INSULL INFLATED UTILITY STOCKS, WITNESS CLAIMS

Government Accountant Tells Court That Values Were "Kited" Upward

CITES TRICK ON PUBLIC

Boosted Issues Were Sold As Best of Empire's Values, Expert Says

CHICAGO, Oct. 26 (AP)—An expert government accountant testified in the Insull trial today that stocks and dividends of the Insull utility empire were "kited" fifty-fold to trick investors.

Turned "Jewels" he said, "they were represented to prospective investors in the Corporation Securities company as the jewels of the Insull empire."

In describing the "kiting" process, Murphy told a chain of intricate company dealings whereby stocks and dividends at one price had entered them on its books at many times the figure.

In 1930, two years before the company went under, the Insull Utilities Investment company turned over 14,689 shares of stock to Corporation Securities at $20 a share. The stock immediately was loaned to Insull.

"The public was given no indication that these shares were paper profits," Murphy added.

GO-ED KIDNAPING PROBED BY U. S.

Federal Agents Delve Into Truth of Story Told by Detroit Girl

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 26 (AP)—Federal department of justice agents today look charge of the asserted kidnaping of Mary Elsie Walter, 13-year-old Detroit girl, who her father, Vincent Walter, expressed confidence in the truth of her story of abduction.

The girl's father flew here early today on receipt of word that she had been taken into custody by St. Louis police on her arrival by bus from Chicago last night.

He expressed the belief, however, that Mary Elsie was kidnapped, and that she was permitted to occupy her room when the error was discovered by her abductors.

Federal agents ordered her to talk to no one, but that order, however, Mary Elsie had described her experience.

Chief Believes Story—Chief of Police John McCarthy, who relinquished custody of the girl to federal officers, said he believed she was kidnapped.

Miss Walter disappeared from Wayne university campus Monday night. She was kidnapped, she believed, by two men and a woman, who held her captive until 1 p. m. Tuesday, when they put her on a St. Louis bus at Chicago.

She could not identify her abductors, she said. She added she was blindfolded, and believed she was taken as far as Gary, Ind., although ultimately released in Chicago and put on the bus.

U. S. INSOMNIA KING ENDS 1ST WAKEFUL YEAR

ORLANDO, Fla., Oct. 26 (AP)—"The bug" yawned. Isaac Small today he claimed the national insomnia championship.

His claim was based on a full year of sleeplessness, just completed.

Nine months ago Small, 64 years old and a laborer, decided that sleep was a nuisance. Since he said he has stayed awake around the clock, he has been the subject of more than 100 newspaper articles.

Poll Shows New Deal as Sliding But Predominant

WILL ROGERS says: "The public was given no indication that these shares were paper profits," Murphy added.

Every gold town that you have read about in Twain's 'Huck Finn' stories is right around in this country. The adventure and romance of half a continent is in these very hills.

Republicans found new hope in the Digest figures. The United Press inquiry in states most likely to substitute Republicans for Democrats next month does not disagree with the New Deal in slipping far enough to give Democrats a comfortable margin for general success in election day.

Christman James A. Farley of the Democratic national committee believes the Democratic losses and gains will offset each other to continue for two years the top-heavy administration majority.

Democrats claim they are sure to win the Republican senate seats occupied by Cutting, M. Poon, O. Hatfield, W. V. Ivan, N. J. Patterson, Mo., and Goldborough, Md.

Sen. Henry Shivers, Farmer-Labor, Minn., in a possible United Press inquiry in states most likely to substitute Republicans for Democrats next month does not disagree with the New Deal in slipping far enough to give Democrats a comfortable margin for general success in election day.

HOUSE OF MAGIC SHOWN TO WEST

Varied Spectors Have Viewed Unique Exhibit Coming Here Next Week

"House of Magic," the popular name given the General Electric company's research laboratory at Schenectady, is named of which is to be shown here three days of next week, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, at such places as Bull Lake City, Vancouver, B. C., Tacoma, Wash., and Portland, Or. H. F. Brown, who is in charge, reported today.

