creas, J. C. Penney company; Harriet Duvall, Twin Falls Kiwanis club; Dorothy Doss, Business and Professional Women's club; Ellen Haddock, Van Engen-Hood; Frances Wilson, C. C. Anderson; Rose Beckwith, Twin Falls American Legion; Dorothy Cistrelli, Twin Falls Mutual Improvement Association; Dorothy Euer, Shoshone Rotary club; Eleanor Spink, First Kiwanis club; Minnie Felt, Bohr Kiwanis club.

Bob H. Warner presided at the contest, and three impartial out-of-town judges selected the winners. Lloyd Collier, queen contest manager, and Vay Hudson, junior chamber secretary, escorted contestants to the stage.

Wood Given Post As Drought Chief

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 18 (UPI)—R. J. Wood of Weiser has been appointed by Governor C. Ben Ross to take over the position of state drought relief director.

J. P. Masterson, former director, relinquished the post to the governor yesterday. It has been acting in this position for approximately two months.

Masterson gave as his reason that he did not have the proper operation from some of the workers under him.

Suitor Throws Acid In Woman's Eyes

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 18 (UPI)—Miss Maebelle Shaw, 21, mother of a 7-year-old boy, was faced with blindness today after a spurned suitor had dashed acid in her eyes.

A sister, Miss Eva Brewer, 21, was severely burned by acid. A third sister, Miss Constance Brewer, 17, witnessed the attack.

HEAT WAVE PUTS DEATH RATES UP

Summer Mortality in Midwest Rises 10 to 300 Per Cent, Survey Indicates

(Copyright, 1934, United Press)

A death toll from 10 to 300 per cent higher than normal for the month of July was reported by health authorities in the mid-western states, and registered temperature records for 35 years, according to coroners' reports in the United States in the affected area.

In Chicago triple the usual number of deaths directly attributable to high temperatures were reported.

In addition to this loss of life, was pointed out, the death toll from drowning was mounted, owing to the weakened condition of all classes of humans, from the very old to the very young. Babies and elderly people who might have survived the summer were victims of the heat.

St. Paul: Eighty.

The death rate in St. Paul rose during July from a normal 58 per hundred thousand to 78 per hundred thousand.

Similar conditions were reported throughout Indiana, while in Missouri and Kansas the number of deaths was almost double that of 4 normal months.

Of various states reporting, only Illinois, the home of the heat wave, registered a

GENEVA, Aug. 18 (UPI)—Continuation of the boycott of German goods, which has seriously affected commerce of the Nazi republic, is expected to be voted by the World Jewish Conference, which meets Monday for a four-day conference with 24 nations represented.

As a result, Miss Eva Brewer, 21, was severely burned by acid.

A third sister, Miss Constance Brewer, 17, witnessed the attack.

CANADA PRESSES KIDNAPING CLUES

Arrests of Labatt Abductors Expected in 36 Hours As Trail Warms

Labatt was said to be suffering from nervous exhaustion and was in bed. He has a weak heart, which his physician said was unaffected.

Held "Chesler."

In Toronto, police held Edward Clark, 25, whom they said confessed to an attempt to extort $6,000 from Hugh Labatt, who played a prominent part in the frenzied developments that resulted in Labatt's release. Authorities had convinced him he was a "chessie" attempting to collect some portion of the $150,000 Hugh Labatt had in his Toronto bank to ransom his brother. He was responsible for three telephone calls to Labatt that gave direction for payment, police said.

Police were known to have valuable clues to the snatches. One was a finger-print taken from the automobile which Labatt was driving when he was kidnapped Tuesday between his summer home at Barrie Beach and London.

Compare Fingerprints

This print was being compared with those of known American kidnapers, including Alvin Karpis, Arthur and Fred Barker, three of the most desperately hunted criminals in the United States, who are charged with the abduction of Edward Bremer, St. Paul brewer. They also were being compared with John and Francis Gey and Peter Gey, snappers in the kidnapping of John J. O'Connell, Jr., of Albany, N. Y.

Labatt was the first person kidnapped for ransom in the history of Canada.

Three in Gang

Arthur Rosebuck, attorney general of Ontario province, said Labatt told him he was kidnapped by three men, two of whom were armed and overpowered him, while the third, with adhesive plaster, had his eyes driven for 12 hours to a hide-out. Thursday night, he was driven six hours and turned loose on the outskirts of Toronto. He went immediately to the Royal York hotel there, then he and his brother drove here. Rosebuck said Labatt had no idea where he was hidden.

