UNIONISTS ORDER FIGHT ON "WHITE COLLAR" VERDICT

Organized Laborers Challenge Ruling Against Picketing By Sales People

INJUNCTION IS GRANTED

Judge Views "Oldest Shop" as Detriment to A. P. L. Sets "Outrage"

NEW YORK, Feb. 25 (AP)—Organized labor today challenged a supreme court decision denying a union the right to enforce a closed shop against a department store, and announced an immediate appeal would be taken.

A ruling by Justice Salvatore A. Cullilo was characterized as unprecedented in that the court drew a line of demarcation between manual labor and white-collar workers. The decision said that the "personal equation" enters the white-collar class in contrast to labor that is standardized.

Grants injunction. Specifically, the court granted an injunction restraining a unit of the retail cloth, suit, dress and fur sales people's union from picketing R. A. Freed, Inc. retail department store. The union is an A. F. of L. affiliate.

Justice Cullilo stressed the fact that the store had agreed to open contract negotiations with the union if the closed shop question was eliminated, but that the union refused. The justice said that picketing had caused large crowds to congregate in front of the store, interfering with both customers and salespeople.

Enterprise. "Employment within the field of retail distribution," the justice said, "is an opportunity for individual enterprise, a possibility of advancement, and a chance for growth, which make for social and individual progress."

DIRECTOR URGES CHANGES IN AAA

Davis Asks House Committee To Approve Amendments as Aid to Farmers

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—AAA Administrator Chester C. Davis today urged the House committee on agriculture to approve amendments to the act to contribute to its full recovery.

The changes, Davis said, are of vital importance to the majority of all farmers, particularly day-laborers and growers of fruits, vegetables, and other specialty crops.

"Adoption will make possible further steps to restore the purchasing power of the farmer," Davis said. "As farmers again become producers, they will be able to pay their debts and meet their obligations."

Davis said the amendments would terminate any marketing agreement or license that the secretary of agriculture had entered into with a majority of the affected producers.

Proposed to permit benefit payments in kind, and to encourage the acquisition of farm commodities.

Proposed for redefinition of "interstate commerce," the amendments would terminate any marketing agreement or license that the secretary of agriculture had entered into with a majority of the affected producers.

Development of individual producers is "definitely not contemplated," Davis said, asking an amendment specifically denying such power.

"Davis asked an amendment authorizing the secretary of agriculture to issue orders of license revocations."

U. S. OPENS QUIZ OF PROPAGANDA ON UTILITY BILL

Administration Places Young Attorneys on Trail of Postal Deluge

WILL PROBE FOR SOURCE

Rayburn Claims Protests Are Originated by Holding Companies

By DUANE WILSON (Cleveland, United Press) — Administration investigation of sources of propaganda drive against postal legislation is directed at utility holding companies.

Two clever young attorneys, Thomas Cochran and Benjamin Cohen, were assigned to conduct a quiet but thorough inquiry expected to reveal those responsible for starting a deluge of mail on congressmen.

Huge mail volume. Huge mail volume is poured daily on desks of congressmen, and the postal department is being urged to defend the Rayburn-Wheeler bill designed to wipe out the postal deluge.

They came from all parts of the country, but a majority are from New England states.

Rep. Sam Rayburn, D. Tex., co-author of the bill, believes the drive inspired wholly by holding companies who desire defeat of the measure in its present form.

Evidence in support of this theory was found in one instance where the protesting investor informed the postal department of a communication from a holding company saying it was his intention to protest against the bill.

A list of members of the interstate committee was obtained. The investigators wish to determine all legitimate protests are being received by the postal department.

The plan was assigned, and the two attorneys were present at a meeting of the cabinet today. The plan was assigned, and the two attorneys were present at a meeting of the cabinet today.

Stratton Request Points to Possible New Bill in Idaho Fight

STATE ISSUE TANGLED

House Tables Measure, Asking For Idaho Fish and Game Commission

By MAX G. FUNKE (United Press Correspondent) — BOISE, Feb. 25 (AP)—A new move on the part of majority leaders in the senate today was indicated in an effort to settle the liquor battle, with the conflicting opinions on legality of passage of H.R. 101, the state store plan.

The new action came with Senator Stratton's request for a report of committee action on his bill. The Lammolton was told that the committee must report within three days.

New Bill Barred. Senator Gardner of Clark county threw an objection to the introduction of a new measure into the senate yesterday to upset plans of majority leaders to introduce the bill immediately.

