HOOVER REVEALS FOOD AID PLANS

Negotiations Under Way to Send Surplus to War-Stricken Europe

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont., Aug. 10.—Former President Herbert Hoover declared tonight that negotiations are under way to send the surplus of the United States to Belgium, Poland and the Netherlands.

The world-war chairman of the American relief commission said the negotiations were being conducted by organizations with which he is affiliated. He emphasized that nothing definite has been accomplished yet, and declined to put himself on record as to whether he believed this country should accept permission to send relief shipments through the European blockade to the conquered nations.

"It is absolutely certain that Belgium, Poland, Holland and Czechoslovakia will not have enough food this winter unless it comes from Germany or from outside sources," Hoover declared. "Terrible famine conditions will prevail with intense mortality in all these war-stricken countries."

United States minister to Belgium, John C. White, declared London this week that near-famine conditions would prevail in Belgium by mid-September if the British permitted shipments of food from America. A similar warning was given by Hoover to the British when he was in London last week.

Hoover, who has been vacationing near here, said he would leave Sunday for a conference in Springs, Colo., for a conference with Wendell L. Willkie, Republican presidential nominee, during the afternoon.

He has spent the last few days making a favorite inspection of the Madison river in Montana and the north fork of the Snake river in the Idaho Park country north of Ashton, Idaho.

CHARGES LOOM IN WPA PATENT INQUIRY

(Continued from Page One) Technical services, unless they are provided, prevent the investment of new capital in industry and, in general, to restrain trade and international competition.

Justice officials here were careful to point out that the investigation had not been started primarily as a defense matter but because the department thought it was in violation of federal law. "The defense thing is an official matter," Hoover said. "I'm not looking over the patent situation."

"Nevertheless, this angle has assumed great importance," Hoover said, "since the department believes there are indications that license agreements between American and foreign firms have resulted in exchange of technical information important to national defense and restriction of production of some materials and products holding a key place in the rearmament drive."

Arnold said some of these agreements that have been entered into were not in vital defense industries "in the improper position of divided loyalties."

Here is the story of Vera Swain, 45. Two months ago last week, in a tiny three-room farm house on a sandy road not far from Van, this infant girl came into the world—three months ahead of time. She weighed two and a half pounds.

Mrs. Tommie Camper, Vera's mother, in Mrs. Swain's second cousin and has six other children, the oldest 13. The father did not have a WPA job but hasn't now. Their eighth child died.

ITALIAN ARMORED FORCES ADVANCE

(Continued from Page One) pushed the Italians out of Kordofan, on the border of Kenya Colony and Ethiopia. It was reported, however, that British headquarters at Nairobi, Kenya Colony, announced they had taken over the village on the shadow front of the Italian advance, and without suffering casualties.

Military circles said the action, a typical minor border episode, should not be interpreted as foreboding a British invasion of Ethiopia. DUIWALL ADVISES 'RETURN THOMAS'

Tells of Need for Present Senator's Services at Washington

As a man of experience, energy and wisdom who is highly respected at Washington, D. C., Senator John Thomas of Gooding should be returned to the national scene...

"I think that a general survey of all interests of all the people still confirms that appointment and that more than ever we need his experience and able counsel in the perplexing situation that confronts us by reason of debt, unemployment and the extravagance of the present national administration," the speaker continued.

Pointing out that Senator Thomas in Washington where he should be to perform his duties incumbent upon him as a United States senator from Idaho, Judge Duwall declared, "He is energetic, his integrity cannot be questioned, he knows the problem for the people here, and has at least the interest of the people. He has been for many years a successful farmer and a successful politician. His business and political ideas have at all times been open and frank. Senator Thomas' name on the general election ballot is the best and the strongest to the entire ticket."

Favors Defense "It is a conceded fact that we have in our past years had the best having placed in the Republican platform a plank of non-intervention and non-interference. We are wholeheartedly in favor of national defense. He voted for every appropriation for the purpose of the army and navy commensurate with the national defense program."

Against Senator Thomas voted against the Burke-Wadsworth amendment. He is a man of high character who he does not believe in increasing the armed forces of this country in the present situation. He has given an opportunity to volunteer his services for a period of one year and he has not done so. It does seem reasonable that the young men of America would prefer to go to the front in the present situation. According to Judge Duwall, if there is not a sufficient number of men to defend the country, it should be for voluntary enlistment, conscription will have to be resorted to.

Thomas Lauded "It is certainly, however, that Senator Thomas would defend his fee or object to increasing our standing army and the training of sufficient number of men so that this nation may be adequately prepared to defend itself under all circumstances, but in the present situation of Idaho we need assured that so long as there are men in the United States ready to defend the States against their boys will never be compelled to cross the border and take part in any foreign nation."

