Idaho Convention Elects New Officers, Accepts Cour d'Alone Bid

IDAHO PALMS, Idaho, June 24 (AP)—The Fraternal Order of Eagles named A. W. McNeil of Nampa state president of the American Red Cross and the city will start Tuesday morning at the Hartman park (municipal) pool. William Flowers, pool manager, said last night.

McNeil was elected at the closing session of the 21st annual state convention to succeed Charles J. Seymour of Coeur d'Alene, who was named last year's state president. McNeil is a former Democratic state representative from Canyon county.

Levitation was named 1940 convention city. A conference approved several resolutions which indicated state welfare administration policies as "unjust and un-American."

The resolutions, designed to "improve" the administration, called for a 10-month to Idaho's needy aged; repeal of the state old age assistance law; requirement of "fair and equitable" pay for relief workers; reduction of maximum payments of $24 for dependent children.

They also urged the state director of relief to "replace such local officials who are not conscientiously permitted" and declared that "very high educational requirements be maintained in favor of minimum qualifications in the appointment of new local administrators."

BORAH LASHES AT F.D.R.'S PROPOSAL

Senator Denounces Plan to Lend $500,000,000 to Foreign Countries

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—President Roosevelt's proposal to lend $500,000,000 to foreign countries to promote American trade brought a blast of criticism in the senate today, even before the administration's new lending legislation reached congress.

Senator Borah (R-Ind.), 73-year-old dean of the senate, told his colleagues that the foreign loan would be equivalent to turning over "vast millions of the taxpayers' money for South American politicians to play with."

The president's South American loans were in default of both principal and interest and asserted that "in many instances no effort is being made to pay them."

OFFICERS' PROBE 'EARHART' NOTE

'It Seems Impossible' the Message Is Authentic, Police Comment

BEVERLY, Mass., June 24 (AP)—Police Lieutenant William J. Tobin said today four boys had turned over to police a note they reported finding in a bottle in the Inna river which appeared for aid for "A. Earhart" somewhere "off the coast of Wake Island."

Wake Island is in the Pacific ocean, over which famed aviator Amelia Earhart was making a flight two years ago when she disappeared. She since has been declared legally dead.

Declaring "we have to investigate such things, even though it seems improbable," Tobin said police had followed instructions of the note to "write the coast guard."

Boston coast guards said they had notified their New York division, and Washington, adding "we have to follow up such things."

Lieutenant Tobin said the message, written in printed in pencil, was as follows:

"Write the coast guard of Wake Island, Latitude 19.00 N. Longitude 157. Have some water, but no food. Please no radio. Write to me at the address on the missing aviator's coast guard."

POLITICS SIGHTED IN LOAN PROGRAM

New Indication Apparent of Roosevelt's Bid for Third Term

By KIRK L. SIMPSON
WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—Republicans and some anti-Roosevelt Democrats read into President Roosevelt's proposal for a multi-billion dollar lending program a hint that he is definitely considering a third-term candidacy next year.

Whether they are right or wrong, it came at a time and in circumstances suggesting that Mr. Roosevelt might have been holding this project in reserve for months as a means of quickening the recovery pace next year, and arresting the anti-Democratic sentiment now dealt with in the 1940 elections.

Cause and Effect
Behind it lies the conviction of many politicians that the major cause for Democratic losses at the polls in 1938 was the 1937-38 economic slump—a widespread popular reaction against the president and his new deal policies.

It seems a reasonable expectation that the new plan for extending aid may become a prime element of political maneuvering and strategy for 1940.

The proposal was dropped into a congress already eager for adjustment and upset by an inter-party economy coalition and various groups calling for more federal spending.

It is still too early to be certain whether the president's new legislation will be completely implemented by legislation before adjournment, if not there is every reason for congress to expect it will be back as a "must" item next January or in a special session this fall if the recovery lag should increase.

Duffy was seen emerging from the hall by two women and was arrested later at the Hazelton stockyards, the stolen property being in his possession at the time, it was reported.

