Oriental Calm Despite Quake

DESPISE terror of the recent disastrous earthquake in Japan, this aged woman looks it with Oriental calmness as she sits in front of the wreckage of her home at Kilaaramach, Japan, after the structure had been virtually leveled by the tremor.

"The warden tells me, however, that there is no chance of any inside help."

"Daughterly escaped from the Idaho penitentiary Feb. 7, 1938, was arrested in Oregon shortly afterward and served a term in the Oregon penitentiary at Salem, Ore., where he was released there Feb. 11, 1938, and returned to the Idaho prison to resume service of his sentence here."

Walling escaped from the Idaho prison May 2, 1938, but was returned to the Idaho prison to resume service of his sentence here.

Priet was given a Christmas release by former Governor Darrell W. Clark last Dec. 24 and while away from the prison was arrested for auto theft and postoffice robbery at Bliss.

Carlis escaped from Kootenai county jail while being held there before being brought to the penitentiary here.

"As near as we can tell they made their escape between 12:30 and 1 a. m."

"Bloodhounds were placed on the convict's trail immediately and guards through the east Boise residential district to the spot where the light delivery car was reported stolen."

"Undoubtedly the boys took that car and headed out," Meredith said.

"We shook down the whole place only yesterday after a periodic check-up and nothing whatever showed up."

"I think they must have done the work gradually, covering up the saw marks by chipping the paint off the wall when there wasn't a guard at that section."

"Daughterly probably was the leader in the sawing-out job but I think the other three are more dangerous and will shoot if they get the chance."

"All of them are mighty tough boys." Secretary on Sight. Secretary of State George H. Curtis, a member of the state prison board, spent some time at the penitentiary during the discussion of the broken bars carefully.

STOCKMEN AWAIT ASSEMBLY HERE

Record Attendance Forecast for Two Day Gathering

With the Panhandle district of Idaho recently organized including 1500 new members, a record attendance of 500 to 400 stockmen is expected in Twin Falls Tuesday and Wednesday for the 1939-1940 convention of the Idaho Cattle and Horse Growers' association.

Methods of combating the modern rustler, who uses motor trucks to steal cattle during the night and disappear without leaving a trace, will be one of the principal topics of discussion, said C. McKinstry Kimberly, who is in charge of arrangements.

Frank Winder, Boise, secretary of the association, announced that rustling, range runs and freight rates would be major discussion topics.

All convention meetings will be held in the American Legion hall, which Mayor Joe Koehler welcoming the group at the opening meeting Tuesday morning.

SERVICES OPEN SENIORS' WEEK

Twin Falls Graduating Class in Final School Activities

Baccalaureate services this evening at the Twin Falls high school gymnasium will open activities of the final week of school for Twin Falls high school seniors who will graduate Thursday evening at exercises arranged on a "new" program theme, "Light of Education," will be carried out, with outstanding students in several departments of the school scheduled to speak.

Senior Class Day will be held Monday, beginning with the annual breakfast, to be held in the American Legion hall at 7:30 a. m. Following the breakfast, the class will present their class day program twice.

First presentation will be in the morning for fellow students at which time the theme of the program will be revealed, and in the afternoon for parents and friends.

Dinner Dance The first dinner dance for seniors will be given this evening at 7 o'clock at the Odd Fellows hall with Mrs. W. R. Chase giving the welcome to seniors. The affair will be sponsored by the high school P. T. A. association, and Mrs. Chase is the incoming president of the group. Bert Sweet, senior president, will give the response. Mrs. R. E. ...

FRANCO HERALDS WILL FOR EMPIRE

Leader Sets Building of Unassailable Power as Goal for Spain

MADRID, May 20 (AP)—Generalissimo Franco tonight proclaimed anew his will for "empire," declaring the Spanish build here into a world power in such a manner that the country could "molest our advance."

"We are going to carry out the revolution now begun," the generalissimo declared in a speech before 5,000 officers of the Spanish national army.

His appearance followed a religious thanksgiving service in suburban Santa Barbara at which he received from Cardinal Gomez Tomas, primate of Spain, a gold jeweled sword as a symbol of his courage.

"Do not let that word 'revolution' astonish you," he said, "because it is a revolution to turn against all privileges of an elite century and against the clock when it is not worn with dignity, and to see that soldiers are real soldiers and do not fall into revolutionary ways that lower their military worth."

In an earlier broadcast the generalissimo had told the world defiantly that Spain would never be crushed economically or politically, and that her army was capable of conferring her ambitions.

He emphasized that no country could high-pressure Spain and that the nation would build her own empire without dictation or other drop-away power.

Yield of Tax on Gasoline Listed

BOISE, May 20 (AP)—The tenth of a cent-a-gallon levy on motor fuels, imposed by the 1939 legislation, has been put into effect by the Twin Falls-Jerome inter-county toll bridge, brought in $3,858.53 during April, the first full month it applied.

G.O.P. CENTERS ATTACK ON DEBT

Party Leaders in Congress Lash at New Deal Spending

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Asserting they intended to concentrate the country's attention on new deal spending, Republicans in congress proclaimed today a "national debt week."

Discussions in congress, in the press and on the radio during next week, an announcement through the Republican national committee said, will be designed to "arouse the American people to the dangers involved in the mounting national debt."

New deal spending, the committee said, has averaged almost $15,000 a minute since 1933 to run up a present total debt in excess of $40,000,000,000.

The Republican announcement came almost coincidentally with the inception of a motion picture in congress to launch a new spending-cutting program—with or without the blessing of President Roosevelt.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) said that a group of congress members which has forced the administration would sponsor a spending program even though President Roosevelt offered to propose himself.

That they would encounter some Democratic opposition was indicated immediately.

Senator Burke (D-Neb.) said that federal spending has been unacceptably high to recover from a reduction in government expenditures, he would tend to encourage business, he predicted.

Once Louisiana Governor Dies

WAS CRISTIAN, MISS. May 20 (AP)—John M. Parker, ex-governor of Louisiana from 1920 to 1924 and vice presidential running mate with Theodore Roosevelt, on a Progressive ticket in 1916, died tonight.

The former governor had been ill at his summer home here for several months, and had been receiving forced nourishment for weeks.

Survivors are his widow, the former Miss Cecile Alvey; two sons, John M. Parker, Jr. and Thomas Alvey Parker; and a daughter, Mrs. Walker Bausay, all residents of New Orleans.

Brothers Held on Assault Charges

PENDLETON, Ore., May 20 (AP)—Two brothers, Bob and Robert Marrs, were bound over to the grand jury here today on charges of assault with a dangerous weapon. Bob was set at $2,000 each.

Police Chief Charles Lemons said the brothers were arrested "A" attention in which G. A. Smith and Vernon Miller were injured. Smith was struck with a baseball bat as he stepped to the porch of a residence and Miller, who was stabbed six times, Lemons said. Neither man was critically injured.

Kootenai Power Line Completed

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho, May 20 (AP)—Electricity flowed today for the first time into approximately 400 rural Kootenai county homes from a new company line. They were included in the Kootenai County Rural Electrification association's new 203-mile line in the northern part of the county. The project cost $150,000.

FARMER AT FILER CALLED BY DEATH

George R. Johnson, Landowner and Lodge Man, Dies at Hospital

George R. Johnson, 60, farmer north of Filer for many years, died at 4:20 p. m. yesterday at Twin Falls county general hospital.

He was a member of Twin Falls commandery, Knights Templar. Mr. Johnson was born July 16, 1878, at Atwell, Kansas.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Adelaide Johnson, and two children, Arthur and Abel Johnson. All reside at Filer.

One brother, Victor Johnson, Astoria, also survives.

The body rests at the White mortuary pending funeral arrangements.

Players, One Fan Given Straw Hats

Three Cowboy baseball players and one spectator won straw hats at the Lewiston-Twin Falls baseball game last night as "straw hat night" ended the annual spring opening started by local merchants to inaugurate sale on men's summer headwear.

For the first double play of the game, George Farrell, Ernie Bishop and Corky Carlson won straw hats.

Only spectator to share in the prize was Frank Shaw of Twin Falls route one.

Shaw was declared the "most rauid fan" and won his hat.

It was expected that a large number of hats would be given as a result of fans catching foul balls in the grandstand and bleacher.

In comparison to other nights very few balls were fouled into the fan-crowded sections and the few that slipped into the stands were not caught—errors on the fans' part.

Chinese Tea Can Is Work of Art

What a work of art is the imported Chinese tea can! At least the two recently given Mrs. M. Dimond.

