ROOSEVELT HITS CONGRESS ACTION

He said the country must take the responsibility for the condition on the congressional action.

He said he hoped the two bills were good ones. He emphasized that the responsibility rested 100 per cent on a solid Republican minority...

From the point of view of the country as a whole, he said, he hoped the two bills were good ones.

One will be at the dedication of the Snake Mountains National Monument at the San Francisco exposition and the third at the dedication of the Olympic national park at Washington.

He challenged reporters, even through a screen or glass, to find anything to criticize in these three events.

His Wife at Elbow

Mr. Roosevelt was at her husband's side during the speech, and occasionally offering a suggestion.

Buying Power—And a great deal of buying power is being spent on the little goods and every thing on Main street of Pocatello...

Next spring, he said, WPA roads will have been reduced from 3,000 to 2,000, and the 3,000,000 PWA will have finished their work.

The theory has been on the part of the Roosevelt minority, plus 20 to 25 per cent of the Democrats, the president said, that "back in the days of the '30s' we were lost."

"But there is a serious condition here, because it is not a gradual decline over a period of years, but rather a precipice."

The chief executive said he was talking about the president said, it is a precipice and it is always hard to see a precipice until you are over it.

The theory of the leading bill, he said, was to maintain the graduated descent from the level of high employment, but the coalition voted in favor of the precipice instead.

FOUR GENERALS GAIN NEW RANK

Commanders of American Field Armies Advance Under New Law

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—The army's revival of the rank of lieutenant general gave added prestige and third standing to four outstanding World War veterans.

The commanders of the four American field armies, advanced when President Roosevelt signed legislation sought by the war department for years, all won the distinguished service medal for "exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services" with the A. E. F. in France.

They are: Stanley D. E. Hooper, Albert J. Bowley, and George W. B. V. Vincent.

All were promoted from the rank of major general and as such already were in command of the four continental United States army corps. Vincent, who was in command of the continental United States army corps, was promoted to lieutenant general. Vincent, who was in command of the continental United States army corps, was promoted to lieutenant general. DETWEILER'S

Soft as Rain Water

Soap is used in washing to cut grease and dirt. With soft water it does the job 100% but with hard water the soap does just about as much harm as it does good. When combined with the dirt to form a gummy curd which will stick to the fabric and cause a dull, dingy appearance.

If you have never tried washing with soft water, you don't know what you are missing, and wash day will continue to be a headache in your work's world. However, if you would be at all interested in making wash day a pleasure and saving several dollars worth of soap besides hours of work each week, just call Detweiler's for a free demonstration. They will be glad to show you the difference with a Formwalt Water Softener.

FOOD IN PILLS: The Pacific States Congress heard recently a speech advocating treatment of foods with elements lacking in order to give families of low income the essentials of proper diet.

More than a year of scientific advancement with the use of calcium and the vitamins into capsule form will be needed for this, however. A good Anthropologist might venture a guess accurate within a few million years.

The British army tried an experiment once with foods concentrated into small volume. All the needed calories and vitamins were packed into a small volume.

friends and the many readers of his books. His power is merely the power to delight and entertain. He does not try to instruct. Yet Tarkington says he would not for any reason exchange places with Mollotini.

ROAD MILES: The state of Pennsylvania reports ninety miles of new highway completed so far this year. Time was, and not so many centuries ago, when that would have been an achievement.

Ninety miles with a horse and buggy was a three day journey—and more than that usually, but the fact is that the new highway line were too much to hope for. Now a motorist can go from one World's Fair to the other and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, with hardly a stretch of pavement.

Other Points of View

BOOMPS, MY DEAR: Heralded as "a new desire sensation to rid the littering mania and restore at least a measure of dignity to the art of territory," a new dance imported from the "art-of-territory" is being taught in Twin Falls.