Senator Thomas is a strong opponent of "Hill country" activities and it is also against reciprocity treaties with other nations. He is so distrustful to the price of farm products and to the detriment of the American farmer, the Twin Falls man added.

He also described Senator Thomas as a kindly aware of needs of Idaho farmers.

CRITICAL FANS TRIP TO MOVIELAND

Studio Convinces Gun Expert He's All Wrong About Film Automatic

By TED GILL. HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 10 (AP)—This creaked habit was a self-appointed critic who had written in and called attention to the fact that he was otherwise telling the movie now to run their own business. It is not the movie that is the subject of the studio report.

So it is no wonder, then, when a studio, driven by the fact that it is a critic right back at the center, is not the movie that is the subject of the studio report.

That when the critic is absolutely right and the studio just for the fun of a little argument, finally is able to tell him out of it, and convince him that he's wrong, that's one for the books.

Hille Outlined. Nearly one studio shot a picture containing a battle scene of many years ago. But it was the machine gun that was the trouble, not the battle scene.

But just to have a little fun, the studio boys replied, "I beg the critics pardon, but we said that the weapon was an 'air' machine gun, not a machine gun, and that's all." It was not a machine gun, but a machine gun.

After some delay, the now-accused studio's pardon. He said he had just had a lengthy research in the matter of the machine gun in question, and had found that virtually that same identical weapon had been used in the past.

Stars Get Proposals. Heart throbs... whether they're serious using leap year customs or not, the stars are getting proposals. It's a male admirer who did himself as "efficiency" are examples of the kind of proposals that are being made.

While Europe is busy thinking out death-dealing tanks, Hollywood is using some of the biggest news machines in movie history. For instance, Lou Wolff, special effects expert, has just invented a machine on the 29th Century Fox lot that ground up ice cream and covered three acres with a foot of snow in 30 minutes for the latest scene in "Billionaire Boy".

More studios use powdered gypsum for imitation snow, but in this case, Director Henry Hathaway wanted the true sound of the crunching of snow under shoes, which the prop department hasn't yet been able to produce artificially.

ONE WAY NOT TO STAYE HIGH POINT S. C. (7) - A man arrested on a bootlegging charge here insisted on giving bond before released, because, he said, if he didn't give bond he would be sure to leave town and if he left town he would starve.

The flours, announced through the office of County Agent D. T. Hollenback, show that feeders sold for $0.19 per hundredweight. Weight of the shipment was 41,250 pounds. Officials announced that checks will be mailed Monday.

James W. KEATING Republican Candidate for SECRETARY OF STATE

Daughter Born - A daughter was born yesterday morning to Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Whittier of Twin Falls at the Twin Falls county general hospital maternity home.

READ THE NEWS WANT ADS.

James W. Keating came to Idaho 30 years ago and settled on a homestead near the town of Coaldale, where he still resides. He has elected him 3 successive terms to the House of Representatives in the United States Congress and has been a State Affairs, Judiciary and Insurance committee, being chairman of the last two. He received his degree of L. B. from Northwestern University, Chicago, before coming to Idaho. He is a member of the State and National Orange. At the last election he had no opposition in the Primary and carried Twin Falls county by a large majority over his opponent in the general election. He would appreciate your support in the coming Primary as it would give northern Idaho representation on the State ticket.

PRIMARY RACES DRAW TO CLOSE

(Continued from Page One) Attention to close on the holidays Election day is a legal holiday. One vital question pertaining to the election—whether a valid ballot for three or four representatives for the state legislature—was virtually settled yesterday by Prosecuting Attorney Everett M. Sweeley. He declared that four names would appear on general election ballots in November. The action assures nomination of all candidates for state representative offices. Addition of a representative for Twin Falls county, increasing the number to four, is based on preliminary census figures which show five Idaho counties entitled to an extra representative because of growth in population. Sweeley did not reveal what plans may be followed to put the four names on the ballot, but indicated that stickers instructing voters to ballot for four men would not be used. No stickers had been attached to ballots last night, so that system will probably not be adopted. Ballots are to be delivered to polling places Monday. Trial Case The prosecutor's statement indicated that the state would probably bring suit against Twin Falls county

Cincinnati Reds make Six-Game Sweep Over Brooklyn Atlolans Gallops Toward Victory $62,000 TURF EVENT

Whitey Moore's Pitching Blanks Cardinals, 5 to 0

Tall Ohioan Tosses Four-Hitter, Gets Pair of Singles

NATIONAL LEAGUE Cincinnati 5, St. Louis 0

CINCINNATI, Aug. 10 (AP)—Whitey Moore pitched the Cincinnati Reds to their fifth straight victory today, a four-hitter to a whitewash of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Cardinals, coupled with Boston's defeat of Brooklyn, stretched the Red's National league lead to six games.