These tea containers are about five inches in height and although made of tin, their shape is similar to a square bottle with a large neck.

On the back of the tea vessel is a beautiful hand-painted picture, depicting a scene of a Chinese legend. The background is erise and emerald. The tiny figures about an inch high have costumes fashioned of bits of real silk while their heads are made of celluloid tinted in natural colors.

A pink tye adorns the top of the tea cap, while a ruffle of red and white paper covers its neck.

Nowhere upon the Chinese containers is the name of the tea displayed. Only the type of leaves illustrated in the hand-painting on the picture distinguishes between the kinds of tea.

The tea itself bears a distinctive oriental, which is probably due to the way it is cured and blended.

armament-The dictators; however, we constant threat of war for conquest. They pile up military costs which threaten to overwhelm them and the whole world in ultimate disaster and ruin.

Why not demobilize? Demobilization this week or this summer would now require major social and economic readjustment which might prove as immediately disastrous as anything short of war could be.

Yet armament has already disrupted peaceful industries and constructive international relations. It has created a large scale unemployment and perhaps brings on a revolution.

BOND MEN FIGHT FOR EXISTENCE

Depression and New Federal Rules and Activities Hit Security Seller

By FREDERICK GARDNER.
NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—The bond salesman, the man with the bright smile who was Wall street in the days of its prosperity—American along Main street, has become a pained individual fighting for existence in a changing world of business.

In the busy post-war years of corporate financing, young men from Princeton, Harvard and Yale flocked into Wall street, by the thousands to try their hands at selling first mortgage 6 1/2 and debenture 5 1/2 to a well-heeled public.

It was a booming business and many young men found it paid well. Today, after nearly a decade of lean times, some of the college graduates who bounced into bond selling straight from the campus in the post-war years suspect they boarded the wrong boat.

Washington turned the spotlight on the bond salesman's troubles the past week in launching its inquiry into the reasons for the drying up of the capital flow into private investment.

At the same time direct sales of corporate securities to large investment institutions—eliminating the bond man from the transaction—helped what the financial community thought was a spectacular development.

"Takes it on the chin" the bond seller, nursed on the American dream of optimism from the early days of the business, has taken it on the chin from the right and the left. Depression after the 1929 stock market collapse curtailed the market for new securities and the 1932 needs for capital declined. The fall in security prices impeded financing.

Then came the New Deal with a string of federal agencies to finance the work of the government and to take the place of the Wall street security seller. The SEC in 1934 taking into action with a set of regulations for the securities business. In wake of this change has come the rapidly increasing practice of selling securities directly from the issuer to "large investors," something which did not parallel in Wall street, at least on the present scale. This practice, estimated to have resulted in the direct placement of approximately $2,500,000,000 in corporate securities the last three months.

The game will be played between the Bull All-Stars and the Twin Falls Cowboys of the Pioneer league at the Joyce's baseball park with all proceeds going to the widow and family of Craig T. Bracken, slain police officer.

"There are no strings to this offer," said Koehler last evening after studying the letter from Mrs. Charles E. Schmidt, superintendent for the bridge company here, said that there would be no refunds, but that the following system would be followed in permitting passage both ways across the span.

"Persons from the northside who plan to attend the game need only still the bridge attendant tickets for the game and no charge will be made on the southbound trip.

"On return, the persons will present tickets received at the gate as they enter the grandstand or bleachers.

"In case persons have not purchased tickets at Jerome, we will have a supply of tickets at the toll house and persons who intend to see the contest may purchase them there," Edwards stated.

Mayor Koehler stated last night that the arrangement was "perfectly satisfactory."

The curfew bill, introduced into England by William the Conqueror, is still in force every evening in London at the Tower of London, the Chancery, Gray's Inn, and Lincoln's Inn. The laws are not taverns but courthouses.

TOLLS OFF FOR GAME PATRONS

Bridge Opened for Northsiders Attending Benefit Tilt

In response to a letter from Mayor Joe Koehler, Bruce C. Shorls, Seattle, president of the Twin Falls Jerome Interscholastic Bridge company, agreed to lift tolls from the rim-to-rim span for all persons attending the benefit baseball game here tomorrow.

"The game will be played between the Bull All-Stars and the Twin Falls Cowboys of the Pioneer league at the Joyce's baseball park with all proceeds going to the widow and family of Craig T. Bracken, slain police officer.

AT HER FINGER TIPS

READY FOR YOUR CALL

At your telephone operators' fingertips stands many millions of dollars worth of equipment—ready day and night to carry your voice anywhere in the state, or to almost anyone, anywhere in the world. In Idaho alone are buildings and switchboards—in 60 towns; and nearly 103,500 miles of wire which reach into every part of the state.

Last year nearly 2 million dollars was needed to operate your telephone system in Idaho. Nearly $300,000 went for taxes, local, state and federal. These taxes, which amounted to about $750 every day, help to pay for the roads, police protection, schools, and other important public services of the state.

Nearly half of the total went for wages to the employees of this Company in Idaho who spent it in this state, an important item in keeping Idaho business moving.

This Company, like the men and women who make the telephone system function, is a part of the state. Its investment makes it possible to meet the state's need for friendly, dependable telephone service.

Our objective is the best possible telephone service at the least cost consistent with financial safety.

New Deal Congresswoman Antagonizes Farm Leaders

NEW YORK WHIRLWIND

By James McCallin

DORRICE, Congresswoman Mary T. Norton (R. N. J.), chairman of the House labor committee, made a factless remark the other day that may cause her New Deal friends many a political headache. The lady has been having some heated arguments with the big farm organizations about certain proposed amendments to the wage-hour law. Finally, angered by their "obstructionism," she made a statement to the effect that the big agricultural groups were more representative of the canning industry than of the farmers.

Nothing could have been better calculated to rouse the leaders of the farm organizations to a fighting fury. That applies equally to Edward A. O'Neil, president of the Farm Bureau Federation—a close personal friend of Secretary Wallace and a New Dealer to the most basic, and to Louis A. Taber, president of the Grange—a Republican and a strong anti-New Dealer. O'Neil and Taber rarely agree about anything.

Their common point has driven them to an unaccustomed solidarity which is anything but helpful to the farmer. The "big five" control a tremendous number of agricultural votes in the most basic, and they are trying to make them forget this fact. New Yorkers amusingly called the group "the five big boys" and possibly have bought or thought up a statement so politically damaging to the New Deal as this voluntary utterance by one of the leading New Dealers on Capitol Hill.

Objection. There is little evidence that Republican politics in basic New York are not too keen about carrying the torch for District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, despite the popular impression that Dewey has the G.O.P. organization in his hand. Dewey's solidly behind him in his 1940 White House drive.

The upshot is that certain Republicans in the New York state legislature have tried privately to block a legislative initiative into alleged corruption of the polls in Albany county—franchises of the Democratic O'Connell.

Dewey raised this issue in last year's gubernatorial campaign, and logically it should be ducked now for Republicans in general. But some of the boys, objected on the ground that such an inquiry would give the young D. A. too good a chance to capture the spotlight. State leader Edwin P. Jarecki had to crack the whip hard to get the malcontents in line.

Aspersions. There's a curious story behind the recent announcement that Illinois Carbon has asked the Michigan commerce commission which isn't likely—or operating costs are reduced another 15 per cent by drastic strikes, the ore haulage exchange is headed for plenty of financial grief.

The member firms have serious grievance of their own. Continued low prices deprive them of the ability to buy a few more living on their capital in the long-slow hope of better prices. Realists contend that there are still far too many member firms for all to survive on a permanently reduced level of trading. New York's (shut) plants that Wall Street could certainly use some of that federal relief—but has about as much chance of getting it as the Republican national committee.

BRINS AND IDAHO FALLS TOP TRACK MEET

Twin Falls Team Scores 29 Points at Pocatello; Six New Records Posted

Two Cinder Squads Divide First Place Honors

POCATELLO, May 20 (AP)—Despite a breeze that blew in the faces of sprinters, six records fell today in the University of Idaho, southern branch, annual invitational meet for high school athletes. First place honors were divided between Idaho Falls and Twin Falls, entries of which scored 29 points each. Trailing the leaders were Malad Valley, Pocatello with 23 1/2, Lava Hot Springs, 10, Burley 10, Downey 8 1/2, Rupert and Wendell 7 1/2 each, Blackfoot 5 and Jerome 4.

More than 100 track and field men, fresh from competition in state regional meets, were on hand to complete in the second annual event originally started a year ago when the university stadium was completed.

