CLIPPER SPEEDS TOWARD U. S. ON EXPLORING TRIP

Giant Craft Roars Path to California at Higher Levels Today

BUCKS HEAVY HEADWIND Return Jaunt Will Map Out New Route for Pacific Air Service

ALAMEDA AIRPORT, Calif., June 22 (UP)—A giant four-motored plane hurtled across the Pacific at an average speed of 137 miles an hour today in exploring a new route for trans-Pacific commercial air service.

Choosing a course paralleling that which the speedy clipper ships of sailing days followed in the western ocean, the Pan-American Airways' Oriental Clipper kept 100 miles north of the atomarc line in its fourth transoceanic flight.

Flying High The route the trail-blazer was following today was thousands of feet higher than any had followed in previous trips which have taken her west to Honolulu by the shorter route.

At the current rate of speed the plane will reach its base at Alameda airport.

Graft Probe Finds Claim Unsupported

WASHINGTON, June 22 (UP)—Y. Mitchell's charge of "graft" and "corruption" in the department of commerce, from which he was ousted as assistant secretary, appeared today to be an "incident" no one in the senate commerce committee is concerned.

Chairman Royal S. Copeland, D. N. Y., said at the conclusion of the three-day hearing that he believed the commerce department had been completely vindicated.

He said Mitchell's determination of Mr. Mitchell's determination from the service.

Torpe charged Mitchell with "graft and corruption" in the shipping board, and in reply he charged the department with "graft and corruption" in the shipping board.

Mitchell Denounced He described Mitchell as a man who was willing to sacrifice public service through charges based chiefly on rumors and allegations.

OWENS LEADS OHIO STATE IN BATTLE FOR N. C. A. TITLE

BRILLIANT NEGRO FEATURES MEET

Strong Trojan Team Favored Despite "Black Comet's" Performances

By CHARLES MOORE
BENTLEY, Cal. A record, but not a new one, was set by Jesse Owens, the "black comet" of Ohio State, and 10 Buckeye teammates today when they won the formidable task of wrestling the National Collegiate Athletic association track and field team from undefeated University of Southern California.

Owens, who established a new all-time standard of track and field performance yesterday by winning four quality events in the national meet, must win three races today if the Buckeyes are to take the coveted N. C. A. Trojan team, strongest ever coached by Dean Cromwell.

Mark Expected to Stand

The sensational Negro probably will have to compete in but three events today, as his broad jump mark is expected to stand and the best efforts of the remaining nine competitors.

On his first leap yesterday, Owens soared 26 feet 1 1/2 inches for a new N. C. A. record, but six inches short of his best mark of 29 feet 8 1/2 inches set earlier in the season.

Owens pitted through both the 100 and 200 yard sprints to win in easy style and led his team in the 220-yard low hurdles for his fourth victory of the day.

Fast Connections to Stand

Although conceded victory in broad jump and favored heavily in the 200-yard dash, Owens ran but an even chance of breaking the tape in either the 220-yard hurdles or the 100-yard dash.

Glenn Hardin, Louisiana State university star who won his heat in the low hurdles with the "amazing exhibition of speed and form in the day," is an even bet to defeat the Ohio Negro in the low, and George Anderson of California is an even bet with Owens in the 100-yard dash.

Hardin, in addition to ranking as one of the fastest runners in the country, also is a favorite to cop the final in the 400-yard dash. The powerful built runner, defending champion in both low hurdles and 400, led through his trial heat to the second half of the 100-yard dash of U. S. C.

Trojans Lead Qualifiers

Although lacking a few brilliant individual performers of the Ohio State and Louisiana State teams, University of Southern California's Trojans came into the final day with 15 men already qualified and 10 more who are in the running in events in which no qualifying trials were held.

The men of Troy led the qualifying list by a wide margin. Ohio State had second with 10 men already qualified. Stanford had five but had little chance to retain the lead in the 100-yard dash, which was won at Los Angeles last year. California also had five; North Carolina had four; Washington, Fresno, U. C. L. A., Washington State, and several other schools had three or more.

In all, 41 schools qualified performers for today's events.

Four records were broken in the trials—Owens' broad jump setting one and Charles Gouffier, 221-foot 3/4 inch toss in the javelin.

MARKS PERILED AS TRACKSTERS MEET AT N. C. A. A.