NOTE THREATENS RICH DISTILLER

New Canadian Kidnap Attempt Looms in Message Sent Wealthy Sportsman*

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 18 (UPI)—A second Canadian kidnaping was threatened today after the solution of the John B. Labatt case, when Harry C. Hatch, head of Canada's brewing industry, received a note threatening him with abduction.

Hatch was immediately informed of the note, despite a threat of bodily harm contained in the message.

Text of the letter, which was delivered through the mail to Hatch's office in Toronto, was not made public.

Hatch, head of the Hiram Walker and Gooderham and Worts, Ltd., distilleries, which are among Canada's largest whiskey manufacturers.

Suspect Labatt Gang

The new kidnap threat was credited directly to the fact that the gang which abducted John B. Labatt, London, Ont., brewer, was still at large.

No amount of money was mentioned in the letter to Hatch it was reported.

Hatch is probably one of the wealthiest brewers in Canada. He is a prominent sportsman and owns a yacht and a race horse stable.

JUMPER CHEATS DEATH

CINCINNATI, Ohio—Ralph (Cowboy) Lepore, parachutist jumper, narrowly escaped death at Hugh Watson airport when his reserve chute became tangled in the regular one on which he had depended. Lepore managed to fold the reserve chute under his arm in time to allow the regular one to open partially 600 feet above the ground. He had dropped 2,000 feet before pulling the chord. He recovered a sprained ankle and scratches.

BRITONS ELIMINATED IN U. S. WOMEN'S TENNIS TOURNEY

AMERICAN STARS BATTLED TODAY

Sarah Palfrey Plays Dorothy Andrus; Chapman Opposes Carolyn Babcock

FOREST HILLS: N.Y., Aug. 18 (UPI)—Helen Hull Jacobs of Berkeley, Calif., seeking her third consecutive title, and Sarah Palfrey of Brookline, Mass., today moved into the finals of the national women's tennis championship. Miss Jacobs, beaten the first by eliminating her fellow Californian, Carolyn Babcock of Los Angeles, 6-4, 6-3, in the other semi-final, Miss Palfrey defeated Mrs. Dorothy Andrus of Stamford, Conn., 6-3, 6-4.

BY STUART CAMERON
United Press Sports Editor
FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Aug. 18 (UPI)—It took the American players five days to get rid of the overseas threat and today the United States contingent had their own national women's tennis championships all to themselves.

LITTLE Sarah Palfrey played tall and down-right like a pro yesterday in the upper semifinal today while the doofus Helen Hull Jacobs, the champion who after her third straight title, played winningly well.

With plenty of seating facilities at Linwood field, the opener at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday is expected to draw a capacity crowd.

Donkey' Clash Will Offer Fun For Sport Fans

Plenty of hilarity for spectators and no small amount of grit for Speer's and Fletcher's soft ball teams will be offered sports fans Tuesday evening at Linwood field.

Occasion: First of the "donkey" soft ball games sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in pre-tournament benefit for the Magic City Jubilee. Speer's and Fletcher squads, possessed of sturdy spirits and adventurous inclinations, are to play the first game, with other teams in the Idaho Evening Times league also tentatively slated to play later games.

With plenty of seating facilities at Linwood field, the opener at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday is expected to draw a capacity crowd.

Here's How!

"There will be donkeys for each player, according to Junior Chamber officials, who had sent into Nevada to get the ball, clinched with the most less-than-dainty and attempt to throw out the batter, who in the meantime has hopped himself onto donkey-back and attempts to pilot his steed to first base."

If the上述 prove abutato, various and sundry events may, and probably will, occur. Spectators hope so.

Nominal admission charge of 25 cents for adults and 5 cents for children will go entirely to the Jubilee fund.

BURLEY, Aug. 18 (Special)—A bang-up clash is expected Sunday when Burley's baseball team meets its in a Southern Idaho league clash in the field where the first two rounds seemed all but unbeatable yesterday while eliminating the former Californian, Elizabeth Ryan of London.

There were three English players in the field when the quarterfinals were begun yesterday and none when they were completed. Miss Palfrey was forced to an extra set before putting out Fred James, one of the British stars, in yesterday's quarterfinals.

