EDUCATORS HEAR IOWAN AT FINAL PARLEY SESSION

Dr. Ernest Horn, Dismisses Verbalism at Concluding Assembly

ASKS MORE LEADERSHIP

Advises Teachers to Worry Less of Flunking, More About Children

Addresses this afternoon by Dr. Ernest Horn, college of education, University of Iowa, and by Dr. P. C. Feltz, president of the state school of the deaf and blind at Council Bluffs, concluded the two day annual convention of the South Central Idaho Education association at the Twin Falls high school auditorium.

The meetings were attended by approximately 800 executives, trustees, teachers and other leaders, and today the convention was declared by officials to have been outstandingly successful.

New officers and place for next year's meeting will be determined by referendum vote.

Directed toward Usage In his talk this afternoon, Dr. Horn discussed verbalism, recommending the use of words "as a stimulus for understanding rather than as a repellent to the child's individual words," and cautioned that after reading, thinking and doing are the best steps.

"This morning, Dr. Horn spoke on 'Children Must Succeed.' He developed the history of educational movements, and urged that pupils be considered as individuals, instead of on the basis of averages and statistics.

"The child has a right to expect leadership from his teachers and our school program," he said, adding: "Teachers should worry less about promotion and flunking, and more about the child's individual getting along and what should be done about it. Intelligence tests should contain the essentials of life, and apply to material for which the pupils have had training. Give the child something he can do each day to give him the elation of success, and thereby keep him from the dampening influences of failure."

Snyder on Program President R. H. Snyder, of Albion state normal school, and Idaho director of the National Educational association, spoke on the work of that organization, reminding his hearers that there are many problems in education which cannot be solved by the state alone.

Snyder said that through the efforts of the national association, 15,000 persons had been kept in employment, $76,000,000 in federal loans had been secured for paying salaries, that the program had been generous in furthering the group's work, and that committees were making surveys to tabulate important educational information.

Temperance Teaching He stressed the fact that the association urged the teaching of temperance in the schools.

At the morning session, Prof. H. M. Carter, Rupert, presented musical numbers including violin solos by Gustave Fletcher, accompanied by Albert Hunt, Jerome. This afternoon Orval S. Laake, Buhl high school, led in patriotic singing, and music was supplied by pupils of the state school for the deaf and blind, preceding the address by Feltz, Feltz on "The Education of Our Deaf and Blind People."

Attend Dinner Attend Dinner of first day's events concluded with a dance for the veterans at Buhl hall last evening. Hosts were the Elms lodge, Elms club, Elms Commercial and Magicians clubs. Preceding this a program was given at the high school, the feature (Continued on page 3, column 3)

NRA BOARD CUTS PUBLICITY FLOW

Only "Accomplishments" Will Be Announced; Blue Eagle Symbol May Die

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Chairman Clay Williams of the new recovery board announced today that in the future publicity would be given "accomplishments" rather than intra-office discussions of code problems.

Williams, in command, the public was informed of every detail. The new board has held daily sessions for three weeks without issuing a single public statement.

Meanwhile, it was indicated that plans to restrict publicity were coordinated efforts of code authorities, the federal trade commission, the justice department, and NIRA might result in abandonment of the Blue Eagle as a symbol of compliance.

Labor Gains Victory Meanwhile, it was learned unofficially that NIRA Division Administrator Armin W. Riley had recommended appointment of labor representatives on more than 100 code authorities for food products.

Guests Drink All Exhibits at Wine Fair

CHICAGO, Oct. 20 (AP)—The second "wine, liquor and beer world fair" closed two hours early last night because several thousand exuberant guests drank the exhibits.

Officials of the Sherman hotel, where the show was held, called emergency guards to prevent removal, in a spirit of fun, of such things as a dog and high-heeled shoes.

The revelers were especially invited guests of the fair who came with the carnival disposition that their passion would produce liberal samples of the exhibits.

In less than five minutes after the first rush on which almost every exhibit in the show was dismantled and non-existent.

CAVANAGH CLEAR, GOVERNOR HOLDS

Robt. Claims Chapman Failed To Prove Irregularities On Highway Job

BOISE, Oct. 20 (AP)—W. Orr Chapman failed to convince Governor C. Ben Ross there had been any "irregularity" in connection with contract work on the Boise-Mountain Home highway in 1933 after an all-day hearing at the state house here.

