Youth Tells Jurymen He Hit Freda McCochino to Make Death Seem Accident

LOVE LETTERS REVEALED

Young Defendant Testifies in Effort to Save Self from Electric Chair

WILKES BARRE, Pa., Oct. 5 (AP)—Robert A. Edwards, 21 years old, bitterly accused a judge and jury that if he had killed the unmarried expectant mother of his child, he would admit it in so many words. But instead, he said, the girl died a natural death and in pain he hit her head with a brick so it would appear accidental.

Two days before, they were swimming at a mountain lake. Miss McCochino, he said, put her big hair curler, and fell back in the boat, dead from shock.

They Subdue Detroit's Tigers

The rampant St. Louis Cardinals turned back Detroit's Tigers 4-1 in the third game of the world series today, and Paul (Duffy) Dean, right, added mightily by keeping Detroit hits scattered in every frame except the ninth when the lone Tiger run was scored.

FAIR LABOR WAGES, ADEQUATE PROFITS URGED BY PERKINS

Secretary Pleads for Use of Mediation Machinery

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5 (AP)—Fair wages to the worker and fair profits to the employer go hand in hand to promote prosperity, Secretary of Labor, Frances Perkins, said today in an address prepared for delivery before the American Federation of Labor at its annual convention here.

WILL ROGERS SAYS

DETROIT, Mich.—I don't know what the score would be yesterday 3 to 4 and that it would be a great game, anybody's game, Frankie Frisch crossed me up by pitching Bill Hallahan instead of Granauer School Paul Dean. 'Student' Rowe of Smackover, Ark., pitched. And, brother, he did smack 'em over. He certainly earned his diploma. He ain't schoolboy any more. He got right into the brain trust.

PAUL DEAN KEEPS HITS SCATTERED TO EARN VICTORY

Play by Play STORY OF 3rd Game

FIRST INNING Tigers: White fouled out to Medwick. Cochrane fanned. Gehring singled to left center. Greenberg fouled out to Delaney near Tiger's dugout.

SECOND INNING Tigers: Goslin singled to right and went to second when Rothrock juggled the ball. Fogelt flied to Medwick. Owen was hit by a pitched ball and trotted to first. Fox popped out to Martin. The runners held their bases. Bridges called out on bunt.

THIRD INNING Tigers: White flied to Rothrock, hitting the first ball pitched. Cochrane walked. Gehring fouled out to left center. Cochrane went to third. Cochrane fouled out to Greenberg. The runner held their bases. Dean flied out to Fox. Collins scored after the catch. Delaney went to third and Orsatti held first. Martin lined out to White.

Win Puts Cards Into Lead in Baseball Classic

Red Birds Start With Rush to Score in First Inning

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5 (UP)—The St. Louis Cardinals came home today to defeat the Detroit Tigers 4 to 1 in the third game of the 1934 world series. The victory placed the Cards in the lead by two games to one in the fight for the baseball championship.

Paul Dean, younger member of the St. Louis Cardinals pitching combination, was the winning hurler. Although found for eight hits he kept the Tiger blows well scattered and only in the ninth when there was a short batting flurry did the Tigers get more than one hit in any single inning.

Score in Fifth The final two runs made by the Cardinals came in the fifth. Martin was the lead-off man again, this time contenting himself with a double. Rothrock followed with a triple, and Frisch scored Rothrock with a single.

Building to House Indigent Families Is Pondered Here

Tentative plans for the erection of a structure on the county poor farm site to house 20 indigent families had been discussed today with the board of county commissioners, looking to the possibility of locating a structure here over a two-year period, according to board members.

In addition, the commissioners have indicated their willingness to grant an extension of county property to a Chamber of Commerce committee interested in perfecting a right-of-way for a proposed road way in the vicinity of Murtaugh. Dependent upon determination of the county's legal title to affected property, the board late yesterday adopted a resolution offering to make the grant.

and BARGAIN SHOPPING ruins more than SHOES

Throbbing feet, tattered temper, spoiled digestion and an evening that's utterly ruined. What a price to pay for a "successful shopping afternoon!"

Time was when bargain-counter gymnastics were part of the day's work. Time was when they were even necessary! But there's a wiser method.

Sit back in an easy chair. Leaf through the daily issues of the Evening Times. Check your wants against the offerings in the ads. Compare the ads themselves for price, for style, for value. Clip the items that interest you or use a pencil to jot them down. Get a tangible idea of what you're going after first—then there is nothing left to do but get it!

