NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (UPI)—Miss Natalee Couch, Republican candidate for representative at large, wired Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt today, that she intends to have challenged the vote of Mrs. Anna Dall, daughter of the President, and the First Lady, "for the privilege of presenting an honest ballot."

Mrs. Roosevelt assured Miss Couch's bid by campaigning for her Democratic opponent, Mrs. Caroline Dall.

It follows:

"I am sending this telegram to you as matron of the White House and an active participant in the Democratic campaign against my candidacy for representative in congress at large from the State of New York."

Nevada Residence
"I am informed that a member of your household or members of it have established legal residence in the State of Nevada for personal reasons in which I have no interest."

"I am further informed that the same member of your household has, within recent date, obtained an absentee ballot in Dutchess county for the purpose of voting in the forthcoming election. If that is true I am vitally interested."

"I call your attention to section 150 of Article 7 of the election law and to sections 1620 and 1635 of Article 168, chapter 41, of the public laws, which make it illegal that such a vote be challenged for the purpose of preserving an honest ballot."

At Republican headquarters it was said Miss Couch referred to Mrs. Dall.

INSULL FINISHES LONG TESTIMONY

Leaves Stand Scowling After
Shouting Denials at U. S.
Prosecutor

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 (UPI)—Samuel Insull, weary from three days of cross-examination at the hands of government prosecutors, left the witness stand in federal court today after shouting angry denials that he manipulated a $143,000,000 mail fraud.

To the surprise of government attorneys and spectators, he was not called upon for any redirect questioning by his lawyer, Edward E. Thompson.

At the 74-year-old Insull stepped down from the witness chair, still scowling, at Assistant Attorney General Leon J. Seltzer, he paused in a final survey of the courtroom.

For the jury, whom he had advised to "go gentlemen," he mustered a faint smile.

Defense Satisfied
Thompson, apparently satisfied with the way his mind had been cleared by Seltzer's cross-examination, waved aside his right to question Insull again.

As Insull walked slowly to his inconveniences chair in the midst of his 16 co-defendants, Thompson called Sam Howard, trustee in bankruptcy for the Corporation Securities company, to the stand.

Seltzer had sought to show that Insull, his brother, wife and son used the Insull Utilities Investment company, through its affiliate, the All-American Corp., to "dump" stocks, whereby they found huge stock profits.

The speakers eliminated a plea for the election of D. Worth Clark, candidate for congress, who ill with bronchitis at a Pocatello hospital, and the governor concluded his address by urging his hearers to put their trust in the top of the Democratic ticket.

An audience estimated at 600 persons heard the address in Elko.

CAN WE AFFORD A CHANGE?

EDITORIAL

When the voters go to the polls tomorrow they will make a decision as important as any with which they have ever been confronted.

Despite the fact that the Democratic administration in both the Senate and the House of Representatives has succeeded wonders in bringing this country out of the messes into which it slipped under the rule of the old dealers, its opponents have endeavored to belittle and discredit the general improvement in conditions which is evident.

"I call your attention to section 150 of Article 7 of the election law and to sections 1620 and 1635 of Article 168, chapter 41, of the public laws, which make it illegal that such a vote be challenged for the purpose of preserving an honest ballot."

At Republican headquarters it was said Miss Couch referred to Mrs. Dall.

Party lines have sagged and vanished as the campaign progressed. So many Democrats are critical of New Deal policies and so many Republicans are afraid directly to challenge President Roosevelt that the election tomorrow cannot be accepted as a satisfactory referendum on the new deal.

State Rights Hot

For the element of suspense which makes horse races and elections interesting, it is necessary to look to various state contests for national and local office. In two states, Pennsylvania and Nebraska, the issue is clearly drawn between the New Deal and the anti-New Dealers. Sen. David A. Reed, R., delivered a smashing challenge to Administration policies.

Joseph F. Guffey, Democratic senator nominee, accepted Reed's issue. Victory for Guffey would be a staggering blow to Republican plans for a revitalized party by 1936.

Nebraska Test

Edward R. Burke, Democratic senator nominee, carries a new deal banner in Nebraska. Robert G. Simmons, Republican, was not afraid to speak for the anti-New Dealers. If Simmons defeats

When they speak of their efficiency, leadership and such in making their campaign to get back in power, they make no mention of why they did not exercise this efficiency, leadership and such in the campaign of 1932.

When the voters go to the polls tomorrow, it will be well to take these facts into serious consideration.