Fashions burst upon us, no one knows how or why or whence, and the dancing teachers may be wrong. There is no doubt that they have considerable influence in guiding the dances fit and it may be that the cycle will swing around to the ways of a more serene age, and be wrapped from their lavender and gold lace to delight a new generation.

VITAMINS, TEETH AND 1939: While the human race in the form of crowds, polio, influenza, measles, mumps, and other diseases are unpredictable, the scientists quietly add to their store of information as to how to improve health conditions. In some degree control their physiological flow.

At the recent nutrition conference at Illica, Dr. C. K. and E. The dangers lay, he believed, in "the premature use of large amounts of vitamins." The danger lay, he believed, in "the premature use of large amounts of vitamins."

SOCIETY and CLUBS

Beta Members Serenade Gamma Gamma Chapter House Mother

In observance of the hundredth year of the fraternal organization, Beta Theta Pi, members of the South Central Idaho Beta Alumni association and their guests gathered last evening at the Park hotel for a 7:30 o'clock banquet and diversified program. Climax of the evening was the trip to the home of Mrs. Adam B. Barclay, house mother of Gamma Gamma chapter of Beta Theta Pi at Moscow, for a college serenade. The event was a pleasant surprise to Mrs. Barclay, who is well-known by Betas, young and old.

Gay Reception For House Guest

To make her first visit to Twin Falls a memorable one, Mrs. Nora Palou arranged an informal reception yesterday afternoon at her home at 477 Walnut street in honor of Mrs. Betty Cox of Pocatello, and her daughter, Miss Alice Bayard, also of Pocatello. A friend of Mrs. Palou for many years, Mrs. Cox had never before been a visitor in Twin Falls.

Mrs. Cox is president of Santa Ana chapter No. 1 of the Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary of Pocatello. Guests who called during the reception hours were members of the local U.S.W. Auxiliary, of the American Legion Auxiliary and of the Order of the G.A.R. The green and white predominated in the floral decorations, table appointments and in the dress of the guests during the evening, who were present from Rupert, Coeur d'Alene, Kimberly, Burley, Jerome and Twin Falls. Other guests were present from towns throughout southern Idaho.

Beta Theta Pi was founded at Miami university at Oxford, O., August 18, 1862, and is the oldest of the large fraternities and first established west of the Alleghany mountains. It has a membership of 100,000 in all over the United States last evening, and a special dedication ceremony and program was held at Oxford yesterday.

Appearing on the program during the evening with music were Bob Stephan, Ed Bennett, Arthur Robinson, Clifford Sevelin, William Turner, Norris Stettler, John Wagner, John Miller, and C. J. Wellington. C. Miller is secretary of the association and Thomas G. Bucklin is treasurer.

Pair Presides at Luncheon Series

Second and final of a series of gay luncheon parties was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Widen in Kimberly with Mrs. Wellington C. Pierce of Twin Falls as hostesses. Quaint old-fashioned bouquets in crystal containers formed the "centerpieces" for the luncheon tables, and the same decoration as was observed at the first luncheon Saturday afternoon.

Fritz-Wenton Monday were Mrs. Louis-Denton, Mrs. Frank Warner and Mrs. Richard Smith. Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Smith have recently moved to Twin Falls from Kimberly. Mrs. Warner is a resident of Kimberly in Bailey and Mrs. B. P. Party won honors at Saturday's party.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Nixon of Akron, O., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Wilson and his wife, the Dalles, Ore., for a brief stay, and Mrs. William H. Sibbey of Astoria, Ore., who is visiting her mother at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ascher B. Wilson.

Twenty guests were present at both luncheons. Mrs. Robert Miller and Miss Gloria West were assistant hostesses at both parties. An out-of-town guest at Saturday's party was Mrs. J. A. Alban of Chicago, mother of Dr. Harry Alban, who is visiting here at the Alban home. She was presented with a guest price.

EASTERN ENDS VISIT AT SPRAGUE HOME
Miss Louisa Cabell of Washington, D. C., who has been a frequent visitor for the past several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Sprague, left Monday for her home in the west coast. She was accompanied by her nephew, Gary Cabell of Oak Hill, Va.