Helen Brillant

Miss Jacobs, largely selected as a probable also-ran before the tournament started, and a player who looked a good-bye cut below the rest of the field in the first two rounds, seemed all but unbeatable yesterday while eliminating the former Californian, Elizabeth Ryan of London.

There were three English players in the field when the quarterfinals were begun yesterday and none when they were completed. Miss Palfrey was forced to an extra set before putting out Fred James, one of the British stars, in yesterday's quarterfinals.

Doubles Today

Bomblins in doubles were also popular today. Finals are slated for doubles on Saturday afternoon for the final day's program. Fred Perry of England, No. 1 in world rankings, will play the brilliant Roderick Menzel of Czechoslovakia in an exhibition.

BAER PERFORMS FOR OGDEN FANS

Boxes Three Rounds, Sights to Romantic Moon, Grins at Girl Admirers

OGDEN, Utah, Aug. 18 (UPI)—Maxie Baer, heavyweight champion of the world, gave a show here last night for the education of intermediate fight fans and departed with the following net results:

1—Maxie failed to attend dinner given in his honor, disappointing some 700 juvenile admirers who had gathered to see him. 2—Sawed off his three opponents (one from each round) during the ring playfully; looked up at the moon between the second and third round, sighed and said: "Gosh, it's a swell night for romance."

3—Departed with an estimated $2,000 after being down less than five hours.

Baer's opponents were Del Baxter, Don Felt and Phil Tarzan, all local fighters. Tarzan entered the ring with the idea of planting one on the Baer chin. He did. Baer grimaced, promptly grabbed Tarzan down twice, helped up the second time, and sent him the moon between the second and third round, sighed and said: "Gosh, it's a swell night for romance."

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

The meteor that struck in North-Central Siberia represents the greatest meteoric fall in historic times. The area on all sides was deflected by the terrific wind wave that pushed along ahead of the falling body. Train, hundreds of miles away from the scene, stopped, tearing an earthquake wave in progress.

The proudest parents in the world, and the reasons for their pride . . . Olivia Dlonne, the father, left, no longer thinks they "ought to put him in jail." Mrs. Dlonne, now almost completely recovered from her ordeal, smiles broadly . . . while Oliver Dlonne, the grandfather, right, can scarcely restrain the proud smile that struggled to break out on his seamed face. . . . Even the family must wear sterilized surgical masks when inspecting the famed quintuplets.

TREASURY ASKS SILVER REPORTS

Holders of Bullion Ordered
To Turn in Statements
By Sept. 15

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (UPI)—The treasury department has announced new regulations on nationalized silver requiring all persons holding silver bullion to file reports by Sept. 15.

The treasury said the reports are required regardless of whether the silver is required to be surrendered.

It was explained that the ruling is to provide means for checking silver stocks in the country.

The regulations require also reports periodically of all persons acquiring or disposing of silver in the nation.

The treasury said that persons delivering nationalized silver to mintsmen on or before Sept. 1 are exempt from filing reports.

Death Had Loomed
For Byrd, Rescue
Messages Declare

LITTLE AMERICA, Anticenna, Aug. 18.—(Via Mackay Radio to United Press)—Fearing he faced slow death isolated in his hut 123 miles out on the Ross ice barrier in the blackness of the south polar winter night, Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd wrote letters to his family and friends, bidding them farewell messages from his quarters revealed.

Byrd conserves his strength as much as possible, after being poisoned by kerosene fumes collected off the food he could carry from his cache at the end of a tunnel in the snow, and settled down to keep him alive and wait for rescue.

It will take him a day to eat, the message showed, as his strength would permit him to eat only a little at a time. He lived on powdered milk, hydrated with melted snow; and canned corn, tomatoes, turnips, cereal and lemon powder. The lemon powder was taken to prevent scurvy. Occasionally Byrd ate some frozen seal meat or bear lying outside his hut.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Leaven-temper in all churches of Christ. Sabbath will be on the subject "Soul."

Golden Text is from Psalm 143:8: "Cause me to hear thy loving kindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust; cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee."

The following is one of the clitors from the Leaven-temper and will be read in the Bible.

"I will blow the Lord in all mine bones; my sin continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord; the humble shall hear thereof and be glad. The Lord redeemer the soul of his servants."
