Resolution Declares Chairman Of Board Voted Against Workers on Codes

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3 (AP)—While delegates in the convention held in San Francisco today, the American Federation of Labor forged with definite strokes today their fighting program for a greater share of New Deal benefits for the working man.

One of the first of labor's expressions of intensified militancy toward the NRA and its workings will come with action on the resolution demanding an investigation of the labor attitude of St. Clay Williams, chairman of the Reynolds Tobacco Co., before he is allowed to assume important administrative duties in the new NRA act.

BORAH CONDEMNS MONOPOLY COSTS

Declares Large Combines Push Price of Farm Purchases Unjustly High

CAMBRIDGE, Idaho, Oct. 3 (AP)—Senator William B. Borah, R., Idaho, continues his fight against monopolies because he believes monopolies cause the farmer to pay too high a price for what he buys, he said here last night.

"The party of the farmer," he said, "can never be established so long as monopoly has the power to fix the prices of things he (the farmer) needs."

Outstanding in Opening World Series Clash Today

These five Detroit and St. Louis players sparked today as a capably crowd of 48,000 baseball fans jammed Navin field at Detroit to watch the Cardinals trounce the Tigers, 8 to 3, in the opening game of the 1934 world series. Left, Hank Greenberg, slugging outfielder who pounded in the first two runs scored by St. Louis in the second frame. Center, Joe Medwick, long-range Cardinal slugger who outshone hitters on both teams by piling out a home run and three additional hits in five attempts. Upper right, Jerome "Dizzy" Dean, who pitched St. Louis to victory. Center right, "Goose" Goslin, Detroit outfielder who batted in one of the Tigers' three runs and played a stellar game in left field. Right below, Hank Greenberg, towering Detroit first sacker, who hit a homer for the Tigers.

NAVIN FIELD, DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3 (UP)—Playing like a bunch of Nervous Nellies, the Detroit Tigers were overwhelmed by the St. Louis Cardinals in the first game of the world series here today, 8 to 3.

Play by Play First Game

FIRST INNING
Cardinals: Martin grounded out, Owen to Greenberg; hitting the first pitched ball, Rothrock flied out to White. Frisch was warmly applauded as he went to bat. Frisch was safe when Owen juggled his easy grounder. Medwick singled to left; Frisch stopped at second; Cochrane flied out to White in center field.

STYLE SHOWS TO FEATURE CLUB YEAR
Twentieth Century club will sponsor a series of monthly fashion shows, it was announced at the first general club luncheon held yesterday afternoon at the New Elcomer hotel. Local merchants will cooperate and models representing the various apparel shops and department stores will display seasonal styles each month.

Showing from the C. C. Anderson company yesterday formed the first of this series. H. E. Carson, store manager, arranged the revue. Miss Kay Thompson, and Miss Jean Stevenson were the models.

Sports Featured
"Organized Leisure," which is to be the general theme of club programs for the first part of the year was carried out yesterday in a program on sports. Mrs. A. J. Peavey, Jr., program chairman, Coach H. E. Powers of the Twin Falls high school talked on men's sports. Miss Mildred Richardson, junior high school physical education teacher, talked about girls' athletics and commented on the need for a school nurse in the Twin Falls school system.

Miss Nell Kinney, accompanied by Mrs. O. J. Fur, presented a play "Gypsy Sorcerer" by Valdez and "Fair Rosamund," Krolser, violin numbers. Mrs. Orr Chapman outlined accomplishments of McClusky health camp at Duluth last summer. Mrs. C. North, representing the International relations committee, talked on the economic, political and social conditions in America at the present time. Mrs. Joseph Harvey was made a life honorary member of the club.

French marigolds in black bowls centered the tables which were trimmed with the bands of black and orange of the fallowen color scheme. Mrs. Frank Horvick directed the decorating.