In a statement issued late yesterday, Ross maintained the record proved the "actual rock excavation (called for in a contract let to Dan J. Cavanagh) was 2,800 cubic yards, Cavanagh, the original contractor, was paid for 2,800 cubic yards and the total payments made to his subcontractor, exacting 2,800 cubic yards."

Charles E. Davis, the subcontractor whose affidavit opened the dispute, admitted in the hearing his affidavits were false in many material particulars, the statement said.

W. Orr Chapman's "star witness" in the road contract hearing, Charles E. Davis, Emmett, was arrested in Elgin Friday afternoon and charged with operating a car with a license which belonged to another car. He was fined $5 by Judge Wright Stacy and ordered to procure proper license plates for his car.

"This in Mr. Chapman's 'hot' working man," said Assistant Attorney General Ariel Crowley, in commenting on the case.

SUSPECT TAKEN TO NEW JERSEY TO STAND TRIAL

Hauptmann Arrangement Set For Monday; Trial Before Nov. 15

JAIL STRONGLY GUARDED

Extradited From New York An Court Denies Appeal On Writ

FLEMING, N. J., Oct. 20 (AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann will be arraigned Monday on an indictment charging him with the murder of the Lindbergh baby, and will be tried before Nov. 15, it was understood today. He was brought to this seat of Hunterdon county within whose borders the crime took place, last night after he had his appeal to prevent extradition from New York denied.

Extraordinary precautions were taken to safeguard the prisoner who was led through a mob of boozing and shouting farmers and townsmen when the heavily guarded motorcade that brought him from New York City arrived. State troopers stood guard inside and outside the jail, regarded as both escape proof and mob proof. The possibility of an attempt at mob violence was discounted by all officials.

"No Hurry" There was a "possibility of Hauptmann being arraigned today, but Atty. Gen. David T. Wilentz said there was "no hurry" and that everyone concerned could take a "well-deserved rest."

Preparations for Hauptmann's trial, underway even before he had lost his fight against extradition from Bronx county, New York, where he is under indictment for extortion, were relaxed.

Jury Commissioner Charles Holcomb expected to appear before Common Pleas Judge A. O. Robinson today to request that the jury will be selected.

Hauptmann was non-committal in his new surroundings.

Hauptmann's transfer to New Jersey began two hours after the appellate division of the New York (Continued on Page 2, Column 7)

Code Chief?

Declared to have been picked by President Roosevelt as new code enforcement chief under the revised NIRA setting up by Robert Maynard Hutchins, 45, youthful educator who has won fame as president of the University of Chicago, Dr. Hutchins is shown above leaving the White House.

Even as the grand jury convened in special session, an army of federal agents directed from Cincinnati by Melvin Parsons, the man who trapped John Dillinger, combed the entire country for the young former college student and massive young inmate who escaped the abduction.

Around Knox, Pa., and Wilmington, Del., state and city police forces continued unrelentingly a search indicated by reports that Hutchins was slighted in both cities yesterday. Simultaneously Washington-outlets ordered a search of California border routes and investigated a host of rumors at dozens of intermediate points.

In the last 24 hours Hutchins has been reported seen or trailed in New York, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Kansas.

NEW TAX LEVIES SEEN NECESSARY

Prospects Increase as U. S. Reports Falling Off in Collections

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Prospect of new federal tax burdens to finance the recovery program and nipplant exploring "mid-range" levies increased today when treasury department figures showed tax collections were falling slightly under budget estimates.

Treasury department receipts for the first 31/2 months of the current fiscal year, showed an average monthly income of $322,000,000, or nearly $10,000,000 monthly under the $331,222,120 monthly income projected in the budget for this fiscal year.

Recession in business activity in June, July and August was cited as a principal reason for decline in government income under previous estimates. Miscellaneous internal revenue and customs revenue this month are below a year ago. Income taxes and processing taxes are higher.

Check Tax Near End The 2-cent tax on bank checks will expire Dec. 31. It has yielded about $40,000,000 annually.

Other taxes which account for $302,000,000 annually, will include $10,000,000 on telephone and telegraph messages, $25,000,000 on motor vehicles, $10,000,000 each for admissions and oil pipe lines.

Other taxes to expire July 1, 1935, are those on mail, group, liquor, toilet preparations, fur, leather, and sports, photography, records, figurines, cameras, matches, and sporting goods.