The appearance of the exhibition here will be the signal for a variety of events, including shopping, and a home modernization program, reports the Junior Chamber of Commerce committee, sponsors of the event, which is expected to attract thousands to Twin Falls.

Students Will Attend—On account of the educational features of the House of Magic, it is learned that plans are being made to permit attendance of junior and high school students during the forenoon, at nominal admittance prices.

LEGION DEMANDS FOR BONUS CASH VIEWED FAILURE

Washington Forecasts Small Chance of Success for Payment Plan

HOUSE MAY PASS BILL

Experts Think Senate Would Balk Measure; Election Prospects Missing

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—Immediate payment of the $2,000,000,000 cash bonus, as demanded by the American Legion, was seen by authorities here today as having small chance of becoming a reality.

The hopes of the Legionnaire conflict directly with the "strategic" of the administration, which feels the war veterans should take "pat luck" with the rest of the nation in the recovery drive.

House legislation, however, undoubtedly will be introduced at the next session of congress in January. Legislative experts say the bill may pass in that session, but the senate probably will not.

Even if the senate should do a right-about-face, President Roosevelt almost certainly would veto it.

Mr. Roosevelt has indicated repeatedly, the last time in his Radio, Va., address a few days ago, that he believed payment of the bonus 10 years before due is inhumane.

No Political Pressure—The rapidly changing political scene also seems to be against the granting of checks to war veterans.

During the last session of congress the bonus was a real political issue. Votes for the bonus were cast for congressmen, and the bonus bill overhanging in White House.

When the measure reached the senate, it was defeated by a vote of 47 to 43. (Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

BODY OF BANDIT IS TAKEN HOME

Sisters Hysterical as Floyd Makes Last Return in Pine Casket

SALISAW, Okla., Oct. 26 (AP)—Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd came home today in a pine casket. His last known homecoming, about two years ago, was to rob the bank and the outlet for Idaho life is fast vanishing. Seven thousand tons have been taken out of the hands of local farmers and shipped to Wyoming, Ohio. Fourteen people killed him last Monday.

Ill folk, who knew the gunman best as an unruly boy who stole school books and pennies, escorted the casket to their homes.

Floyd's sisters and other members of the family who went to the train abandoned the restraint they had maintained for weeks: several became hysterical. One woman fainted.

The body was to be taken later today to the home of E. W. Floyd, a brother of the outlaw. Sunday it will be taken to Akins for funeral services and burial. The funeral will be public, in the little Baptist church at Akins with the Rev. W. C. Bookert, Baptist minister, officiating. Burial will be beside the grave of Floyd's father in the Akins cemetery.

Huey Will Announce Race for Presidency, Louisiana Hears

But Senator Long, Dunking Corn Pone in Pot Likker, Says He'll Really Announce Invasion of Mexico

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 26 (AP)—Senator Huey P. Long, Louisiana, is expected to announce today that he will run for president for some time, particularly on a "share-the-wealth" platform.

The letter is a flexible device that has enabled him to win decisions in one part of the state, no matter what the other part has done.

Senator Long himself, when reached in Baton Rouge, said he would not actually announce his intention to run for president until he had made his mind up.

SURVEY REVEALS FODDER SURPLUS

Pleasant Stock Food Supplies Available in Southwest Idaho Regions

STANLEY, Idaho, Oct. 26 (AP)—Farmers and livestock men of Boise valley, one of the state's most productive hay growing areas, do not face the prospect of an inadequate supply of food for their stock this winter.

During the last session of congress the bonus was a real political issue. Votes for the bonus were cast for congressmen, and the bonus bill overhanging in White House.

When the measure reached the senate, it was defeated by a vote of 47 to 43. (Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

Fodder for Sale

Estimates of the amount of hay available in the projected area between Boise and Weiser, Idaho, covering the northwestern part of the state, vary from 20,000 to 30,000 tons.

Conditions existing two years ago were contrasted with those at present, and the economic situation as prevailing at the start of the Roosevelt administration was described.

