MAN SEIZED FOR KILLING GIRL, 6

New Yorker Admits Holding Child Under Water in Bath

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—Frank Flynn, 30, father of a 6-year-old daughter, was charged with a murder charge today after police said he admitted he had drowned his child in a bathtub.

Flynn is represented by J. W. Taylor, attorney.

Flynn admitted he had found out a dumbwaiter in the cellar of his home where Flynn had an apartment.

Although Flynn denied it, Dr. Howard W. Bland, county medical examiner, said that there were indications the child had been attacked.

Chief Attorney Charles Sullivan said Flynn told this story: After working in the garage where his wife had a car, Flynn met Margaret on the street near his home. He knew the girl, who once lived in the same building. Flynn insisted, according to Sullivan, that she had followed him into his apartment and then fell into the bathroom where he was drying his hands. It was there, Sullivan said Flynn told him, that he decided the child must die.

When he tried to wash her with water he picked up the unconscious child and dumped her in the tub.

"Then I held her under the water until she stopped struggling," Flynn was quoted as saying.

When he felt reasonably sure the child was dead, Flynn told Sullivan he had carried her to the apartment house, to the dumbwaiter, and then to the home of a friend, a rather distinguished physician, heavy set, with hair combed back, and wearing a suit. He said he was separated from his wife, with whom his daughter lived.

Michigan, Plant Body and Pontiac are among the manufacturers who are averse to developments in the Toledo strike before taking action.

Facing a shutdown were General Motors plants at Hay City and Saginaw. The Toledo strike has threatened to halt production at the GM Grey Iron Foundry at Saginaw where rough castings are made for Pontiac and Chevrolet.

The labor controversy, brewing in the industry for months, was crystallized by the Toledo strike. Labor's long dissatisfaction with operation of the automobile labor board created by President Roosevelt was thrust into the open.

The Toledo workers, forming the spearhead of the strike movement, demanded union recognition, abolition of the piece-work system, improved working conditions, seniority rights and a general 5 per cent wage increase.

Other officers elected were: C. C. Barry, vice president; Frank Cunningham and E. J. Farnsworth, directors.

A picnic dinner was served with Mrs. and Mrs. Eugene Budge in charge. A general discussion was held on ways to rid the city of beer worms which are making their homes on the property of many Burley residents. Plans were made to attend the last Sunday of the present comparative low price on lamb at the market is not considered to be a fair price. A NEW ERA

This is an important date in the history of prohibition in this county, for today liquor was placed on sale here by the state, marking an end to the official dry status which has been in effect in the county since 1910, more than 25 years ago.

Saloons were eliminated on that earlier date when the people voted local option, and they were kept out during all the years Idaho was one of the original prohibition states, being itself in that category long before the nation adopted the eighteenth amendment.

Now liquor comes back to Idaho under state control, with its sale entirely in the hands of a commission appointed by the governor. No drinking is permitted upon the premises, and resale is prohibited. An individual permit system is in vogue, and drink cannot be purchased from a state store by persons under the age of 21 years.

- Permits can be revoked for cause, namely: 1. Drunkenness. 2. Simulation of drunkenness. 3. Non-support of family or dependents. 4. The commission of any misdemeanor or violation in which the use of alcoholic liquor was a contributing factor.

State sale of liquor is not an experiment, being in effect in nearby Oregon and Washington. Among those who favor the sale of liquor there are two particular schools of thought: one who believe generally in the system set up in Idaho and those who prefer sale by private firms under license as was contemplated by the commission named two years ago by Governor Ross to study the problem.

From an historical standpoint, the particular method of dispensing is not so important as the fact that liquor, like beer which was legalized a year and a half ago, is now or will be soon, on sale throughout the state; that prohibition in Idaho is a thing of the past; and that a new era in that regard opened in Twin Falls county today.

The result will be quite as interesting to the vets as to the dries, for there is no gainsaying the fact that liquor creates a problem, the solution of which will continue to be most difficult.

It is taking congressmen quite a bit of time and controversy to determine which state's applies were the best. Now, on the relative merits of pork—

A SUCKER GETS WISE

The senate munitions committee has evinced a curiosity about the war-time correspondence that took place between certain United States banking houses and the various allied commissions which attended to purchase of munitions in this country.

Some of the committee members feel that if this correspondence were made public, Americans would get some valuable knowledge about the prelude to their entrance into the World war.

The British government doesn't think the idea is so hot. The British ambassador has protested informally to our state department, and Stanley Baldwin has remarked that the inquiry might have a long since obsolete controversy and have a bad effect on the present international situation.

All that may be true, yet the American public is coming more and more to feel that someone sold it a gold brick in 1917, and its desire to know more about the transaction is only natural.

If a glance at this correspondence would be enlightening—as it will might—the committee ought to go ahead.

