SWISS AIRPLANE DROWS BOMBER

Tension Grows as German Concentrations Along Frontier Increase

ZURICH, Switzerland, May 16 (AP)—Emphasizing with machine guns the Swiss declaration to keep their territory inviolate, a Swiss fighting plane this afternoon drove down a German bomber which strayed across the line. One member of the German crew was wounded.

The incident highlighted steadily growing tension which today caused the Swiss and Germans to close their frontier along the Rhine.

The Swiss plane machine-gunned the bomber and forced it to land in a field northeast of Zurich. The two unjured members of the crew surrendered their plane and surrendered.

In recent days German divisions concentrated south of the front, and have increased. Heavy artillery has rolled up behind them, and German engineers have been practicing building poison bridges across a part of the Rhine where they control both sides.

Glamor Rates Low On Co-Eds' List

POCAHELLO, May 16 (AP)—It's no "glamour" that pulls in the co-eds at the University of Idaho, according to a survey conducted by the Phi Lambda Sigma, parliamentary law fraternity at the branch, conducted a survey on what the college women think most necessary in a successful marriage. The answer was—health, ranked first by 50 per cent of the campus co-eds. Similar interests was named second, adaptability third, religion fourth, wealth fifth and nationality sixth. There's hope for men looking for a better half, too. Ninety-six per cent of the women intend to marry, but they expect to wait until they're about 23 years old. Six per cent thought they might be able to live on love and $1000 a year. Other estimates ranged upward to $2,500.

88 GRADUATE AT JEROME SCHOOL

Commencement Exercises Mark Close of Education Phase

JEROME, May 16.—Eighty-eight Jerome high school seniors received their high school diplomas at the impressive commencement exercises Thursday evening. Delivering the commencement address was Dr. Carl W. McIntosh of the University of Idaho, southern branch. He chose as his subject "Adjustment to the Forties." Presentation of the class was made by Principal Harold B. Roberts, followed by the awarding of the diplomas by Chairman of the board of trustees, T. D. Burke. The coveted Davis award went to Miss Gerry Glodowski, valedictorian, and was presented by superintendent of schools, H. Maine Shoup. The award was based on a basis of scholastic achievement, sportsmanship, personality and appearance. For twenty years this award has been presented by S. G. Davis, Jerome banker.

The Day in Washington

(By The Associated Press)

President Roosevelt told congress that unexpected nations find their selves "overrun by the enemy" and proposed a $1,162,000,000 program to make "our defenses invulnerable, our security absolute." The house, debating the president's request for a $775,500,000 WPA appropriation, heard Representative Woodrum (D-Va.) assert that the present relief program would lead to "national economic disaster" and Representative Cannon (D-Mo) say world conditions were so unsettled that plans to slash relief appropriations must be abandoned.

SLASH REVERSED IN IDAHO BUDGET

Governor Would Make Actual Needs Basis for Spending Estimates

BOISE, May 16 (AP)—A state budget in which the "slashing" process will be reversed will be drawn up by Governor C. A. Holtzcliff, he announced today. The governor said under the new plan he would ignore department and institutional heads to determine exactly what was necessary for 1941-42 operation. The budget would be submitted to the 1941 legislature on that basis. Hereafter, he explained, departments have asked more than their actual needs. The governor has abolished the figures and the legislature has slashed them down even more. C. J. Huse, budget director, will assist Holtzcliff.

Bickering Costly To Idaho Projects

CALDWELL, Idaho, May 16 (AP)—Idahoians have "mired the boat" on a sprawling federal reclamation project because of "too much bickering" among themselves, H. W. Morrison of the Mormon-Kauffman construction company of Boise told College of Idaho students. He pointed out that since 1930 Morrison's firm has had little reclamation development and accepted that of $100,000,000 appropriated for projects in its western states less than two per cent had gone to Idaho. Morrison urged support of the southwestern Idaho water conservation project, non-profit southwest Idaho corporation working for more irrigation development.

Stricken Student Takes Final Tests

One pupil of the Bryn Mawr school district no longer has a final examination hanging over him as a result of a special courtesy granted by Mrs. Doris Stratley, county superintendent, who administered seventh and eighth grade tests in rural schools of Twin Falls county. The lad was unable to go to the school to take the exam, so Mrs. Stratley went to his home with the examination paper. This was the last examination of the county and marked conclusion of a week of intensive testing.

With the Nazi juggernaut rolling over Holland, a problem that our government has been uneasy about for some time is suddenly jumpy.

The United States government also had its attention on those properties, but for the sake of preserving their independence and normal operation.

Our own navy, after its "war games" in the western Pacific, is now in Hawaii, about one-third of the way over, and held there for the "moral effect" on Japan.

REFORM PROGRAM. The prohibition party is not dead yet. In spite of a present lull, it must have life left in it when Roger Babson, the veteran business statistician, takes it up.

Speaking at the party's nineteenth convention, he expresses his belief that neither of the big political parties can solve the problem of prohibition.

EXHIBITS-FOR-POSTERITY. The latest time capsule has been prepared by Ogilvie & Mather.

