MICHIGAN HUNTS MAD SLAYER OF 7-YEAR-OLD BOY

Child's Tortured Body Found With Eight Stab Wounds, in Chest.

KNIFE OR ICEPICK USED

Lacerations—Over-Hit Riot Possible Fanaticism in Brutal Crime

YUGOSLAVIA, Mich., March 9 (UPI)—The mad slayer of a 7-year-old Richard Strelcher, Jr., son of wealthy and prominent parents, was captured by organized police forces of southern Michigan towns and villages today.

While authorities had no clues as to identity, they believed the brutal crime, resembling in some of its details the murder of Harry Pringle, Jr., in Toledo, Ohio, last Saturday, was near solution.

Stabbed Eight Times

The boy's body was found last night in a hole in the footbridge leading to an secluded island in the Huron river. Richard had been stabbed eight times. The stab wounds to the heart were the center of a figure resembling either a cross or a "Y" made by lacerations on the body.

Terrorists were active. Bombs were exploded in Hain answer to a fast spreading strike—which railwaymen voted to make public, and one in a theater male. Bombs were exploded in six street cars—the buses, run by strike breakers, were held up during the night, including Dr. Joaquin Rio Balameda, former minister of justice. Numerous arrests and searches disclosed caches of arms.

The child's parents are well known in this section. The father is part owner and manager of the theater, Tom and Dorothy. His grandfather is a prominent automobile designer.

Search for the killer, who was made difficult by the probability that he is clever, fast-thinking, and well able to plan his acts.

Parents could not guess the identity of the figure cut on the child's chest, caused them to suspect that relatives would be sought as possible killers.

Police did not divulge all details of their search for the killer, indicating they perhaps had an arrest.

It was understood that they were giving close attention to a theory that an older boy committed the crime.

Post-mortem examination indicated the child had been severely tortured before death. Only three of the eight chest wounds reached the heart, which physical evidence showed had been inflicted by the killer.

An emergency government was established by decree of the president of state, usually an advisory body of eminent men with the cabinet.

Included in the reserves, called out from the army, were the firemen, policemen, private watchmen and civilians on the army payroll.

The government's decrees came in answer to a fast spreading strike—which railwaymen voted to make public, and one in a theater.

Strikers were also voted to join the army.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—She now that abroad and outspoke young woman, Miss Sylvia Sidney, with set of opinions regarding Hollywood, which attack strongly or horde sense.

"I think Hollywood productions big and large, one in dramatic value, the other in elaborate mounting," Miss Sidney said.

"By the time a pack of set-dressers, art directors, production artists and department heads have finished mounting a scene the actors and actresses are likely to be exhausted."

"I have seen pictures lately where it was all but impossible to keep one's attention centered on the star."

"Some of the most successful dramatic productions have been those where the characterizations have been strong and the action of inference," she said.

"Speaking from my own experience, I find that when I was 14, I was 'Critic' a thing I did when I was 14. Plus 'Street Scene,' in which I had one of my favorite roles, plus 'Broadway.'

"There was 'Broadway,' so I mounted that the audience would know what was taking place. And it ran for years."

Miss Sidney was very much interested in Bert Lahr and Charles MacArthur's "Clive Without Passion," a picture which has caused a great deal of hubbub. She spoke of her surprise and wonder of the fact that it was very simply and inexpensively produced.

TOURNEY CROWDS AWAIT BUHL-SHOSHONE TITLE GAME

Packed Gym Will See Tilt Tonight

Indian Maidens Defeat Hagerman in Semi-final Tilt

BUHL, March 9 (Special) — Femulate basketball champion-ship of the south-central Idaho district will be decided here at 8 p.m. tonight when Buhl and Shoshone maidens clash in the final game of the 1935 tournament.

A packed gymnasium is expected to watch the titanic battle, which features two of the strongest teams to reach the girls' finals in several years.

Buhl proved its mettle last night in uncorking a strong defense as well as an effective offense in eliminating the mighty Hagerman lasses, 34 to 24.

Shoshone walloped Albion, 62 to 33, in the first game on the Friday evening program. Saturday's games were so closely packed the gym here last night was the Buhl-Hagerman fray, the feature attraction. The gym, which holds 2,000, was packed to the gills. The game and Hagerman's enthusiastic fans attended en masse, having reserved all the seats of 200 blocks during the day.

Flashy Defense. — The Indian maidens who have concentrated on scoring during the season, lost last night in their attempt to put on a spectacularly strong defensive combination that checked Hagerman's impetuosity. The Indians' defense, however, was too good for the Pirates' primary basket tosser, was limited to eight points.

Buhl opened up early and scored 16 points in the first half, holding a 16-6 edge at half time. Score was 24 to 11 as the third stanza ended. Hagerman's valiant efforts in the fourth period kept the Pikes supported into a frenzy, but the early disadvantage proved too much.

Lacy Tops Scoring. — The Indians' top gun, Doris Lacy, topped Buhl, 20 and, Jeanne Mercer scored 14.

Shoshone, Lassies and Maidens, forward; Weeling and Skinner, centers; Olson and Leveke, guards; Hagerman Parsons and Hagerman, backs; and Buhl, Estes, centers; Moore and Grady, guards. Substitutions: Buhl, Morris; Shoshone, Morris; Woods, Marsh, Rogers.

