ANNUAL INCOMES STATUS Baffles NEW DEAL HEADS

Higher Yearly Cash on Less Hourly Wage Viewed as Recovery Need

GUARANTEE IS OBSTACLE

Administration Chiefs Unable To Answer Labor's Prime Objection to Plan

By LYLE C. WILSON WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—New Deal brain trusters are baffled by the problem of providing for workers a proper annual income as distinguished from satisfactory hourly-wage scales. There has been no indication that the administration is ready with any plan to deal with that question. Yet it is one of the frequently discussed matters which officials consider privately the problems of recovery.

Vital to Building The question arises in its most aggravated form in the housing industry which lags far behind most others in activity and employment. Some government officials and industrial leaders generally are of the opinion that the high hourly wage rates prevailing for labor in the construction industry represent an obstacle to revived building.

It is argued that the purposes of federal economy and industrial recovery would be served if labor could be persuaded to reduce its hourly wage in return for some assurance that over a 12 month period the income per worker would be greater by reason of increased employment.

Obvious Advantage It is obvious enough that a skilled worker employed for 40 weeks at $1 an hour would earn $1,700 while employment for 20 weeks at $1.90 an hour brings him only $800. It is possible that reduction of hourly wage scales would stimulate the supply of labor.

But when labor is approached with such proposals the first question asked is "What's in it for me?"

The answer is "nothing," it is said, "if you are going to be laid off." (Continued on Page 2, Column 7)

Luck with Quartet When Plane Crashes in Street

Fate was lenient with the four occupants of this plane, resting on its tail and wing tip, nose and cockpit shattered, and one motor torn away, after a collision with a tree in Western Springs, Ill., Chicago suburb. Two veteran pilots escaped with injuries and a stewardess and a passenger were unhurt when the craft crashed in a blinding snowstorm.

TWIN FALLS TRIO KILLED IN CRASH

Three Drown as Auto Skids Off Bridge Into River Near Hailey

Lives of three Twin Falls persons were snuffed out this morning in a Christmas holiday tragedy near Hailey, when Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Alexander, 308 Second avenue east, and Oleo G. (Ted) Croft, 28, barber at the Antiseptic shop here, were drowned when the car in which they were passengers ran off a bridge and turned over in Wood river.

Identification of the accident victims was not completed until 2 p. m. today, and Sheriff E. F. Prater, called to Hailey with Sterling Alexander, brother of the dead man, phoned the Evening Times, stating that all three bodies were being sent by ambulance here this afternoon. They were to be received at the Twin Falls mortuary late today.

It is believed that Alexander driving a light roadster, left here with Mrs. Alexander and Croft at about 4:30 p. m. yesterday. It was near that hour that Croft called his employer, stating he would not be here to go to work this morning.

Found Early Today Details of the tragedy were slow in reaching here today. Discovery of the accident was made between 8 and 9 a. m. by Marion and Donald Clingler, residing two and a half miles below Hailey. They were on their way to milk and saw the wrecked car in the stream.

Automobile license plates are applied, Sheriff George D. Campbell to be the residence of the car owner, and inquiry was first made here.

CHRISTMAS BOOM CLIMBS TO HIGH MARK IN NATION

Retail Sales Range From 10 To 40 Per Cent Above Last Year

STOREKEEPERS CHEERED

Yuletide Volume Called Best Holiday Turnover Since 1929 Season

(Copyright, 1934, United Press.) The nation's storekeepers today looked back on the greatest volume of Christmas buying since 1929, with sales ranging from 10 to 40 per cent higher than in 1933. A check-up today showed that the last-minute rush of buying on Monday maintained the high pace registered in the first three weeks of December. Shops nationwide were crowded to closing hour.

A United Press survey shows: New York City—Sales increased 12 to 20 per cent over 1933. Dixie Sales Unit—Atlanta, Ga.—Sales increased 15 to 40 per cent over 1933, and were the best in five years. Raleigh, N. C.—Sales increased 12 to 17 per cent over 1933 figures, with higher priced articles showing best increase.

Los Angeles—Sales 10 to 25 per cent better than 1933 and volume the best in five years. New Orleans—Estimated 15 per cent increase over 1933. Chicago—Train 20 per cent better than last year, with many stores reporting volume estimated in last-minute rush, despite heavy snow storm mid-afternoon Monday.