There's no grief to armchair shopping. And it's far more economical.

ROOSEVELT MAY 'SPANK' BANKERS

Accepts Invitation to Address Parlay; Few Financiers May Be Target

By LYLE C. WILSON WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (U.P.)—Some bankers may get a spanking when President Roosevelt addresses the American Bankers' association convention, a fortnight hence.

Association President Francis Law probably doesn't expect that. "He hasn't got it in for the bankers and the bankers haven't got it in for him," Law said. White House after Mr. Roosevelt had accepted a speaking invitation.

Irritant Present But something about bankers—perhaps only a few bankers—is troubling the White House more than a little. The presence of an irritant was emphasized in Mr. Roosevelt's work-and-visit schedule when he implied with emphasis that could not be ignored that American bankers had not aided the administration as London bankers have aided the British government.

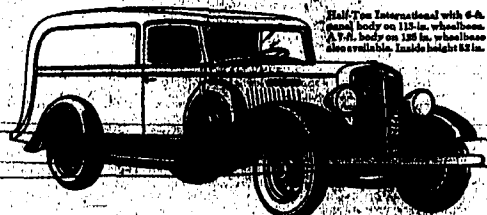

Capital Confused That was somewhat confusing here because in the $1,776,000,000 treasury re-funding operation big bankers gave counsel and assistance to make it a success.

Neither does it seem feasible now to say when or if the authority to devalue the dollar—a final 10 per cent will be exercised.

TEXAS VOTES ON STATE NEW DEAL

Electors Will Determine Fate Of Eight Sweeping Proposals For Internal Change

AUSTIN, Tex. (U.P.)—General election day will not pass in Texas this year with the usual perfunctory vote. Not that any fear is felt by Democrats that its state ticket will be defeated, but because the state's million or more voters will ballot the same day on a proposed state New Deal.

Tight sweeping changes in the state constitution will get approval, or be rejected, Nov. 6. They are: a limit on taxation; different tax rate for real estate and other property; abolishment of the fee system; combination of counties; salary fixing powers for county governments; taxation of the University of Texas' vast land areas; four-year terms for municipal officers; and right of cities to change their charters annually.

Tax Limitations The tax limit amendment pegged at $11.25 per person the total amount of revenue the state may collect annually from taxes, licenses, permits and fees. Based on 6,000,000 population, that is approximately what the state collected from such sources in 1933. The $98,000,000, so collected, left a big state deficit. The amendment has been proposed to prevent any legislative spending spree.

SIAMESE TWINS DIE IN SWEDEN

STOCKHOLM (U.P.)—Sweden's first Siamese twins in living memory have just died.

The twins, both of whom were boys, were conjoined by the stomach, which made any operation to separate them impossible. Only one of them took nourishment of any sort.

Both died five weeks after their birth. Their mother was a 29-year-old woman.

At The Theaters

Roxy Serial Stars Famed Lion Tamer

Robert A. (Hollove II or Not) Ripley could gather enough material about Clyde Beatty, the greatest animal tamer since, to fill his columns for weeks. A lot of the more interesting facts that "Rip" might use: Beatty is the only performer in any circus, who can find no insurance company to give him a life policy; Beatty has been hurt by his animals more than one hundred and fifty times, and the only serious injury he ever received resulted from a superficial scratch from a lion, which started a blood infection; Beatty is the first animal trainer ever to enter a circus arena with a large number of lions and tigers and bring both sexes of the big cats; Beatty uses only three weapons in his acts, a chair, a whip, and a gun loaded with blank cartridges.

CONNEAUT, O. (U.P.)—A few hours after he had purchased a used automobile for $10, John W. Mansfield, 18, of North Kingsville, was killed when it plunged off the road.

BRITONS THROG FILM THEATERS

Half Billion Paid Admissions To English Screen Shows Last Year

LONDON (U.P.)—Nearly a billion Britons paid admission to moving-picture theaters in Great Britain last year.

The gross amount derived was $20,000,000. The customer averaged about 18,000,000 a week.

To determine the total of receipts abroad for films, S. Rowson, president of the British Kinematograph Society, based his calculations upon the amount of entertainment tax collected by the excise department.

Following a close check on several hundred theaters throughout the country, Rowson discovered that after the deduction of tax, the proportion paid for films was 33.7 per cent. This average price paid for a seat was about 20 cents.