In the night's opening game, Shoshone's powerful outfit defeated Albion, 52 to 33.

With the Berriochas sisters, playing basket, from the University of Idaho, in doubt after the first few minutes, although Albion battled on fairly even terms in the first half, the Indians' attack in the fourth period proved too much, points to 10.

Takes Early Lead. — Shoshone led, 11 to 10, at the end of the first quarter, and won on top by 27-14 at the half. The Lincoln county girls increased their lead to 45-21 at the end of the period opened.

High Scorer of the game was Marie Berriochas, with 30 points. Buhl, Morris, 18; Olson, 20; Estes, 14; Morris, 12; Weeling and Skinner, 10; Olson and Leveke, 8; Hagerman Parsons and Hagerman, 7; and Buhl, Estes, 6.

The wrestling meet will be the first for the Matmen this season, as they have not been headed by a coach since last year, when recently-defeated the University of Washington team, 20 to 13. It was the first time, the Matmen had ever been beaten in two years. The Idaho grapplers, coached by Stan Skiles, have been working hard on new methods to win the upcoming Washington State crew.

Their 10th fencing team headed by Frank Booth, will be engaging in their third match of the year, having already, one, from Whiting, and just one to the Spokane fencing club.

BUHL, March 9 (Special) — Baseballs are replacing baseballs in the University of Idaho stadium this week as the varsity diamond artists go through daily warming-up exercises.

"We will get outside as soon as the weather permits," said Coach Rich Fox, who is enthusiastic about squad prospects, except for a shortage of pitchers, catchers and second base candidates.

First games for the Idahoans man will be engaged in a non-conference series at Walla Walla April 5 and 6. Return games against the Cougars April 12 and 13, are scheduled for April 19 and 20. The conference season gets under way April 26 with a game with Washington State, April 27.

IDAHO'S TAXES

Convening of a special session of the state legislature to act on tax matters leaves this difficult problem just where it was in the first place.

The governor, the legislature, and the taxpayers should be in one accord that any new tax should be equitable, of as little burden as possible and distributed fairly over all the state and applicable to all, not a few sources of income.

This is not possible with the so-called nuisance taxes which are obnoxious at best, and no business or individual should be taxed on gross business.

A variety of tax proposals were made in the regular session and all were lost because of the conflicting efforts which were made among the legislators for their enactment.

Among these was a law sponsored by the state board of equalization and reputedly drawn by Roy Dodge. It attempts to correct many of the tax evils of the state, seeks out new sources of income from mining and other interests which heretofore have escaped their rightful share of the tax burden, and would put into effect a systematic and businesslike method of raising needed taxes in Idaho.

It is not claimed that the Dodge plan is perfect—perhaps it will need considerable revision, but certainly, taking this law as the basis, and representing as it does an intelligent effort to correct the tax abuses in this state and to provide a solution to the manfest problem, the legislators could do no better than to concentrate on the measure in an effort to reconcile their differences and to bring to a conclusion the evident mess into which the legislature has gotten.

This accomplishment will only be attained by the cooperative effort of the administration, the state board of equalization, and the legislators themselves. And it is the thing which the people, the taxpayers trust will be possible without delay.

BOOST FOR THE BONUS

If the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars decide that enactment by congress of a bill for a cash bonus for war veterans is in the bag, now, as a result of the activities of the senate munition committee, one can hardly blame them.

First of all, Eugene Grace testified, Mr. Grace drew down something like $3,000,000 in bonuses during the war period; but he thinks that workers in munitions plants in future wars should get a soldier's pay, he feels that it would be very unfortunate if the same rule were applied to executives, and he believes that the demand for the soldiers' bonus now is "very unfortunate."

Then the investigators began to get curious about the doings of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding corporation, which operated during the war as a subsidiary of Bethlehem Steel. During the war Charles Schwab, who held 37 per cent of all voting stock in Bethlehem Steel, was director general of the Emergency Fleet corporation, which was letting government shipbuilding contracts.

First they examined a war-time letter written by an admiral in the navy charging that Bethlehem demanded high prices for its ships and refused to stand behind delivery dates.

Then they looked at a report from a special examiner for the Fleet corporation which asserted that the "enormous profits" made by Bethlehem showed that Bethlehem's contracts "were unconscionable and against public interest."

Next they dug into Fleet corporation records showing that while other shipbuilders were averaging a profit of $10 a ton on ships built for the government, Bethlehem was making $49.50 for a profit of better than 20 per cent. Furthermore, the examiner pointed out that this 20 per cent profit was not profit on Bethlehem's invested funds, but on a cost that had to be financed by the Fleet corporation itself.

Now when you add all of this up you get a fairly ugly picture. It is the sort of picture which probably is unavoidable in war-time, unless some new and drastic method of controlling the munitions industry and its profits be adopted; but it does put the soldiers' bonus bill in a different light.

Meditating on Mr. Grace and his bonuses, and Mr. Schwab and his ships, it is a little hard to get very impatient over the question of a bonus for fighting men.

The next thing for Newton D. Baker and James M. Beck to find unconstitutional is the overwhelming vote for President Roosevelt.

A Cornell professor has developed a cabbage that won't smell up the house when cooked. What a surprise wifey has for hubby when he comes home tired from work!

An Iowa statesman says an emergency can't last five years. Then let him explain, if he can, why we still have crooners.