P. T. A. TO START MEMBERSHIP DRIVE
The Junior-Senior high school Parent-Teacher association will open its membership drive Oct. 15, and fathers will be urged to join. Plans for this membership drive were made at meetings of room mothers for both high schools in the high school building yesterday afternoon. A men's committee will be appointed to secure more men members. Mrs. B. P. Robinson, Mrs. M. C. Ballew, and Mrs. Esther E. Wilson were selected to name this committee. Mrs. Roy Evans presided at the meeting of junior high school room mothers, and Mrs. O. G. Merrill over those of the senior high school.

MRS. WALLACE GAVE TALK ON COLORS
Talks club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Haverland yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Ella Beer and Mrs. George Jones as assistant hostesses. Features of the meeting was the talk given by Mrs. J. M. Wallace on the selection of proper colors for clothing for people of different types. Mrs. Earl Maxwell program chairman, introduced Mrs. Wallace. During the business meeting it was decided to fill jars for the McClusky health camp. Mrs. John Collier and Mrs. Wallace were guests.

The club will meet Oct. 16 at the home of Mrs. M. O. Kuykon for a pot-luck luncheon. Fruit will be packed for the Children's home in Boise.

GAO DANCE COMMITTEES NAMED
GAO dancing club will open its season of attractive formal dances this year on Oct. 22 at the Legion Memorial hall. Mrs. Lora Chapin, dance chairman, is making extensive plans for the event. She announced the names of her assisting chairmen. Mrs. Orr Chapman will head the courtesy committee, a new group which Mrs. Chapin has addressed this year. Mrs. W. L. Ash is chairman of the hall committee, and Mrs. Fred P. Bates of the music committee. Mrs. R. P. Robinson will direct decorations. The coffee table will be arranged by Mrs. Edward Babcock. Mrs. C. A. Robinson will supervise the activity of the refreshment committee. Music will be furnished by the orchestra. The first dance will also be the occasion for welcoming a group of new members.

MISSION SOCIETY TO OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY
Members of the Woman's Christian Missionary society of the Christian church are celebrating at an anniversary meeting at the church at 8 p. m. Thursday. Programs all over the country will honor the event of the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the society, announced Mrs. E. O. Baines, president of the local group. The first Christian Missionary society was organized in Cincinnati, Ohio on Oct. 21, 1874. Mrs. G. W. Johnson is in charge of the program, which includes a play and a number of musical numbers. Officers announce that members and friends of the church are invited.

REPUBLICAN VIEW ON NEW DEAL TOLD
An address on "The New Deal from a Republican Standpoint," given by F. S. Ball featured the meeting of Chapter B, P. O. 5, Shoshone, at the home of Mrs. J. B. Stewart. Mrs. R. L. Roberts was assistant hostess, and Mrs. J. A. Dwyer, president, presided over the business session. Guests were Mrs. C. C. Cartney, Chapter AII, Filer; Mrs. Edward Babcock, Chapter W, Mountain Home, and Mrs. Jack Kingbury, Chapter Z, Glenns Ferry.

MAJOR HOODIN SPEAKS ON GOVERNMENT
Mrs. Wilbur Hill entertained members of Chapter AII, P. O. 5, Shoshone, on Monday evening at her home on Seventh avenue. Mrs. Harry Benoit, program chairman, introduced Major J. L. Hoodin, who gave a talk on "Problems of Our Government," stressing especially the Japanese problem. A social hour, during which Mrs. Hill served refreshments, followed the program. Mrs. John McFall, member of the Shoshone chapter of the National Woman's party, Mrs. Robert Nelson were guests.

TEACHER HONORED BY CLASS MEMBERS
Members of Mrs. F. F. Brackton's Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church, of which she has been a teacher for many years, entertained at a pot-luck luncheon in her honor yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. Brackton is leaving soon for St. Louis, where she will spend the winter. Following the luncheon, a program of games and contests was conducted. During the afternoon Mrs. Brackton sang a group of numbers. Mrs. V. B. Morgan, class president, presented the honoree with a farewell gift from the class. Autumn flowers made colorful decorations.