Portland, Ore.—Estimated 36 to 37 per cent improvement. All retail traffic heavy. Michigan Rooms Detroit—Gained 20 per cent over 1933, with stores through the state reporting gain of 18 per cent.

Dallas—Best sales since 1929. Kansas City—Sales increased 10 to 20 per cent in all lines. Denver—Retail sales in Rocky Mountain region generally 10 to 25 per cent improved. Boston—Sales 25 per cent greater than a year ago, best since 1929 and brought comment from Governor-elect James Curley that "this Christmas has been business make the decisive step forward."

San Francisco—Sales increased approximately 10 per cent. Normal business was resumed in Twin Falls today following the holiday vacation period of yesterday, when the residents of the city and vicinity were in an outstanding observance of Christmas.

Police and sheriff's forces today reported that the holiday was the busiest of the year for the generosity of large numbers of persons and groups made it possible to provide 173 needy families with food, clothing and toys.

Despite the heavy holiday trade which featured the pre-holiday period here, "money" was being spent lavishly in Twin Falls today, the fourth of the weekly auctions of the Twin Falls Empire exposition attracting large crowds at both the 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. sales events.

Harold R. Harvey, chamber of commerce secretary, started the "easy money" auctions this morning, and this afternoon the selling was to be taken over by Harvey Caron.

It was stated today that the proposition "easy money" store, at exposition headquarters, where merchandise will be marked and put up for sale in terms of the trade speaks in its own defense.

Too Busy WASHINGTON, Dec. 26 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today that he didn't overeat Christmas dinner for the simple reason that he was too busy carving the White House turkey.

There were so many requests for double helpings, he said, that the opportunity never came for him to overeat.

Andrus, Richest Subway Patron, Succumbs at 94

Wealthy Eccentric, Friend of Financial Giants, Made $300,000,000 Fortune

YONKERS, N. Y., Dec. 26 (AP)—John E. Andrus, who made a fortune estimated at $300,000,000, but rode to work in the subway, died today at the age of 94.

Andrus was a contemporary and friend of the mentor Rockefeller, of Andrew Carnegie, of railroad giants like James J. Hill and Edward H. Harriman. Like them, he grew wealthy on 19th century expansion of the United States.

Vast Holdings While the backbone of his fortune was widely erected around a chain of chemical companies, his land holdings, from New York to New Mexico, and from Texas to Alaska, brought him more millions. Mineral rights on thousands of these acres, including gold mines in Alaska and oil wells in Texas and Oklahoma, contributed to the fortune.

Throughout his active business life, however, he insisted upon retaining the simplicity of living that marked many of his rugged contemporaries. Not only did he ride to work, unnoticed in the millions of subway riders, but he ate 20-cent lunches and dined his own meals—every other day.

Hauptmann Delay Banned by State; Ignore Tampering Postponement Rejected By New Jersey Leaders

Betty Gow, Nursemaid to Slain Child of Lindberghs, Spirited Into Hiding

BY SIDNEY B. WHIPPLE FLEMINGTON, N. J., Dec. 26 (AP)—Trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, former German machine gunner, accused of murdering Charles A. Lindbergh, jr., will begin on Jan. 2 regardless of technical jury-tampering, state officials indicated today.

Attorney General David T. Wilentz, it was revealed after a conference of prosecuting attorneys, is opposed to further postponements of the case, and does not consider the recent distribution to thousands of a satirical pamphlet dealing with the kidnaping as sufficient cause to demand a new panel.

While the state officials were discussing the latest sensational development, Sheriff John H. Curran drew from a small jar 48 copies containing the names of Hamilton county citizens from whom the trial jury of 12 men and women will be selected, next Wednesday. They were farmers, mechanics, nurses, clerks, and retired business men.

Prosecutors Confer The state's conference on the problem growing out of the distribution to prospective jurors of the "Lindbergh" pamphlet, began at 11 a. m. today, shortly after drawing of the names, and continued until 1 p. m. Present were Wilentz, his two assistants, Joseph Lanigan and Richard Blockton, and his special assistant, former Judge George K. Law.

Autopsies conducted on the greatest number of victims, 117 men, women and children dying of injuries in collisions and other highway accidents. Fifty-nine died by drowning and in fires. Few were victims of poison liquor.

In Idaho, two men and one woman were drowned in a motor car that crashed into Wood river near Hailey.