OKLAHOMAN WILL JAR WASHINGTON

Congressman, Assured of Win, Will Be Capital's Loudest "Freshman"

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 5.—With a promise to be the "noisiest freshman" in Congress, James Lee, Oklahoma's first district representative, will go to Washington in January to lead a fight for legislation that will draft most of the men in men in time of war.

The former University of Oklahoma public speaking professor has carried his war against war for 45 years, keeping a pledge made over the body of his World War buddy in France — that his next fight would be against the war profiteer. The southwest and the middle west have heard his forceful oratory and people have cheered with tear-filled eyes as he described his simple remedy of taking the profit out of war to prevent the killing of men in

Collecting Aid

Since his nomination last summer Lee has traveled extensively, collecting aid for his congressional campaign for universal conscription. He carried his appeal to 20 Missouri counties under the auspices of the State Department of Education. After each appearance before a county teachers' association a resolution was passed urging legislation "to conscript money and materials as well as men" in time of war.

In an unannounced address before the Missouri Department of the American Legion, the 42-year-old orator recited a standing ovation for several minutes from weeping veterans and their wives.

"For 17 years," Lee told the Legionnaires, "this organization has been fighting for universal conscription. It hasn't gotten to first base. I'm going to Congress in January, and I'll be the noisiest freshman in Washington."

Three Steps

There are three steps:

1. Placing an embargo on arms
2. Opposition to an intervention policy that would send soldiers into foreign countries to protect private investments.
3. Collection of property as well as men in time of war.

He has even the first two partially fulfilled. When war broke out in South America between Bolivia and Paraguay, he reminded the United States places an embargo on arms; encouraged by the example 18 other nations placed embargoes as far as that was wise concerned.

When the recent Cuban situation arose, he recalled, the United States took the stand there should be no intervention since it was a domestic revolution.

GROUP TO CLIMB HIMALAYA PEAKS

French Scientists Plan Trip to Find Secrets Buried in Snow Peaks

PARIS (UPI)—A mountain climbing expedition is being organized here in an effort to wreath some of the scientific secrets buried in the snow-capped peaks of the Himalayas. It is backed by the French Alpine club.

Composed of experts on geology, physics, meteorology and other rays, the expedition will leave in October and will climb to the party that will start out for Kangchenjunga Peak that rises to a height of 28,160 feet, the second highest in the world. Motion-picture cameras will be taken along to make documentary films of the undertaking.

Equipment Tested

Tents and clothing to be used on the trip already have been tested against severe weather by a group of climbers who have lived for months in the snow-covered regions of Mount Blanc. The members perfected their instruments for mountain-climbing in another experimental trip to the top of the Green Nettle Peak in the region of Molne.

Owing to the great amount of scientific data that is to be collected in the Himalayas, the expedition will not return to France until late summer.

VOTING IS TEST ON PARTY LINES

Strength of Regular Groups Challenged by Election on Nov. 6

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Strength of the unified political party line by a vital two-year test beginning with the Nov. 6 congressional election.

First definite returns on third party sentiment will be in election day from Whidbey, where the LaFollette brothers have organized a Progressive machine in opposition to the old line political organizations.

Sheehan's Fate

Upton Sinclair's fate as Democratic candidate for governor in California will join the direction of the Pacific political tide. He has carried the state organization to the left.

For convenience, we may cast the R. P. C. under Hoover, the Old Deal, in contrast with the New Deal.

The Old Deal's idea of reform was to pour out millions of government money to various big interests, but not one penny to the common man. During the Hoover regime, how much aid was allotted to Twin Falls county? Not one cent.

TWO GAMES FEATURE WEEK'S NATIONAL TITLE RACE

STANFORD-HUSKY AFFRAY IS VITAL

May Determine Western Rose Bowl Choice; Undefeated Navy Gets Test

HE HAS FOOTBALL 'IT'

By JACK GUDDY
NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (UPI)—Two games, each having an important bearing on the national championship race, will feature this week's football program: the Navy-Notre Dame intersectional match at Cleveland, and the Stanford-Washington collision at Palo Alto, Calif.

The latter is particularly significant because it may decide the team conference winner and the western Rose Bowl contender.

The Navy-Notre Dame engagement is of paramount importance because it matches the unbeaten and untied Midshipmen with a fairly strong midwestern eleven.

15 Remaining Unbeaten

Fifteen unbeaten major elevens will see action this week. They are the only remaining undefeated major powers following a week in which saw five shunted out of the championship parade.