The tall Ohioan also helped himself in a run and hit best game of the year with a pair of singles, one driving in his fifth and then hand-cutting Terry Moore in center field to let another run in.

The St. Louis crew, going down to their sixth straight defeat, could do little with Whitey's offering.

The longest Cardinal hit was Ernie Koy's double in the seventh but that was as far as he got. Moore struck out seven and although he walked five, he managed to tighten up when the game was tough.

The worst hole was dug in the middle when the Cardinals' Dick Groat and Ben Shubert dropped a short single in center, with only one out. Position Johnny Meyer, however, popped out Roy Kober half of the Roy-Meadow deal, fouled.

Frank McCormick started the scoring for the Reds in the second with his 12th home run of the year. A single by Amosberry, walk to Myers, and Moore's single coupled with Terry Moore's home run did it no more.

Buffed otherwise by Bob Bowman, the Reds had to be content with these three until the seventh. Then singles by Ben Weber and Lonnie May, followed around by McCormick's double, produced the final scores.

St. Louis' only contribution was a single by Dick Groat in the eighth.

Hamlin Victim Of Chet Ross' Clout

BOSTON, Aug. 10 (AP)—Chet Ross homered in the sixth inning with the best of it today as the Boston Bees 4 to 3 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers, shattering a five-game winning streak for the Dodgers.

Ernie Hamlin, victim of a "run ball" recently incurred the odd debt measure of Lory McPhail, was the victim of the first snafu.

Hamlin, who had been hit by a line drive in the eighth, was hit again in the ninth by a line drive from Ross.

Hamlin, who had been hit by a line drive in the eighth, was hit again in the ninth by a line drive from Ross.

Gumbert Victor In Good Hurling Duel

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10 (AP)—Harzo Gumbert pitched a 10-inning, 10-out, 10-run, 10-hit, 10-error game, with only a good throw to the pitcher out of 10 Johnson's of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Though he didn't strike out a single man today, Gumbert did strike out himself and supplied the winning run himself when he doubled in the third inning and scored on his long fly.

New York Yankees and Philadelphia Phillies tied in the eighth, but the Yankees won in the ninth.

Which Diamond Deal Was Smartest? Check 'em Over and Make a Choice

BY RAY PEACOCK NEW YORK (AP)—The time has come when the major league baseball owners will be asked to see what, if anybody, outsmarted whom.

As usual, it's pretty much a matter of personal opinion. It appears that the leather medal of any shield on to Jimmy Dykes of the White Sox, who picked off Ted Wright and Pete Appleton from Washington in exchange for George Walker.

Wright has been one-two all season for the American league batting leadership and is hitting some 20 points better than Walker. Appleton has been useful as a relief pitcher.

Another medal might go to the Cincinnati Reds, who acquired Joe Judge from the New York Yankees for Leo O'Connell. Beggs' tight pitching has been a big help at Cincinnati while O'Connell has hit enough for a fling with Brooklyn after the Yankees gave up on him.

Probably the St. Louis Browns outsmarted Dykes when they acquired Rip Radcliff for Julius Foa.

occasionally called "Lemon." Radcliff is sharing batting honors with Wright, but Sellers is doing better than at any time since his palm days days.

Cincinnati hated the Brown Deal in swapping Leo Scarsella, the first baseman, for Jim Turner, second baseman, in the return while Turner, doing a come-back, is one of the Reds' four stars.

Probably the St. Louis Browns outsmarted Dykes when they acquired Rip Radcliff for Julius Foa.

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Edition
DETROIT, Aug. 10—Within the next fortnight the masses of new model automobiles that have cost $100,000,000 for tools and additional manufacturing floor space.

Not only are the production and sales executives confident that this investment will be returned many times over during the impending 1941 model season, but they have even more faith in the future of the industry that even before their new models are on sale they are going ahead with plans to make good.

That means commitments on another $100,000,000-plus program for new tooling and manufacturing floor space. The industry is now planning to produce in high volume set under way and the sales division is now planning to make good the predicted 10 per cent increase in volume next year. The preparations for the 1941 model year are being put on paper.

As the government's defense program begins to take more definite form, the automobile manufacturer is becoming more convinced that there is to be a little interruption here and there in the normal production process. With a very small percentage of their existing plants converted to war production, anything but passenger car and truck production. The car and truck production is expected to be about 10 per cent of the 1941 model year.

They do not profess to know what may happen in the 1941 model year when the rearmament program is in full swing. They do not know what the government will do to make good the predicted 10 per cent increase in volume next year. The preparations for the 1941 model year are being put on paper.

PUSHCAR DERBY PLANS PROGRESS

August 16 Event Brings Response From Twin Falls Youth

Derby date for Twin Falls push-car enthusiasts is rapidly approaching and advance preparation work is being completed. The event will bring its share of action. This is the announcement that came from Thomas Gill, recreation supervisor, who is in charge of arrangements for the derby.