Hunting Accidents Hunting accidents and homicides caused 37 deaths, of which Texas reported 11, Alabama 7 and Tennessee 6. Emergency resulting in accidents on Christmas day took 11 lives in New York and 5 each in Pennsylvania and California. Three persons each in Illinois and Louisiana and two in Georgia and Texas died of self-inflicted wounds.

Rescuers searching the debris of a Canadian National railway excursion train, which was struck by a Detroit-Montreal liner near Dundas, Ont., recovered the bodies of 15 victims. Several other persons were missing.

States reporting few holiday casualties included Georgia, 7; Idaho, 4; Kansas, 2; Kentucky, 2; Iowa, 2; Indiana, 2; Kansas, 3; Oregon, 2; Maine, 1; Connecticut, 2; Massachusetts, 4; Nevada, 3; Colorado, 2; and Louisiana, 3.

FREED GIRL 'SPY' RETURNS TO U. S.

No 'Fun' to Spend Months in German Prison, Asserts Isabel Steele

NEW YORK, Dec. 26 (AP)—Isabel Steele, the 23-year-old Hollywood girl, who spent four months in a Nazi prison on espionage charges, returned to the United States on the President Harding today.

She refused to discuss her experiences, presumably because of a contract to write them for publication.

"You don't imagine how glad I am to get home," she told newspapermen who found her hiding in the cabin of a friend. She pleaded that she was too tired and tired to answer questions, but she spoke into the nearest microphone:

"I've just come out after four months in a German prison, and if you think that's a fun year, you've got to be back home among Americans again, where I know that I may do and say what I please."

GRID PARLEY WILL TACKLE COLLEGE SUBSIDY ISSUE

RECRUITING EVIL FACES CLEAN-UP

Four College Groups Slated To Ponder Change Made By Eddie Casey

By LAWTON CARVEL
NEW YORK, Dec. 26 (AP)—Football recruiting and subsidizing will be tackled as a problem requiring immediate action by four college athletic associations meet here tomorrow for annual conferences.

What is to be done will be decided at a round table discussion tomorrow morning when the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the American Football Coaches Association, the College Physical Education Association and the American Student Health Association hold both separate and joint meetings.

"Appalling Business"
Prof. V. G. Cleizinger of Indiana will preside at the round table, where will be viewed latest developments on what one educator describes as the "appalling football business."

At the round table the recent semi-expose at W. and J. will be re-analyzed. Cornell's Frank and its football athletic scholarships will be discussed, and Eddie Casey's pertinent remarks will be analyzed.

Upon resigning as Harvard's coach recently Casey said in effect that football competition has become too tough for schools that can't or won't go out and get the best teams that money will buy.

Bills' Heads Coaches
The football coaches meeting will be presided over by President Dana X. Bible, of Nebraska, while Maj. J. L. Griffith of Chicago will be in the chair at the N. C. A. A. session. A number of speakers are on both programs, some with papers demanding a cleanup of the sport.

Walter Okeson, treasurer of Lehigh university, and chairman of the N. C. A. A. rules committee, said last night that football rules probably would be allowed to stand as they are, unless the coaches suggest something constructive.

"We seem to have achieved a reasonable balance between the long-sought goal—and no further changes, at least no drastic ones, are foreseen," Okeson said.

HARRIS TO BOSS AS BENCH PILOT

Bucky Believes Coach's Post Isn't Best Location for Directing Team

WASHINGTON (AP)—Stanley (Bucky) Harris intends to manage the Washington Senators from the bench next season, he said after a conference with Clark Griffith, coach.