JURY INDICTS TRIO IN ABDUCTION OF WOMAN

Search for Fugitive Suspect Expands Over Nation

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 20 (AP)—A federal grand jury today returned indictments today against Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., his wife and his father, charging them with the kidnaping of Mrs. Alice Stoll.

The indictments were voted by the grand jury after it had listened for two hours to evidence in the case. The jury deliberated only about five minutes. The indictments were returned under the new Landwehr kidnapping law.

BY WINTHROP LAMAN LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 20 (AP)—Federal prosecutors today asked a grand jury to indict Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., his wife and his father, for violation of the "Landwehr" law in the kidnaping of Mrs. Alice Stoll.

They denied any truth in the charge of youthful Mrs. Frances Robinson that she was "double crossed" after working with the millionaire Stoll family and federal agents for safe return of the victim.

Extensive Chase Even as the grand jury convened in special session, an army of federal agents directed from Cincinnati by Melvin Parsons, the man who trapped John Dillinger, combed the entire country for the young former college student and massive young inmate who escaped the abduction.

Around Knox, Pa., and Wilmington, Del., state and city police forces continued unrelentingly a search indicated by reports that Hutchins was slighted in both cities yesterday. Simultaneously Washington-outlets ordered a search of California border routes and investigated a host of rumors at dozens of intermediate points.

In the last 24 hours Hutchins has been reported seen or trailed in New York, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Kansas.

Federal agents are sure only that he was in Springfield, O., Wednesday morning. The fact was established by discovery of a $5 bill, part of the $40,000 ransom money with which he escaped Tuesday from the Indianapolis apartment where Mrs. Stoll was held captive, and of an automobile bearing his finger print or trailed in Mississippi river, but refused to commit themselves further.

numbers being a dramatic production by talent from the Albion state normal school, and a concert by the Cardinal pipe club, under the direction of Norman McCarty. John W. Condie, state superintendent of public instruction, spoke.

Condie talked on "Responsibility of our Schools. Our chief responsibility," he said, was correcting the public of what is going on in the schools. He said that the standards of the teaching profession must be raised.

Hope of Democracy—Efforts were made to move this democracy off to the side of the street through our schools. In Idaho, the better payment of taxes and passage of the equalization bill kept more schools running in proportion than in many of the other states, but in the country as a whole 200,000 teachers were cut from the payroll in 1933.

"Our problem as educators is to get the school program in front of every man and woman that goes to the legislature this year."

He recommended a system whereby the funds for educational purposes would be assured in times of alarm. He mentioned a small sales tax, income and privilege taxes, and said a bill to increase the amount of state funds for schools would lower the local burden.

"After yesterday afternoon were given by Judge Hugh A. Baker, Ripert, and by W. H. Smith, Twin Falls, president of the Idaho Education association."

Schools Vital—Smith's talk was on "Advances in Education," in which he said that the schools were the most important agency in the solution of society regarding its problems. He said that this effort must take adults into consideration, along with younger persons.

He said that the schools must be practical, and funds guaranteed, centralized. "The qualifications of teachers and administrators must be raised, and salaries brought to the level of other professions."

He urged a survey of the state with a view to consolidating districts and equalization of school money. Regarding school employees, he said that a strong guard be placed around the salary, warning that $1,500,000 worth of money through farm loans some year ago. State insurance for school property was also urged.

Mr. Condie, a former district judge, now engaged in the practice of law at Rupert, spoke on "The Community and the Teacher."

Lawds Teachers—He praised the teaching profession, and urged the consolidation of the group keep a broad outlook. Emphasizing the importance of education, he said the state had a greater investment in it than in any other enterprise.

"The business of the teacher is to teach how to think and not just what to think," he declared. "The student must be taught to care for himself."

He said that the equalities of three religions must not be forgotten, and that responsibility for the position of our nation in the world, rests with the services rendered by the teachers. "The moment to the teacher was not in spending the week-end here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hartman."

EXPRESION OF THANKS—We wish to express our appreciation to all our kind friends for their many expressions of sympathy and floral offerings during our bereavement in the loss of our dear baby.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Johnson and family.

HUGE TURNOUT GREET'S DAY'S FOOTBALL HEADLINERS

FEATURED GAMES ATTRACT CROWDS

New Era of Grid Prosperity Looms as Throngs Flock To See Battles

By JACK CUDDY
NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—An expected attendance of more than 1,500,000 at today's 218 college football games throughout the nation gave promise of a new era in football prosperity.