Joe Piedmont of Lava Hot Springs topped the discus and threw the javelin for two of the new records. He earned the high point trophy with 13 points, followed by Jorgensen of Malad Valley, each with 12 points.

Pederson tied his state record of 152 in the high hurdles and set a new invitational meet record. Lewis of Malad threw the shot a new mark of 46 feet nine inches. Thorpe, also of Malad, leaped five feet 10 inches to a new mark for high jumpers.

Downey and Pocatello first and second place finishers in the medley relay were disqualified, and a heated argument developed over the medals emblematic of the event. The Twin Falls Brins runners were disqualified in the relay.

The summary:

100 yard dash—Jorgensen, Idaho Falls, 17.4.
 200 yard dash—Jorgensen, Idaho Falls, 36.2.
 400 yard dash—Swartzberger, Idaho Falls, 1:14.4.
 800 yard dash—Jensen, Pocatello, 2:28.4.
 1 mile—Slickock, Burley, 5:11.4.

Contestants must register with the tournament manager. An entry fee of $1 will be charged.

Records Tumble as U.S.C. Retains Title

Trojans Amass 67 Points to Lead Nine Other Conference Track Teams

SEATTLE, May 20 (AP)—Running true to form, the national champion University of Southern California Trojans took home their fourth consecutive Pacific coast conference track and field title today.

The onslaught on the records gave the crowd of 6,000 persons plenty to shout about.

Six records were shattered, two others tied as from far western district talent ran, jumped, and tossed under alternately cloudy and sunny skies.

English Derby to Attract 400,000

The Trojans amass 67 points to lead the other nine conference teams. Stanford has second with 45 points, California had 38, Washington state 30, Oregon 19 1/2, U. C. L. A. 15, Montana 13, Oregon State 5, Washington 2 1/2, and Idaho 2.

Lewisbath, placing fourth in the mile run won by Zampert of U. S. C. in record time of 4:18.3, scored Idaho's only point.

Stanford's captain Clyde Jeffrey led the record assault. He tied the 100-yard dash record of 9.7 in the morning qualifying heat. In the afternoon he won the 100-yard dash of a second. A little later he won the 200-yard dash. In the conference meet mark of 21 seconds.

A record that stood for 13 years, before Washington State colleges' first-footed Mike Gardner. He ran the two-mile in 8:22.1. The old Montana in 12:28.

Red-headed Earl Vickery of U. S. C. did the 200-yard low hurdles in 1:21.4, set a new conference record. The old mark of 2:14 was set by Robinson of Oregon last year. Earl Zampert of U. S. C. broke the first record of the day when he negotiated the mile in 6:52.4. He set the old mark by 17.2 seconds last year by Burrows of Stanford.

The 800-yard race was won by Stan Anderson and Bill Wolfe were second and third, because blond Herb Mitchell of California leaped. He set a new mark of 2:14.45 inches to establish a new conference meet record. The old mark of 2:14.45 inches was set by Reynolds of Stanford in 1937.

"Boys' Brown," Oregon boy whose name is derived at the name of the joint, won the javelin event at 225 feet, 11 1/2 inches. This was an inch and three-quarters better than "Trojan" Bob Peoples' best throw of 223 feet, 11 1/2 inches. Both were well over the former record.

Drivers Qualify at Record-Breaking Speed

Snyder, Meyer Travel 130 MPH

Blond Daredevil Wins Pole Position for 500-Mile Race; Johnny Seymour's Car Crashes into Wall

INDIANAPOLIS, May 20 (AP)—Jimmy Snyder, once a milk wagon driver in Chicago, captured the pole position today in the starting lineup for the Mendel and Snyder 500-mile automobile race during a thrill-packed speed session which saw fifteen cars qualify for the race and Johnny Seymour of Grosse Pointe, Mich., escape with his life when his car hit the wall and was destroyed by fire.

Snyder, a husky blond daredevil who is widely known as a midget's racing driver, wheeled one of the six-cylinder Joel Thorne entries for the ten-mile qualifying "jaunt"—at a speed of 130.18 miles an hour, breaking both the qualifying and one lap records. His best lap was lapped at 129.25 miles an hour. The old one lap record, also held by Snyder, was 120.472 miles an hour. The old qualifying record was 127.700 miles an hour.

The thrills of Snyder's run barely ended when Johnny Seymour, driving one of the 120 of brand new year-old cars, built by Jerry Miller, cracked into the wall at the northwest turn and his car burst into flames. Seymour, his clothing either was thrown from the car or jumped. He was hurried severely.

Everyone of the 15 qualifiers today did better than 120 miles an hour—two miles a minute. The record-breaking thrills lasted 15 minutes after 10 a. m., the time for the beginning of the trials. Louis Meek of Huntington Park, Calif., three time winner of the race, first broke the qualifying record with a speed of 120.667 miles an hour. That stood until Snyder's run.

The tentative lineup for the first fifteen cars and their qualifying speeds:

First row: Jimmy Snyder of Chicago, 130.18 miles an hour; Louis Meek of Huntington Park, Calif., 130.007; Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis, 129.877.

Second row: Ted Alton of Los Angeles, 127.265; Chet Miller of Detroit, 126.216; George Bailey of Detroit, 125.821.

Third row: William Cantlon of Detroit, 125.367; Mauri Rose of Columbus of Huntington Park, 125.007; Pittsburgh, 124.877.

Fourth row: Cliff Bergze of Hollywood, Calif., 124.255; Frank Beutler of Chicago, 123.211; George Coon of Los Angeles, 123.208.

Fifth row: Ralph Hepburn of Los Angeles, 122.204; Ned Tanner of Los Angeles, 121.083; George Barringer of Houston, Tex., 120.853.

IDAHO BATTLES RATE INCREASE

Utilities Commission Spokesman Points to Discrepancies

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Attempts by railroad carriers to force Idaho to order a 10 per cent increase in rate freight rates encountered stiff opposition from members of the state's public utility commission at hearings before the interstate commerce commission.

J. C. Bruce, rate specialist for the Idaho body, told the commission that the state had every right to deny the increases, requested by the railroads following a general rate increase that went into effect on interstate shipments last year, because its intrastate rates had always been higher than those in adjoining states.

Until last February, he said, Washington state freight rates were 18 per cent higher than those in Idaho. Those in California 11 per cent higher, those in Arizona 8 per cent higher, and those in Oregon 6 per cent higher.

No Shipper Complaints

Since then those states, he asserted, had complied with requests of the railroads for increases on rates for freight moving within the state, and the shippers were now on a parity with those in Idaho.

Bruce attempted to establish the right of Idaho to regulate its intrastate rates without federal interference. He showed that there had been no complaint from interstate shippers in Idaho over failure of the state company with the railroads to request for higher intrastate rates.

Bruce, who was accompanied to Washington by R. H. Young of the Idaho commission, was supported by C. H. Shaffer, railroad for the Boise Pacific Lumber company, one of the state's largest inland shippers of logs and lumber.

Shaffer said it would be "most unjust" for the interstate commerce commission to assume jurisdiction and order a rate increase in Idaho, "that such a move would likely result in the further encouragement of logging operations, not only in the logging and lumbering industry but in agriculture and in mining."

Stanley Johnson, attorney for the carriers, argued, however, that the rate increase would assume this risk and if it was found that the higher rates did not result in wiping out operating deficits claimed for the past several years, that they would be reduced.

"It is a question of business judgment," he said, "and the railroads should be given a chance to test the advisability of invoking higher rates in intrastate traffic."

He said the railroads had not had sufficient to assume the full burden of maintaining an adequate transportation system in the States by denying the intrastate rate increases.

"We are sensitive to the problem of Idaho," he said, "but other states, Nebraska for instance which has been hard hit by drought have had production in the recent years, have gone along on the railroads' request for higher state rates."

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Banker T. D. Call is holding out the lure of $100,000 to keep boys and girls down on the farm.

Banker Call's big and heavy 38-year-old small town financier, once was a farm boy himself. He left the farm because he couldn't see any future in it—then.

But today he looked over his books and noted the fact that the boys he has loaned almost $30,000 to farm boys and girls to finance livestock farm projects and he has lost a cent—most of the farm boys and girls are ahead, too.

"I got it because we tried to interest the farmers in our community to borrow money to improve their lands and farms," Call said. "We wanted them to buy good bulls and put into practice the best methods of farming."

TALK ON BIBLES

"REGINA" (M) Bonastrom reported the only province in the British Empire where there is an education on Bible: Official of the British and Foreign Bible Society have asked the government to remove the special tax.