There were 15,000,000 acres of hay raised, but only 10,000,000 were at a low level, he pointed out. (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

NO IDAHO SUGAR QUOTA SHIFTED, POPE DECLARES

Senator Scores Partisanship of Critics; Gives Praise To Roosevelt

"No transfer of sugar best average allotment has been made to California from Twin Falls or from any other part of Idaho," declared Sen. James P. Pope in an hour-long filibuster yesterday.

Mr. Pope spoke for one hour, and in that time covered the principal issues in the present campaign, paid glowing tribute to President Roosevelt, and asked for election of a Democratic congressman to support the administration in its recovery effort.

R. G. Wilton, Democratic county chairman, presided, introducing the legislative and county candidates.

H. E. Powers, Kimberly, candidate for the legislature, introduced the platform upon which he and his colleagues, Sen. Dan Connor, Harry Barry and Dan J. Cavanaugh, were running.

The junior senator was applauded frequently as he recognized the attack, and ignored the accomplishments of the Civilian Conservation Corps, the bank deposit guarantee legislation, the Consumer Control Act, the National Education Act, and the many benefits of legislation enacted in response to the demand of the people during the past two years for constructive legislation.

The majority of the criticism is purely partisan," continued Pope, "who pick out only legislation for attack, and ignore the accomplishments of the Civilian Conservation Corps, the bank deposit guarantee legislation, the Consumer Control Act, the National Education Act, and the many benefits of legislation enacted in response to the demand of the people during the past two years for constructive legislation."

Hindus Starve In Roadway As Gandhi Protest

BOMBAY, India, Oct. 26 (AP)—Hundreds of delegates to the Indian National Congress from the Gujar district lay starving in the road today in a demonstration against the Congress.

Gandhi is withdrawing because the congress will not accede to his desire for an end of civil disobedience in favor of partial cooperation with the government.

He added that the congress, in a spirit of defeatism, appears to have lost faith in the efficiency of non-violence.

A copy of the Montana letter obtained by the United Press is identical with the California letter in the first and last paragraphs. The other paragraphs were changed in each case to meet specific state situations and to name candidates.

Mr. Roosevelt and Farley have declined so far to discuss the similar letter sent to California pleading in its public paragraphs for the election of Upton Sinclair.

The United Press was told, however, that the letter was circulated by mistake.

The committee "morally" denies it ever existed.

Farley's preference for green ink as a personal writing fluid has had wide publicity since he maneuvered to have the United Press use the Democratic national committee's rubber stamp pad also was distributed with the distinctive Farley color.

That in green, rubber-stamp ink at the bottom of the letter to Montana then appears the signature: "James A. Farley."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—The mystery of James A. Farley's green ink postscript and signature appended to a California campaign exploitation in behalf of Upton Sinclair developed here today.

The rubber stamp which put Farley's name and a postscript at the end of the letter to California added the name "United Press" to the letter.

Let's find out why Turkish tobacco is so important to a good cigarette

On the sunny slopes of Smyrna . . . in the fertile fields of Macedonia . . . along the shores of the Black Sea . . . grows a kind of tobacco that is different from any other tobacco in the world.

THESE Turkish tobaccos are the only tobaccos of foreign cultivation that are used to any great extent in making American cigarettes.

Turkish tobaccos are famous for their spicy aroma, and a blend of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco with our own home-grown tobaccos is better than any one kind used alone.

In Chesterfield's "Balanta" mild, ripe tobaccos grown in this country with just the right amount of the right kind of Turkish tobacco.

It is by blending these tobaccos blending these tobaccos that we produce the Chesterfield cigarettes that are so famous.

Remember, when you buy the Chesterfield cigarettes, you are buying the best.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

After twenty years of construction work, San Francisco has finished the Hetchy Hetchy water system. A large glacier, high in the Sierra mountains, furnishes the water. The ice melts during the warm summer months and is caught in a great reservoir, more than 200 miles from San Francisco.

YALE and Dartmouth played a heart-breaker in 1923. The Big Green never had a power play until early in the game. A powerful Yale squad rolled up 10 points. But at the start of the second half, Mustard, one of the great Yale backs, took matters into his own hands. He hit the line with the force of a gremlin, and in six plays covered yards for a touchdown. Mustard had plunged for another...