You've got to hand it to that naval officer who is marrying for the 15th time. He's at least making a valiant effort to carry out the promise made a various ports.

HUMAN RIGHTS ABOVE ALL

Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Miller hit the nail on the head when he told newspaper editors in New York that the great guarantee of a free press, free speech, and the right of peaceable assembly are just about the most vital portions of our Constitution.

"We might give up all the rest of our Constitution, if occasion required, and yet have sure anchorage for the mooring of our good ship America, if these rights remained to us unimpaired," he said.

There is much sense in that statement. In the last analysis, our government is secure as long as the democratic processes go on uninterrupted; and they cannot be interrupted as long as those three rights are maintained intact.

Save them and you save all; limit them, and you are apt to find before long that you have lost all the rest.

President Roosevelt promises the people he will do his utmost to spend $5,000,000,000 by July 1, 1936. If he fails it tought given, he might enlist the services of Barbara Hutton.

THE DOG BY BIOND

When she had finished Norman Hagg moved her head. He said, "You're not kidding?"

Before she realized what had happened his arms were around her neck and he was kissing her. She felt a sob which seemed to drain worry and mental anguish from her system.

"You've hand patted her shoulder, his cheek was against her hair. She could feel the roughness of his hair on her neck. Slowly her eyes closed. She drew back so that she could look up into his face.

"You're certain?" "Yes, I feel his wrist." "And you went to the whiskey?" "I don't drink out of the bathroom flask." "You're sure?" "Yes."

She could see that he was driving toward some point that couldn't anticipate what it was. She felt a tremor in his hand. "Why, yes," he asked. "That was the brand of whiskey?"

"Yes," he said. "That was the brand of whiskey?" "Yes," he said. "That was the brand of whiskey?"

"Do you know what time it is?" "No, I'm not certain. It wasn't very long before daylight."

"The doctor had told me to go to the audience were those walls were you were?" "Yes, I've been there."

"What time was it?" "I haven't admitted it even yet, but I know. I was suspicious of one from the audience who had been sitting next to me."

"I'm not sure, but I think it was the man who had been sitting next to me. I don't know whether he knew about your father's murder or not."

GIANTS FIGHT FOR LEAD AGAINST RAMPANT DODGERS

TERRYMEN BRAVE BROOKLYN PEERS

New York Faces Another Fire Cracker, Lemon Barrage At Ebbets Field

By LAWTON CARVER
The chartered Giants were lucked against the wall today as they fought another barrage of firecrackers, lemon crackers and well-aimed lemons in an attempt to secure their series with the Dodgers and retain the National league lead.

Winners by 12 to 5 yesterday, the Dodgers received the batting order that "putted" them to the top and kept them there until the Giants threw them into second gear. Ebbets field fans revealed Bill Terry at intervals that Brooklyn was still in the league, and the cheers toward Terry, firecracker, when the Dodgers made the runs that drove Freddy Fitzsimmons to the showers.

Fruit Barrage
During the first biggest of the Brooklyn fans' fire-crackers were set off and fruit—particularly lemons—was hurled in an enthusiastic outburst.

It was William Watson Clark, a catfish Giant southpaw, who did the most hurting in the first three innings. He went the route and spaced 10 hits, while the other three pitchers combined for a total of 18 runs, 10 hits, and three runs for himself.

McEl, playing third base in a makeshift infield, was the hero of the Giants with a homer in the second that gave them the only lead they had during the game. The rest of the time it was all Dodgers.

Reds-Trounce Cards
The Reds, who tied with Brooklyn for the lead earlier in the week, showed signs of rejuvenation after a lapse by smacking the champion Yankees 12 to 2, and losing to fourth place while the Cards dropped to fifth.

Subbed by fines and suspensions on Pitcher Guy Dumb of the first and second games of the Cubs for their part in a fight during the first game, the team got their wrangles yesterday and played to a 3-10 Chicago victory.

Three Postponed
The Phillies and the Braves were postponed by rain, Chicago-Cleveland and Boston-Philadelphia also were postponed by rain. The Red Sox continued in the standings without playing and Philadelphia fourth place, while Washington lost to the Yankees, 6 to 8. Dickey and Lazzerri honored for the Yankees and Fowler pitched the one for the Senators.

Goose Gossits hit his fourth home run for the Tigers and they scored their second one-sided victory in a series, routing the Braves 10 to 3. General Alvin Crowder pitched the win.

"GOOD LUCK—AGAINST OTHERS!"

When Joe Cronin, fight and Husky Harris met for the first time this season, the first question they asked each other, was "How do you like my old job?" The pair who became big man-agers in Washington exchanged pleasantries during the winter, Cronin stepping into Harris' shoes with the Boston Red Sox, and the once mopey returning to the club which he guided to championships in 1924 and 1928.