Qualifiers from 41 U. S. colleges and universities were represented today at the National Collegiate Athletic association meet at Edwards' track stadium, University of California, and outstanding performers in all classes are expected to shatter records. Some of the standout stars are (above) Jesse Owens, Ohio State, record holder in low hurdles and broad jump; (below) Jim La Valle, U. C. L. A., 440-yard star; center, Bud Shoenaut, (above), University of Oregon sprint ace; Sam Hlopatek (below), Stanford, high and low hurdles; George Anderson (right) University of California sprint runner. Shoenaut failed to qualify yesterday.

Runnerup Battle Offers Chief Excitement as New Yorkers Top Both Loops

By GEORGE KIRKNEY
NEW YORK, June 22 (AP)—With the New York Yankees and New York Giants traveling at a terrific pace, the battling of the two major leagues is for second place.

The Giants are 7 1/2 games in front but the Pittsburgh Pirates, in second place, are only a half game ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals. The Chicago Cubs are a game behind the Cards.

Six Indians Near Tie

The Yankees are five games in front of the Chicago White Sox and Cleveland Indians, who virtually are tied for second place. The Detroit Tigers, in fourth place, are only a game and a half behind the Sox and Indians.

Cleveland, which has won six of its last seven games today attempted to halt the triumphant march of the Yankees through the White Sox. The Yanks have won nine of 11 games played on their present western tour.

Ray Saldano Yanks

Schoolboy Ross, scoring his third straight victory since he became a father less than two weeks ago, mapped the Yank six-game winning streak yesterday, 7-0. He held the Yanks to four hits in winning his sixth victory.

German, who took Chicago, Chicago, pitched and batted the White Sox back into second place with a triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics. Kennedy allowed only seven hits, scored two runs and drove in two.

Lefty Grove won his sixth game in the Boston Red Sox battle with St. Louis. However, 3-0, in a game called at the end of the sixth because of rain.

Cubs Win Another

The Chicago Cubs kept up their recent winning streak by defeating the Boston Braves, 11-3, behind Ted Carlisle's seven-inning pitching. The Cubs have won eight out of 12 since they left the coast.

John Vanderberg, center with the bases filled featured the Philadelphia Phillies' 5-3 victory over the Cardinals. The big slugger, who has been out of the box.

Don Brennan won his first game in the league by routing the St. Paul Saints to a 5-0 victory over Brooklyn.

MILER'S PRIZE

Bill Houston, Princeton University's star miler, has been to appear occasionally during his track career, but he has not yet won the Milers' Prize.

Bill Houston, Princeton university's star miler, has been to appear occasionally during his track career, but he has not yet won the Milers' Prize.

Houston, who is a member of the Princeton track team, has been competing in various events, including the mile, half mile, and quarter mile. He has shown great promise and is considered one of the top miler prospects in the country.

He is expected to compete in the Milers' Prize, a prestigious event for miler runners, which is held annually in Princeton, New Jersey.

MISSIONS CLIMB INTO COAST TOP

Gabby Street's Boys Wallop Oakland to Lead Second Half Parade

By United Press
Gabby Street's flying mission, Oakland, led in the first half of the Pacific coast league yesterday, but the sport in the sun delayed the start of the second half. Street's club climbed into the lead after the third inning, in a game in which Louis Adams, Oakland outfielder, hit safely five times to stretch his string of consecutive hits to nine.

Hitting Power

The battle between the Reds and Oakland, Oacle Eckhardt and Berger are among the leading players of Wayne Osborne and Walter Beck had the Missions on in front. They had seven runs, three hits and three errors, and were hitting through much of the game.

The game which ended the first half last week and started the second today, the Reds climbed all over three Oakland pitchers last night for a 1-3 victory. The game was a doubleheader and four singles in three runs and scored two himself.

Other members of the Oakland team and a triple and Eckhardt just were satisfied among the Missions' 17.

Seattle Slugs Honors

The Seattle Slugs yesterday's program, however, was attended by Seattle in winning its second game from Los Angeles and exciting the series with the first. Seattle's home run hit seven home runs and Los Angeles had three in the fourth.

Smith hit homers in the fourth, Donovan and Gypcham had two more in the fifth. Boston and Smith found the net in the seventh and the Hunt got his first in the eighth. Kimball and Harris, Angel swishes, led the sting of the Seattle slugs.

Portland Wins

Portland secured its series with the San Francisco Giants yesterday by the Heavers by a 4-2 score. Joe Hartley sent the Seaside team start with a first-inning homer but Portland popped on Denmore for three in the first.