SIMPLE GROOMING UNITS YOUNG COUPLE

RED CROSS WILL ATTEND SESSION

The board of directors of Twin Falls chapter, American Red Cross, will attend a Red Cross conference at Burley next Wednesday at which A. L. Schaffner, manager of the Federal coast branch, American Red Cross, and Helo Field representative of Burley will be present.

Plans for attending were made at a meeting of the local group in the Clubroom of Commerce rooms last evening. Mrs. D. L. Alexander presided. Wilton Peck, treasurer, presented his report, which included the report of Charles Hill on the swimming and life saving school conducted here last summer. The school cost $160. More than 500 children were registered for the course.

JUNIOR HIGH NOTES

Music, readings and dance numbers were presented today in the regular weekly assembly in the high school auditorium. Winners in the ticket selling contest were announced. The boys chorus, under the direction of Miss Helen Parrott, sang several numbers. The Heppel and Mary Lou Smith gave readings. Norman Lites accompanied by his mother, gave a tap dance.

First prize in the ticket contest was awarded to Helen Clark for selling 11 tickets. Lowell Hesellett and Rex Wells tied for second place each selling 10 tickets. Third place was a three-way tie between Margaret Bacon, Gordon Gardner and James Gilson. First prize was a season ticket.

The program was announced by Inez Shuyler.

Jerome Man Dies In Illinois City
JEROME, Oct. 3 (Special). Julian Gallanthe left yesterday for Morrison, Ill., where his father, C. D. Gallanthe, 60, one of the earliest settlers and a founder of the town of Jerome, died Monday at the family home. Death, according to reports received here, was caused by cancer.

He was the owner of a large farm and apple orchard three miles north of here, although for the past year he has lived in Illinois. Besides his son, Julian, he is survived by his wife, a son, Joseph, Morrison, and a daughter, Mrs. Florence Stevens, Madison, Wis.

Mrs. Evans Hostess
JEROME, Oct. 3 (Special). Mrs. Herb Evans, Jerome, entertained at three tables of bridge over the week-end. Mrs. Hazel Hanson won first prize. Other table scores were by Mrs. Louisa Olds and Mrs. Connie Shawyer. A two-course luncheon was served after the games. Table appointments during the luncheon hour were in rose and white.

QUADROPLETS DOING WELL, TOO, THANK YOU

Quadruplets are just about as important as quintuplets, if you want the opinion of these four little girls and their parents, Constable and Mrs. Carl A. Morbeck, of Laming, Mich.—and just as pretty, too, as the picture strikingly shows. Donning their best dresses and hair ribbons, these 4-year-olds posed to show what a healthy, happy outfit they are. None of them ever has had a sick day. Left to right are Ethel, Sarah, Wilma, and Helen.

WOMAN AT 96 CALMLY TAKES LONG JOURNEY

So you think 96 is too old to take a trip alone? Not so! Al least that's what Mrs. Sarah Turner, who lives at 304 Fifth avenue east and who was born in 1838, would say. In fact, it's just what she did say before she left Sunday for Chicago. Relatives protested that Mrs. Turner was too old to go all the way to Chicago alone.

But Mrs. Turner said "non-sense" and meant it. She lives by herself and does her own work just as well as the smartest young housewife, even if she is nearly 100 years old. She's taken that trip to Chicago lots of times, and she knows her way around. Besides she wants to see the country again, and she has some relatives in Oak Park that she's been wanting to visit for some time now.

So Mrs. Turner, 96, calmly packed a bag and started for Chicago. And just to show that while she may be a little "old-lady" in body she's not a bit so in spirit, Mrs. Turner got herself a "permanent" the day before she left.

Rebekahs Initiate
Members of Primrose Rebekah lodge initiated Mrs. Grace Smith into membership at a meeting at 444 Feltow-hill last evening. Five lodge members, including delegations from the Ripport, Hill and Piler groups, attended. Mrs. Lionel Donn and her degree staff of 19 conducted the ceremony. Mrs. Grace Turner and her committee served refreshments during the social hour. The hope chest, which the lodge will give away on Nov. 4, was displayed in the window of Van Engelen-Hood store after today.