They will attend the Golden Gate International exposition in San Francisco, and will visit coast points in the Pacific northwest, returning to the east by way of Yellowstone national park. Among the many outings arranged for Miss Cabell during her visit in Twin Falls was a house party at the A. J. Peavey summer home on Pettit lake, attended by Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, Miss Jean Sprague, here from Sweetwater, Va., Miss Alice Peavey, Mrs. Ann Peavey and George, Sprague.

Visitors to Share Honors at Tawasi Camp Fire Breakfast

Inspiration for a cleverly arranged reunion party this morning was the arrival here of Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey and daughter, Betty Rae and Joanne, of Boulder City, Nev. During their residence here, Mrs. Harvey was assistant guardian of Tawasi group of Camp Fire Girls, and her daughter, Betty Rae, was a member of the group.

Classmates are Guests at Gala Reunion Party

Scene of a gala reunion for eleven members of the Twin Falls graduating class of '10 Monday evening was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Dean. When the guests, their husbands and wives, all armed with 1010 Coyotes and supplied with vivid memories of their class of "red and white" of that year, gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. James H. Harvey, who are the daughter, Mrs. J. W. Widen, for a vacation visit.

Mr. Harvey is associate electrical engineer at Boulder dam, and two daughters, Betty Rae and Joanne, they will leave Twin Falls this latter part of the week to continue their vacation trip.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Dean were not members of the class, they were interested in the humorous reminiscences as the ex-classmates, "Can you remember the morning that long ago? And look at those hair ribbons! What a treat! That's the time you were wearing, and those blouses! Well, certainly you were funny in those days." and much more was the trend of conversation as the guests guffawed through the pages of the annual.

Later in the evening, Mr. Harvey displayed several reels of motion pictures, some in technicolor, that had been taken in recent years. There were shots of the Shoshone lake caves, Craters of the Moon, scenic views of Idaho and Montana, Death Valley and Boulder dam.

Refreshments were served late in the evening by Mrs. Dean, assisted by Mrs. George Dean, mother of Mr. Dean. The Harveys are house guests of the Lionel Dean during their stay in Twin Falls.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Russell Weaver, Dr. and Mrs. George C. Halley, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Bequa, Mr. and Mrs. Muri Stansbury, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Miller, Mrs. Bern Zmes Ioset, Mrs. Grace Boxer, Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. Orrin Fuller and Mrs. Doris Porter, of Pocatello, of Chicago.

Miss Jerome is here for a summer visit with her mother, Mrs. C. Porterfield.

Climax of the evening, community singing was enjoyed. Mrs. Elder playing the piano accompaniment.

Local Pair Wed At Bride's Home

Miss Vera Irene Lohr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Lohr, and Cecil Russell Dodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dodge, all of Twin Falls, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents.

Rev. Roy E. Barnett, pastor of the Baptist church, read the single ring ceremony. The couple was unattended. But Mrs. Alice Adkins, great grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. DeLoe, grandmother, were given the honor of signing the marriage register as witnesses.

The bride was gowned in a rose chiffon afternoon frock. Background for the wedding was a festoon of pink and white gladioli and greenery.

Only the immediate families were present. Refreshments, featuring a wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, were given by Mr. and Mrs. Dodge who leave today for Goldburg, Ida., where they will make their home.

Chapter III
The King of Hearts

The Chickler inspected the upper stories of the house. They were in total darkness. Having seen this salubrious fact, the Chickler sidled across the lawn and flung open the side of the house that was found a rampart. Perceiving this, he perceived that this rampart, on its feet, carried to the roof, ran to an iron balcony some fifteen or twenty feet off the ground.

Chapter III
The King of Hearts

He called the balcony without mishap and climbed cautiously over the rail. But all of a sudden he jumped. A light had been switched on in one of the rooms that gave on the balcony.