Such a turnout before the season's halfway point is reached would equal or surpass totals of late-season Saturdays during the last four years. It would mark return of the enthusiasm that featured the gridiron's golden decade.

Nearly a quarter-million fans were expected at four games in the New York metropolitan area alone. Similar outpourings were anticipated in other sections, attracted by an excellent program of inter-sectional encounters and significant regional clashes.

Major events of the day were slated for Pittsburgh, where the Pitt Panthers faced Minnesota—potential champions of the east and Midwest, respectively. Another big autumn inter-sectional game matched the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame against St. Mary's Gaelic from California.

In addition there were games between Navy and Columbia and Holy Cross and Harvard, none of whom have been beaten. Interesting eastern inter-sectional conflicts pitted Army-Bowling Green, Manhattan-Michigan State, Dartmouth-Virginia, Georgetown-William and Mary, Villanova-Detroit, and Yale-Brown.

Another big inter-sectional game between Colgate and Ohio State features the midwestern state, which also matches Michigan-Georgia Tech, Notre Dame-Carnegie Tech, and Rice-Creighton. Only two Big Ten games are slated: Chicago vs. Indiana, and Wisconsin vs. Purdue, Iowa and Iowa State have a traditional battle in the Big Six, Kansas tangles with Kansas State, and Oklahoma meets Nebraska.

Busy Day in Dixie
Louisiana and Oklahoma provide inter-sectional entertainment in the south, where three Southeastern conference games match Alabama-Tennessee, Tulane-Georgia and Vanderbilt-Alabama. Early plays Maryland-Virginia, North Carolina-Georgia Tech, and Rice-Creighton. Only two Big Ten games are slated: Chicago vs. Indiana, and Wisconsin vs. Purdue, Iowa and Iowa State have a traditional battle in the Big Six, Kansas tangles with Kansas State, and Oklahoma meets Nebraska.

REGISTRATION AND VOTE
With but two weeks remaining for the registration of voters in the general election Nov. 6, everyone intending to cast a ballot should make sure to list that his name has been recorded on the voting list properly.

Those persons who would urge the election of a governor from Twin Falls county on the theory that he is a "home man," are not urging such candidacies as that of George Hibner, Buhl, Socialist candidate for lieutenant-governor, on the same theory.

Fisher frowned. A swift flush of rage appeared on his countenance, and then he smiled slowly. "I am prepared to advise my client," he said, "to withdraw any libel suits and give you a complete release in return for your assurance that a retraction will be published by the newspaper."

It was so cold that nudists in convention in Akron, O., had to put on clothes, after which they were reintroduced to one another.

Fisher frowned. A swift flush of rage appeared on his countenance.

He telephoned "about one o'clock. It was right after lunch. He said that he had a live lead, but in order to get it he had to cultivate a girl. He said that he thought it wasn't wise to mention names over the telephone, but that he'd come in to the office some time this morning or late yesterday afternoon."

"You suppose that was because of something Mordon uncovered?" "You can't tell. It wasn't something that attracted my attention."

KANSAS SENATOR SCORES PACKERS
Capper Assails Concerns Aro Cheating Producers to Maintain Lobbies

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 20 (AP)—Packers are taking money from the pockets of the nation's livestock producers to maintain themselves on a "special privileged basis" through Washington lobbies, Senator Arthur Capper charges in a letter to D. M. Hildebrand, president of the United States Livestock association.

Efforts to pass legislation at the last session of congress would enable the regulation of agriculture to inspect the packers' books and regulate their livestock purchases were defeated by the activity of the packers, the senator wrote. "No one can rightfully object to the packers or anyone else regarding their opposition to the proposed legislation so long as such opposition is based on a misrepresentation of the legislation itself or the facts as presented in support of it."

The packers are a necessary phase of the livestock and meat industry. They are just as much an integral part, and are as indispensable to that industry as are the production and marketing phases of the business.

PEST-RESISTANT BEET EXHIBIT

Samples Show Results Gotten From Experimental Plot Near Castleford

Despite the insects made by the white fly on south Idaho beet crops, there were on exhibition at the office of the county extension agent today, samples of beetle taken from an experimental plot on the John Thomas ranch near Castleford, showing what is being accomplished with the latest type of fly-resistant beet seed, grown by the local U. S. bureau of plant industry.