With a new teacher we kind of got off our stride.

"We don't want the youngsters who think they can't make money on a farm," said Call. "We help them pick out their call, pig, lamb or whatever their project is, and then we see that they get the profit, if any, from the deal."

"In most cases the youngsters raise their own feed. If they don't, they buy it from their fathers."

"To get the money to start the youngsters learn a note with us. We require the parent to sign, too, but that's a least formality. We used to have a banquet every year after the boys and girls had sold their fat stock in the spring and then the kids would pay us back. But the idea is going along so well now we discontinued the dinner this year."

"Two of them fell down, but the one who completed his project did a fine job and we decided to go ahead. We really don't count that first year in our program. It was just a starter."

"The next year we loaned $1,000 on nine projects. The idea kept building. Last year we loaned $2,000 to 111 livestock rearing and farm projects of all kinds.

Evils of DISEASED TONSILS

The question of whether or not to have infected tonsils removed, and the delay in making the decision, has cost many children their health.

The tonsils seem to be favorite lurking places for germs and infections that spread through the blood to other parts of the body with dire and painful results. Rheumatism, chronic heart trouble, ear trouble, St. Vitus dance and susceptibility to scarlet fever and diphtheria are some of the more serious things that may result from diseased tonsils. Repeated attacks of tonsillitis are dangerous, and usually precede some of the above mentioned complications, and other more remote diseases.

Removal of tonsils in a child, from three years of age and up, is a quick, practically painless operation, and the child is usually comfortable in a few hours. In a grown person the mental and physical suffering is greater, and the tonsils may have caused irreparable harm before their removal.

Therefore, consult your physician and follow his advice about removal of infected tonsils.

HELPING THE DESERT TO BLOOM

What a contrast between the Snake River Valley of today, and in the days when the fur traders started the Oregon Trail!

What was then a sage brush desert has become a green and fertile land. The multiple use of water, guided by a spirit of co-operation, has created one of the nation's greatest agricultural areas.

Water is the vital ingredient for both irrigation and power. But because it creates more wealth on the land than when used for power, farmers and utility men joined hands from the start.

Water rights for generating power have been waived and subordinated to the needs of agriculture. Frequently in low runoff years, our company has given up a large part of its own stored water so that the farms might have more water for crops. The cost of irrigation projects was reduced because our company agreed to buy power generated by the projects.

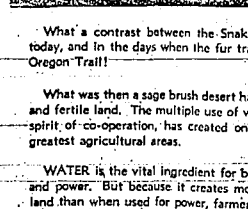

Today there are great areas of fertile land that were created out of the desert because the farmers and the men in the power business worked together for a common purpose.

It has been a privilege to share in the development of Idaho's greatest industry—agriculture.

NEW DEAL SHAPES ANOTHER PROJECT

Bids for Little Business Vote May Present Ready-Made Issue

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Political pondering over a proposal this week by the business community for revision of income tax provisions is providing a ready-made issue for the politicians.

The politicians are interested because, as they point out, tax policies often dominate presidential campaigns and 1940 is just around the corner.

The arguments that change in the corporate tax structure would stimulate private investment and thereby recovery were presented by spokesmen for a large segment of business to the temporary national economic committee. That committee was created by President Roosevelt in 1934 for the purpose of getting ideas and money to work against depression.

The heads of three out-of-state American corporate plants, Owen D. Young of General Electric, Edward J. Steinhilber of United States Steel, and Alfred P. Sloan of General Motors, testified in support of the very tax revision program that the president thus far has failed to approve.

There is concern that such a new administration corporate vehicle as the remaining undistributed profits tax and the capital gains tax were chiefly responsible for those "stagnant pools" of idle money which the president has mentioned in his committee's report.

And all three insisted that it was little, not big business which suffered for lack of "risk" capital; that it was new enterprise which was tax-stagnated and needed government funds to get the nation to have the 80-billion-dollar national income goal at which the president has set his sights.

It appeared that the first phase of the committee would be recommendations and savings from new amendments to congressional tax laws and the second phase would be the president. Since that hearing was planned largely by securities exchange commission members, it would seem that the nature of big business testimony was only anticipated by the administration.

From that conclusion, and from hints in lower New Deal circles elsewhere, comes an increasing impression among political analysts that a new New Deal project for stimulation of smaller business is taking shape of late. There have been many recent proposals of other recovery-spending drive—next to a means of tapping the "stagnant" money. But this one is an undisciplined fashion, it would be designed to give little business a lift through encouraging private capital investments in new industries and enterprises. An "old fashioned" revision to that end might be a factor.

Murder-Charged Boy Gunman

DAN WILLIAMS, 20-year-old former Idaho penitentiary convict who is charged with murder of Craig Bracken, Twin Falls patrolman, is shown here recovering in a county jail cell from a bullet wound inflicted by another police officer in a gun battle following an automobile theft and service station robbery the night of last May 7. Co-defendant with Williams in the murder charge is William D. Hale, 23, another former Idaho convict.

MICHIGAN QUEEN SNUBS MURPHY FOR BROTHER

WASHINGTON—Michigan sent the capital a pretty young "Queen" who took away the week's crown for something-or-other.

She was feted at a Michigan dance attended by the handsome Michigan general, Frank Murphy, Michigan's former governor.

He could stay only a short while, so with his well-known attorney, he sent word to Belmont.

Belmont's agents, they say, visited the Governor the next day.

She sent back word that she would be back the next day.

He messaged back that the Gov. or Murphy of Michigan would like to see her.

So she sent back word she didn't dance. The story got around and the next day a Michigan dancer stepped the run-around young lady back to her. Her eyes were looking seriously, "But I DID have the next dance with my brother."

Some heavy work for the AGO and their honest staff. It's a very busy day.

Several times this reporter has seen Mrs. Roosevelt look slightly disturbed at banquets where the toastmaster introduced her with comments on the public opinion poll that indicated she was more popular than her husband.

She always reacts, looking a little upset and remarks very gently, "It is always foolish that it is so easy to be popular when you don't have any responsibility."

With that off her mind, she goes on with her planned speech.

Just in case there were someone who still looks that former W. P. A. administrator Harry Hopkins doesn't know all he might know about business.

Commerce Secretary now, you know! Here's a story of how he outsmarted W. P. A. agent Harry Hartman on the railroad monopoly.

The two were going to town to appear at the same banquet.

"White" is, well, what he called Hartman.

Hopkins, who went to college in Iowa said, "Gretel, Gretel, no, I know that country." Just a plain business suit is best.

So they arrived in Des Moines. Hartman was still a little skeptical about the dress situation so he asked around and found everyone was wearing black ties. He hid himself off to rest a couple.

"Sorry," said the rental man, "I'm just rented out our last suit. Men's name was Hopkins."

LIQUOR PROFIT IN IDAHO INCREASES

Quarterly Report Shows Gain of $14,104 Over Same Period in 1937

BOISE, May 20 (AP)—Idaho's state liquor dispensary made $14,104 more net profit from liquor sales that were only $8,832 greater in the first three months of 1938 than in the same period a year earlier.

The figures were disclosed today in a quarterly report submitted by the state liquor control board created by the 1933 legislature to replace the former three-man commission.

Liquor sales by the 28 stores and the 85 dispensaries for the first quarter of 1938 totaled $722,385.49. For a same period of 1937, the report said, sales amounted to $733,700.23.

Gross operating profit in 1938 was $247,199 compared with $242,426 in 1937 and net profit for the two periods was $107,829 and $123,185.

The state's general fund and the public school income fund each gets 33 per cent of the liquor dispensary's quarterly distribution of profits, the report stated.

Marie Selects Doll for Trip

CALLANDER, Oct. 20 (AP)—A small girl, Marie Callander, quintuplet, decided today that since she was going to be presented to King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, her oldest doll should have the same privilege.

Marie, too, must take along her favorite playthings when she goes to Toronto for the royal presentation Monday.

The girl selected a duck. Annette, her mother, almost bought one herself. Marie, however, decided upon a ragged blue dog.

Despite the momentous declaration of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, their selections would get any closer to the royal family than the yards away their special seven-car train.

"The Quintuplet" will be stationed in Toronto, and its mother, Meanwhile Mr. and Mrs. Olive Dionne and five of their other seven children are in North Bay, 117 miles from here, and inspected the Quintuplet" which was approved from them.

The most enthusiastic was seven-year-old Danny who said the train was "like the palace."