Drawing back into a darkened corner, the Chickler took counsel with himself. He proceeded to the conclusion that it would be the height of folly to be stamped by this slender figure. He was in doubt. The light had been snuffed out by a maid who was turning down a bed in another room.

Five minutes passed. Fifteen. And during them there came at intervals sounds as of birds fluttering their wings. The sound seemed to divert the threatening larynx of Mrs. Dipsang.

"Such" he whispered, by way of kicking himself for not having been better. "There is use for my eyes, my good woman."

"Did might well have omitted reference to hysteria," Mrs. Dipsang noted with no intention of indulging in a fit of hysterics. "Here," she ordered peremptorily.

Better Balconies
The Chickler hesitated. He had a congenial objection to allowing his particular case of contumace to be treated as an instance of general practice at the better houses of Los Angeles.

"Come here," she commanded again, a little sternly. "If you don't I'll scream."

The Chickler went a little in deference to his sick trousers. In the illumination that poured from the window, Mrs. Dipsang subjected him to a critical inspection. "Now," she inquired by what she saw. Here stood a tall, well-looking gentleman of dignified bearing.

"Come in," she said courteously, as she threw open a door which gave on the balcony. The Chickler had suspected the presence of some party, but he had not seen it since it was near the open end of the balcony. Now, it was an open house, he did not care to go through it. In his opinion, it was not a good idea for this manly woman, obviously an inmate of the house, to see too much of him.

"Very much regret, Madam," he said now, clearing his throat, "that I shall be unable to offer hospitality before going, however, I feel that you are due an explanation of my recent unusual method of appearing on your balcony."

"I certainly am," said Mrs. Dipsang. "Come in and you are to my embarrassment."

"There are reasons," said the Chickler, "why I prefer to remain here. You will permit me to proceed to the Chickler amply, 'I will now.'" Mrs. Dipsang cut him short. "Here," she said, peering at him. "Why haven't you got your shoes on?"

The Chickler pattered her curiosity in a courteous manner. "Excuse me, Madam," he said, "it was not fortunate enough to be invited to the festivities that are going on tonight. I was therefore, forced to gain admittance in some—oh—less conventional manner."

Cincinnati May Be Team to Set New Precedent

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (AP)—The best friends may not cheer for them, but they will just as eagerly cheer for Cincinnati, relying to lift the world series money to the mortgage on the old homestead.

The undrafted field is this: No. 1 National League team, the lead Aug. 8 has won the pennant in the last five years. Pittsburgh, second, has won more than five and one-half games back.

The Reds today were seven and one-half games ahead of the second-place St. Louis Cardinals, the team which was given a chance to finish anywhere from first to seventh depending on the pitching. The Cards are depending on the pitching now, and it is just the money in the bank.

Plates Ahead
Last year's race still is fresh in the minds of fans. Aug. 8 the Pirates were six and one-half games ahead of the Giants, with the pennant-winning Cubs the third with the Reds eight games behind.

Aug. 8, 1927, the Cubs were an even five games ahead of the Cardinals when the Cardinals were the third-place Giants and two ahead of the Cubs. The Cardinals were five games in front of the third-place Giants and two ahead of the Cubs. The Cardinals were five games in front of the third-place Giants and two ahead of the Cubs.

Cardinals Win Pennant
And to bring the example closer to home, the Cardinals won the pennant in 1925. The Cardinals were five games in front of the third-place Giants and two ahead of the Cubs.

High School Boy Wins Skeet Title

17-Year-Old Marksman Takes National Sub-Small Gauge Crown

By RUSSELL L. NEWLAND
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8 (AP)—After the country's finest center-gauge marksman had shot approximately half a ton of lead and burnt enough powder to complete a minor league pitcher's season, the 17-year-old boy from Massachusetts and a club member from Florida, which is the national skeet shooting championships, finished the competition.