TRUCKS PLEDGED GRANGE BACKING

Idaho Spokesman Addresses Salt Lake City Convention

SALT LAKE CITY, June 24 (AP)—A representative of the Idaho grange told the Western States Motor Carriers conference today that agriculture would give wholehearted support to the trucking industry in its campaign against inimical state legislation.

"Trucks have forced the freight rates down to where Idaho farmers are treated as human beings and not as vessels of the railroads," said Ray V. McKaig, of Boise, legislative spokesman of the grange.

Truckers, in anticipation of 1941 legislative session, have been strengthening their organization. They elected to hold three regional conventions each year to meet annually in an 11-state convention in Salt Lake City.

A three-member committee, Shipley D. Burton, secretary-manager of the Utah Motor Transport association; Roy B. Thompson of San Francisco, secretary manager of the Truck Owners' association of California; and John Springer of San Francisco, western representative of the National Highway Users' conference, was named to coordinate legislative activity.

Conference delegates also laid the ground work for an organization in Montana, the tenth in the 11 western states. Harry Pullmer of Billings, Mont., was named temporary chairman and a statewide meeting was called for July 16 at Billings. McKaig related the dangers of the Caldwell region "agitated for nine years without avail" to reduce better rates to Los Angeles, but the fall tariff was cut within three weeks after a trucking firm offered to haul the goods.

He said his conclusion that "two farmers will go into the legislature and fight for trucking if you continue to play the game as you've been playing it."

MOSCOW, Idaho, June 24 (AP)—Sheriff C. E. Moody said tonight Alfred Swenson, 26 of Drary, broke a five-day fast at noon when he accepted a slice of toast and a drink of water.

The doctors decided to leave the man in jail. Sheriff Moody said Swenson was showing "interest and activity" this evening.

THIS CAR IS different

You have admired the Lincoln-Zephyr as the style leader. But it is very much more. The Lincoln-Zephyr is a "twelve"—only one in its field. The extra luxury of extra cylinders costs you no more. This "twelve" is thrifty to operate. Beneath the car's modern beauty is the only automobile structure of its kind—the unit-body-and-frame, in closed types—steel panels welded to steel trusses. Other distinctive features: Wide bodies with concealed running boards, balanced distribution of car and passenger weight, chair-high seats, hydraulic brakes. But you cannot truly appreciate how different this "twelve" is until you take it on the road. See the Lincoln-Zephyr in our showrooms and arrange for a demonstration.

ASIATIC DANGERS

The Japanese effort to crack down on Great Britain and France in China may be regarded as an act of incredible confidence or an act of desperation. It may be the making or breaking of the Tokyo gang now operating their deadly machinery in China.

SPREADING TAXES

Along with the corporate income taxes, the personal income tax rates are being reshuffled by Congress. The word is that "the tax base will be broadened."

RESTAURANT EDUCATION

At the recent International Restaurant Conference there was much talk of the increasing tendency to dine out, and the responsibilities it would impose on restaurant men generally.

NO FOOL-PROOF SUBMARINE

Commander Edward Ellsberg, authority on submarines and member of the United States Naval Reserve, does not believe that the three shocking submarine accidents of recent weeks were caused by sabotage.

Breakfast Food

They apparently had a good time. They were sitting in the twilight together listening to the languorous roll of the sea below.

to damage or disconnect vital operating gear. It is the nature of the submarine itself which is to blame for such disasters, according to Commander Ellsberg.

Other Points of View

THE GREAT UNKNOWN. Recently in the American press, Major George F. Fildes, U.S. Army, has written for the thesis that Italy-German military power is overrated.

The analysis, which Major Fildes works out in much greater detail than this, is comforting as the informed reader will find. It is a study of the military situation in Europe, and it is a study of the military situation in Europe.

RELIEF OF MONARCHY

The reputation of our British cousins for strict administration of justice without malice sentimentality is so well established that it is surprising to find that the King's recent departure from Canada, the sentence of all Canadian cabinet members to pay the cost of their own transportation, and the denunciation of the justice minister.

