FILIPINO TROOPS CLAMP DOWN ON ISLANDS' REVOLT

Constabulary Slowly Beating Back Guerrilla Forces of Baidalasta Group. 47 DIE IN SINGLE CLASH. Outbreaks Flare in Scattered Sectors, Fear Rebels May Seize Arms Plant.

By REUEL S. MOORE (Copyright, 1935, United Press). MANILA, P. I., May 3 (AP)—The Philippines constabulary pressed an intensive drive against guerrilla forces today to suppress the island's first serious revolt against the 10 year American plan for Philippine independence. Adopting a plan of swift action, constabulary forces apparently were slowly beating back the threat of the revolting Baidalasta group. Each time an outbreak was reported, government forces speedily moved in, checking uprisings in a dozen scattered towns and villages.

533 4-H GROUPS FORMED IN 1934

Total Output for Year Set at $47,789 in Report by Rearden

MOSCOW, (Special).—Five hundred and thirty-three standard 4-H clubs embracing livestock, crops and home economics, were organized in the USA with a membership of 5,212 boys and girls, reports J. H. Rearden, state club leader with the University of Idaho, its agricultural extension division, in his annual report. The club program was carried on in 41 of the 44 counties of the state.

The 5,212 boys and girls enrolled in club work produced products with a market value of $47,789, with each of the products amounting to $32,715, leaving a net profit to the club members of $15,074. The club leader estimates that the total value of the work is no estimate can be made of the educational value of the work, he adds.

Near All-Time High

The 1934 club enrollment exceeds that of 1923 by 20% and is but slightly below the all-time high of 5,273 last year. "The 399 local leaders who gave of their time and advice without any financial compensation were largely responsible for the large number of club members enrolled and for those who completed their projects," says the club leader, seventy-two per cent of the club members enrolling completed the year's work.

Home economics club members made 20,472 articles of clothing and canned 13,474 jars of food-stuffs. Five hundred and seventy-eight club meetings were held during the year with an attendance of 29,576. Boys and girls in livestock clubs own 1,621 head of stock, 675 prize purchased animals and 242 being grade. Dairy club clubs lead in numbers, being 445 clubs, but are second in prize money, being 2,345 purchased and 138 prize.

MUSIC REIGNS IN TWIN FALLS Proof the welcome accorded those participating in the State Music Festival here this week-end is shown in the fact that most Twin Falls homes are entertaining one or more of the guests.

Public patronage of these events will be further evidence of the keen interest locally in the accomplishments of the young musicians of the state and in their future success. For a money prize offered by Mussolini, 4412 Italians were married in one day. When the Duke plays Cupid, it seems, Cupid plays the deuce.

CAUSE AND EFFECT If the unexpected twists and turns of politics sometimes seem confusing, it is well to remember that nothing ever happens in a vacuum.

Recent news dispatches provide an excellent illustration. Seventeen thousand people jammed a great hall in Detroit to cheer enthusiastically when Father Coughlin called on them to "drive out of public life the men who have promised us redness and failed."

Now these two developments are extremely significant. They bespeak an upsurge of indignation on the part of the public—an impatient anger at the delays and failures of existing political organizations.

On the day that these two developments occurred, a legislative committee investigating alleged relief graft in Ohio questioned Francis W. Poulson, state Democratic chairman. Mr. Poulson admitted that the party collected campaign funds from firms which did business with the state relief administration.

A committee member found this shocking. Mr. Poulson replied that "only the money could be believed that people would give money to a political party just because they wanted to play Santa Claus."

Now this is worth some extended thought. Remember first, that every political party finances its campaigns by means of contributions. That's true of all campaigns—county, state, and national. The money is collected from individuals and corporations.

It's not "wine, women and song any more," says grandpa, it's "beer, radio and mamma!"

SOVIET PRESSING CLASS CAMPAIGN Reign of Fear Holds Moscow Citizens Under Suspicion by Political Police

WASHINGTON — What President Roosevelt told Chairman McNutt of the house military committee about published secret war testimony was plenty. But what he said privately to the House of Representatives before the war was even more. Apparently the president had not been as freely aroused about anything in a long time.

A drive by the political police similar to the recent one which resulted in exile from Leningrad for more than 3,000 persons (according to official Soviet press reports) appears under way here.

The affair has deep roots. The McElwain force and the war department general staff has been more or less openly at odds for a long time. It may not be true that Mr. McNutt left the matter out intentionally, but you can't make McNutt a Democrat.

Official "Mishap" A high official of the Soviet government, in the Soviet Union, is similarly "missing."