"BRADDOCK'S GONNA LICK BAER," DECLARES GARDEN'S PROMOTER

By HENRY McLEMORE
NEW YORK, May 1 (U.P.)—Mr. James J. Braddock's promoter, John J. Garden, has several faults, including the putting of "Baer" in the ring with the "Kid" who has been left him, but beating back every criticism he has left him, but beating back every criticism he has left him, but beating back every criticism he has left him.

So, today, when I asked James J. Braddock to lend a guess on the outcome of the four big fights scheduled for the coming week of May, "Kid" this summer, he started hazarding all over Madison Square Garden.

"If you don't mind," he said as he dabbed into his box, "I'll tell you what I think of Baer's fight. 'Kid,' I will start hazarding with the Garden's two fights, the first and second of the week for the Cubs for their part in a fight during the first game, the team got their wrangles yesterday and played to a 3-10 Chicago victory.

"Fight number two is brother Bert against Jimmy Braddock on the box on June 15, and you may just as well start hazarding ready to knock off a story about the biggest upset in ten years.

IRATE WRESTLER MAULS DEMPSEY

Boston Matman Throws Jack, Shunts Him from Ring, Exchanges Blows

BOSTON, May 1 (U.P.)—Jack Dempsey, one of the most famous pugilists in the world, was mauled by a wrestler last night. The spectacle occurred at a new show at the Boston Garden, where the Irishman was the main attraction. The wrestler, a local hero, mauled Dempsey with a series of punches and kicks, leaving the champion boxer dazed and bleeding.

Floored Again
Demp's mauling, the two worked their way back into the ring where Dempsey was tripped and again floored. Promoters, police, ushers and second ring men did not before the pair had exchanged several blows.

Germaine later declared that he demonstrated that a wrestler can fight a boxer. He showed Dempsey that the trade of refereeing mauls and punches out of him about playing out. If I encounter him again, I will spin him on his nose.

Would Mr. Johnson care to see one of the contestants? Was Dempsey's reaction.

Two Twin Falls Men Named
On Commission to Boost
Agriculture

BOISE, May 1 (AP)—Agriculturists now have their commission of seven members to govern the expenditure of the $20,000 appropriated by the legislature for the promotion of agriculture. More than a score of growers and shippers from all over southern Idaho were present and F. Lee Johnson, commissioner of agriculture, presided. The session was held in the house chamber.

The meeting was called as a result of the passage of H. B. 89 of the special session, appropriating the $20,000. The legislature has in mind particularly the reduction of freight rates as well as maintenance of prices above the cost of production. The commission elected consists of J. C. Sewell, Nampa, shipper; George Amer, Pomeroy, shipper and trucker; J. H. Seever, Twin Falls, horticulturist; H. H. Young, Parma, vegetable grower; J. F. Marshall, Twin Falls, potato grower; H. B. ### NAZI SUB READY IN SIX MONTHS

Rearmament Plans Hastening
First Undersea Craft,
Britain Hears

LONDON, May 1 (AP)—Intensive reararmament preparations in Germany will result in completion of the Hebel's first submarine—in defiance of the Versailles treaty—probably within six months, Sir Bolton Eyres-McNeill, first lord of the admiralty, told the house of commons today. Sir Bolton, describing the German preparations, said that on April 20 German authorities notified the British naval attaché that the order to manufacture twelve 250-ton submarines had been given last Christmas. The order to construct the hulls and assembly parts was given in mid-April. The sea lord said the admiralty was without information on the alleged progress of the submarine school at Kiel.

SACRAMENTO TO BE GRANGE SITE

Farm Group Will Have 1935
National Convention in California City

Members of the Grange in all parts of the United States are interested in the fact that a decision has just been made to hold the 60th annual convention of the National Grange in the city of Sacramento, Calif., the date being Nov. 13-21 next. Sacramento offers exceptional facilities for the holding of a large convention, as it has a beautiful new municipal auditorium, perfectly equipped, while the hotel accommodations of California's capital city are unexcelled. Already Grange members in the eastern section of the country are contemplating a coast-to-coast trip, following the same plan which carried a large delegation to the Pacific Coast whenever the National Grange has held its annual session in that part of the country. In 1921 at Portland, Ore., in 1925 at Sacramento, 1929 at Seattle and 1933 at Boise, Idaho, large eastern delegations were present and the California experience of 1925 is as pleasantly remembered as to constitute a decided attraction for the coming November.

The entire Pacific coast Grange organization will unite in extending hospitality to the November convention and large groups from Washington, Oregon and Idaho will swell the clans from California which will take the seventh degree, the highest in the Grange, treductions of a mass of 5,000 candidates are named and it is expected that the coming convention will give great impetus to the organization of new Granges on the Pacific coast during the season ahead.