THINK AGAIN

If, as some of our politicians agree, the steady and rapid extension of government control over individuals and producers is the only way to solve the problems of the people, the totalitarian states should be veritable marvels of progress.

THE NIGHT EDITOR

Later it developed that he'd been singing into a hornet's nest. A pretty 'teen-year-old blonde was out walking the streets Friday night.

WASHINGTON. By Ray Tucker.

ASTORIA, June 25.—Ed Starling, the distinguished chief of the U.S. House secret service, got a special gift from their British counterparts.

Ed's latest achievement consists of forcing the treasury to approve a bill for the celebration of the anniversary of the historic tour.

President Roosevelt has written several letters to the senate asking for the passage of the bill.

Mr. Pepper, incidentally, has his eyes on the vice-presidential nomination, provided the president runs.

Ed has many years of experience behind him. He has worked for the U.S. House secret service for many years.

WHY TAKE BLOOD PRESSURE?

There is no diagnostic procedure which gives the doctor more information about his middle-aged patient than an accurate blood pressure determination.

The trained physician can learn the condition of the arteries, heart action, and detect symptoms of many diseases, only successfully treated in their early stages, such as Bright's disease, gastric colic, a tendency toward apoplexy.

Low blood pressure is not particularly frequent or serious, and is an indication of some debilitating condition. It is also true of high blood pressure that it is a symptom—not a disease. The way to cure high blood pressure is to prevent it by regular general examinations, so that any beginning increase may be detected in time to do something about it.

CONGRESS EYES POWER PROGRAM

Policy of Giving Preference to Public Bodies Questioned.

WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—The apparent swing of congressional sentiment away from the administration's public power program leaves some doubt as to ultimate policy at the Pacific northwest area development on the Columbia river at Bonneville and Grand Coulee.

Some members of the Washington and Oregon congressional delegations feel, however, that the congress will not disturb the status of the two projects, as it did that of the Tennessee Valley authority when the House placed drastic limitations on its future operations.

Regardless of this optimism, there has been some evidence that trouble may be encountered at Grand Coulee. There also has been a noticeable softening in the administration attitude as regards Bonneville power policy.

Policy Questioned
Some House members have already questioned a basic policy of giving preference to public bodies and cooperatives over private utilities which the interior department is seeking to write into pending legislation revising the repayment set-up for reclamation projects.

If this language were allowed to stand it would mean that the vast power resources soon to be harnessed at Coulee would be more or less reserved for public power groups with private utilities taking leftover energy.

During hearings on the bill Representative Case (R-O, D) and several others opposed this plan on the ground it would plunge the government farther into business and also jeopardize passage of the reclamation legislation, which all agreed was needed to ease the financial burden of the farmer and at the same time assure orderly repayment of the reclamation projects.

Banks Draws Line
At Bonneville Acting Administrator Frank A. Banks has announced he would adopt a policy of "amplification" toward public utility districts but not one of "action"—a complete reversal from the policy of the late J. D. Ross, who actively urged formation of public groups to buy Bonneville power and showed no sympathy for private utilities.

Said Banks in a recent interview in Portland: "We are in sympathy with the public utility districts but we are not going to fight their battles. We won't take sides between districts and private utilities."

He undoubtedly speaks with authority.

Legislator Hails Law Nullification

PARLIS, Idaho, June 24 (AP)—Senator James B. Newport (D-Canyon) said today Judge Charles P. Koehler's opinion holding the 1939 comptroller unconstitutional "has helped to confirm my great respect and admiration for the courts."

"The comptroller act does not take state nullifying out of politics but places it squarely in politics and in a position for it to become a political football for every party that might come into power."

"The enactment of the law by the last legislature was reprehensible and a distasteful procedure to me... and appeared to me to be a vicious attempt to usurp the right of the people."