FAVOR BIRTH CONTROL
HOISIE (Ill.)—Idaho club women are in favor of legislation removing the ban on distribution of birth control information. A resolution favoring such action was adopted almost unanimously during their one-day council session here.

BURLEY

Miss Vera Carolyn Bridger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bridger, became the bride of Lloyd W. Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Peterson, at a quiet wedding performed Sunday morning at the home of the bride's parents. While the wedding party was being assembled, Mrs. Bridger was accompanied by Mrs. Maurine Del Faro, played violin solo. Bishop Ralph Umacker officiated at the service. The bride was attired in a model of yellow silk and carried a bride bouquet of orchid and white anemones tied with lace ribbon. A wedding dinner followed, with the table centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a nuptial figure bride and groom. Both Mr. and Mrs. Peterson were graduated from Burley high school with the class of 1933. They will make their home in Burley, where the groom is employed at the Moore drug company.

The newly organized Girl Scout troop, under the leadership of Mrs. Marjorie Wright, went on a hike early Sunday morning. Breakfast was cooked by the girls. Mrs. Dan Walters was recently elected president of the boys league of Burley high school. Pat Butler, vice president, LaVern Hill, secretary, and the boys of the school, were members of the party. The Burley Community church Christian Endeavor society held its annual election Sunday with the following results: Mildred Dalton, president; Ruth Pledge, vice president; and Rose McIntosh, secretary.

Eastern Star met for regular business session Monday evening with 25 members present. At the close Mrs. George Schorer presided as hostess of guests. Installation will take place at the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Patterson returned recently from Salem, Ore., where they accompanied their daughter, Louisa, and Miss Donnelly to enroll in Willamette University. The Pattersons also visited in other Oregon cities and in California.

Mrs. and Mrs. Linsey Maggard left Tuesday night for a two-week trip through the middle west. They attended the World's fair and visited relatives in Minneapolis.

C. OF C. HOLDS OWN AG 'FAIR'

A young fair is being held at the office of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce with the completion of a number of display racks laden with exhibits of 1934 crop products gathered by Harold L. Harvey, chamber secretary.

Quantities of small seeds and grains are contained in cellulose bags and among the exhibits are many of the products of the local farmers, including a peanut plant, a tobacco plant, and a cucumber-shaped gourd.

SALESMAN SAM

BY C. D. SMALL

If you are not already a SALESMAN SAM fan, you should get the daily habit. Here is a comic strip which is a triumph of pure nonsense, contrived for one purpose and one purpose only—to make you laugh.

SAM is one of the world's great optimists. As a salesman he's really not so hot, but he'll try anything and he believes everything. If you don't like your humor broad, if slapstick comedy is too unrefined for you, and a hearty guffaw beneath your dignity—then stay clear of SALESMAN SAM.

But if the ridiculous appeals to you, as it does to the millions of other readers who swear by him, he should be on your daily reading list. He has the talents of a Shakespeare, but there's the difference. He's a SALESMAN.

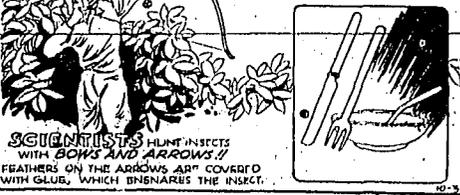

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

FLOCKS OF GEESE HAVE BEEN SEEN FLYING OVER THE HIMALAYA MOUNTAINS AT AN ALTITUDE ESTIMATED AT SIX AND ONE-HALF MILES!

POLAR EXPLORERS USE WOODEN TABLEWARE METAL CUTLERY WOULD STICK TO THEIR LIPS IN THE SUB-ZERO TEMPERATURES.

SCIENTISTS HUNT INSECTS WITH BOWS AND ARROWS! FEATHERS ON THE ARROWS ARE COVERED WITH GLUE, WHICH BLENDS THE INSECT.