What would those contents be? A bottle of soap, new news sheets of the year of 1940, translations of modern writings, and blueprints of Diesel engines.

THE FEAR THAT THE MEN who open these recorders may not know any of the languages stored there has led the editors to prepare pictorial charts showing what to do and setting English words alongside pictures so that the finders may decipher easily all the writings in the crypts.

"BIG STUFF" June time will be the time this year. The entire 30 days will be spent on observance of National Dairy Month.

Prime purpose of the month is promotional—to sell more milk, butter, cheese and other dairy products. And, lined up solidly in determination to make the drive a success, are America's retail distributors.

Food stores throughout the nation will participate. And, on top of that, still more thousands of stores, such as the great grocery chains, will be doing their part to stimulate the demand for milk, consumption of milk, and sales of milk products.

"This is 'big stuff' to the dairyman. And it is 'big stuff' to the rest of us as well. As Ward Melville, chairman of the board of the National Dairy Council, has said in announcing the campaign: "In late spring and early summer, Mother Nature is unusually bountiful in her milk abundance. It is essential that farmers, who produce seasonal milk abundance at fair, reasonable prices, be enabled to maintain their wages and their purchases..."

summer, Mother Nature is unusually bountiful in her milk abundance. It is essential that farmers, who produce seasonal milk abundance at fair, reasonable prices, be enabled to maintain their wages and their purchases... The farmer's seasonal milk surplus problem... concerns the automobile and truck manufacturer of Detroit, the steel manufacturer of Gary, Ind., the automobile producer of California, the hat store, the tire store, the drug store, the grocer, the five-and-ten... The possibility of curtailed spending power among dairy farmers represents an important problem for everyone who has a job, an investment, stake in America and in American wealth and industry.

Other Points of View

TOO CIVILIZED? Anyone who has read Iceland Storm's remarkable stories from Oslo about the betrayal of Norway to Germany has a far more pessimistic outlook of a great nation imbued with the spirit of Norway was amazed at the indifference of the Norwegian people to the unfolding catastrophe.

The incredulity of Storm and thousands of other observers who watched the bloodless conquest in its own name... The thousands who watched the 1,500 cocky Nazis march into the town... before the royal palace did not cheer. But neither did they display resentment.

It is a sad thing to witness the slow erosion of the Scandinavian reflexes or perhaps, as someone has said, the Norwegian has simply become too civilized to react to the situation.

Hamro made much of the fact that Norway "has the lowest budgetary allotment for armaments of any nation in Europe..."

However, the words of his Norwegian leader that "the world is not so simple as it seems..."

CONCLUSIONS FROM THE FIELD. Conclusions from the field of the recent fourth corps exercises in Georgia include more dreadful lessons taught by the German invasion of Poland.

For the German success in Poland and in Norway has been achieved by utilizing highly mechanized and motorized units.

Our Children by Angelo Patri

CURE ADOLESCENTS' ISMS WITH WHORNS. "You've got to help me with my boy. I don't know what to get on his head lately. He's all for government."

"What's your business?" "Fruits and vegetables. I get up early in the morning and go to market, buy my stuff, pack the truck, get back about eight, and dress the store and the stands. The boys are waiting for me and we start right in. I work for the whole day, and I don't get a cent for it."

"How much time does he put in at the store?" "None. He gets up in the morning until time to get up for school. I don't see him until he comes home at five. If I'm awake, he studies. Sometimes he plays. Well, he's young."

"I got it. If I don't tell him all this, he'll get it from you. Put him to work. He's free Saturday. You make him go to work on Saturday. He'll be glad to go to work, doing as you do to get a cent for it."

"And does the little boy like it?" "Right about the business." "You may be a little bit of a mother, but you're not a mother. You know how a mother is. She thinks this boy is wonderful. She's an angel."

"Then you tell her that this is the best way to introduce the new baby into a family of bread and butter. It's an answer to the question that is helpfully answered in Angelo Patri's book, 'Our Children'.

Kiwanis' Ladies Night Has Old School Days Background

With a theme dating back to "Early to bed, and early to rise makes a person healthy, wealthy and wise—without worry about vitamins," Mrs. U. N. Terry, toastmaster, opened the Kiwanis Ladies' Night dinner last evening at the Park hotel.

"School Days with Kiwanis," presented by the Twin Falls Community Theater association, was written by the players. It depicted the days when lessons were taught to the tune of a hickory stick.

Members of the cast were: Wilton Kaufman, Mrs. Tom Whitton, Miss Dorothy Dean Huddleston, Miss Kathryn Gott, Alan Duval, James Reynolds and John Day.

Following the speaker's table was the little log skit, with its wood burner beneath the spreading trees. Other table decors were miniature playground equipment.

Small diplomas, which when unrolled revealed a colored girl, kindergarten, marked each lady's place.

Mrs. Frank Stephens and Mrs. Roy Washburn were the door prizes.

Blue Notes, under the supervision of Mrs. J. G. Adams, sang a group of musical selections. Company chairman was Helen Thomas, Mary Jean Shipman, Nellie Holmes, Mary Lee, Myra, Lois Bowman and Betty Babcock.