Hollywood also pulled up eyes with Sacramento by a 5-2 victory last night. Hits were even—nine each. Pilette first and Denmore the seventh, when the Senators scored their only run. He started the eighth again in the ninth and Archie Campbell came in to save the game.

MONTANAN BEATS LASKY IN 'DIPSET'

Ford Smith Beats "Dope" By Winning Technical Race Over Jewish Fox

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22 (AP)—Ford Smith, a Montana cowboy, provided Atlanta's most lopsided victory by beating American prizefighter Archie Campbell in a technical knockout over Art Lasky, Jewish champion, who once defeated James J. Braddock in the heavyweight title fight.

Referee Tony Irwin stopped the fight in the sixth round at Dempsey stadium after Smith had landed a right hand to the side of Lasky's head.

Lasky was bleeding profusely from a cut over the left eye, opened by one of the Montana's punches.

Staggering Minded about the fight, the Minnesota boxer was absorbing unmerciful punishment until Irwin waved him to his corner and awarded Smith the biggest victory he ever had scored in the ring.

BUHL SEEKS WIN OVER HAZELTON

Faces Tough Task in Strong Opponents; Kimberly and Wendell Clash

Buhl's powerful baseball crew, boasting the only no-hit and no-run game of the Southern Idaho league season, will attempt to scramble the first game standing tomorrow by facing Hazelton in one of the feature games of the season.

With Willis ace pitcher, doing the hurling, Buhl has its eye on a possible top place deadlock. The Willis and his mates subdue Hazelton, Albee and Hazelton—and if Wendell can spring an upset over Kimberly, Buhl will be in a position to take the lead.

The possibility was only nebulous a day ago, however, since Kimberly had a hit-battering outfit, paced by the remarkable effectiveness of Hawkins, new pitching find, in running all but ball on an impressive performance.

The improved "Pile" club, too, will have an instrument of trouble. This schedule for tomorrow:

Hazelton at Buhl.
Kimberly at Wendell.
Gooding at Hazelton.

The banjo is starting an American instrument and is scarcely 100 years old.

YALE VICTOR

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 22 (AP)—Yale gained a clean sweep of the American division in the football season with a 7-0 victory over the Princeton Tigers.

Yale won both the freshman and junior varsity games yesterday. The varsity, originally scheduled for dusk yesterday, was postponed to today because of rough weather.

The Princeton Tigers' money has a collic-like brush list and can well be called the most beautiful of all money, if they can be classed as beautiful.

ADVANCE NOTICE

Congress now has opportunity to demonstrate its ability to provide the revenue for the billions of dollars it has appropriated.

President Roosevelt in a precedent-making message has called for:

- 1. High inheritance and gift taxes on large fortunes.
2. Sharply higher income tax in the higher brackets.
3. Graduated corporation taxes placing a heavier burden upon large corporations in income.

In addition there has been a 22nd amendment to the Constitution to eliminate tax exemption on all future federal, state and municipal securities.

The action is drastic, but whether or not it can receive the serious attention of the Congress at this session is problematical. The President may be a few years ahead of himself economically, his suggestions on the face may cause some amazement, but what he proposes appears to be inevitable.

The ideas are not new. When the income tax was first inaugurated, the door was laid open for heavier and heavier taxes on large fortunes especially.

The people accepted the system, and just now the only question is the degree to which incomes shall be taxed—not whether or not they shall be taxed.

There can be little argument about the necessity of eliminating tax-exempt securities. No wealth should be exempt for any reason—excepting possibly philanthropic and charitable funds.

And what shall we say of the individual or corporation which continues to amass millions of dollars? Again the fact remains that the only question is: How much of these fortunes shall go for taxes?

The President has broached the subject with no little caution. He has been conservative in his suggested percentages of taxation. He is non-committal as to when the Congress should bring action on the proposal.

But he has served notice that there is a practical method to collect the taxes necessary to pay off the obligations which have been contracted, and he has revealed that it is not the "little fellows" who will have to assume the butt of the burden.

This is the most important feature of the proposal and the one which should bring satisfaction to the mass of the people who will look to the Congress to take the Presidential cue in solving the debt problem created by recovery appropriations.

NEW IERA SET-UP

Decision on the part of the IERA to inaugurate a new system of eligibility effective July 1 should have a beneficial effect on the entire set-up.

Inevitably the relief rolls become burdened with some persons not entitled to assistance, either because they willfully have taken advantage of the situation or for the reason that since going on relief they have rehabilitated themselves, but are hesitant about withdrawing.