Many species of high-flying insects which never had been collected before, were taken by government scientists by the use of bows and arrows. The arrows were shot high into the air, through swarms of insects so small that they could scarcely be seen.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

IT HAS COME TO MY EARS BY CAMEL CARAVAN THAT YOU MANAGED TO GET YOUR BISCUIT SNATCHERS ON $300! WELL, JAKE, YOU KNOW I'M NOT RUNNING A BIRD SANCTUARY, SO IT'S GOING TO COST YOU $20 A WEEK HERE, FOR HAY AND STALL!

$20? MY GAWGH, MARTHA DOESN'T BEING A RELATION RATE ME A GUEST CARD? NOW, IF I WAS GOING TO BE PART OF TH' REGULAR CONFUSION HERE, I WOULDN'T MIND YOUR LETTING TH' TOLL GATE DOWN ON ME - BUT I'M JES A SORTA SHIP, PASSING IN TH' NIGHT, AS IT WERE!

JAKE MEANS AN ARCTIC NIGHT

OUT OUR WAY

YOU OUGHTA SEE TH' PLASTER IN TH' HALL - IT'S KNOCKED OFF IN GREAT BIG CHUNKS.

WELL, I WISH THERE WAS SOME OTHER PLACE TO KEEP TH' DASS BURNER IN SUMMER, BESIDES 'OUT IN THE SHED.

OO-H-H-H - THAT STUFF AINT NO GOOD - FER BARKED CHINS - IT BURNS - H-H-HOH -

BORN THIRTY YEARS TOO SOON.

WASH TUBS

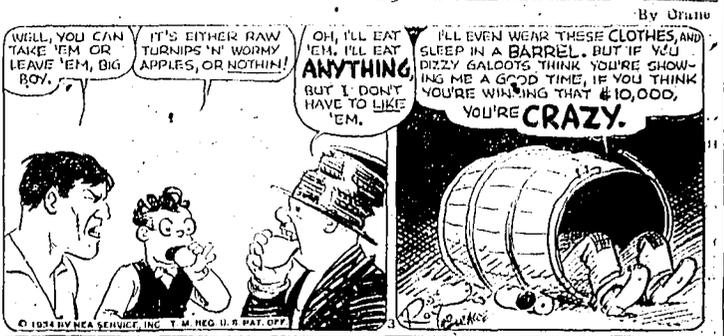

WELL, CHEER UP, BOARDS. AT LEAST WE HAVE SUMPIN' TO EAT.

TURNIPS! BAH! I DETEST TURNIPS.

TRY AN APPLE THEN.

THEY'RE WORMY. THEY AIN'T FIT FOR A HOG TO EAT.

WELL, YOU CAN TAKE 'EM OR LEAVE 'EM, BIG BOY.

IT'S EITHER RAW TURNIPS 'N' WORMY APPLES, OR NOTHING!

OH, I'LL EAT 'EM. I'LL EAT ANYTHING, BUT I DON'T HAVE TO LIKE 'EM.

I'LL EVEN WEAR THESE CLOTHES, AND SLEEP IN A BARREL. BUT IF YOU DIZZY GALOOTS THINK YOU'RE SHOWING ME A GOOD TIME, IF YOU THINK YOU'RE WINNING THAT $10,000, YOU'RE CRAZY.

SIDE GLANCES

"It's from Eddie! He has just been pledged Kappa Gamma Sig!"

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

GEE! I WONDER HOW RONNIE IS?

I WORRY ABOUT 'IM SO.

WAY OUT ON TH' OCEAN - ALL BY HIMSELF.

ALLEY OOP

WELL, WELL, UMPATEEDLE! YEH, I GUESS SO - WEVE JUST FINISHED DECORATING TH' PALACE FOR TH' WEDDING?

DELL, AN' NOW, IF YOU DONT GO AWAY, YER GONNA BE HERE AGAIN. EVERYTHING WILL GO OFF WITHOUT A HITCH!