What made MacArthur red-head the way he was? He had been in the military since the beginning of the war and had been in the United States since the beginning of the war.

It is quite likely that most persons being arrested in Moscow now are merely being "cleaned up" by the political police.

These costs were neatly covered in the public handling of the matter. The army officer whose secret testimony was disclosed was induced to make a statement that his testimony represented only his personal opinion.

TODAY FAVORED AS DERBY ENTRY DEADLINE ARRIVES

WIDE OPEN RACE AWAITS THROGGS

Few Scratches Forecast With Weather Giving Outsiders Chance to Win

By HENRY McLEONIE
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3 (AP)—It was not up or shut up at Churchill Downs today.

The hour for the final declaration in Kentucky derby starters just arrived, and owners and trainers had to enter their horses, along with a good will check for $100, or forever hold their peace.

Open Race
The referee was not expected to be numerous, however, because this year's derby is such an open race that many of the owners were willing to gamble $100 against some $40,000. Also, the weather was so unsettled that it might be in such a condition as to give even the rainiest outsider a chance.

Sixteen thoroughbreds were almost certain to be named. They are Today, Omaha, Hot Eye, the Flag, Commonwealth, Dixie, Blue, Omaha, Hot Eye, the Flag, Commonwealth at 6 to 1, and Roman Soldier at 10 to 1. Nellie (12) Tommy Racine, public esteem to the rain which has been peeling in Louisville for nearly 24 hours, and which has converted the Churchill Downs track into a quagmire. The name is that of Commonwealth and Roman Soldier.

The riding trip was covered by an inch of water early today. Trainers in the country with the track, however, said it is the fastest drying course in the country and that it will be of clear weather would render it fit. Unless civic and track officials are stretching their necks, however, the biggest crowd in derby history will witness the flat running.

Maxie Rosenbloom Decisions Brandies
OSKLAND, May 3 (AP)—Maxie Rosenbloom, New York, declared his intentions for the Kentucky Derby. (10); Tiger Fly, 134, Oakland, technically knocked out Mickey Conroy, 135, New York, and Maxie Lara, 167, San Jose, California, Nelson Lang, 165, Santa Barbara, (12) Tommy Racine, 141, Oakland, technically knocked Tommy Conroy, 142, Oakland, Young Joe Hatch, 14, San Francisco, and Berny Duncan, 116, Pittsburgh, (2); Jack Donahue, 214, Oakland, and Jimmy Cordova, 118, Stockton, (4).

Weather, Injuries Hit Gooding Squad
GODDING, May 3 (Special)—Adverse weather and injuries have rather wrecked Coach M. E. Moran's Gooding college track team. However, two men, Bob Beckwith, a real threat in the quarter and 800 as well, and Gene Galt, a good burlier, will make the trip to Derby Saturday. "Track" showed his heels to all but Galt the half at the Outlaw and should improve on his time by several minutes in a mid-summer period. He is recovering from a knee injury, which has kept him out of competition.

Huskies Arrive for Clash With Bruins
LOS ANGELES, May 3 (AP)—Coach Ric Sandstrom says here today with his University of Washington track team and immediately scheduled a workout for the Huskies in preparation for their meet with the Bruins at California at Los Angeles tomorrow.

Coaches have figured that the dual meet is a toss-up on paper but are inclined to give the Huskies the edge because of their 68-63 victory over Stanford and the sound hitting they gave Oregon State, 62-5, to 25.

Whitman Wins Two From Coyote Squad
WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 3 (AP)—Whitman opened its intercollegiate baseball schedule here Thursday with a doubleheader, 7 to 3, and 9 to 2. The teams play double headers again today and Saturday.

CUBS AND PIRATES TURN PUGILISTIC

A melee that started at second base when Pittsburgh's second sacker, Cookie Lavagotto, and Billy Jurge's Cubs' shortstop, swapped punches after the former had doubled in the fifth inning, wound up in a free-for-all fight. Jimmie Foxx, Pirates pitcher, rushed out of the Ince dugout and started punching at Roy Jones, Cub hurler. They fought all the way from second base to third before teammates and Umpire Bill Hien separated them. Here is a shot showing the Bush-lavie fracas near first. Fred Ebert, president of the league, suspended and fined Bush and Jurge.