Portland Climber Eyes Mount Borah

BOISE, June 24 (AP)—J. P. Petty of Portland, Ore., came to Boise today to make preliminary arrangements, he said, for a proposed ascent of the Mazama Mountain Climbers' club of Portland on Mount Borah, Idaho's highest peak at 12,683 feet in Owyhee county.

Less than a dozen persons are known to have gone to the summit of the mountain.

Gooding to Have New Funeral Home

GOODING, June 24 (AP)—Plans for a modern new funeral home in Gooding were being studied this week with the possibility that construction will begin within the next few weeks.

It is located on the six lots just north of the Methodist church on the corner of Main and Eighth streets, plans as being drawn by Thompson call for a $15,000 structure.

The new funeral home will be approximately 4850 feet with the surrounding lots landscaped with lawn and shrubbery. To be used exclusively as a funeral home, the building is being designed along modernistic lines and will incorporate many of the desirable features found in the new parlors.

Among the many features of the home will be the air conditioned chapel rooms.

IDAHOAN NAMED FOR MARINE CORPS POST

WASHINGTON, June 24 (AP)—The navy department today announced the appointment from the University of Idaho of Harold Sigward-Robert, 323 Eighth street, Moscow, Idaho, as a candidate for second lieutenant in the U. S. marine corps.

Robert was a backfield star on last year's University of Idaho football team.

The nomination has been sent to President Roosevelt for appointment to the rank for July 1.

CINCINNATI, June 24 (AP)—Springing another pitching novice on the National league, the New York Giants today took their second straight game from the Cincinnati Reds 7 to 2 on Manuel Salvo's six-hit hurling.

The rookie, 23 in his first 14 games, took the season's fourth for the victory right-handed from the Pacific coast and followed the two-hit pitched by Bill Lohman yesterday.

In an effort to shake his Reds out of their slump Manager Bill McKechnie returned Emile Lombardi to the lineup, but he went hitless. The loss reduced the Reds lead over the Cardinals to 3 1/2 games.

Red Ruffing Throttles Browns As Yankees Take 2 to 1 Victory

Ace Right-handed of World Champions Posts 11th Win

NEW YORK, June 24 (AP)—The world champion Yankees, who usually win on short margin when they can't get a long one, noosed out the last place St. Louis Browns 2 to 1 today for Red Ruffing's 11th win.

New York's ace right-handed scattered seven hits to throttle the game's only home run, but Bob Harris, recently acquired by St. Louis from Detroit, proved an able foil and gave up only eight innings.

Louis Top-Heavy Choice to Stop Battling Barkeep

Boxing Writer Concedes Galento Chance, But Only if He Rushes in and Lands Solidly With First Punch

By SID FEDER
NEW YORK, June 24 (AP)—Along about 7 p. m. (MST) next Wednesday night, Joe Louis and two-ton Tony Galento will scramble through the ropes of Yankee stadium's ring for what figures to be either one of the roughest-heavyweight battles in years or another of the shortest knockouts in title history.

An odds-on favorite at anywhere from 1 to 6 up to 1 to 10, Titchholder Louis is generally regarded as being able to rock the battling beer barrel to sleep in less time than it takes to say "heavyweight champion of the world."

Champion Loafs Through Workout

Trainer Explains Joe Louis' Indifferent Performance Against Sparmates

POPMONT LAKES, N. J., June 24 (AP)—Joe Louis boxed his last sparring in the first of three weeks before leaving for his training camp in the mountains of Colorado. He completed his training for Wednesday night's 15-round fight with Tony Galento.

The heavyweight champion appeared sluggish as he toiled through his sparring rounds with Willie Graham, Joe Banovic, Jim Howell and George Nicholson. His spar mates hit him repeatedly.

Trainer Jack Blackburn explained Louis' indifferent performance by declaring that "Chap is right on top and there's no sense having him out loose when I can't see him."