Frank Dobkins, 35, was shot by Burke and died in the hospital. Dobkins was a prominent stock raiser and was known as "the killing spring" because of his reputation as a gunman. In 1926, Dobkins sued the "killing spring" for $20,000 damages for the loss of his wife, who was killed by the killing spring.

Parents Asked to Final Assembly

Written invitations to parents of all students in Twin Falls Junior high school were being mailed today, inviting them to attend the all-school assembly Thursday evening at 7:30 in the high school auditorium. The assembly will formally extend the students for this year and is being arranged primarily for the parents.

Parents Asked to Final Assembly

For years, Florence Allen, of Cleveland, has been dispensing justice in one court or another. Right now she's on the United States circuit court of appeals.

She went over to England with her elderly urban father for a vacation. They stayed at one hotel, which she registered as Judge Allen, for two months.

"Not once was her mail delivered to her. Each day she turned it over to her father with a pair of raised eyebrows that told the writer of his post card that she was not men who went around using the title of 'Judge'."

Some people's wants are small. Then there are people like the writer of this post card that almost blew the United States Chamber of Commerce out of its socks.

"Send A. L. available information."

Reservist, Regular Join Army Service

Two men, one in the reserve, were accepted by Sergeant Frank Morris for the United States army yesterday, the recruiter announced.

Gilbert E. Williams, Halley high school graduate, who received his diploma Thursday, has been accepted for service with the infantry at Fort Douglas, Utah. He developed for Salt Lake City yesterday.

William R. Beeson of Buhl signed for the army reserve. Sergeant Morris said, Reserve duty calls for no regular duty, merely playing the man on the line and subject to call in case of a national emergency. He will receive $24 annually as compensation.

WPA FIRST AID DISPENSER

Survey Shows Work Relief Payroll Overshadows Other Agencies

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The payroll of the works program administration overshadows all other social insurance agencies receiving public aid.

The relative importance varies sharply in the different states, but in all except Nevada, Virginia, Wyoming and the District of Columbia, WPA is the largest dispenser of public assistance. In four out of five it is outranked by other federal work and relief projects.

Latest figures collected by the social security board disclosed WPA accounted for $117,377, or 60 per cent, of the $191,010 disbursed in a single month—January 1939—as direct relief. The balance was advanced and wages on work projects in federal programs.

In Idaho, where the January total of public aid was $133,960, the wages of 10,495 WPA employees amounted to $50,000.

Special public assistance is the social security board's aid to the need, to dependent children, and to the aged. Its activities as a balance and wages on work projects in federal programs.

Other figures reported for the state were:

Subsistence payments certified by the farm security administration: 185 cases and $5,000.

Other federal work and construction projects: 1,399 enrollees and $39,000.

Projects financed by WPA but operated by other federal agencies: 775 employees and $39,000.

National youth administration, students and 1,931 persons and $12,000.

National youth administration work projects: 1,201 persons and $22,000.

Other federal work and construction projects: 1,450 employees and $10,000.

BUNK SCIENTIST'S TERM FOR RACE SUPERIORITY

'Racial Differences Are Skin Deep Only'

By The Associated Press. Features. DENVER—Researches of race, people all over the world have fundamentally the same intelligence, declared Dr. Thomas B. Garth, nationally known author on race psychology, in an interview just before his death here yesterday.

The Denver university faculty member based his conclusions on racial superiority was a study on a 20-year study of red, white, brown and black people. He and other psychologists, Dr. Garth said, had applied every standard of psychological measurement to thousands of people.

Dr. Garth continued, "There are no fundamental variations in the average intelligence of nations or races." "The average Indian is capable of absorbing information rapidly as is the white man. The difference is that once race had the opportunity, the Indian's intelligence is not so rapidly taking shape.

"There are no differences in the fundamental talents of people of various nations. The Irish are noted for their writers and singers of ballads; the German elm superiority in science; the Negro is supposed to have superior ability to create rhythm and fine opinions and the Indian has been called cruel and unyielding."

"If they had the 'urge' to do so, there is no difference in the mental ability of people of various nations. The Irish are noted for their writers and singers of ballads; the German elm superiority in science; the Negro is supposed to have superior ability to create rhythm and fine opinions and the Indian has been called cruel and unyielding."

"There aren't any hereditary racial traits. Traditionally you find the German elm superiority in science; the Negro is supposed to have superior ability to create rhythm and fine opinions and the Indian has been called cruel and unyielding."

Dr. Garth reported that handwriting is not an evidence of racial differences. "The handwriting of a Negro was written by an Indian, a Negro and a white man. Before that, the handwriting was written by which? (Top, white; middle, Indian; bottom, Negro).

SPOTLIGHT-TURNS ON ENVIY'S WIFE

Lady Lindsay in Middle of World Hubbub Over Royal Visit

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Along the way, New York's fun-loving and publicity-shy Elizabeth Hoyt acquired a garden trowel and an English title.

Now, the British king and queen will entertain in the middle of the world hubbub over their British majesties' visit to the United States this June.

Despite her position as "leading lady" of the diplomatic set, the brown-eyed, white-haired lady has shunned the headlines and has kept her wits about her for her own and her friends. Only at Mrs. Frank D. Roosevelt's annual parties for wedding widows do large groups hear the quips-and-stories which have made Lady Lindsay known as a wit. And those are "off-the-record."

Deluge of Inquiries

A deluge of inquiries about the royal visit this June has put the hostess of the embassy "on the record." Recently she has met newspaper reporters in her bright drawing room for press conferences on plans for the coming week. Still she refuses, in her rather brusque manner, to be quoted directly.

She has been in the United States since her marriage in 1924, used to get up early to work in the embassy garden. She would like to get breakfast there about 10:30 a. m. Now her 6 o'clock rising gives her a head start on the work involved in getting ready for the king and queen.

She takes pride in making out personally the guest list for each embassy dinner, and in arranging the all-important seating chart. But she must have had a few headaches composing the 1,200 names for the royal garden party on June 8. Only 800 Washingtonians were invited, and Lady Lindsay has a calling list of 4,000.

Entertain at Embassy

Although King George VI and Queen Elizabeth will be house guests of the president and the first lady at the White House, the royal couple themselves will entertain at the embassy. They will give a formal dinner for the Roosevelts on June 9, in addition to the garden party. And they will receive British dignitaries there.

On those occasions, Lady Lindsay will be a guest in her own home, which will belong to the king and queen. But now she is a hostess—with company coming.

The massive British embassy in Washington was built in 1924 when Sir Ronald brought Lady Lindsay here in March, 1920. This rounds here the marks of her life. Although Lady Lindsay did not design the extensive gardens which Americans will meet the king and queen, she replanted them entirely.

Two factors influenced her garden plans, she said. She wanted the garden to be effective as many months of the year as possible and wanted to keep down the cost of upkeep.

Lady Lindsay was born Elizabeth Sherman Hoyt, daughter of Colgate Hoyt, a wealthy banker who had a home at Oyster Bay on Long Island, and offices in New York.

Smart Society

Elizabeth Hoyt moved in the smart society of Long Island and New York. Among her friends were two when she still was frequenting Washington—Eleanor Roosevelt, the first lady and Alice Roosevelt (Cecile) Longworth, who became Mrs. Nicholas Longworth. Another chum was Isabella Scherer, who is Isabella Cressway, served as congresswoman from Arizona.

Elizabeth Hoyt first met Sir Ronald Lindsay when he was second secretary of the old British embassy in Washington. In 1906, he married her cousin, Martha Cressway, on a Pennsylvania senator's daughter. Martha died two years later.

Brown-eyed Miss Hoyt meanwhile had become a landscape architect. During the war she was the Great Eastern secretary of the Lincoln district of the Episcopal church. She went with him to diplomatic posts in Turkey and Germany before he returned to London as permanent undersecretary of foreign affairs.

In Washington since 1920, they now are dean and doyenne of the diplomatic corps. They give dinners of four large dinners a week during the social season and dine out every night they are not entertaining.

Lady Lindsay likes motoring, and she tells laughingly of an afternoon drive when Alice Longworth persuaded her to get out in party clothes and take a hike which included fording a stream.

Nuptials-Told-of

Burley Teacher

BURLEY, May 20—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Garret of Rupert announced this week the marriage of their daughter, Bernice to Melvin Criswell of Burley, the wedding taking place Nov. 20, 1938.

Mrs. Criswell was graduated from the Rupert high school in 1933 and attended the National Honor society. In 1936 she was graduated from the Albion State Normal school and received a life certificate from that institution in 1938. She was in the Lincoln district at Rupert.

