OFFICIAL COUNTY NEWSPAPER

Drastic Fireproof Statutes Required, Probe Leader Says

Ships Need Greater Flame Safeguard Quiz Shows

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (UPI)—Dickeron N. Hoover, chairman of the federal board inquiring into the Morro Castle disaster, is convinced that legislation is necessary to compel fireproofing of passenger vessels in the superstructure as well as in the holds.

Before leaving for Washington last night to confer with his superiors in the department of commerce, Hoover said he would urge such legislation to apply to future construction.

Statutes Inadequate

Hoover pointed out that the Morro Castle, constructed in 1930 had met, and even exceeded, present fireproofing requirements but that he was convinced even greater precautions must be taken. The inquiry chairman said the investigation probably will run for at least another week, resuming Monday. Most of the future sessions he said, would be devoted to further questioning of crew and passengers, and particularly the steward directly in charge of the Morro Castle's writing room, where the disastrous fire was believed to have started.

To Scan Lifeboats

Some day next week, Hoover said, he planned to go to New Jersey to examine personally some of the lifeboat equipment which witnesses declared was faulty in certain respects.

The high-spots of yesterday's session were charges that lifeboats were equipped with air tanks almost rusted through; and that inflammable cleaning fluids, boarded by stevedores, and 200 gallons of volatile enamel paint cans that gutted the $6,000,000 liner and caused a loss of 137 passengers and crew a week ago.

Hoover, however, was no less sensational than those already spread on the record by the week's procession of witnesses. They told stories of dimensions in the crew of "hellions" and "cowards," or trapped and drowning passengers, of alleged inefficiency in handling of the emergency.

QUARRIES SUBPOENAED

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (UPI)—Federal Judge Alfred C. Cox today quashed the subpoenas which Ward, his attorney, would have been required to surrender to federal grand juries in the statements which they obtained from members of the crew and passengers of the burned liner Morro Castle.

Judge Cox held that these statements, obtained by Ward from survivors of the disaster, were private memoranda and should be regarded as the work papers of the lawyers.

CLUES SCANT IN CAPTAIN'S DEATH

Chemist Says Rumors of Foul Play on Fire Ship May Never Be Solved

NEW YORK, Sept. 15 (UPI)—Rumors concerning the sudden death of Captain Robert R. Williams of the Morro Castle seven hours before the tragic fire of his ship may never be definitely solved, it was indicated today by Dr. Alexander O. Gattar, city toxicologist, who is examining the captain's body. "I have a charged bone," Dr. Gattar said. "The tissues that enveloped the captain's body may have burned up any possible poison with the exception of three—lead, barium and thallium. I probably will not have a report ready until next Tuesday."

Ordered By U. S.

The chemical analysis was ordered by United States Attorney Martin Conboy of New York in his criminal inquiry into the disaster. Although there were no direct indications that Williams was able to act, but the indication was given by the ship's doctor, several passengers reported him dead when the captain was "murdered."

Officials of the United States steamboat inspection service, meanwhile, went to the United States Lines, sister ship of the Morro Castle, to check reports the helmsmen in the life boats had been overcome by smoke and had been unable to bring the ship to safety.

U. S. Threatens Penalties for Owners, Crew

Proving of Negligence in Fire On Death Ship Will Suggest Strict Action

PRISON TERMS POSSIBLE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (UPI)—Information purporting to link the burning of the liner Morro Castle with alleged Communist activities has been given to the department of justice for investigation, the United Press learned today.

It was reported the evidence was turned over to the department by Dickeron N. Hoover, chairman of the department of commerce inquiry into the disaster.

The purported evidence was understood to disclose alleged Communist activities bearing on the disaster and was reported to have come to Hoover's investigators from private sources.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15 (UPI)—Severe penalties and heavy damages may be invoked against officers, crew and owners of the Morro Castle if the disaster resulted from negligence, the department said.

The justice department is participating in the investigation of the catastrophe but the nature of its inquiries would not be revealed by J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the bureau of investigation.

Fines, Prison Terms

Officers and crew of the Morro Castle are liable to a fine of $10,000 and 10 years in prison (Continued on Page 2, Column 3)

Face Quiz in Ship Fire Disaster

First witness to face the federal board of inquiry into the fire that took 175 or more lives on the Morro Castle was Chief Officer William F. Warns, left, who became acting captain of the ill-fated craft just a few hours before the disaster when Capt. Robert E. Wilmatt died suddenly. Warns told the probe that the fire, in his opinion, was incendiary. Right, George Alagna, second radio officer on the Morro Castle, whose remark that "the real story" of the disaster has been hushed brought his arrest after testifying at the quiet. He is held for further questioning.