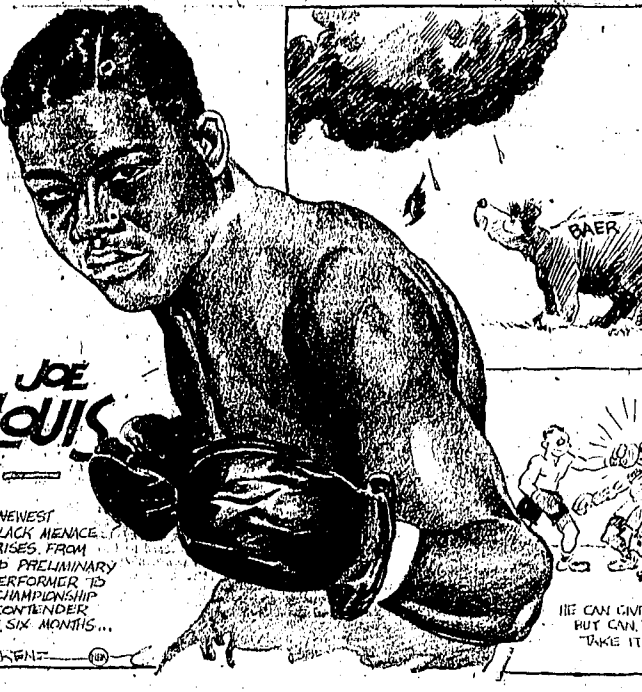

Harris was the "boy wonder" manager and second baseman when he led the Senators to a championship 10 years ago. He was signed recently to replace Joe Cronin, sold to Boston.

Griffith satisfied Griffith indicated Harris' intention to manage the team from the bench was satisfactory. He said Harris doesn't intend to do any of the coaching from other than the base or first base line.

"I believe a manager is more valuable when he can watch the game as a whole without having to divide his attention between the runners and other players," Harris said.

Some Detroit fans criticized Harris when he was manager of the Tigers because of his refusal to play. He managed the Boston Red Sox from the bench before coming to the Senators as a free agent.

The lifetime major league batting average of better than .350 did not suffer as he helped to the batting average at the peak. Paul won up there for the first time in 1927, when he riddled pitchers; compile a .280; to help pull the Parrott into the world series and to earn the most valuable player award.

Among his other accomplishments last season, official averages retained today reveal: 46 triples, 10 home runs and 42 stolen bases.

Two-Hand Tie
Cuyler and Ethan Allen of the Phillies tied for two-hand hitting honors with 42 each, and Joe Mauer of the Cardinals made the most triples, 18.

Leading Aces of America and Europe Will Compete in Invitation Events

MONTREAL (AP)—The 1935 Canadian indoor championship track meet, to be staged here by the Quebec Track and Field association on March 8 next, will have a liberal international tinge, it is expected.

The association announces that it plans to stage a number of special invitation events besides the regular championship program, and will attempt to bring some of the leading trackmen in the United States and Europe to participate.

Favorable Date
The date of the meet enhances the possibility of a large number of leading American athletes attending. It is two weeks after the American indoor championship and just a week after the intercollegiate championships, which close the indoor season below the border.

At the same time, the meet is announced from New York that the American indoor championship will be a week earlier than in former years.

BRITON LAW AID TO SWEEPSTAKE

Dublin Officials Declare New Lottery Rules Assisted English Sales

DUBLIN (AP)—Britain's attempt to kill the Irish Sweepstakes, which took millions of British money into Irish coffers, will have the opposite effect, sweep officials here believe.

They estimate that it will save them some $2,500,000 on each sweep, and that more people than ever will buy tickets.

Britain's attempt to ban the Irish sweepstakes was contained in the Betting and Lotteries bill recently passed by parliament.

At the same time, however, it made it perfectly legal for a person to buy one or more tickets, so long as the British authorities are satisfied that they are for that person alone, and not for sale in Britain.

Hitherto it has been illegal even to buy a ticket, whether it was bought direct from Britain or from a British seller. Letters addressed to the sweep offices have been returned to the sender.

In the new year, however, they will be permitted to go through as long as the post office authorities are satisfied that the applications are for individual requirements.

Open Men
At present it is not quite clear how the post office will be able to prove this. It is expected that they will open any letters addressed to the sweep headquarters.

They also believe that the thousands of people who only buy one ten-shilling ticket, usually after much importuning by selling agents, will not go to the trouble of writing for their own use.

U. OF VIRGINIA ASKS NEW DEAL

Report on Athletics Urges Changes in System Now Ruling School

UNIVERSITY, Va. (AP)—Recommendations for a "New Deal" in athletics at the University of Virginia are contained in the report of a special committee appointed by President Newcomb.

The committee, appointed Jan. 2, 1934, to study athletic conditions in other universities, suggested the present system be abolished and that a "new system" under a faculty head be established.

The report recommended the establishment of an administrative division consisting of three sub-divisions: (1) physical education, (2) intramural sports.

Urges Coach Election
The committee also suggested all full-time coaches, instructors and assistants be members of the university faculty, elected in the same manner as other faculty members.

The "advisory council" suggested would consist of nine members, three faculty representatives appointed by the president, three students and three alumni named by the Alumni association.