Mr. Criswell is a graduate of the Burley high school, class of 1934 and was graduated from the Albion State Normal school in 1936, where he was active in student presidency of Delta Phi Omega honorary dramatic organization. He also attended Brigham Young university for two years and has been teaching school at Weston. The couple will make their home at Weston.

Picket, Mine Worker, Tangle

BAND CONTESTS AT LEGION MEET

South Central Posts Will Sponsor Groups at Convention

Thirty bands and drum and bugle corps from municipalities, high schools and patriotic organizations will participate and play during the state American Legion convention in Twin Falls August 13-16. It was announced yesterday.

"Every American Legion post in south central Idaho will be urged to sponsor a band or drum and bugle corps in the contest," said Paul P. Taber, who is in charge of competition.

Prizes will be given for marching and playing contests to be held in the Twin Falls Cowboys baseball park Tuesday night, August 15," Taber said.

A charge of 25 cents for admission will be made and the funds used to provide later cash prizes for winners.

"Besides the prizes," Taber stated, "the Twin Falls American Legion post intends to reimburse all bands participating for their expense in coming to Twin Falls."

Taber said a basis would be advanced upon which bands and drum and bugle corps would be classified so as not to place unequal units from small towns in the same division with Boise and Idaho Falls organizations.

"The Legion assures south central Idaho residents that the band contest will be outstanding and will rank as one of the most colorful shows in Idaho," Taber added.

Travelling milkbuses, motorized, are now a feature of English highways, drawing their custom largely from cyclists and hikers.

When You Meet King

SIR RONALD LINDSAY, British ambassador to the United States, held his first press conference in Washington, D. C. and among questions was one: Whether American men should bow from the waist when meeting King George VI when he visits the United States. Sir Ronald said: "I think they might do what I do when I meet the president. I believe in a suitable and respectful manner. He is shown during the conference."

NEW PAYMENT ON FARMERS' WHEAT

Government Offers Additional Seven Cents on Grain in Storage

BOISE, May 20 (AP)—Borrowed from the Commodity Credit Corporation in 11 southern Idaho counties will get immediate cash payment of 7 cents per bushel for wheat stored last year if they agree to keep the grain off the market until the 10 months.

Phillip E. Gibson, state wheat loan supervisor for the corporation, said "seven-cent storage credit was agreed upon last fall when Idaho farmers sealed a total of 2,300,120 bushels of their 1938 crop in farm storage bins for security for money advanced by the Commodity Credit Corporation."

"Cash payment of the seven cents per bushel now will be in addition to 10 cents per bushel for 10 months period," he added.

The 11 counties affected are Barren, Bear Lake, Bonneville, Caribou, Cassia, Franklin, Fremont, Gooding, Idaho, Power and Teton.

POWER-FARMING INTERESTS FORD

Motor Maker, Nearing 76, Works for Mechanized Agriculture

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT, May 20 (AP)—Henry Ford, nearing his 76th birthday and still "looking ahead," has developed another mechanic interest, that has aroused his enthusiasm to a degree reminiscent of the ardor with which he pursued his experimental work on the automobile nearly half a century ago.

The new interest is a powered farming unit, which Ford asserts will prove as revolutionizing to agriculture as the motorcar was to transportation.

With all the latest technical and scientific aids of his huge Dearborn plant, he conducted his original experiments on the device, and has developed a number of prototypes considerably more powerful than those which surrounded initial research on the motorized buggy.

For that matter, chief engineer for an electric-lighting company in Detroit, built his first automobile in 1899, and he has a garage home in Bagley avenue, Preliminary experiments on the motor had been made in 1901 and 1902.

It was in December, 1893, that Ford, with the aid of Mrs. Ford, devised the first portable gasoline motor. His inspiration for it had come from a visit to Chicago two years earlier.

Wife Poured Gasoline

Ford had a plank clamped to a kitchen sink. Fastened to the plank was little "engine." It was made of a piece of ordinary gas pipe, a small piston, a small flywheel turned by hand, two ordinary check valves, a pair of gears and a small cup. The gas was fed into the engine from an electric-light cord above the sink. Ford turned the crank and the engine coughed, gasolines, drop by drop, into the "intake" valve.

It is not unusual to see Henry Ford enthusiastic about something, but this writer, who has known Ford since World War I, can tell you that his zeal is as excellent as anything as he is about the mechanical farming unit.

Repeating his assertion that it will "revolutionize" agriculture, Ford indicated his belief that this was the final link in the closer relationship between farm and factory he has been seeking to establish for more than two decades.

Ford calls the draft, horse implement a farmer can own. "It takes the power of the tractor and uses it to feed the horse, and it can be used as one draft horse for a year," he said.

"Developing the thought that the mechanization of farm units will replace the horse on the farm just as the automobile replaced it on the highway," Ford said, "that there were other farm animals that were not needed on the farm."

"You don't mesh cattle, sheep and swine," he was asked.

"Yes, swine can take care of themselves," he replied.

To simplify work, Ford did not elaborate this statement; he wanted to talk about the possibilities of 100 percent mechanized farming solely from the viewpoint of simplifying the farmer's work.

On a wide expanse of cleared land, adjoining the Ford home in Fairland, his estate opposite the Ford engineering laboratory on U. S. Highway 112, about 10 miles west of Detroit, the motor manufacturer has made practical tests of his tractor and its appliances in clay, sand and other soil types.

In a corner of the huge area of land, one furrow about 100 feet long has been fenced in and covered with canvas. It is a test furrow for the experimental Ford implement made with the tractor and plow.

Not far from that spot this writer, at Ford's invitation, climbed into the driver's seat of one of the new tractors and for half an hour, under a broiling sun, sought to learn how "easy" farm work could be made with the new equipment, lacking any previous farming experience. He was not prepared to give an opinion on the merits or verge of an epoch in agriculture was on the mind.

"You might disagree with Ford that the tractor is about to revolutionize agriculture, but you will be impressed with the intensity of his belief that it will be so, which he has entered into this undertaking 46 years after he built his first automobile.

Haunts Old Home

SALINAS, Calif. (AP)—For six years, Van, 13-year-old dog, lived with his master, in a 71-year-old residence. Recently his master moved and the house was dismantled. Yet, every day at the same hour, Van leaves his new home, makes his way through the auto traffic, and returns to his old stampering grounds to nose among the vines where he used to hide his soup bones.

AMERICANS EYE WORLD AFFAIRS

Threat of War and Possibility of Involvement Cause Concern

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—World affairs are causing the attention of Americans as they have not done in the 30 years since the Paris peace conference, and neutrality is the sounding-board.

Such is the view of competent observers who have listened to national leaders of all parties, learned professors, representatives of national organizations, and prominent citizens express their views on the part this country should take in foreign fields.

The threat of war abroad, and the possibility the United States might become involved again has, after nearly two decades—the public confidence of the existence of another than the New-World.

Broader Meanings

Earlier discussions over neutrality involved legal conceptions such as the then untried idea of "cash and carry." Now they embrace far broader meanings and come ultimately down to this: "Should we let the next war break out and stay out of it?"

Wide sympathy for the democracies is expressed, and support given them in advance through legislation that will serve:

1.—As a warning, to discourage the dictator states from war, or

2.—As a definite promise to aid the democracies — if war comes — in gaining the victory so that the supposed threat from dictator nations shall not fall upon the United States?

The variety of views and legislative proposals presented before the congressional foreign relations committees can practically all be grouped to have one of these significant political implications.

Leaders Tell Views

It was the gravity of the subject that brought former Secretaries of State Henry L. Stimson, Daniel G. Brice, Colby and former Assistant Secretary of State Brockbridge Long to Washington last week. Hearings attracted college professors like Howells and Hyde of Columbia, Walsh of Stanford, Brown of Princeton, Tansill of Fordham, Manning of Bryn Mawr; labor leaders of the American Federation of Labor and the Committee for Industrial Organization; spokesmen for organizations such as the American Union of University Women, the National Union for Consumer Education, and the League for Peace and Democracy, Felix Frankfurter of the Supreme Court, Washington Post, W. R. Mathews of the Tucson, Ariz., Daily Star and Alfred H. Bingham of the Washington Post, and Columbia Dorothy Thompson and General Hugh Johnson.

As the news of the day and magazines have been crammed with the views of noted personalities from ex-President Hoover to the present, it is not surprising that the 20 years that have elapsed since the Paris peace conference have brought Europe much closer to the United States through improved communications. The development of the radio enabled leaders to hear the voices of the leaders themselves proceeding history, and judge radio and fire transmission of pictures enable readers to judge events from more than just words.