It was the fourth American crown claimed by him. During the week he also defeated approximately 200 other men in the 1933 he was both the national junior and junior champion. Equally impressive was the feat of Don Sperry of Flint in the small gauge tournament. He ranked straight to win after taking a 10-10 shot at the Golden Gate.

WAR FEAR CURBS RALLY IN STOCKS

Most Active Shares Score Fractional Gains in Light Trade

Markets At A Glance NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (AP)—Stocks rallied today in a light trade, with gains in most active shares.

By FREDERICK GAUBNER NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rallied today for a rally today but didn't get very far. Factors limiting the rally were the most active shares could achieve as dealers shrank to the smallest since about 11:30 a. m. Total gains amounted to $18,650 in the previous session.

Traders, it appeared, still hesitated between two opposite forces—war fear and optimism over business prospects in the United States. The mobilized armies of Europe, with the Danish line of contention back in headlines, once again were likely to suggest caution until the critical post-armistice period ends.

On the other hand, the day's headlines now added further details to the recent picture of an unusual summer upswing. Traders noted said machine tool builders were in line for substantial orders from domestic General Motors reported the sales of cars and trucks to amount to $400,000,000 in the first half of the year.

Fractious advance at the close were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Western Union, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, and Consolidated Edison and International Harvester.

The consolidated price composite price of 60 stocks ended a higher $42.62. Cotton futures tumbled after a false start on the upside following the government's estimate of the new crop, totaling 11,400,000 bales. Final prices were 85 to 83 cents a bale.

Unchanged and bonds started a narrow climb in a mild trade. Purchased fractionally in the early session. Nigam National Power, Lockheed, and American Gas and Electric.

RAINS DEPRESS WHEAT FUTURES

Prices Fractionally Lower Moving Within Range of 1/2 Cent

By FRANK BRUNTO CHICAGO, Aug. 8 (AP)—Wheat futures sold fractionally lower most of the day, but were held within a range of less than a cent.

The close was unchanged to 1/2 down. Inducement to moderate selling were reports of overnight rains in western Canada and a forecast for continued rains in the North American spring wheat belt.

Good rains in important parts of the domestic corn belt induced some selling of corn contracts, but prices held up rather well.

Wholesale wheat, reflecting favorable Canadian weather, held the market. Inducement to moderate selling was 1/2 cent and closing 1/2 cent lower.

The Liverpool market opened on a holiday, but developed a decline in late trade and finished 1/4 cent lower. Inducement to moderate selling was 1/2 cent and closing 1/2 cent lower.

REPORT REVEALS BIRTHRATE DROP

School Enrollments Static; Population Thought on Increase

A practically static school enrollment in Twin Falls county from the school year 1930-1931 through 1938 tends to show a decreasing birthrate, according to a statistical report released yesterday from the office of Mrs. Doris Stradley, county superintendent of schools.

This is in face of the fact that the 1940 federal census is expected to show a substantial increase in population for the county.

Two definite, but compensating, trends are noticeable.

There is an increase of high school students over the nine-year period, but a decrease in the number of elementary school enrollments.

Total enrollment of the 12 grades for all schools, including eight high schools, of the county, was 8,214 in 1930-1931.

Nine years later, 1938-1939, the total enrollment was 8,255—a difference of but 41.

Greatest difference was in the low year of 1934-1935 when 7,687 students were enrolled against the peak year of 1937-1938 when 8,342 students were listed—a difference of 655.

Average enrollment over the nine-year period has been 8,123—off 22 from 1930-1931 and 132 from 1938-1939.

Increase in high school enrollment while the grade are decreasing may hinge on two factors. One is that probably is added education and the other that students of high schools cannot find employment and therefore continue in school.

D. A. V. to Support Legion Assembly
Twin Falls chapter Disabled American Veterans of the World War are invited to meet for a picnic dinner at the home of Mrs. E. E. Cranberry, 211 Addition avenue west, Thursday at 1 o'clock. There will be a foreign missionary movie box opening.