But Harry Lenay, veteran trainer and manager, had another explanation. "Louis looked bad because they're trying to change his style to meet Galento's barkeep tactics," said Lenay. "That's a serious matter. Louis' best bet is to fight his regular fight. If he tries to meet Galento's style on his own game, he is likely to run into a lot of trouble."

Galento Works With Stoooges

Challenge Steps Through Five-Brisk Rounds in Next to Last Drill

SUMMIT, N. J., June 24 (AP)—Tony Galento took his next to last drill today for his 15-round world heavyweight championship bout with Joe Louis in New York next Wednesday night.

Before the start of his sparring rounds with two of his stoooges, then he went off the workout with two seasons of bag punching and rope skipping.

Galento boxed with durable Abe Feldman, of Scheenaday and the Mammoth Mickey McAvoy of Brookline. Both were tied when it was over.

Manager Joe Jacobs said Tony will do his last boxing workout. Only light exercises and maybe a short road work are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday.

Jack Johnson, former world's heavyweight champion; Thomas L. Newell, former boxing champion; and Len Bates, chairman of the Pennsylvania commission, watched the workout.

The Aquacade—A Water Ballet

By The AP Feature Service
What the ice ballet did for skating, the aquacade is doing for swimming. It's a strange blending of mermaid and musical comedy at the New York World's Fair.

The naval chorus of 120 "Aqualobes" and "Aqualobettes" swims in rhythm to the music of an orchestra, their water ballet strokes rising and falling in unison like the high kicks of chorus girls.

Johnny Weismuller and Eleanor Holm offer speed swimming. Palo Desjardins and Marshall Holm offer water polo. Miss Gleditsch and Marshall Holm offer water polo.

Water Ballet

This corner is willing to concede Tony a chance, but only if he comes across the ring at the first bell, keeps out of the way of the Brown Bomber's customarily heavy left lead, and is able to land solidly at the first punch of the fight, if he does not get off to a bloody business as any butcher shop can put up. Both have announced themselves ready, willing and able to play rough and tough, despite a faint-appearing warning by the state athletic commission.

Tony's task is a major operation to be accomplished in 15 rounds. He looks less than nine minutes of fighting to blast Max Schmeling, John Henry Lewis and Jack Dempsey out of his path in the last year. So this corner strings along with Louis to polish off the challenger in 15 rounds, 15 beats in a round or two of the 15, hence the fight is scheduled to go.

Alice Marble 2-1 Favorite as U. S. Prepares to Defend Titles

By SCOTTY RESTON
WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 24 (AP)—Alice Marble, 21, was the favorite to defend her Wimbledon title today as the only strong favorite in a mediocre field as the United States prepares to defend its world tennis monopoly in the all-England championships starting Monday.

Disappointed in the form shown by favorites in the men's singles tournament, British critics lambasted their superlatives on Miss Marble and decided tonight she was a 2-1 favorite to gain the title which Helen Wills Moody is not defending.

Record Equalled As Cravat Wins

4-Year Old From Man of War Line Takes Brooklyn Handicap

NEW YORK, June 24 (AP)—Townsend B. Murray, barkeep-country galloper, Cravat, staged one of his characteristic stretch rushes today to win the 8th running of the Brooklyn Handicap at Aqueduct in track-record-equaling time for the mile and a furlong.

Laded with 120 pounds and conceding chunks of weight to every one of the other horses in the field of eight, the four-year-old from the Man of War line roared down the outside of the pack along Aqueduct's long straightaway and came home a length on top of J. B. Partridge's light-weighter Our Ketchum.

Last year's winner, Maxwell Howard's The Chief, trained by Earl Sande, just failed to save the show spot from Myron Gleditsch's Curt Wats in a photo decision. The Chief, incidentally, hasn't won a race since taking the Brooklyn 20 Mrs. P. Corning's Thanksgiving, Brookmeade stable's Handicap, William Woodway's Fighting Fox and Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Jockey.

