Beauty Marks Snow Setting For Festival

In a scene transformed into a winter wonderland of evergreen trees, sparkling flakes, and clear blue sky, approximately two hundred Twin Falls High School students danced in the gymnasium yesterday evening, enjoying the "Snow Festival" at which members of the Girls League acted as hostesses.

A false ceiling of blue was placed overhead, and groups of snow-covered trees, and white curtains hung from the edge of the balcony and every available point. By FREDERICK GARDNER
NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The stock market was up yesterday morning today and, despite a show of firmness here and there, many leading issues put in an orderly retreat.

There was an early attempt to end the day's gains, but it failed.

The market will only faintly retrace and may continue to do so throughout the remainder of the session.

Deals were more or less confined to the better tape and trailers, totaling 25,700 shares compared with 85,000 the day before. The Associated Press average closed "up" at 60.45 a point.

The news provided little of a stimulus, but the market was steady and specific stocks continued to move up.

Step carefully, however, next half hour in the business outlooks covered by the routine and foreign developments.

American Telephone was up again in front of those stocks mentioned above, but the market was off 14 points at 157. Another new 1938 peak to its jump of 3 points in the preceding session.

Montgomery Ward, the day also was very large. Ga. common wealth Edison, Chrysler, U.S. Rubber, International Harvester, Budd, General Electric and U.S. Steel.

Off-timers to a point, or even more, were Bradfords, General Motors, Consolidated Edison, North American, Goodyear, Douglas Aircraft, Johns-Manville, Anacord, Vassar and Standard Oil of N.J.

Bonds were strong in spots, with D. S. governments recovering.

The French franc held to a gain in terms of the dollar. Columbia Oil and Gas was a fast gainer, or up a point.