COAT HANGER COST $300 OLD LYME, Conn. (U.P.)—G. Page Ely hung his coat on the back of a door and slammed it shut. There were matches in the pocket. They ignited. The bill amounted to $300.

"Over Fish Ranch Grade in HIGH and I was convinced!"

(From letter in Shell Oil Company files at San Francisco)

"My car used to get to that first steep part, then...ping...ping...ping. No matter what gas I used (other than premium Ethyl) I'd have to shift. I don't know why your gasoline should be so different, but using it yesterday there wasn't a sign of a knock. And I went the full 2 1/4 miles to the top in high."

How can one gasoline be so different from another? Here's why:

Any petroleum engineer will tell you that no two gasolines are exactly alike. Power, anti-knock, quick-starting, and other fractions can be blended in all sorts of proportions. And crudes vary. As do refining methods.

Super-SHELL differs from other fuels largely because of the way it is concentrated. Low-powered gassy "tops" and sluggish "bottoms" are removed. Only the heart-cut of petroleum comes to you. No waste parts. The result is—Super-SHELL positively reduces at least ten little wastes that ordinary gasolines cause.

Fill up with Super-SHELL today. You may not notice so much difference in average driving—but when you need an extra ounce of power—you'll feel it. And by all means check your Super-SHELL mileage.

LEGION'S LEADER ANSWERS ATTACK

Terms Accusation by Editor 'Abyamal Ignorance' or 'Intent to Deceive'

CHICAGO, Oct. 5 (Special)—Edward A. Hayes, national commander of the American Legion, replied last night to charges by Dr. Henry Goodard Leach in the Forum magazine that the Legion has plundered the federal treasury.

Hayes said over a national radio network that Leach spoke either in "abyamal ignorance" or with the "intent to deceive." The Legion, he said, never had sought compensation for anything but service disabilities.

Fish Stories Aren't Counted If This Girl Withholds Okeh

BY MARY McHEWIE (SNA Service)

NEW YORK—Francesca La Monte never in all her life caught a fish, but she has seen many fishermen of the country who makes a haul that she hopes is phenomenal—rather than ten.

For this pretty dark-eyed young woman is a prodigy of the chart of world records in fish catching which is kept in the Hall of Fishes at the American Museum of Natural History.

Her husband, who is also a professional fisherman, is caught in the South Sea. The biggest black marlin ever caught by Mrs. Guild's was 353 pounds.

England Finding Off-Farm Trend

LONDON (AP)—British farm workers are going "off the land." The last report published by the department of agriculture shows that 21,500 more regular and casual male workers were employed on farms during the 1933-34 period, while women and girl workers dropped by 5,400.

NATIONAL BIRTHDAY PRESENTS
M. C. MOHRENSON & CO., INC.
1816 Broadway, San Francisco, Cal.

BASEBALL IS KING

Pretenders to the throne may rise to brief glory and pass on, but baseball remains king of American sports, truly the national game, first in the affection and interest of the American people.

From March to October the diamond sport reigns supreme. And even through the long cold winter, its fans avidly seek every morsel of news concerning their ball-tossing heroes.

By millions they jam into major and minor league and semi-pro parks during the summer, with the grand climax coming in the world series. Interest in baseball may be waning, but the figures don't show it. The season just closed was one of record profit in many cities.

Millions play golf, but even the greatest of golf matches draw galleries that are dwarfed by the throngs which pack even minor league stands.

One of the most torridly fought tennis tournaments in recent years drew a gate recently that would be only a fair weekday crowd at most major league baseball parks.

The American's Cup regatta, magnificent event though it was, stirred comparatively little interest among the rank and file of sporting fans.

Prize fight and wrestling fans are legion, but no one seriously considers either pastime a rival of baseball as an attraction.

Basketball has its devotees, but they are far in the minority the country over. Football, it is true, is a magnet for mammoth throngs—but for only eight or ten Saturdays in the year, while a winning baseball team pulls fans past the turnstiles for 154 games a season.

America is singularly blessed with clean sports, all of which have their place in the scheme of things. But there is only one national sport, without even a close rival, whether played in a magnificent major league plant or on a sandlot back of the warehouse—and that's baseball.

If there are doubters, let them visit the office of The Evening Times during the progress of one of the present games and learn the number of telephone inquiries which come in, or check the number who listen in on the radio broadcast, let alone the total which avidly scan the columns of newspapers.

As Will Rogers might of said, but didn't: Well, they might just as well of declared a moratorium during this here world series. People have forgot their other cares, and even if they didn't know much about baseball during the summer, now have positive ideas on which is the best team.