Insurgents Back Compromise for Work-Relief Cu

Lesser Scale Proposed For Settling Deadlock

McCarran Offers Support for Decreased Appropriation; Threat of March Meets Denunciations

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—A proposal to end discord which has developed among New Deal policies by a compromise work-relief plan on a smaller scale than first advanced by the administration, drew support today from insurgent forces in congress.

Sentiment was piling up behind the Adams-Byrd plan for substituting a $1,800,000 appropriation for a $3,800,000,000 program which has been wrecked at least temporarily in the senate.

Sen. Pat McCarran, D. Nev., whose prevailing wage amendment provided the issue upon which the administration met defeat last week, said he would approve the lesser appropriation.

Sen. John G. Townsend, R. D.C., another who opposed the administration on the question of wages, said: "There won't be a vote against it."

Meanwhile, little support developed for the "match" of the unemployed on the capital provided by Paul H. Patterson, director of the National Conference of Mayors, to pressure on the senate to back President Roosevelt's work relief plan.

On the contrary, the proposition was denounced as a number of mayors and sectional leaders.

The willingness to compromise expressed by segments of the Democratic and Republican ranks that appeared in the prevailing wage amendment was not echoed by administration leaders.

Sen. Charles McNary, R. Ore., in the absence of President Roosevelt, said: "I will not support the prevailing wage amendment."

ATTORNEYS SLOW LAMSON HEARING

Prologing Jury Choices Through Determined Questioning Of Venemans

SAN JOSE, Calif., Feb. 25 (AP)—Bill far from being out, attorneys prosecuting—and defending—David Lamson on charges of murdering his wife, Allen, were in the sixth day of trial today with 40 prospective jurors examined.

At the rate of 12 a day, the pace at which the trial has been proceeding was such that a jury would not be seated before the end of the week.

Robert R. Syer made many efforts to speed the task, but the attorneys, who were determined to ask the jury to return a verdict of guilty, were not to be hurried.

The jury in Lamson's first trial was selected in four trial days. The new trial was ordered by the judge in the sixth day of the trial.

REINHARDT PICKS FILM ALL-STARS

German Producer Says Gagney Best of Screen Players; Garbo Second

(Copyright, 1935, United Press.) HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 26 (UP).—Max Reinhardt, the German stage producer who came to Hollywood to film a Shakespearean production, is no longer a greenhorn in the motion picture business. Today he selected an all-star team. In his opinion, the 12 best screen players are Jimmy Cagney, Greta Garbo, Paul Muni, Bette Davis, Charles Laughton, Robert Donat, Marlene Dietrich, Kay Francis, Katharine Hepburn, Marion Davies, Edward G. Robinson and Leslie Howard.

Says Cagney Best

Reinhardt thinks Cagney is the best of the lot. "Miss Garbo, he thinks, is the next best. He regards Miss Hepburn as a "novelty-type," and Howard as a "marvelous example of calculated method." Robinson is "robust," Donat, possessed with "romantic fervor," Miss Davies is "comedianne," and Miss Francis an actress of "perfect-feminine balance." He selects Miss Dietrich for "alter glamor," and Miss Davies for her "unusual emotional flexibility."

He thinks Laughton is so good that he could play Lord Fauntleroy if he was only small enough.

Not one of Reinhardt's nominees qualified for the film academy's 1934-35 team.

Edwina Booth, blonde, young actress who contracted a rare tropical illness while on film location in Africa several years ago, has been confined to a darkened room for the past two months. It was learned today. Recalled nearly four years ago, Booth had used Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios for $1,000,000 damages, contending the studio failed to provide proper medical attention. The suit is on file in New York courts.

A terse denial was Carl Laemmle.

Surgeon Provides Artificial Hands For Youngster, 5

HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 26 (UP).—The skill of a surgeon's knife today had made it possible for five-year-old Herbert Miller to have two artificial hands which will be almost as useful as the ones he lost when his mother sacrificed her life to save him from death under the wheels of a trolley car.

Dr. Henry H. Kessler, Newark, N. J., orthopedist, operated on Herbert's left arm at Hartford hospital, joining the muscles of the arm to delicate levers of an artificial hand. The hand will be ready for use in several months.

Then a similar operation will be performed on the right arm. Members of the North American Legion post subscribed the fund for operation, the first of its kind in this state.

FILM LION DIES

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 26 (UP).—Leo, the lion whose roar was known the world over, died of old age at the Philadelphia zoo after years of fame in Hollywood.

He's reply to reports his Universal studio is for sale. The producer, known to the trade as "Uncle Carl," said: "We have no thought of disposing of our property."