Juror's Hiccoughs Bring Ten Day Decree from Irate Judge

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (UPI)—John A. Morrison went to jail today for a 10-day term, having sat on a criminal court jury which convicted him of drunkenness.

The jury voted eleven to one for conviction.

Twelve good men and true, including Juror Morrison, retuned yesterday to deliberate the evidence against James H. McManus, charged with a $3,000 swindle.

Calls for Vote

The foreman called for a vote. There were nine responses of "guilty" and two for acquittal.

"And you, Mr. Morrison?" inquired the foreman.

"Guilty as the devil," responded Morrison.

"Ten days in jail," directed the judge. "And thank you, gentlemen."

BEANS CLIMB TO FOUR-YEAR HIGH

WILL ROGERS says:

Great Northern No. 1 Prices Soar to 20 Cent Boost Over Yesterday.

DOUGLASS

Another "sensational advance" in the local price on Great Northern beans featured today's developments, the highest level since 1930 having been reached from this afternoon with offers of $3.60 to $3.65 being made for No. 1 grade. This is a gain of 20 cents over yesterday's high level.

No. 2 grade, the market remaining at 10 cents less than for No. 1s, today's range locally being $3.60 to $3.65. Red beans advanced 10 cents today, reaching $3.60 to $3.65 for No. 2s. Pinto remained at the high of 35.75 a hundred.

Just what the developments will be over the week-end was problematical, with dealers unwilling to hazard a guess. A crop condition of recent origin in Michigan is believed responsible for the advance which has brought the market up from around $3 about two weeks ago.

Market Spiced

Following a temperature of 32 degrees this morning, which aided in ripening all crops, bean harvesting is proceeding at a more rapid rate than a week ago, and is expected to be at its height next week.

HAUTVILLERS, Marne, France (UPI)—A new club has been organized here with world-wide membership as the objective of the founders.

The official name of the club is "Friends of Dom Pérignon and Champagne." The only qualification necessary is a liking for the sparkling beverage which was perfected in the cellars of the ancient Abbey of Hautvillers 300 years ago by Dom Pérignon.

A commemorative festival in honor of the wise monk who conceived the idea of capturing the natural sparkle of champagne was recently celebrated that day.

LAWSON LITTLE CAPTURES NATIONAL AMATEUR TITLE

CRUSHES DALLAS ENTRY IN FINALS

Husky Stanford Graduate Adds U. S. Crown to British Championship

BY STUART CAMERON BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 15 (UPI)—Lawson Little, husky insurance salesman of San Francisco and holder of the British amateur title, today won the national amateur golf championship by beating David (Spec) Goldman, Dallas, last weeker, 8 and 7, in the scheduled 36-hole final.

This brilliant victory, resulting from superb driving and deadly approach shots, made Little the third man in golf history to win the British and American amateur titles in one year. Only Harold Milton of London, in 1930, and the great Bobby Jones, in 1930, accomplished the feat before Little.

Throughout the scrumble of 188 original entrants, the bulk-shouldered Stanford graduate smoothed his way for six days with "deadpan" concentration and assurance that indicated he would live up to the "favored" tag which the experts had hung on him in their pre-tournament predictions.

Little's victory won the most coveted one since Bobby Jones won under a like score at Merion in 1930.

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 15 (UPI)—Lawson Little of San Francisco, British amateur titleholder, held a lead of 5 up over David (Spec) Goldman of Dallas, Tex., today at the end of their morning round in the 36-hole final of the national amateur golf championship.

Goldman gave Little an earnest battle on the early holes and was only one down at the turn, but Little blazed home in 34, two strokes below par, to total 69 for the round, while Goldman needed 70 coming home.

Gulliver's Cheer:

Little sent the gullivers cheering on the home green after his approach just trickled onto the carpet and he was left with a 25-foot putt. Goldman needed three to get home. Little ran down his 26-foot putt for a birdie.

Goldman had a great birdie on the first hole, a magnificent approach leaving him with a 6-foot putt. But the match was squared at the second where Goldman drilled uphill in the rough, thusly taking four to get home.