Feeling the United States closer to the cockpit, Americans high and low experience a greater emotion than ever before at the marching and counter-marching of armistices, policies and alliances. A review of the testimony of all the witnesses before the senate and house committees in recent weeks reveals one outstanding fact:

All, or practically all, wanted the United States to stay out of war. But they differed as night from day on how to do it through legislation. Although predictions are dangerous, majority opinion at this stage seems to have ruled out both extremes — the embargo against the aggressor on the one hand and repeal of the act on the other. Informed observers believe congress's ultimate action will be a choice between Senator Vandenberg's bill repealing the act and carry and Senator Pittman's bill with modifications, not only repealing it but extending it to arms and munitions.

Fat Lamb Donated To McClusky Camp

A fat lamb, offered by N. V. Sharp of Piler, is the first food donation for the McClusky Memorial health camp at Buhl which opens for the summer June 11. Mayor Joe Koehler said last evening.

The lamb will be killed and dressed by the independent packing company, free of charge, the mayor added.

Meat will be kept in the huge, modern refrigeration plant-at-the-camp.

Koehler also announced that $200 in pledges for support of the camp are still outstanding and urged those who made pledges to "turn them in to me at once."

"We need the money to meet the summer budget," Koehler stated.

Idaho Entries in Junior Pentathlon

Boise Speaker at Hansen Grange

HANSEN, May 20 — Ray McKelvie, Boise, legislative chairman of Idaho State Grange, informed the Hansen Grangers that "but one and one-half per cent of all farm produce sold in America is being handled cooperatively." Mr. McKelvie, on a trip from California to the Carolina area, gave brief highlights of his findings on farm produce prices, stating that he found Idaho apples to be selling in Texas at 43 per cent, cotton imports swamping the market, and numerous other discouraging features in marketing problems.

Other guests present at the meeting included Harry Nelson, Twin Falls, who spoke on "Sanitation in Handling of Milk and Cream" and Lake Williams, Boise, assistant commissioner to department of agriculture covering this territory in behalf of department of welfare and measures.

A round table discussion followed the addresses.

Mrs. Grace Cowan and Mrs. L. J. Frier served refreshments at close of meeting.

RITEs SET FOR BUHL ATHLETE

Funeral Services Today for Francis Cobb, Basketball Player

BUHL, May 20 —Funeral services for Francis Cobb, 19 former Buhl high school athlete, who died Thursday evening at Twin Falls county general hospital, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Buhl Methodist church with Rev. LeRoy Walker, pastor, officiating.

Interment will be in the Piler I. O. O. F. cemetery beside the grave of his mother, who died in September, 1931.

Young Cobb, a member of Buhl high school's district basketball champions last winter, failed to recover from septicemia which developed following an operation for ruptured appendix. His condition was complicated by a heart ailment.

A blood transfusion donated by Benny McCarty, a teammate on Buhl athletic squads, failed to help Cobb.

During the past 12 years he has been a resident of Buhl, the son of Mrs. M. G. Seymour, at Buhl, coming here from Piler where he was a member of the Piler I. O. O. F.

He was a drug store clerk and worked behind soda fountains in Buhl and Piler.

He was well known in the west end, having held a number of other positions.

Survivors are two brothers, Cecil and James, both of whom are living with Mrs. Seymour, an aunt, Mrs. D. L. Spencer, Castletown, and an uncle, Kenneth Seymour, Buhl.

CONFINED to a liquid diet because his father said he could not eat solid food, Andrew Daly, 12-year-old Omaha, Neb., boy, starved in a hospital here when juvenile authorities found him. He weighed but 40 pounds. Andrew is shown in a hospital as he got a meal of solid food. He said he had never seen nor eaten an egg. His case was being investigated.

Man Arrested at Payette Accused of Indiana Bank Robbery

BOISE, May 20 (AP)—Byron A. Piner, 29, captured at Payette, waived preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner John Jackson today on a federal charge of participating in the $2,000 holdup of the Linden, Ind., State bank May 13.

Jackson said Piner agreed to his removal to Indiana but must be held here awaiting the hearing by Federal District Judge C. C. Cavanaugh of the removal order. Judge Cavanaugh now is conducting a court term in north Idaho.

Jackson filed Piner's bond at $25,000.

At Indianapolis, Indiana state police superintendent Donald F. Silver said Piner was identified through photographs as one of two bandits who joined in the bank holdup. He was a parolee convict from the Pankford, Ind., penitentiary.

OLD HOME WEEK MURDER

by Phoebus Atwood Taylor

The Characters
Any day, Cape Cod sleuth,
Kay Thayer, get reporter.
Yesterday: The criminal studies
Asey, but he discovers Lane's car was used. Meanwhile, Brinley picks up one of the dummies he found in the road.

Chapter 46
Mrs About Dummies
'Now, Lane,' Asey said, which was the dummy that you said had dropped, the one that toppled over all the time.'
'That one,' Lane said, 'with the scarf around his neck. The one you just brought in from the lawn. That was the one that dropped, but I fixed it.'
'Can this one from Brinley's car, with the sock and fancy vest?'
'That's the one, that's just acquired,' Lane said. 'I was going to fix it tomorrow. What in the name—what are you Asey set to work disrobing 'the dummy he had just brought in from the lawn. He took off the dummy's
'But it's the other one,' Kay said,
'and he took it from the dummy.
You're working on the one that was here, the one he didn't take, the—'

'But he continued to rummage around in the pockets and the lining of the suit coat belonging to the dummy he had just taken from the lawn.'
'Where?' he said triumphantly at last. 'There! Catch, Lane. Catch and hold onto 'em. There's your evidence.'
Lane and Hamilton stared blankly at the two shells. Asey had brought out the pair of the figure's coat.
Hamilton turned to Kay.
'What are those?' he asked. 'I know he was after something.'
'Asey,' Lane said, 'how did you guess that?'
'On Monday night,' Asey said, 'I went to the fire at Slade's shack.
I got a cut across the face. This dummy scared me to the point of drawing my gun. But get this, Lane, I saw only three
'Two women, an' a man. Next day
I said something about it, an' he told me that one man he'd fallen down. So I thought of course that the figure had been on the ground when I first saw 'em. But it's been boisterous me, all this time.
Just the same, because I was certain of their being three then, an' only three later when Zeb an' I drove up.
An' you'll remember one on the ground either time.'
'Now there really are four figures,' Lane said. 'Two men and two women. What do you mean, only three—Lane's look alieased here.'
'Put it this way, Asey,'
'When I came here first on Monday night, there was three figs standing on the lawn. The fourth was on the ground. It was in the woods. An' somebody was busy with the figure's coat an' puttin' on the dummy's clothes. Then—the land lady remembers—the figure was lying down, easy an' cautious, dressed in the dummy's clothes, with his shawl, after a while gets to his feet. To say car goin' by, or anyone passin', he's just a dummy. An' he can't talk there for his chance to look. Mary, An' he's also, Lane, in the proper place to fire accordin' to your line.'
Lane nodded slowly. 'I begin to understand what he placed him over by the garden, where the figures wouldn't have been in his way. I never thought of that, or on.'
'The fireworks begin,' Asey continued. 'Mary-Randall-jeans-across the window to get the dummy. The fellow shoots twice at her head outlined on the shade, all her head in the cover of the three windows.
I don't have to run, because if anyone hears, or catches on, he's the ground on the ground again. But no one comes. Jane's listening to the concert on the short wave, with slate rollers, an' the dynamite is boom. He waits till he feels he's safe, an' then cuts back to the spot to put on his own clothes. An' then, I'd say, to his great annoyance an'
alarm, Zeb an' I come back durin'
the process.'
'But the shells,' Lane said. 'How do you account for 'em?'
'In the pocket.'
'Now, here's stuck 'em in his pocket at—he may have released, an' he knew he was to take the shells. So he sticks 'em in this—that is to say, in the dummy's pocket. Then an' I come. We rattle him. His changes in a hurry, but the dummy falls right back on it, an'—'

CHURCH OPPOSES EDUCATION BILL

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 20 (AP)—The Southern Baptist convention denounced yesterday a bill appropriating $100,000 in federal funds for educational purposes but referred to committee for further study a report recommending that the federal administration for "interference in church affairs."
The education bill, introduced by Representative Larrabee (D-Ind.), was condemned on grounds it would make funds available to religious schools and thus violate the principle of separation of church and state.
A report by the convention's public relations committee pointed out that the bill would "interfere with the normal governmental administration of our states."
The host of government funds, the report said, cannot be separated from politics and as the years pass the evil power increasingly will be robbing religion of its freedom.