NOW ALL I GOT TO DO IS TO GET WOOLYFOOT ALL-PRETTIED UP - WHEEDOO! MY, BUT I'M TIRED. I'LL SURE BE GLAD WHEN THIS AFFAIR IS ALL OVER!

ME, TOO!

WELL - I GUESS THERE AINT NOthin' FER ME TO DO BUT GO BACK AN' SIT ON MY THRONE!

OH, NO YOU DONT, YOU 'BIG LOAFER! YOU SEE 'YER GETTIN' ALLEY OOP OVER HERE, RIGHT AWAY! I WANTA TALK TO HIM!

VEZZIR!

SAM HOWDY

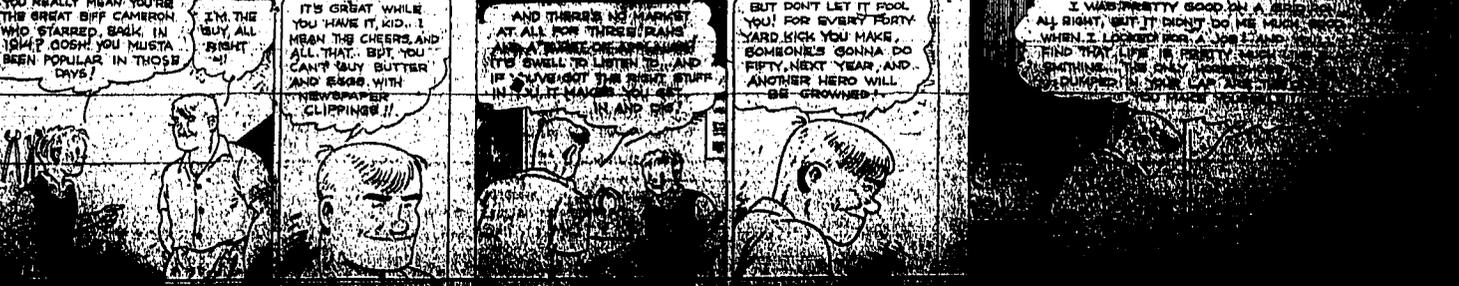

SAM HOWDY, AS I LIVE AND GASP! I'LL JUST SNEAK UP ON HIM AND GIVE HIM A SURPRISE!

WHOOOPS!

DUZZI! WELL, WHAT'S A BREAK! I'M OUT OF A JOB, AN' I WAS JEST GOIN' DOWN TH' SEE YA!

I WAS HOPIN' I COULD FALL BACK ON YOU!

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

YOU REALLY MEAN YOU'RE THE GREAT BIFF CAMERON, WHO STARRED EGGS, IN 'WHA? GOSH, YOU MUSTA BEEN POPULAR IN THOSE DAYS!

I'M THE 'BUY, ALL RIGHT.

IT'S GREAT WHILE YOU HAVE IT, KID. I MEAN THE CHEERS, AND ALL THAT. BUT YOU CAN'T BUY BUTTER AND EGGS WITH NEWSPAPER CLIPPINGS!

AND THERE'S NO MARKET AT ALL FOR THOSE PANS AND A BUNCH OF EGGS. IT'S SWELL TO LISTEN TO, AN' IN A FEW MONTHS, TH' STUFF IN 'EM WILL BE ADVERTISING.

BUT DON'T LET IT POOL YOU! FOR EVERY FORTY YARD KICK YOU MAKE, SOMEONE'S GONNA DO FIFTY NEXT YEAR, AND ANOTHER HERO WILL BE GROWNED.

I WAS PRETTY GOOD ON A BIFF, ALL RIGHT, BUT IT DIDNT DO ME MUCH GOOD. WHEN I LOOKED BEH, A JOB AN' THIN' THY LIFE IS PRETTY SWELL. SOMETIMES THE ONLY WAY TO GET A DUMPKED IN YOUR CAPTAIN'S