A POSSIBLE SOLUTION

Suggestions emanating from University of Idaho alumni favorable to one of their number, Charles (Chuck) Diehl, formerly of Filer, being made successor to Coach Calland at the University of Idaho, should meet with enthusiastic approval here.

Not only does Diehl have the status of an alumnus, but he has back of him a brilliant athletic record, with football predominating, and an excellent personal background as a man.

Whoever is chosen for the post must give unmitigated support from the students, faculty, officials and alumni, as well as the Idaho public. For that reason it is important at this time, particularly, that the best type of coach it is possible to secure be given the athletic reins at Idaho commencing next September.

It will be no small task for the officials of the university to choose the coach who is to guide the destinies of the Moscow institution's athletic program during the next few years, but with such men as Diehl available there is reason to believe that the Vandals can look forward to a successful future.

BEGIN DICKS TODAY

ANN KENDALL, pretty and 20-year-old daughter of TONY MCKEIL, commercial artist, became an active participant in the life of her father's business today. She is the wife of PETER KENDALL, who is a prominent figure in the business world.

She received a note from Peter telling her he will be waiting for her at the office in the afternoon. She went to the office and found Peter waiting for her. They went to the office and Peter showed her the books and the distribution of stock in a corporation.

She was surprised that Peter might have done this. They spent several weeks together happily until Peter called her to his home for a visit. She received a note from Peter telling her he will be waiting for her at the office in the afternoon. She went to the office and found Peter waiting for her. They went to the office and Peter showed her the books and the distribution of stock in a corporation.

J. C. Porterfield, general manager of the Salmon River Water company, and J. C. Wheeler, general manager of the Twin Falls Canal company, Twin Falls, will speak at the Forestry convention and second congress, which begins Jan. 12 and lasts three days. The subject of Mr. Porterfield's talk will be "Maintenance of Irrigation Systems," while Mr. Wheeler will discuss an his subject "The Conservation of Soil Elements."

Lawrence Hodgkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stud Hodgkin, Twin Falls, is in the city from his home in Idaho Falls, for the Christmas holidays. He is connected with a potato flour plant recently established in Idaho Falls.

Miss Emily Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wall of this city and J. C. Claborn, Kimberly, were married Thursday at the home of the bride's parents.

27 Years Ago

The Odd Fellows dance at the rink on Christmas eve was largely attended despite the weather.

Christian church gave the Sunday school its usual abundance of toys and candy. During the evening a program was presented by the little folks.

Dr. T. O. Boyd is having a large barn erected back of the Hotel Pavilion facing 12th avenue. The building will be large enough to accommodate all the doctor's livestock, and supplies and grain for the entire winter.

Methodist Sunday school children enjoyed a musical and literary entertainment in the church Christmas eve, at the close of which the gifts were distributed from a large Christmas tree.

Organization Holds Officers' Election

GOODING, Dec. 20 (Special)—Local neighbors elected officers Thursday evening as follows: Mrs. E. A. Robinson, orator; Mrs. William Bryan, past orator; Mrs. Glen Barker, vice orator; Mrs. Edward Barker, chairman; Mrs. Roy Hill, recorder; Mrs. Leo Hightower, collector; Miss Freda Buhl, marshal; Mrs. Ed Nelson, inside sentinel; Mrs. Lee Moore, outside sentinel; Mrs. J. W. Scofield, flag bearer; Mrs. W. A. Scofield, musician; Mrs. Frances Brozman, installing officer.

DECEMBER 27
Tonight is favorable for a Christmas party and the time around midnight should be very enjoyable. The early evening is discouraging. The day is unimportant but should incline one to be antipathetic.

Birthdays
You should have a keen sense of hearing or a lack of the ability to hear. Your Sun affects that sense. The ruler of your Sun sign is friendly from March 10 through 31, 1935. This should bring you a period of constructive advancement. You should experience benefit through some secret source from Nov. 23 through Dec. 2, 1935.

January 1 through 4, 1935, is a highly favorable July 11 through 14, 1935.

CIVIL SERVICE IN DISTRESS

Senator George W. Norris is unlimbering his guns for an attack on the spoils system in the federal government. He complains that fewer than 70 per cent of the employees in the executive branches are under civil service today; and since the percentage was above 80 when Mr. Roosevelt was inaugurated, Mr. Norris quite naturally thinks that the decline ought to be a matter of deep concern to the administration.