Booting his claim to ranking as the country's top handicap division horse, Cravat, who was owned by Suburban Handicap at Belmont his last out, collected $18,250 as winner's share of the purse. This year, this boy son of Sicily-Fillette, which cost his owner only $10,000 at the C. W. Whittier dispersal two years ago at Pimlico, boosted his money winnings for the year to $31,000 and for the last two years to $97,025.

Cravat's trainer, until they consider the turn and headed for home, it appeared Cravat, co-favorite in the betting with

FISHING GOOD IN IDAHO STREAMS

Chinooks Taking Bait In Salmon River Country

Trout fishing in the Sun Valley area of Idaho is up-top and old timers declare that it hasn't been better in their memory of the nearby Wood River watershed at any time during the past 20 years.

The brisk early run of Chinook salmon up the main Salmon river bears out the prediction of residents in that section that 1939 will be a "big salmon year."

From the season's opening on May 20, Wood river and its tributaries have been uniformly low and clear. The perfect dry fly stream still manifests an abundant supply of minnow rainbow trout.

Special catches of rainbow, cutthroat brook, and natives are being taken practically every evening within walking distance of Sun Valley on the main Wood river and Warm Springs creek.

Salmon in unusually fine condition and weighing up to 30 pounds are taking bait in the big holes from the mouth of Yankee fork on down the main Salmon river.

Took Astoria, Ore., veteran Chinook salmon guide, 43 minutes to land a 31-pounder on rod and reel this week.

The unofficial American distance record for anglers was set last year during the Elmira scoring contest by Lieut. Robert Stanley, 116 distance was 24.6-mile line mile.

Nuptial Ceremony Culminates College Romance for Pair

Climax of a college romance at Linfield college in McMinnville, Oregon, was reached here yesterday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cederberg, when their daughter, Miss Faith Cederberg, became the bride of Joe Vine of Dallas, Ore., son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Vine of Newberg, Ore., at a charming garden ceremony at 2 o'clock.

Rev. Albert Bostley, pastor of the Wilder Baptist church, performed the wedding ceremony, which took place beneath a natural archway formed by two neighboring trees, the branches of which had grown together.

An arbor, covered with red and white roses was improvised beneath the archway, and surrounded on either side by a profusion of people, delphinium and other garden flowers.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Inez Cederberg, best man, William Clinton of Portland, Ore.

A white tailored suit, with which she wore blue and white accessories, was chosen by the bride for the ceremony. A shoulder corsage of white and roses completed her ensemble.

The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo with which she chose Japanese accessories. Her corsage was of sweet peas and roses.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held in the Cederberg garden. In traditional fashion, the bride cut the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Twenty-five relatives and friends attended the ceremony and wedding.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding, besides Mr. Clinton and Rev. Bostley, were Mrs. Albert Bostley of Willier, wife of the minister, and Miss Esther Overtier of Jerome.

Immediately after the reception, the bridal couple left for a honeymoon of unannounced destination.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride chose a hand-knit daisy rose tailored dress with navy accessories. Following their wedding trip, the young couple will be at home at Dallas, Ore., where the bridegroom is employed.

What Authorities Say . . .

Many leading financial and economic authorities throughout the nation give warning that it is not wise to combine life insurance, THE MOST IMPORTANT KIND OF INSURANCE, with any type of investment. For instance, a nationally famous financial analyst declares, "Insure your life as you would your automobile or your property. CARRY YOUR INSURANCE FOR PROTECTION AND NOT AS AN INVESTMENT."

Avoid Risk of Losing Policy

These learned men are guided by the realization that life insurance should be arranged for in such a manner that it may be maintained right to the very end, despite possible financial reverses which would make the abandonment of investments a necessity. Sound investing is wise, but when combined with insurance it makes the latter and expensive and often endangers its very existence. That condition certainly should be avoided.

The Answer Is Here . . .

An Idaho Mutual Benefit Association policy is absolutely free from any investment features. It "specializes" in offering PROVEN life protection—the kind of financial aid which comes to the defense of the home in time of distress, need and possible crisis. It gives protection with a single, sensible, indispensable purpose—the kind of protection that is best suited to the average American home and very often proves to be the principal means of relief and re-establishment.