PRISON TERM FOR SLAYING OF WIFE

Colorado Osteopath Sentenced to Serve 34 to 37 Years

CANON CITY, Colo., May 20 (AP)—Dr. Raymond L. Aterberry, 40, Canon City osteopath, was sentenced today to a term of 34 to 37 years in the Colorado penitentiary for slaying his wife.

The sentence was pronounced by District Judge James L. Cooper after he denied Aterberry's motion for a new trial. The osteopath was convicted last month of second degree murder in the death of his attractive wife, Mrs. Nora Aterberry, 31, a prominent club woman. After the conviction, Felix O'Neill, defense attorney, said he would appeal the case to the Colorado supreme court if a new trial was denied.

FIVE ACCEPTED FOR NAVY DUTY

TURKEY CREATES POWERFUL ARMY

Entire Nation Ready and Determined to Defend Independence

By ELMER W. PETERSON
-ISTANBUL, Turkey-(Correspondence of the Associated Press)-You should hear the average Turk say 'Turkey is ready' when he talks about our independence...

But Czechoslovakia they do not fight. They do not do nothing. 'All's shoulders drop.' Why not fight? Why not understand?

But you see Turkey would fight for independence-it's true! 'Hill' All's shoulders go back and forth. Turkey is ready. Turkey is ready. Everyone in Turkey is ready. I am ready. Let them hear you say 'Turkey is ready'!

Keep in mind that this spirit is backed by the Turkish army, a well equipped army of 300,000 men-an army which, experts agree, is as good as on the march.

It is necessary, a million men can be put into the field. Add to this the fact of a Turkish National Defense force.

House may vote on pension plan
Poll indicates decisive defeat of Townsend Proposal

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—The House today indicated that it might force a vote on the Townsend old-age pension plan before adjourning.

Amendments to the social security system and pave the way for the Townsend plan.

On one point, however, is reaction immediate and definite—that is the question of safeguarding independence and territorial integrity.

World fighters! Let me tell you, these Turks are among the best in the world. I went against them in Palestine—and 'uncle' is enough!

BROADWAY REVUE ROUTINE CHANGES

George White Faces New Opposition and Modern Show Styles

By MARK BARRON
 NEW YORK, May 13 (AP)—After a decade of several years. George White, that diminutive and gagging ex-hoofer who became a successful producer with his "Broadway" in the early 1920's through many headaches in the vicinity of the late Ed Ziegfeld and his "Follies," is back on Broadway to revive his revue.

He faces a new routine, a new opposition. When his "Scandals," Ziegfeld's "Follies" and Carroll's "Vanity Fair" were the stars, George and three impresarios had almost a closed market on musical shows. Their only opposition were such unpublicized revues as "The Grand Street Follies," the several editions of "The Little Show" and other similar programs which had an idea slightly different from the big three.

The idea of the big three—Ziegfeld, Carroll and White—seemed to be largely that of the country—before being brought to Broadway, and has been the top tip of such fold-ups as the "Clean and Johnson" introduced in Zany cast to an almost unbelievable audience.

Leaving Ed Ziegfeld's "Follies" and Victor Moore as American ambassador to Russia, and "Stars in Your Eyes" the musical with Jimmie Durante, are the more popular titles of the old days. However, "Stars in Your Eyes" and "Follies" are again reprinted, this month, in a book entitled rather weakly, "Here I Am," Some of them are superb, some are a little straggled. All are clever. (Viking; 33.)

Second book: "The Prisoner: An Hearty Breakfast" is an adventure story of the bang-bang school, done in something rather like the prose of James H. Cain by a young writer named Jerome Ellison. It ends in a tragedy, and it makes its way to the end swiftly. It is not for the weak of spirit, but it will not offend the prudish much. (Random; $2.)

Third book: "G. M. Trent's Is a Man of the Oklahoma country" is a well-told story of the cowboy age, well, and after some years has been decided to tell what he knows in "My Cousin Will Rogers." The flavor is much like the flavor of "Rogers' own product." (Putnam; $2.50.)

Fourth book: "Charming" is an account of the going on in Lin Vutang's household by two of his daughters, little and Dorothy Parker. Her style is by their very young sister Met, and an introduction by Earl S. Bue. Mrs. Bue is, besides, a friend of the Lin, the wife of their publisher. This is a slender "Around the World" book, but it has some importance, for it shows Lin Vutang with his shoes off, as he appears to his children. (John Day; $2.)

Fifth book: It is hard to imagine a more useful book for the prospective builder of a small to medium sized home than "The 1939 Book of Small Houses," prepared by the editors of the Architectural Forum. So far as this reader can determine, it answers a question to a beginner at home-building wants to know, and certainly the plans and such are full of ideas. Some of these are excellent, and very few are in the class an architect friend calls "ridiculous" bare fantasies. (Simon and Schuster; $1.00.)

Montreal School Children Welcome Royalty

MONTREAL school children, 8,500 strong in one stadium, and 15,000 in another, paid tribute to King George VI and Queen Elizabeth when the royal tourists visited Canada's largest city. This scene, in Folson Park, shows the school children forming a Red Cross as the king and queen motor by.

The Literary Guidepost

By John Seiby

Some literary odds and ends—the only kind direct content in this department happens to have had with Dorothy Parker in a symposium concerning her life in a hall. She sat directly in front, and only opened her mouth, so far as the "Follies" is concerned, to a gentleman without too much talk: "Really? It was a great disappointment for we'd expected to carry home an epigram. Perhaps in compensation, the now rather familiar Dorothy Parker short stories are again reprinted, this month, in a book entitled rather weakly, "Here I Am," Some of them are superb, some are a little straggled. All are clever. (Viking; 33.)

WOHLTHAT NEW GERMAN FIGURE

Nazi with Degree from Columbia University Wins Important Post

Editor's note: A new personality is arising in the economic life of Germany—Helmuth Wohltath, who holds a degree from Columbia University. While a Reichsbank President Schacht was ousted and his duties given to Field Marshal Goering, the latter took Wohltath. Since then as well as before, Wohltath has been a powerful figure in the German economic developments. In the following story, Louis P. Lochner, who recently won the Pulitzer award for his book "The German Economy," was chief of the Associated Press bureau in Berlin, gives typewriter picture of Wohltath.

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
 BERLIN—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—One of the simplest notices in the German "Who's Who" ("wer ist's") reads as follows: "Wohltath, Helmut, ministerial director in the relief's economic ministry and the Prussian ministry for economic and labor, December, 1934, ministerial director: Berlin, 25, Lietzowstr. 5." Only three and one-fourth lines are devoted to a man who has become one of Field Marshal Hermann Goering's ministers in promoting the four-year and economic self-sufficiency. ### Minor Case of Counterfeiting Leads to Exposure of Insurance Plots

PHILADELPHIA, May 20 (AP)—Except for a chance disclosure by the late Walter Anderson, the death-dealing Philadelphia insurance mass murder plot might be known to the public. Anderson's revelation after another and prompted an investigation to disclose: "Two men, who were untraced only by accident during an investigation of counterfeit bills.

10-Mile Speed Cut Lowers Death Toll

ATLANTA (AP)—This city, one of the first in the 300,000-population class to enforce a 25-mile speed limit, found that a slash of the speed limit from 35 to 25 miles an hour reduced traffic fatalities 43 per cent and injuries 25 per cent.

Practice Economy No, the Broadway musical producers watch their pennies and dimes now. Already it is announced "The American Way" will not go on tour because it is such a tremendous show that a tour would be uneconomical.

One for "The Money" is a smart, impudent revue with a small cast and one with largely new people who do not demand high salaries. So perhaps that is pertinent for traveling when it finances its Broadway run.

The two young versions of Gilbert and Sullivan make Mikado. One of the type that must make Ziegfeld envious in his present happy lands for they are novel productions of an old classic, they are both hits and neither is an expensive production.

The musical "Today" has fewer chorus girls, but better chorus girls. They have almost no show girls at all, those "all blondes who used to walk around in a way of emcee and do nothing else. They depend more on plot, laughs and other such contributions than on the personality of a star comedian.

Once a musical show is built around an Eddie Cantor, Ed Wynn, Al Johnson or Bert Lahr. Today the Broadway hit musicals thrust the stars into supporting roles, it costs less. The show's the thing now.