The more things our federal government finds to do—and there is every indication that it is going to do—progressively more active in years to come—the more important it is that its servants be chosen purely for merit and not for political reasons.

Senator Norris is calling for an exceedingly vital reform. All who admire good government will hope that he pushes it with typical Norris energy and success.

EXAGGERATIONS

Differences between the New Deal and the White Sulphur business conference program were widely exaggerated for political and other purposes.

No one, including the host White Sulphur business leaders, expected business to go down. The White Sulphurites expected the White House to grant all their suggestions.

Both cooperated backstage in developing an honest expression of business opinion without the usual political bitterness. For equal balance, the business men asked for a balanced budget "at the earliest possible date." That is a lot different from balancing it now, as Ogden Mills is demanding, and which would have had to be demanded.

The sensible cooperative effort may be ruined, however, by the clamor of liberals who always want to use business men for pin cushions.

You May Not Know That

The tree used at the first Christmas observance in Twin Falls, in 1904, was a mammoth sugarbrush, which touched the ceiling of the school house, built by public subscription. Women of the community decorated it in true Christmas tree fashion, and it served somehow to show a harmony between the spirit of the pioneer time and that of the holiday.

Couple Married at Bliss Grange Meet

GOODING, Dec. 20 (Special)—E. S. Ayres, Gooding, and Mrs. E. S. Ayres, Oklahoma, were united in marriage in a ceremony at the conclusion of the Bliss Grange meeting at Bliss last week. Rev. W. W. Dell, Nampa, master of the Idaho State Grange, officiated. Attendees were F. L. Atkins, Buhl, and Mrs. Publisher, Buhl, State Grange lecturer.

The couple left Thursday for California to spend the winter there.

Flowers Put On Dillinger Grave

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 20 (Special)—A woman put a wreath of flowers on John Dillinger's grave on Christmas day. It was inscribed "Merry Christmas to My Pal."

Various persons were mentioned as possible donors of the flowers but Mary Kiefer named the most likely follower of the old Dillinger gang to make such a gesture.

ONLY THREE PER CENT GO WRONG

The parole system is often blamed for our failure to instill a respect for the law into crooks. But it needs to be emphasized that it is not the system that is at fault, but failure to operate it intelligently.

What can be done with a properly handled parole system is shown by figures just made public in Ohio. Approximately three years ago Ohio modernized and overhauled its parole machinery. Every effort was made to run the system intelligently and for the best interests of society. Since the reorganization, the parole board passed on the cases of 26,423 convicts, and granted paroles to 9549.

Of the men paroled, only 3 per cent have returned to crime. Seventy-two per cent of them are now gainfully employed; in other words, they have "gone straight" and are useful members of the community.

This is an admirable record. It shows how the parole system is meant to work, and how it can work when state authorities make an honest effort to administer it intelligently.

FILER, Dec. 20 (Special)—An open meeting of the New Deal club of Filer is scheduled for 8 p. m. today at Grange hall. Old age pensioners will be discussed. It is stated by officers.

FOR HEALTH INSURANCE THAT PAYS

It is interesting to learn that the administration's committee on economic security is perfecting a health insurance plan which would enable the American public to pay its doctors' and hospitals' bills in advance and get the best of medical care.

With the co-operation of the presidents of the American Medical association and the American College of Surgeons, the committee hopes to devise a scheme whereby both the ordinary citizen and the medical profession generally will fare better than they do now.

In hard times, many citizens go without medical care which they need very greatly. On the other hand, doctors do an enormous amount of work for which they get paid nothing at all.

A program which would assure the patients of service and the doctors of fees ought to be exceedingly helpful.

KEEP CRIME FROM POLITICS

The American public never got sounder advice on its crime problem than it did when J. Edgar Hoover, head of the department of justice investigators, told the National Crime Conference that the crook's political allies must be obliterated.

"Until political pressure is doomed, and until there arrives a continual state of co-operation among all arms of law enforcement," says Mr. Hoover, "we must regard eradication of gangs like those of Dillinger and others as transitory phases of a condition which can change overnight."

This sort of thing has been said before, of course, and cannot be repeated too often. The really dangerous gangs invariably "have an in" in one or other.

Let us leave our politics so that such all-out efforts shall continue to have our own Mr. Schmitzer.