Never in Doubt:

Goldman was never better than even after that. Goldman was even coming to the ninth tee, but put his second out of bounds and lost the hole with a 6 to a 4. Goldman sank a nice 20-foot putt for a birdie on the 12th. He lost the next hole when he trapped his second and they halved the next three.

Goldman pulled into the woods to go 4 down at the 17th, and was 2 down after Lawson's great birdie at 18th.

Little consistently outdrove Goldman, and approached more truly. Both players were bowering down for all they were worth. Goldman seemed to feel the strain deeply. He looked at though he hadn't slept a while but said "I got enough."

The smallest gallery in 25 years—1,500—saw the morning round.

Scribe Disappointed by Course for Famed Race

Can't View Anything But Water, Says Landlubber

BY HENRY McLEMORE

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 15 (UPI)—I do not wish to disillusion you prairie schooners so far out west, but the course over which Rainbow and Endeavour will sail today is the most disappointing race track I ever saw. It's nothing—just a lot of wet water, surrounded by a lot more wet water.

I went around it yesterday, to sort of familiarize myself with it, and today I couldn't tell you one—nobody from the next. There isn't any home stretch. There isn't any left field. There isn't much of a thing in a blossoming cockpit, or basketball basket.

Hard to Find: And if you think it's hard to find the Polo Grounds, just try to reach Brenton's reef and the starting mark of the American's cup races.

The nautical gent who took me around I picked up down by a wharf. He had a greasy little of motorboat with which it is in the fully equipped—and I might add, his fully bread—to eat out hunting the vicious swells.

Suddenly Captain Driggs shouted: "We're home!" I looked around me. "Where?" I said. "Here," he said.

"Here, 'where?'" I said. "Where in the hell are we?"

Cap's cap sat on his hands, took a rest in the trough, saw which way the nose lay on the mast. Then he took a quadrant, a sextant, and a clinometer, which happened to find in his ditty box.

"We're 4180 north and 2180 west," he said. "This is where Endeavour and Rainbow will take off."

"How long, cap'n?" sez I. "I will it take them to round the course?"

"About four or five hours, mebbe," he said.

"And how long will it take to run around it in your small—pardon, I mean in your luxurious shrimp boat?"

"About an hour," he said. "It's a smooth ride, and I'm in my boat right now. Once I did it in my boat when I was 14, back of a killer shrimp."

Cap, I said, "I think you're somethin' of a private

BIG TEN STARTS FOOTBALL DRILL

Minnesota Loons as Probable Winner; Michigan Headed For Hard Times

CHICAGO, Sept. 15 (UPI)—Big Ten gridiron camp opened today with some 600 football players entering training for the two month's campaign which starts Sept. 29.

Notre Dame also started preparation for a tough nine-game schedule under its new athletic director and coach, Elmer Layden.

After dominating the Big Ten for the last four years, Michigan appears to be on the decline. Coach Harry Kyle lost most of the key men of last year's championship team and will have to rebuild from the ground up.

Gophers Look Good:

Minnesota seems likely to be the chief contender for the title. Coach Bernie Blomquist has 17 letter men, a huge squad of 75 and an ideal conference schedule which does not include the Gophers to meet either Illinoian or Galt. Galt, 27, town has an strong squad in year.

Bob Zuppke, beginning his 22nd year as Illinois coach, is looking forward to a successful year. When Zuppke says "we'll be an strong team last year," that means Illinois will have something.

Purdue, lost heavily by graduation last year, is headed by grandfather Artie Kizer. Kizer has a big squad, and if the line in average the Balleymakers will be dangerous.

New Coaches:

Ohio State and Indiana will name under new coaches. Francis Schmidt, formerly of Texas Christian, will attempt to improve the downtown coaches at Ohio State, and "Ho" McMillin, formerly of Kansas State, will try to give Indiana an offensive and get the Hoosiers out of the doldrums.

Wisconsin and Northwestern are both due for big improvement. The Badgers may be the most improved team in the conference. Chicago, in its second year under Clark Shaughnessy, seems headed for further improvement, but lack of reserves may again handicap the Maroons.

uled 10-round bout with Leo Kennedy, who holds a decision over Maxie Baer, heavyweight champion.

Fiermonte came to Hollywood several weeks ago with the avowed intention of quitting the ring for the screen, but after a contract offer came in, he decided to make his debut.

Kennedy comes to Hollywood from the Bronx, New York, and has been a top boxer for several years.