PROVEN Protection at LOW COST

Due to the complete elimination of investment features, cost of membership and maintenance for an Idaho Mutual policy is cut to minimum, a sum easy to pay even on a small income. All money, except the small sum required for operation, is used solely for the payment of claims and is collected at regular intervals ONLY AS NEEDED. Evidence of low cost is the fact that it has never cost more than $10 a year (less than 3 cents a day) to keep each $1000 of dependable Idaho Mutual protection in force.

I am very fortunate in securing this instrument—the RADIOCLAST—an instrument of precision in the diagnostic field and as accurate in indicating a correct procedure for getting well.

The RADIOCLAST has been subjected to years of clinical testing, but until recently has been too expensive for the private office. The findings are extremely accurate and equal to the large and famous clinical centers requiring a week for observation and tests.

An expert technician from the Radioclast Research Laboratories will be here to assist in conducting this clinic, with the 1939 model RADIOCLAST, a precision instrument. Each functional activity of your body will be checked, their efficiency determined and why such deficiencies may exist.

Do not fail to attend this clinic for a determination of the cause for your ill health, or for a general physical examination that you may know all is in good order. This work requires technical knowledge and a nominal fee is charged. Please make your appointment early. The date.

Kentucky Congressman Hero To New York Industrialists

NEW YORK WHIRLWIND OFFSET, Chairman Andrew J. May (Ky.) of the house military affairs committee is congratulated here by industrialists and financiers at present as the man who is expected to get the bill through the house that elaps the Tennessee Valley Authority and share like most other attack the New Deal policy of the self.

Mr. May is a Democrat of the old school—and looks the part. He came from a coal-mining district and was once the head of a coal company himself, which helps to account for his consistent antagonism to T.V.A. He was elected to congress in 1934 in opposition to the Norris proposal that would have permitted T.V.A. to extend its theater of operations considerably.

The New Dealers are pretty sure as Mr. May is leading a large number of key-voters into one of their pet projects, they are likely to try to crack down on him. A work supporter of the president's re-announced program in the past, he had suffered sharp attacks at the end of war pacifist and isolationists. His record of his connection here too valuable to be lost. So he will accept administration censures for the present in a style that will avoid the wrath of the Norries and Lillenthal.

"I D'ADLOCK" An Congressman may leads the house confereer to battle his congressional T.V.A. measure, the veteran war-horse George W. Norris trumpets defiance from the great side of the Hill. He is an outstanding advocate of public ownership of electric utilities, and he will never permit the upstart house to shake the future activities of his beloved T.V.A.

SPECIAL! SEN. CARROLL G. Rogers sets the spotlight as T.V.A.'s chief defender in the senate. He is the former chairman of the Senate's cultural committee, technically leads the senate group which is to meet with May's delegation from the house.

The administration attempted to force the issue on the Senate in last year's primaries, and he naturally has no great affection for New Deal's conservative by background, he is understood to be sympathetic to the measure passed by the house. But Norris, although he belongs to no party, has much more influence in the senate than any other member. It is in prospect before the representatives of house and senate can agree on the measure, their respective positions.

It was on Patterson's advice that the campaign to make the nation Roosevelt-conscious has been called off by the press. Patterson is a G.O.P. hopeful who are in the position to draw more bricks than boquets.

Our Children by Angelo Patri

The ways of children are unaccountable, and they are excusable only on the fact that they are children. Good people ought to be a bit patient, very tolerant, and understanding to the degree of wishing their neighbors' children to do their piece because of what a child may do or say. They speak as children, they act as children, and it is the part of wisdom to accept them in that condition. Experience soon teaches this doctrine.

For further help and advice in the teaching of troubled children, ways in childhood, send for Angelo Patri's book, "Annoying Children." It is available from the publisher, Address Angelo Patri, care of Twin Falls News, P. O. Box 75, Twin Falls, New York, N. Y.