WALTER JOHNSON STILL RECALLS IDAHO BALL FANS WITH PRAISE

COLLEGES READY FOR TRACK MEET
Southern Branch, Normal and Gooding Battle Tomorrow At Burley

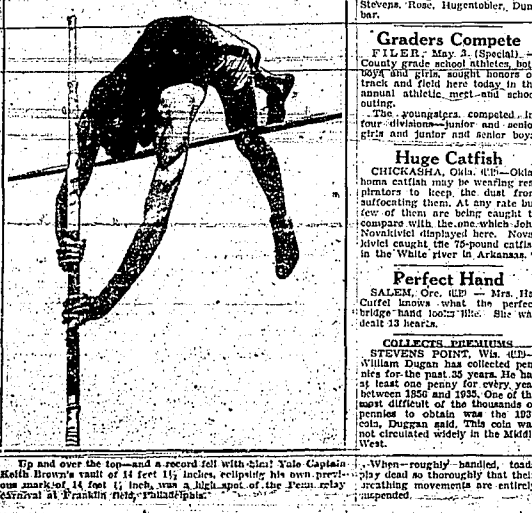

BURLEY, May 3 (Special)—University of Idaho, southern branch, Albion Normal and Gooding college track teams will swing into action here at 1:45 p. m. tomorrow in the eastern division of the annual meet of the Idaho Intercollegiate Athletic Association at Boise May 3.

Three weeks later in the same good head work, Gene Felton the first sack on four balls and then struck out Galloway, Harkness and Smith. Johnson was the first man up in the second, and he nailed the first ball thrown for a long hit, giving him three bases. The Weiler fan took up his name, and the air rang with cries of "Johnson!"

BURLEY STAGES DISTRICT MEET
BURLEY, May 3 (AP)—With Twin Falls topping the entries list of starters entered, south central Idaho, high school, track and field athletes were competing here this afternoon in the district meet. The Bruin team had 12 starters; Burley was next with 12. The meet will qualify three men in each event to compete here next week at the inter-district competition. Two relay teams will qualify.

Major League Intersectional Games Offer Comparison Of Strength

By LAWRENCE CARVER
NEW YORK, May 3 (AP)—The world's vaunted strength in both major leagues was subjected to its first test today in opening inter-sectionals. Faces the Red Sox at Navia field.

The Yankees, cast an underdog role of the end and less than two games out of the lead, had an opportunity to climb over the hapless Browns before engaging the second place White Sox. The Browns fell apart early and retired within one-half game of the cellar.

The surprising White Sox, who had the American League batting leadership and second place in the standings, opened their home stay against Washington.

OAKS WIN GAME DESPITE ERRORS

Seven Glaring Misplays Fail To Mean Defeat; Clubs Shift Today

By United Press
Wearing the superior smile of a team that is away out in front and just has won one more game despite making seven errors, the Oakland east league leaders moved to Portland today to shoot some Duels.

The colossal Oaks, who have dropped only four games out of 22 players mean seven errors late in the game. The Oakland manager, Plicker Dick Barrett of the Indians counterbalanced each error with a free pass to first base.

All the other teams also change partners today, after most of them changed places in the standings yesterday.

IDAHO ASKS U. S. FOR ADDED CASH

Drouth Director Brings Plan for Added $6,000,000 Allotment

By RALPH W. OLINSTEAD
WASHINGTON, (Special)—R. J. Wood, of Weiser, Idaho, director of drouth relief for Idaho, arrived in Washington recently to put the "U" on the Uncle Sam's to the tune of about $6,000,000. A trifling sum, of course, but when added to what the congression delegation expects to haggle out of Messrs. Tack, Hopkins, and Walker for public works projects, it will mean plenty of jobs in the state.

The Upper Snake, the Black Canyon, the Boise valley, American Falls, and numerous other localities will be developed or there will be some progress to the contrary. Recently, news of agitation for the development of the Twin Falls Bruneau project has reached Washington and at the senatorial request of Idaho's interior minister of the upper house, Director of Reclamation Elwood Mead has promised to investigate the project.

In northern Idaho it now seems likely that the Coeur d'Alene and St. Joe Rivers will be surveyed for flood control and reclamation purposes.

Modern Pioneer Bride Taking Sewing Machine Into Frontier

By JAMES A. SULLIVAN
OF IRISH descent—her grandparents came from Dublin—she is the bride of a pioneer in the West. Catherine Scarlett Lennon, 26, and taught for four years. She year-old bride whose wedding trip earned her way through school by a woman to Alaska to start telegraphic work.

Of the same sturdy and enterprising stock is her husband Gilbert Lennon, 25, a farmer. He is a housekeeper in a log cabin, is taking a sewing machine instead of a prairie stock to her husband Gilbert Lennon, 25, a farmer. He is a housekeeper in a log cabin, is taking a sewing machine instead of a prairie stock to her husband Gilbert Lennon, 25, a farmer.