BORAH ET AL

Senator Borah must be a thorn in the side of the Republican state campaign committee. All this talk of his about a third party indicates that he might wish to lead such a political group two years hence.

The history of third parties in this country is well known: They merely serve to split one of the major parties; the result being that the minority party is likely to prevail, as was the case of the Democratic party at the time of the election of Woodrow Wilson.

It is more reasonable to assume that what there might be in this country yet is a realignment of the two old parties into progressives and conservatives under the banner of Democrats and Republicans. But what is causing concern now, is not a third party, or realignment, but the party misfits as represented by Senators Johnson, La Follette, Borah and Norris and the Upton Sinclairs, et al.

THE CHURCH ROWS TO MARS

In its appeal for a national back-to-church movement, the national committee for religion and welfare recovery points to a fact that should cause us to stop and consider. The single fact is that, "even during the depression, America increased its expenditures for armaments by more than $100,000,000, while contributions to the church decreased nearly $300,000,000."

In other words, the United States government increased its funds for military purposes from $650,000,000 in 1927 to $788,000,000 in 1933, while its people contributed $833,000,000 to the churches in 1927 and only $550,000,000 in 1933.

The national committee for religion and welfare recovery uses this fact in its effort toward getting Protestants, Catholics and Jews to attend their churches and synagogues on Oct. 6 and 7. But perhaps nothing but war itself may drive some of us back to thoughts of the better things of life.

Doughnuts have become a $10,000,000 business, being the one exception to the rule that you can't make anything out of nothing.

The U. S. Constitution may become too heavy to uphold with so many politicians using it as a platform.

"All right. The seventh."
"You darling!" Edward was fairly demonstrative but today his words trembled. He took her hand between thumb and forefinger, tilting it gently.

HER mother came in and there were soft words, thanks for the fruit cake and the avocados. Boots, sitting apart, admitted his manner with the older woman, his quiet defiance.

"It's good. It's kind," she assured him. "What more does any girl want?"

It would be a haven for her—this wife, who, honorable marriage, Sylvia would never look past her unsexually again, nor would Boots' mother worry over him. The girl clung to these thoughts. They steadied her.

Presently she and Edward went for a walk in the chill air. The early morning promise of sun had faded and it was raining in from the shore. The horns blew uncessantly.

"Punny Christmas weather!" Boots shivered in her coat, huddling the fur collar closer under her chin. She had an indefinable sense of unrest. Her nerves were stretched at high tension.

"You're cold," Boots gave her a concerned look. "Better take your back." He had one big, gloved hand under her elbow, piloting her.

"Thin—this is terrible," the girl said on a note of hysterical laughter. "I never saw such fog. And on this, of all days."

People loomed suddenly close to them as they crowded. A father stooped two red-capped and mittened children, chattering excitedly.

"Good thing we didn't drive," Edward murmured. "You can't see the turns." A headlight flashed close to them and was instantly swallowed up in the mist.

"Careful there!" She hadn't even seen the curb. Houses, shrubs, fences, gates—all were swallowed up in the horrible, all-enveloping grayness and blackness. She heard the shrill sound of brakes, saw Edward's motor sputter and stop.

"All right now!" Boots' head ached but she could move her arms, her legs. She tried to struggle to her feet.

"Holding such extensive and complicated disputes is nowhere near ready. If the President can get the labor peace bill passed, his NRA reorganization may be hurried sufficiently to work out the current disputes without the hardship of strikes."

The current potential strike problem now involves 400,000 workers in steel, 350,000 in automobiles, 40,000 in rubber and 200,000 in the garment trades—1,470,000 in all.

MISSOURI PLANS NEW ROAD MOVE

Attempt to Segregate Traffic To Different Highways for Trucks, Cars

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (UP)—The Missouri Public Service Commission, in an experiment believed to be unique in the United States, is attempting to segregate truck from motor car traffic on state highways.

Separate Routes
If successful, Collet plans to separate commercial and private automobile traffic wherever possible and where alternate routes are available.

Increased Hazards
"It is the belief of the commission," Collet said, "that the use of Missouri highways for commercial purposes increases the hazards of those engaged in their use for private purposes."

When the Turks laid siege to Vienna, in 1683, two baker boys were working in an underground bakehouse one night, and heard the Turks digging a mine shaft. They carried the news to authorities and a countermine was sunk by the Austrians. A great number of Turks were killed by the explosion, and Vienna was saved.