Hostilities may be outlined as follows:

Giant—two intersectional games stand out. Unbeaten and untied Michigan State Invaders, unbeaten and untied Syracuse, Louisiana State Tigers, George Washington. Other intersectional games bring together Yale-Georgia, Cal-Gate, Notre Dame and Duquesne-Oklahoma A&M.

Louisiana State and Tulane, powers of the south, have not been beaten this season. Unbeaten eastern teams will play the following regional opponents: Princeton-Louisville, Syracuse-Michigan State, Temple-Carnegie Tech, Tufts-Middlebury and Trinity-Vermont.

Midwest—New-Notre Dame occupies the spotlight although another intersectional encounter brings together Nebraska and Pittsburgh. Five Big Ten engagements are featured by those in which unbeaten Minnesota tangles with Indiana, and undefeated Illinois meets Northwestern. Other conference games match Iowa-Purdue, Michigan-Wisconsin, Ohio State-Chicago, Penn State-Dartmouth, and Oklahoma meets Iowa State. On Friday, Marquette invades St. Louis.

South—Alabama, an outstanding contender for the national title, meets Clemson. In the southeastern conference three games are slated: Florida-Mississippi, Vanderbilt-Sewanee, and Tennessee-Mississippi State. In the mid-southern conference Maryland meets Virginia Military Institute, North Carolina State tangies with Virginia Military, and Virginia meets Washington and Lee.

Cougars Meet Idaho

Pacific coast—in addition to the Stanford-Washington classic, three other conference games are slated: Washington State-Idaho, Oregon State and California-U. S. C.

Southwest—undefeated Rice operates Arkansas in the feature conference game, while Southern Methodist meets Texas A & M., and Texas opposes Baylor.

Rocky mountains—unbeaten Utah State opposes the Colorado Aggies while two other conference games bring together Utah and Colorado, and Colorado college and Brigham Young. Duke invades Denver in an intersectional match.

PASTOR HONORED BY PARISHIONERS

Monsignor Keyzer Landed at Farewell Event Held
By Catholics

Nearly 300 persons attended the reception which St. Edward's parish had offered farewell yesterday afternoon to Monsignor Remi S. Keyzer, Ill., pastor for 16 years. Guests were received at the Legion Memorial Hall from the hour of 2:30 to 4 p.m. Rev. Daniel O. Ruote, assistant at St. Edward's, also was honored after the Mass.

Monsignor Keyzer is to leave about the 10th week to assume his new duties as pastor of St. Nicholas parish, Rupert. Rev. Father H. E. Hartman, who has been pastor at St. Rita's Catholic church Kellogg, will replace him. Father Ruote leaves to assume the pastorate of the church at Weiser.

Farewell Address

Henry Benoit acted as master of ceremonies and gave a farewell address to Monsignor Keyzer, who gave a short response. Father Ruote spoke briefly. Benoit introduced Miss Nell Kinney, who, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Beckwith, played violin solo, and Mrs. Nellie Ostrom, who presented vocal selections.

Benoit also presented Monsignor Keyzer with a purse from the parish, and gifts or money from the Catholic Women's League and the young people of the parish.

Following the informal program refreshments were served. Mrs. J. M. Pahm, president of Catholic Women's League, presided at the tea table, which was attractive with autumn flowers. Flowers were also used about the room.

Sismologist Climates Buffalo
Slowly Shifts; Predicts
Weather Changes

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI) — Buffalo and vicinity are moving south, according to the Rev. John P. Deaney, S. J., director of seismological research at Cornell college.

"This year," said Deaney, "the northwest and future Buffalo summer will be warmer and the winter milder," he predicts. In the distant future the map of the Great Lakes region will be changed considerably by this tilting, Rev. Deaney said.

Earthquakes, caused by tremors forced continually at work remodeling the face of the earth, he explained, are responsible.

"No part of the earth's surface has attained a static condition," the seismologist told students.

"Canadians on the north shore of Lakes Erie and Ontario have observed their shore lines receding and their beaches left high and dry."

"Americans on the northern shores have complained of the broken encroaching on their properties. Fine healthy trees that had stood straight and grand are toppling over into the water."

"Seismologists have measured this southwest tilt of the Great Lakes region, and they find that it amounts to only a few thousandths of an inch per century, a very small effect but very real in its consequences."

"If this tilting process can continue without great internal friction, the region will be free from earthquake convolution."