This may be true in only a comparatively small number of cases but too often the few cases, the exceptional ones, cause complaint, criticism and distrust. To make it difficult, rather than easy to "go on the IERA," appears to be the basis of the announced system.

The worthy cases must come first and there must be no denying of assistance to those still in need of the benefits of the humanitarian program. This is assured to a greater degree under the new proposals which should meet with general approval, both on the part of the more unfortunate as well as the administrators and the public alike.

AFTER THE ILL WIND

Maybe this late lamented chain letter craze wasn't entirely a dead loss, after all.

Postal authorities at Denver, where the whole business started, checked up on the results the other day, and discovered that the extra mail caused by the fad netted Denver postoffice workers extra pay to the extent of about $20,000.

Furthermore, Uncle Sam himself profited, Denver postoffice receipts for the two months the fad lasted running some $50,000 above normal.

It is both surprising and gratifying to learn that this, one of the silliest fads the American people ever took up, actually did someone some good. In fact, it looks as if everyone profited by it—except the suckers who mailed the dimes and the dollars.

New York police announces that they can now identify fingerprints left on cloth. The net is slowly closing about youthful jam purloiners.

Now that the supreme court has adjourned, public interest can, if it wants, return to that other Washington mine.

Summer Sweethearts

By Mabel McElroy

MEGAN BECK TODAY: KATHARINE: STYVIEHURD: Beautiful, 20, falls in love with MICHAEL: SITUATION: occurs at a riding school. Katharine's father is rich and her stepmother...

THE FAIR GIRL: Katharine's father is rich and her stepmother is a fortune hunter. She is attracted to SALLY MOON, local society, has been announced. Michael returns to his home town. Katharine comes with him. They are married in an elaborate little way. Three months later on returning to see the doctor, he is taken to a fortune and dies in Ireland.

SALLY MOON, unaware of this, goes to meet him at the date of their wedding.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY. CHATMAN says he had a very good idea of the plot.

MICHAEL: "So that's his end," he said rather heavily. "Why not?" All girls importunate, she faced him. "Why not even now? Anybody can say that."

HE'D PAY... PAUL MALDON'S NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS... An Exclusive Evening Times Daily Report on the Post-War Events in the National Capital by an Expert Interpreter and Commentator.

WASHINGTON—There must have been some good unexplained reasons why the Mitchell creature got no more of an immediate reaction than there was. Ordinarily the retirement of an official of Ewing Mitchell's standing in France during the war would have been a notable event.

There's a more difference of some $500,000 between the amount of contested income tax the believe has made over the government and the $1,278,228 the government is demanding, but Robert J. Dunham, above, Chicago park district president and public works progress, is coming to get his Illinois, says he is willing to pay whatever amount the courts or the internal revenue commission may finally set. Dunham's lawyers contend the government's value claim is not more than $400,000.

F. F. A. WILL GO TO STATE MEET... Youths, Teachers Will Travel To Moscow July 15 To 21 For Convocation

MOSCOW, June 22 (Special)—Approximately 300 Future Farmers and Smith-Hughes agricultural teachers are coming to attend Idaho's first statewide Future Farmer convention, reports Herbert E. Lattig, professor of agricultural education.

INERTIA... The lack of reaction among Idaho citizens to the convention of Republican grass roots was also wholly in violation of the unwritten custom of the state. No one expected the White House to take any notice of the Republican convention, but you would think that some kind of publicity effort would be made to attract it.

MANEUVERS... If these few inner observations are not enough to give you a hint of the current generalship being followed by the administration, it will be reconstituted.

AT THE CHURCHES

DANCE PROGRAM PRESENTED BY NEIGHBORS
Royal Neighbors of America meeting in regular session last evening at the Odd Fellows hall were presented a program of readings, songs and dramatic sketches following the business session conducted by Mrs. Velma Trendwell, orator. The money collected was won by Mrs. Angie Iron. The program included two comedies by Lillian Lawrence and numbers by dance pupils of Mrs. Lynn Desmond. Kerma White presented "School Days," a song and dance. A clown dance was given by Rhoda Phillips, and both were accompanied by Mrs. Helen Slack, Mary Virginia Benson, accompanied by Miss Helen Severin, and a tap dance by Mrs. E. J. Nelson. The program was presented by Mrs. Virginia Benson, Rhoda Phillips and Kerma White. Mrs. Helen Slack was in charge of the refreshments.