Beet seed No. 609, has produced a crop of exceptionally high grade beets, Harvey S. Hale, county extension agent says, which will average from 14 to 15 tons to the acre. This is the judgment of Hale, J. N. Dayley, filler, and Mr. Thomas. Although this crop is a plot of beet grown from ordinary seed, they are worthless. Another seed is yielding about five to six tons, the men estimate.

The No. 609 seed was planted on land which had not been resented for 12 years, and had not been planted for two years, and had been planted in both for three years. These plots had been used, but was not effective this year, Hale said. Another crop, which had been planted in the North-west farm in the North-west district northeast of Buhl, shows an even larger production than the Thomas farm beets, Hale said today.

GRAIN HANDLERS GET SHORT WEEK

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20 (AP) - Under a decision of the National Longshoremen's board, grain handlers in the Pacific Northwest and warehouse workers in Portland were placed on the 30-hour week today for overtime.

The pay scale for the grain handlers in Seattle, Vancouver and Portland was set at 80 cents an hour for straight time and $1.20 an hour for overtime. The other grain warehouse workers were set at 70 cents an hour straight time and $1.05 an hour for overtime.

The decision was returned by the same board which has granted a 30-hour week, a 10-cent wage scale of 95 cents an hour, and a sharing in the operation of longshore hiring halls.

The board has yet to adjust matters in dispute between sailors and ship companies before completing the work assigned to it at the three-day strike which will strike last summer.

DEAD HUSBAND RETURNS AFTER WIFE RE-WEDS

LONG BEACH, Cal., Oct. 20 (AP) - Mrs. H. A. Hoff was torn today between two loves, one for her second husband and one resurrected by the reappearance of a husband she thought dead.

She had been married to Albert N. De Vul, 43, Oregon lumberman, who returned home last night to find that the wife he left eight years ago had him with a few sales at $1.00 to $1.25. He had been regularly dead and had remarried.

A light of memory lay behind the drama which had its inception on Nov. 20, 1924, when Hoff left his home in Apple Point, Ore., on a buying trip. He said he would 10 days later in an Oakland lodging house, penniless and sore from injuries. He had been beaten and all marks of identification stripped from his clothing, he said.

Could he recall past De Vul said he could recall none of his past life. He feared he had committed some crime during his mental interlude, fears that moved him to flight when Hoff had returned home. He had been married to De Vul before, he said, he wandered about the northwest, working in lumber camps or wherever he could find a job.

For four years Mrs. De Vul awaited his return. A search proved fruitless. She divorced him on desertion charges to insure the legality of her second marriage to her present husband.

Legally "Dead"

Three years later she had the doctor declare De Vul legally dead. Then she was to collect his $4,000 life insurance. The insurance company assigned an investigator who finally located De Vul and brought him back to his wife.

De Vul accepted her second marriage philosophically, declaring he would settle with Hoff and her children, Carl and Carl, both of whom recognized him with cries of "father."

But Mrs. Hoff displayed more than philosophy. "I have always loved him," she said of the man she married in 1927 and later divorced.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

VOLCANIC DUST
HUNG IN THE AIR FOR FOUR YEARS AFTER THE ERUPTION OF KRAKATOA, BETWEEN JAVA AND SUMATRA, MORE THAN A CUBIC MILE OF DUST WAS HURLED INTO THE AIR.

ALL PRUNES ARE PLUMS, BUT VERY FEW PLUMS ARE PRUNES!

ONLY THOSE PLUMS THAT WILL DRY WITHOUT SOURING ARE CALLED PRUNES!

WASPS CAN KEEP THE TEMPERATURE INSIDE THEIR NEST AS MUCH AS 25° WARMER THAN THE OUTSIDE AIR!

WORKMEN RAZE CITY LANDMARK

Old Timers Heave Sighs of Regret as Sunflower Building Goes

Old-timers heaved a sigh of regret today as they witnessed the razing of one of the old landmarks of the city. Workmen are engaged in tearing down the concrete structure at the corner of Main avenue and Third street south. It has housed the Sunflower store for many years. Provision to that time it was used by the Hays store which operated a store, and before that, W. H. Eldridge conducted a clothing store there. It was built nearly 30 years ago, and was first occupied by W. H. Hays, clothing store.