DIVES TO FIND HIS FATHER DEAD

When Walter McCray (right), veteran Northwest diver, copped to drown the son who was swimming in the muddy swelling Chetahs River near Aberdeen, Wash., his son, Art McCray, 19, descended 30 feet to find that a cave-in or rocks dislodged his father's diving helmet, causing death by drowning.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE'S PARENTS NOT SURE THEY LIKE EXTREME FAME

By NORMAN B. DEUEL
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — George and Gertrude Temple are two sensible, easy-going, plain folk somewhat worried over being thrown into a new world.

They are the parents of the year-old girl whom Shirley, when asked, said she thought "was an Aladdin's lamp into the hands of the family. But they are not sure whether Shirley's good fortune is a blessing or a curse.

Plenty of Cash

Little Shirley has an income sufficient to insure financial independence for the years to come. Gertrude Temple receives a good-sized salary from the film company as instructor for her daughter. Temple receives a modest salary manager of a branch bank. All this would indicate the Temples are sitting atop the world, even in these depressed times.

But the Temples are more concerned than pleased. They have been thrown into a new world. Increased income has brought increased demands on time and purse. The Temples are meeting people they knew not, are going places and fitting into more ambitious current of life. They are losing some of their old friends, although not by their own desire. On the contrary, it is the old friends who are avoiding the Temples, conscious of an inability to keep up with Shirley's people, and no longer willing to run in unison for a visit or to bring a cup of sugar.

Larger Home

The Temples have moved into a larger home. They had to, for more room was needed. Their two-bedroom room enough for the couple, their father, two sons aged 18 and 16 respectively, and a daughter coming into four weeks.

The new home is surrounded by a high wall and has a patio. This serves the purpose of keeping away the public, but it has also isolated the Temples from their old friends. At the same time, this wall and patio has become a barrier to old friends and old neighbors, and I don't get off the hip.

CANTON, O. (UPI) — After several years of dispute, the famous home of the late President William McKinley here is to be destroyed.

Only the porch, from which the martyred president conducted his famous front porch campaign, will be saved. This will be used as part of a new park pavilion.

The city park commission ordered the building destroyed when complaint was made that it was a menace to public health. Several movements to make the structure a public shrine failed because financiers were lacking.

French Women Want Brighter Colors Than Displayed by Americans

By MARY KNIGHT

PARIS (UPI) — It's funny how the French think about stockings. They think American ideas about the color of hose are too dark. No smart Parisienne would wear stockings in deep shades, as do the American women seem to prefer them.

For all times of day and for evening, French hosiery is definitely on the light side, pale beige, greiges, off-white and golds, very few gunmetal or bronze or any of their near approaches.

Dull Surface

French women are beginning to prefer the dull-surfaced stocking to the shiny finish they have favored previously. Gray, in the light purls, doves and whites are popular, and in browns, nothing deeper than a damp sand color is considered within the pale of Parisian preference. For informal occasions, stockings in pastel colors are popular, including blues and more solid pink extremities usually select something with the suggestion of silver about it, but never a deep nor excessively dull tone.

KANSAS REPEAL VOTE DOUBTFUL

Outcome of "Wet" Campaign
Uncertain as Both Sides
Predict Victory

TODAY, Kansas City, Nov. 5 (UPI)—Kansas will vote on repeat of its prohibition amendment Nov. 6. The outcome, as viewed today, is extremely doubtful.

The state probably will favor repeal, possibly by a two to one vote. The rural sections seem content to keep Kansas dry.

Whether you believe Kansas will cast aside its ideals and traditions and vote its dry amendment out depends upon the point of view.

Wets Confident

H. J. Tholen of Hays, president of the Anti-Prohibition society of Kansas, is confident that the voters will register their disapproval of existing conditions, and join the ranks of the wet states.

Dry leaders, mostly members of church organizations, are just as confident the proposal will be defeated. They have organized a militant committee and their meetings have been well-attended.

There seems no doubt that repeal sentiment is at a higher point now than it ever has been in Kansas since John St. John became governor and whipped the water in 1880 by some 7,000-odd votes. That referendum put the dry amendment on the books, and until now it never has been threatened seriously.

Never Truly Dry

Kansas, of course, never has been drier than the average state was under prohibition. It has made its own whisky—the deep shaft variety, so-called because it was made in the abandoned mine shafts of the southern coal fields—but in particular demand. Today 32 beer is sold and at night electric signs advertising the various popular brands light the sky line of all the cities.