He laughed heartily as his bride drew puzzled looks from the newspapermen uninitiated in the terminology of the rural districts. "You know what a mule-skinners' drive is, don't you?" he asked. "Well, it's a drive to get married until they have used for both of us. I hope Catherine can get work teaching. They'll need at least five teachers for the 100 children of the party."

Gilbert and she had been "going together" for two years but they didn't decide to get married until they heard of the Alaska expedition and its offer of a 40-acre homestead to couples who qualify.

"It was the 'big chance' for the four of them, the Lemmons included, have no children. Clyde Cook, from Walker county, Minnesota, has seven—G. E. Russell of St. Louis county and Ingot Sandvik of Carlton county have six each. The children romped all over the town today, their second day at school. Acquainted now with their surroundings and forgetting the fear of Lead-buffers for the moment, they thoroughly enjoyed a voyage which will end in four more days when the St. Mikko lands at Seward where they will board trains to take them 125 miles to their new homes in Matanuska valley.

FINAL STOCKMAN PARLEY TONIGHT

Hollister Meeting Will End Series on Grazing Plans, Marketing Unit

Stockmen will meet at the Hollister high school at 8 p. m. today to hear explanations of the Taylor grazing act, and the Twin Falls County Cooperative Livestock Marketing association. The meeting will conclude a series of four, the third of which was held at Buhl last evening.

At the latter session seven additional members of the pooling association were named: James Fry and L. L. Goodrich, being elected, and the following five re-elected: I. E. Stansell, Thomas Parks, A. E. Winn, George C. Leth and John Thomas.

H. C. Lauterbach, Hansen, explained the workings of the pooling association; Harvey S. Hale, county extension agent, spoke on the grazing privileges open to small flock and herd owners; and B. C. Taylor, Idaho, urged attendance at a meeting here Saturday afternoon when the extension of federal loans to stockmen will be the subject for consideration.

MONTANAN ASKS PROBE ON BEETS

Senator Murray Presses for Senate Action on Demand For Inquiry

WASHINGTON, May 3 (Special)—Senator E. Murray, D. Mont., said today he would press for early consideration of his senate resolution for a "full complete" investigation of the beet sugar industry.

Murray asked for an appropriation of $20,000 to finance a special committee of three to make the investigation and report their findings to the senate.

His resolution was prompted, Murray said, by a dispute between Montana sugar beet growers and the Great Western Sugar company. The investigation, however, would apply to the beet sugar industry in all parts of the United States.

Montana growers, he said, have refused to sign contracts because of alleged discrimination by the sugar company. The growers contend, he said, that the present price of sugar justifies an increase in the amount paid the farmers for beets.

More local news of a financial nature has gone out from Twin Falls, Idaho, and vicinity. Farmers who have damage claims resulting from operations on the Blackfoot reservoir, who have been represented by State Representative E. Wilson of Soda Springs, will all get their money. The bureau of Indian affairs has admitted claims and states that it can pay them as soon as it can wrangle sufficient funds from the four billion.

Existent capital is interesting in Idaho mineral prospecting. Many new mines are expected to open for operation during the coming year.

Recently, two young employees of the geological survey, who have been employed in Idaho a number of years, called for a professional photographer to accompany an expedition to the "River of No Return". The proposal was placed before the National Geographic Society by Son, James P. Pope and Cong. D. Worth Clark. They suggested that the society finance a boat trip from Salmon, Idaho, to Lewiston. A boat and a professional photographer would accompany the geologists.

Color photographs of ancient Indian picture-writing and multi-colored wall paintings were being made by the Salmon river cutting its way through Idaho batholiths may be the next nature picture to be published in the National Geographic magazine. We cannot predict with certainty that the expedition will be accepted, but we were sure enough of favorable action to subscribe for this publication and that—in these parts—is something.

LAMSON LAWYER COMPLETES PLEA

McKenzie Puts Final Touches On Appeal for Acquittal Of Californian

SAN JOSE, Cal., May 3 (Special)—Edwin McKenzie, David Lammson's lawyer here, today placed the finishing touches to the appeal against the conviction of the former Stanford University Press executive from a second death sentence on charges of murder, his wife.

McKenzie had not concluded his argument when court adjourned yesterday.

He was to continue today with indications state rebuttal would require all day Monday.

The case was expected to reach the jury of seven men and five women until late Monday morning, carrying the case to a second trial into its 33th week.

At his first trial, Lamson was convicted and sentenced to death, but was saved by the supreme court when the decision, because it was insufficient to convict.

A red rose is the rent paid for tenure of a man in Somerset, England. The custom is more than 700 years old.