In her bustling little group was Miss Homer Baxton, viewed the group and recalled amusing incidents which had taken place when she taught this Kiwanian and that one.

Pat Smith played a piano solo, "Think, Think the Link," and before she had completed her selection Miss Thomas burst in with a typical line of comedy.

"Bologna," a take-off on the Kiwanian motto, was the mainstay of the community skit led by James Reynolds, accompanied, Mrs. O. P. Duval. Other school songs were also on the program.

A. S. Olbert introduced the program chairman of the month, Fred Farmer, who in turn introduced the toastmaster, Mrs. Terry.

In charge of the evening's entertainment were Mrs. A. S. Olbert, chairman, Mrs. Fred Farmer, Mrs. Helen Thomas, Mrs. Mary Lee, Mrs. Duval, Mrs. Roy Holmes, and Mrs. John Kinney.

Medill Winner To Head Group

Miss Frances Schweickhardt, recent winner of the Medill scholarship, was elected president of the Twin Falls high school chapter, Quinn and Scott, national high school journalism honorary society.

Elected to the other offices were: Mrs. Mary Lee, secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Harrison, secretary-treasurer.

At a business meeting, which was conducted by Frank Rishworth, a check for $100.00, presented by Mrs. Mercedes Hill, advised accompanied the group.

Summer Nuptials Announced for Billy Mae White

A traditional nuptial ceremony was held at the home of Mrs. E. M. White, announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Billy Mae White to William H. Adams, son of the late George M. Adams.

Early summer nuptials were recorded in miniature folders, ornamented with pink and silver wedding ribbons.

Three shades of pink sweet pea combinations with painted daisies, formed an off-fashional bouquet, which covered the lace covered tea table.

Appointments were of silver and crystal, with pink tapers lighting the table.

Miss White is a graduate of the Twin Falls high school. Her fiance, who graduated from the local high school, attended Utah State Agricultural college, Logan, Utah, and is now an employe of the Amalgamated Sugar company.

Several vocal solos were presented by Miss Betty Ostrom, accompanied by Mrs. Ostrom. Devotional songs were led by Mrs. E. M. White.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. H. T. Blake, Mrs. Floyd Neal and Mrs. Wanda Neal.

Childhood Days Theme for Party

"Readin' and writin' and rithmetic," was the opening salutation of the old school room in the Christian church basement auditorium at a recent "School Day" party of the men's and women's classes of the church.

With her pigtail tied with bright ribbons, and her faded curls, Mrs. Walter Ostrom, captured many a "hey-ho-ey," while Frank Slack portrayed the perfectly-dumb lad with his buckled shoes-strewn and full length stockings to say nothing of his stuffed log.

Teacher, Mrs. E. S. Hattie, had her hands full keeping order among her 60 pupils.

After a well-drawn, all present got out their old paper bags and attended a school picnic.

Members of the Park Lane school orchestra, presented a musical program consisting of old-time and cowboy songs.

Arranging the program was Mr. and Mrs. Earl Maddy and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Hanks.

INITIAL BRIDGE GUESTS AT DESERT LUNCHEON

SUMMONS COMES TO PARTY LEADER

Oregon Republican Committeeman Dies Suddenly in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, May 16 (AP)— Ralph E. Williams, 76, Republican national committeeman from Oregon, died at 7:20 p. m. (Eastern standard time tonight), two hours after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage.

Williams, who was head of the arrangements committee for the Republican national convention here next month, collapsed at a committee meeting late this afternoon. He was taken immediately to Jefferson hospital. Dr. Lewis Chasler said he was conscious upon arrival there, but lapsed into unconsciousness a half an hour before he died.

Mrs. Williams was notified in New York but she did not arrive at the death of the late, whose Oregonian who had been in charge of arrangements for the convention here in 1922 and 1926 as well as 1928.

Williams, senior vice chairman of the Republican national committee, had not been in the best of health for two years.

He collapsed while addressing his committee. He had filled a chair next to him and leaned against it. The chair slipped and Williams fell to the floor.

Dr. Chasler was called and he ordered Williams to the hospital. The committee meeting was hastily adjourned.

Williams' record of service as a national committeeman—22 years—was unparalleled in either the Republican or Democratic parties.

He was a long time associated with the Democratic party, but in 1920 he was elected a national committeeman in 1928 he became vice chairman of the party.

He was a native of Polk county, Oregon.

Nuptials Climax Capital Romance

BURLI, May 16—A romance which began in Washington, D. C., while Miss L. Margaret Burlingame was employed by the federal power commission there, culminated in her marriage to James H. Burlingame, Quantico, Va., Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burlingame in the 14th district near B. In the presence of her immediate family, the couple were united in matrimony by the Rev. W. G. Downing, pastor of the First Baptist church, the singing ceremony being presided over by a bride wearing a gown of navy blue sheer with white accessories, and a coronet of white cascading flowers. The ceremony was decorated in pinks, honeysuckle and tulips. Immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip to Silver Spring, Md., where they will return to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Burlingame for a week. Mr. Burlingame is in the navy department, stationed at Quantico. Mrs. Burlingame, for the past five months, has been employed in government work in the biological survey at Potomac.