The vote on repeal is in a little puzzling to many Kansas residents. Under the present law the legislature cannot enact any measures concerning the manufacture or liquor. If the amendment is repealed the effect will be simply to empower the legislature to license and regulate the manufacture and sale of all alcoholic liquor. It also empowers the legislature to prohibit liquor in certain areas.

MOVIE WORKERS WILL CAST VOTE

They're Stirred Up Over Hot
Fight Between Sinclair
And Morriam

(Copyright, 1934, United Press)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 5 (UPI)—The film colony tomorrow will qualify overwhelmingly for what oration may be necessary to make good citizenship. The colony is going to the polls to vote.

Seldom in history has political aroused such intense heat. Action, helping people usually have nothing to do with the other fellow." But the bitter gubernatorial race between Upton Sinclair and Gov. Frank B. Morriam has stirred the local folks from their usual lethargy.

Observers believe at least 85 percent of those above "Jacket" Coup or's age will cast ballots.

Sentiment Unknown

Among the producers and other executives it's considered a conservative but 60 per cent will vote for Morriam, Republican nominee. But the sentiment of the actors, the wives and other entertainers who were asked by their studios to contribute a day's pay to Morriam's campaign fund "in an unknown quantity."

One scenario writer told the United Press that "almost everyone I know" will vote for Sinclair through sheer perverseness.

But there were others who made no secret that they would support the Republican nominee.

Cagney Is Liberal

James Cagney has the few million dollars he needs to maintain his independence at all times. He's a well known liberal. Once recently he was accused of being a Communist sympathizer, but this he angrily denied.

Sylvia Sidney also believes in voting. Outside of acting, her chief interests are politics and medicine.

"I consider it the duty of every loyal citizen to vote," she says.

So does "Bing" Crosby, who adds, "We taxpayers are interested in every election."

Autograph hunters will be sure of finding Loretta Young at her polling booth. She conformed a particular interest in the current election. Frederic March said he always voted and will tomorrow. And it's a foregone conclusion that someone will receive the vote of Clark Gable.

Cecil B. De Mille is in one executive who is holding a Sinclair victory in mind, although he doesn't picture it quite so easily as Irving Cobb.

Louis B. Mayer has talked publicly in the last week. Long a Republican he was threatened to transfer his studio to Florida if he didn't nominate him. Although he was warranted six weeks ago he decided to back the old time campaign.

HOUSEWIFE TOLD FOODS GOING UP

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (UPI)—Confirmation of President Roosevelt's warning to housewives that high food prices may be expected was provided today by the bureau of agricultural economics.

The bureau reported that higher food prices all along the line might be expected until next year's crops begin to come on the market. Dutches may be expected then, the bureau said, the sharpness depending on how large plantings will result from present high levels.

The bright side of the picture was the increase in farm income which the higher prices will bring and regulate the manufacture and sale of all alcoholic liquor. It also empowers the legislature to prohibit liquor in certain areas.

EASTMAN URGES RAIL ECONOMIES

Small Sacrifices Would Help
Revitalize Industry, Says
U. S. Coordinator

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 5 (UPI)—Initial small sacrifices by individual railroads, labor and shippers were proposed today by Rail Coordinator Joseph B. Eastman in an effort to revive the rail industry.

He told the Traffic and Transportation club here that such sacrifices would be the first step toward gains for all concerned.

Methods for improving the condition of carrier revenue were described by Eastman.

Cities Economize

"It is physically possible to lower the cost of railroad operation very materially and without hurting traffic," he said, "by the utilization of joint use of many terminals."

Other savings would result, he said, from pooling carload traffic, joint use of shops, modernization of equipment, reduction of transfers of freight cars, simplification of inter-company accounting through use of a clearing house.

Water has been turned out of the canals for this year. The FERA projects for rip-rapping the canal having been approved, and an appropriation of $17,500 set aside for the work, the water had to be shut off to let the canal bed get into condition for work, which will start at once. About 100 men will be employed and nine teams will be used. Seven miles were completed last year, and this will be completed by the end of the month.

Does Borah Endorse Stephan
For This Method of Procedure?

Frank L. Stephan, candidate on the Republican ticket for Governor, in charging Ross with not showing up lawyers' fees paid by the State. Now, the Taxpayers of the Highway District want Mr. Stephan to explain how it comes that an Attorney-General he advised the Highway District Board that they had made an illegal investment of highway funds of over $12,000.00 and how it comes that after giving that advice he got hired by the Board as the Board's attorney in October, 1930; and then how it comes that an attorney for the Board he promised to sue the members to recover the money illegally invested in these bonds, and kept promising till one day before the statute of limitations would give the men a defense; and how it comes that when one of the taxpayers hired lawyer to bring suit in the name of the Highway District, that he took the side of the case against the district, and against his own opinion as Attorney-General and made it fight in our local court and clear up to the Supreme Court, losing in both courts. The other attorney got a judgment of $12,445.87 with costs against the members of the board.