Various reports have had Columbia studios, R. P. Schiffer, independent producer, John Hay "Joey" Whitman, New York financier-producer, and even Warner Brothers buying the Universal film company, one of the pillars of the industry.

BORAH BLOCKS BILL

Congressman Clark minces no words in revealing the responsibility of Senator Borah in delaying, if not defeating, plans for the expenditure of huge sums in Idaho reclamation and development projects.

Borah joined with 43 other senators to attach to the bill the McCarran amendment, which would increase the requirements for governmental appropriation, promised by President Roosevelt to be re-voiced, if adopted.

The President gave assurance, just before the senate vote, that in the expenditure of the appropriation, existing wage scales would be protected, but despite this, Idaho's senior senator chose to take part in the defeat of the entire measure rather than to give the government the opportunity to undertake a huge work program so badly needed by many now on the dole.

Senator Pope and Congressman Clark have been giving serious attention to the Idaho reclamation program, and to plans for a generous portion of the appropriation for roads and grade eliminations.

Mr. Borah has been giving his attention to investigating religious conditions in Mexico, and calling for an investigation, while at the same time voting to oppose the entire of the United States into the world court on grounds of "meddling."

Both Senator Pope, Congressman Clark and President Roosevelt were voted upon more recently than Mr. Borah, and it is reasonable to presume that the platforms upon which they received the people's endorsement represented more closely Idaho's public's will, than did the votes accorded Mr. Borah back in 1930. Yet this international statesman, by his decisive vote last week, cut off the assistance so sorely needed by his state and his constituents, and doubtless he will try to justify his acts on the principle that he knows more about the relief subject than do the people here at home.

The only redeeming feature is that Borah comes up for reelection next year.

What is needed now is evidence of strong support for the administration program and the efforts of those who actually represent the views of the people of Idaho.

DR. JAMES D. GILLILAN

Tragic death at Gooding last week of Dr. J. D. Gillilan, veteran intermountain-churchman, whose funeral services were conducted at Elser, Sunday, Idaho of one of its valuable citizens, and hundreds of persons of a true friend. Not only was he a minister of the gospel, but he had the poet in him, and there is preserved in book form his philosophy of the life he loved.

The books are Trail Tales, a poetical work, and The Life of Thomas Lill, prominent western minister, whose son Wiley lives in this country; and whose daughter, Mrs. Arthur Anderson, formerly lived at Elser. Dr. Gillilan came from a prominent family, his brother being the well-known Strickland Gillilan, humorist and writer, whose fame was established when he wrote the universally-known verses "On agin, off agin, gone agin, Finnegan."

Dr. Gillilan's host of friends over the West mourn his death, wonder why his passing had to come in such a violent fashion, but realize that he accomplished his mission here on earth and that he rests for eternity after a vigorous life spent in the ministry of mankind's religious health.

IN THE BACKGROUND

An 82-year-old ex-hod-carrier has won the annual award of the Denver Artists' Guild for the outstanding painting of the year; and thereby seems to hang a little human interest story which doubtless has had its counterparts among artists of all times and places.

For the concluding paragraph of the announcement of this man's triumph remarked that his wife has taken in washing for the last eight years so that her husband could paint.

In allocating the credit for this man's artistic success, then, it is pretty obvious that a goodly share ought to go to his wife. And that is quite frequently the case with the wife of an artist.

She never gets any particular acclaim for her husband's achievements; but in many, many cases she makes his success possible by so lightening his ordinary cares and responsibilities that he is able to devote himself to his art.

With the Hauptmann jury in vaudeville, people will begin to wonder whether Hauptmann really is guilty.

An unemployed actor went on a hunger strike in Hollywood. Yet there was a time when actors didn't have to strike to go hungry.

This country will be safe against revolution, so long as we stay mad at so many different things.

O. S. C. NEARING DIVISION CROWN

Washington Must Win From Oregon Tonight to Keep Title Chances

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 26 (UP)—The Pacific coast conference basketball championship, and Oregon State, leading the northwestern division race today, will play a game tonight, with Oregon State on the road.

Both teams registered important victories last night in one of the most exciting races for division honors in recent years.

Vandala Severe Beaters

Washington, with a team which has four defeats behind it, last night defeated University of Oregon, 29-19, in a basketball game. Oregon State, leading here to maintain its early season advantage, took Idaho into camp at Moscow, 19-14, 26-24 score.

The teams play again tonight, Washington going back against a weak Oregon five and Oregon State, playing its fourth game in five days, again meeting Idaho, a strong unit.

Huskies Must Win

Washington must win to have a chance for the division title. Oregon State can lose and still tie for the title by defeating University of Oregon in the last game of the conference schedule Saturday.