CHURCH WEDDING SCHEDULED FOR SHOW
One of the attractive June church weddings of the season is that announced by Mrs. N. V. Sharp, flaxer of their daughter, Miss Irene Sharp, and Glenn W. Burley, of the city. The wedding is to take place tomorrow at 3 p. m. at the First Christian church here. Rev. W. V. Nelson, pastor of the Burley Christian church, will officiate. Attendants will include Mrs. Carolyn, maid of honor; Miss Cecilia Wright, Burley, bridesmaid; and Ernest Westerman, Burley, best man. For the past year Miss Sharp has taught in the Washington school of this city. She has been honored with a number of parental showers by friends here and in Burley.

GOODING COLLEGE GRANTED RATING
Lower Division Receives Credit From Northwest Association, President Says

GOODING, June 22 (Special)—Dr. G. A. Ojberg, president-elect, announces that the lower division of Gooding college has recently been fully accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools. He adds that the college hopes soon to have its upper division also fully recognized.

The college term will open Monday, Sept. 6. Classes will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 11. Minimum cost of one term is $25 for the semester; the student body fee has been fixed. It was formerly $10 a term. Other items on the minimum expense budget are: Books, $8; board at the college common, $42; room in the college dormitory, $12; laundry, $3.50. In addition each student in residence at one of the dormitories or boarding at the common will do 40 hours of work in manual training for the college, or he may pay for those hours at the rate of 25 cents an hour.

OSTRICH HERE LAYS EGG AND CAUSES FUROR

What is believed to be Idaho's only native ostrich, created a mild furor here yesterday by laying four birdy nuggets to nab her fourth birthday anniversary.

The event took place at the Hayes "ostrich farm," north of town, near Lake Hayden. According to H. G. Hayes, owner of the birds, the egg weighed about two pounds, and excepting for the fact that it was accidentally broken, would have been an dud. It measured approximately 6 1/2 inches in length and was about 5 inches in diameter.

The egg was laid by "Andy," surviving member of the Andy and Amos pair hatched at Hayes 11th-Grade Hatchery here four years ago. The bird, which weighs 250 pounds, in the object of much curiosity on the part of local residents who pass the Hayes ranch en route to the toll bridge.

Since "Andy" has proved her femininity Hayes is now receiving suggestions for a more appropriate name for the bird. He threatens here after to call her Andie!

MUSIC REIGNS ON MOSCOW CAMPUS

Eminent Directors in Charge Of University's Annual Event

MOSCOW, June 22 (Special)—People who believe their ears would say that everybody at the University of Idaho this week seems to be practicing on some kind of musical instrument.

One hundred and forty-five of the best high school musicians in Idaho and adjoining states are responsible for that impression. They registered Monday for Idaho's second summer school music month, and promptly started in playing violins, clarinets, trumpets, flutes and horns.

Grouped into a demonstration band and orchestra, they accented the campus for about four hours a day from the women's gymnasium. After that they occupied living quarters and practice alone, and in twos and threes, filling the quiet campus air with their sharp and flata.

Bachman Conductor

Conducting the demonstration band and orchestra is Harold Bachman, noted Chicago band leader and judge of orchestra contests. This year he has nearly doubled the 80 youngsters he had to work with last summer. He uses the band and orchestra to demonstrate teaching methods to a large class of high school music supervisors. Among them are three well known Idaho music men: R. J. Finfinger, director of music at the University of Idaho; J. A. Whittier, director of music at the University of Idaho; and A. H. Gifford, Idaho Falls.

Catherine McConathy, head of American public school music authorities, has the youngsters one period a day for chorus. He likewise demonstrates the best methods of teaching group singing to his large class of music teachers.

Mr. McConathy was the man whom the summer school brought to the campus in 1920 and 1921 to outline the now famous Idaho chorus plan.

CANDID CAMERA VIEWS HOLT

"Hello, senate?"
Rufus D. Holt, 20 years old and the choice of West Virginia for the U. S. senate was ready when age allowed him to take his seat officially.

"Not employment agency."
Requests for jobs usually fall on deaf ears in Holt's office, and he seeks little patronage. "It's a senator, not an employment agency," he says.

"I see they're calling me a radical again."
Violently opposed by the public utility interests, Holt is accustomed to having all sorts of radical labels pinned on him. But he contends he's a progressive. "If change is radicalism, then I'm a radical," he says. "A conservative is a man who worships dead radicals."