And would like for Mr. Stephan to explain how it comes that after Judgment was obtained against the members of the board that he signed a stipulation in court reading:

It is "stipulated and agreed by and between F. L. Stephan and J. H. Blandford, general counsel of Filer Highway District now the judgment creditor in the above matter, and the attorneys for defendants and judgment debtors above named" meaning the members of the board that the court could allow attorney's fees to the other lawyers for $1,500.00, which fee the taxpayers had to pay, and all this time Stephan was getting a retainer of $150.00 from the Highway Board.

We want Stephan to explain how he could be attorney for both sides at one time, drawing a retainer fee from the Highway District and fees from the individuals of the board against the district, and against his own opinion as Attorney-General. Such things-as-these-make-the-farmers-afraid to deal with lawyers or go into courts.

Now then, if Stephan is elected Governor, will he not act in this same way draw pay from the taxpayers, and then at the same time, serve the interests of the politicians?

Some of the taxpayers don't think, for the above reasons, that Stephan is the man to be elected Governor of the State of Idaho.

A TAXPAYER OF
FILER HIGHWAY DISTRICT

STATE SUPREME COURT CONDEEMS THIS PRACTICE

WHY DID FRANK L. STEPHAN IN FORECLOSING ON FARMERS IN DEFAULT CASES, FAIL TO OBEY THE DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT OF IDAHO IN GETTING ATTORNEY'S FEES AGAINST THE DOWNTRODDEN FARMER?

HERE IS WHAT THE SUPREME COURT OF IDAHO SAID ON THE SUBJECT:

"Equity dictates that attorney's fees in actions to foreclose a mortgage should be REASONABLE AND THAT THE AMOUNT ALLOWED THE PLAINTIFF THEREFOR SHOULD BE LIMITED TO THE AMOUNT ACTUALLY PAID FOR THE SERVICES RENDERED. The practice of charging an attorney's fees, ten or fifteen per cent against the mortgagor, when a much smaller amount is actually paid to the attorney by the plaintiff, thus wrongfully increasing the burden of the debtor who seeks to redeem, IS DISREDITABLE TO THE PROFESSION AND CONTRARY TO EVERY PRINCIPLE OF EQUITY. The court should not sustain such A FRAUDULENT AND INIQUITOUS PRACTICE. In suits no fee should be allowed as reasonable which is to be divided with the plaintiff to increase the amount over that stipulated for in the mortgage. . . ."

"IN ALL CASES OF DEFAULT, TO LIMIT THE AMOUNT OF SUCH FEE TO THAT ACTUALLY PAID, OR TO BE PAID, and IN ALL CASES TO ALLOW NO MORE THAN IS REASONABLE."

Salmon Tract Residents Victims of Duplicity

Public records reveal that Frank L. Stephan, as general counsel for the Salmon River Canal company, with an annual retainer, plus fees for litigation, brought suit on behalf of his company against the Utah Construction company involving water rights on the Salmon tract in Twin Falls County. Its purpose was to enforce the terms of a federal court decree and the case is still pending.

After this case was instituted, Mr. Stephan was offered and accepted the attorneyship for the Utah Construction company in a case instituted against Harrel and others on the Salmon tract, this suit also involving water rights, and the attorney for the Utah Construction company in the first-mentioned case, is Mr. Stephan's associate in this latter action.

This suit is still pending in the district court.

Would Mr. Borah approve of this duplicity to the "down-trodden farmers" of Idaho?

A campaign advertisement in the Idaho Farmer urging election of Stephan, says: "A Farmer for Governor!" Is Stephan the candidate of the farmers of Idaho for the position as chief executive of the state of Idaho?

His public record proves he has been supremely successful in "farming" the farmers of Idaho.

While a Member of the State Legislature

STEPHAN

Voted AGAINST memorializing congress for the passage of the Child Labor Amendment to the federal constitution.

Was listed as ABSENT when the vote came on the oleomargarine tax law.

Voted AGAINST the direct primary law. And as Attorney-General and member of the Board of Claims, he never raised his voice in protest, but helped spend the largest appropriation ($4,700,000) ever made for carrying on the business of the State of Idaho.