The team that emerges on top will meet University of Southern California, southern division winner, in a three-game series for the coast championship. Washington defeated S. C. in three games to take the title northward last year.

BEAVERS WIN

MOSCOW, Feb. 26 (UP)—University of Idaho Vandala football field goal short of demolishing the coast here last night against Pacific Northwest, 21-0, in a game which the Beavers won 24-20, to win their halfgame lead over Washington's Huskies.

Idaho held the lead, only once last night, when a swift spur put them ahead, 18-14, in the third quarter.

The two teams play again tonight.

CREST READY TO OPEN '35 DRIVE

Course Will Run Again This Year Under Ray Matheny As Director

The membership committee announced this afternoon it is drawing up plans for monthly intercity tournaments, including the "Crest" for ladies' tournaments, and expects to hold a south Idaho tourney early in the month. Matheny said, but visiting professionals will be extended course privileges.

Second round games will start Thursday night, with trays laid for 8 and 9 p. m.

Friday games in the tournament, according to the brackets approved last night, are scheduled for 3 p. m., 5 p. m., 8 p. m., and 9 p. m.

Morning games are scheduled for Saturday at 10 a. m. and 11 a. m.

The championship final will be held at 8 p. m. Saturday unless the double elimination system necessitates holding the tournament over until Monday. In that event, it is assumed, the three teams remaining after Saturday morning games will draw for the bye, one team will be played Saturday night, and the titular final will be played Monday night.

Tourney Officials

Officials for the tourney are: Cliff Davidson, American Falls, head referee, and Fulton Stanford, Paul, associate referee. Supt. W. B. Smith, Twin Falls, is general manager of the tournament. C. H. Brown, Twin Falls principal, is to be official scorer, and R. V. Jones, Twin Falls coach, will act as timekeeper.

Twin Falls Bruins, as host team at the state tournament here, will be the first to enter the district meet this week. Filer (Kimberly), the other team eliminated under the 1934 "A" schools, lost out on percentage when Jerome defeated the Wildcats last night.

Admission Prices

Admission per season will be 30 cents for adults and 15 cents for "students" with adult season tickets. Students at $2.50.

Trophies will go to the winner and the runner-up, with the victor to get the tournament trophy. The sportsmanship trophy is to be awarded.

The Class A winner will meet the Class B champion next week in the play-off to decide the state 1935 district representative to the state tournament.

Dean Passes Up Portland Match For Twin Falls

"Man Mountain" Dean, ace pitcher of the Portland team, will pass up the match with the Legion team at Radcliff, Ore., scheduled for Feb. 27, to play the Portland team at Portland, Ore., Feb. 28.

The 325-pounder, who has been scheduled to arrive in Twin Falls Wednesday morning, will be in the city for two matches.

He will be in the city for the first of his two feature bouts with the Legion team at Radcliff, Ore., Feb. 27, and the second with the Portland team at Portland, Ore., Feb. 28.

The "Man Mountain" will appear here, then at Boise, then at Idaho Falls, and then at San Francisco, before he returns to Portland and Seattle.

Dean, who has been the largest crowd at "Kee" August "Olympic" wrestling, drew the largest crowd ever attracted by one man here, when he defeated Joe Storch, probably the greatest heavy weight wrestler champion since Frank Gotch; he has beaten such wrestling "toughs" as "Tuna" Stelzner, George Zaharias, Earl Stupp, Ray Steele, Howard Cannon and Gene Stubby.

Other Headliners

Also on tomorrow's card are several other bouts ordinarily featuring leading. Metros Kintoko and Eddie Stelzner, Christian, and Lake, in a one-hour two-out-of-three falls match. Ray Stupp, of the Legion team, will meet Ray Steele, of the Portland team, in a one-hour two-out-of-three falls match. The match, a one-fall match, will be held at 8 p. m. at the Radcliff Hotel.

"Kingfish" Confirms Fears of Opponents by Planning Special Session

SENATOR HUEY LONG, of Louisiana, confirmed the worst fears of his enemies and announced today that another special session of the legislature—the fifth in six months—would be called within a week or 10 days.

The purpose, said Long, will be to give authority to Gov. O. K. Allen to rebate a portion of the oil refining tax, passed at the last special session.

At present the state is giving oil refiners a rebate for four cents of each five cents in tax levied. This action was effected through a compromise between Long and the Standard Oil company.

"There will be nothing controversial in this special session," Long announced. Significantly, however, he did say what he intended to ask his legislators to pass in the way of new laws.