Scheduled for Friday, August 16, at 6:30 p. m. on Shoshone street between Fourth and Sixth avenues north, the race will be similar to the currently popular soap box derbies. In conjunction with holding the derby on the street, the recreation department has been assured full cooperation from the city street and police departments.

Judging of push-cars for construction excellence will start at 6:30 p. m. and the cars will get underway at 7 p. m. Prizes will be awarded for best design and for winners of various races.

Entries have been coming in rapidly, observed Mr. Gill, and keen interest has been shown. Each entry is to consist of a driver and a pusher, with the cars, and must be 15 years of age or under.

Entry lists have been extended to Wednesday night, and applications for entries must be received by then by recreation leaders at Harrison or Grand parks, or the recreation center, 307 Third avenue north.

In announcing the list of sponsors of the event, who are putting up prize money, Mr. Gill pointed out that those without sponsors should apply at the recreation center, rather than directly to a potential sponsor.

Following are the sponsoring agencies: Chevrolet Motor Company, Union Motor company, Bernard Auto company, Johnson Motor company, Chaney Auto company, Browning Auto company, Schwartz Auto company, Magel Auto company, Blandford Auto company, State Motor company, Hatch Motor company and Fittstone Auto service.

KEENAN BEHIND CONSCRIPT PLAN

County Demo Leader Tells Stand of Candidate for Congress

That Frank Keenan, Democratic candidate for congress, favors registration of arms and ammunition through equitable compensation was emphasized by Russell Wilson, Twin Falls County Demo leader, at the committee, in a radio address Friday evening.

Pointing out that all must bear equal defense responsibilities under a democratic form of government, the speaker said that Mr. Keenan's advocacy of conscription is not an idle stand, as he has three sons within the proposed age limits.

Keenan, who has irrigation as a hobby, according to Wilson, "sees the need for irrigation in Idaho."

"He favors the maximum in development of Idaho's natural resources, the fire and forests, which is the complete development of our water resources," declared the Democratic leader.

As a "wild farmer," Keenan favors changing the national seed program from temporary basis under the WPA to a permanent control plan, and believes that the government should be as interested in seed control on private as on government lands.

Announced earlier was that Keenan, formerly with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Washington, D. C., has received the endorsement of the county central committee.

RICHARDSON'S CLEANERS and DYERS

Old and New in Canal 'Mossing'

NOW in action on laterals of the Twin Falls Canal company system are three tractors, shown at top in contrast to the former method of horse-drawn mowing. The most chains appearing at the side, the tractor, operated successfully for six years on high and low line canals, is made possible on the smaller ditches by development of light but powerful mechanized equipment, which is able to pull the heavy chains at a faster and more consistent pace than can horses. JUDGE BOTHWELL SUPPORT CALLED

Attorney Urges Party to Back Candidate for Congress

Bothwell, the past record of James R. Collins, Democratic candidate for the United States senate, as his best recommendation. Edward Babcock, Twin Falls attorney and former county prosecutor, advocated support of the resident of this and neighboring sections for the past 30 years.

Justice Bothwell is a man fully aware of the responsibility of public office and can be relied upon to meet these responsibilities. Mr. Babcock emphasized in his talk. He described the candidate as one "who has held public office as prosecuting attorney of Lincoln county in the early days and as district judge of the state of Idaho, both of which offices he has filled with honor and distinction to himself and to the people of the state of Idaho."

Pointing out that Justice Bothwell places party loyalty above personal ambition, Mr. Babcock reviewed activities in the Democratic party.

Justice Bothwell has been active in party councils of the Democratic party for a great many years as well as holding public office. Among his activities are chairmanship of the Democratic convention held in Boise in 1916; he was appointed by Gov. M. W. Alexander on the national council for defense in 1917; he was selected as a delegate in the national Democratic convention in San Francisco in 1920; he supported

Tractors Take Over Horses' Duties in Clearing Canals

The Twin Falls Canal company, which has several "firsts" to its credit in pointing the way to efficient methods, has taken another forward step in experimenting with tractors to supply horses in "mossing" operations on laterals, according to I. O. Gooding, company manager.

Although large tractors have been used for the past six years on high line and low line canals, mechanized methods on the smaller ditches were not believed practical until a new-type light tractor was found which can travel easily along the banks, dragging huge chains to tear loose the moss, these moss growths, if left in the canals, would greatly reduce velocity of water delivered.

Two in operation. One such tractor has been purchased as an "experiment," according to Mr. Gooding, and have been turning in excellent performance. Besides being able to travel at great speeds than the horses, the tractors don't need any real power, as do horses. The immense chains weigh 2,000 pounds, not including the added burden of moss and water resistance.

Although the horses are a powerful breed, the heavy chains and long iron take rapid toll on them. The tractors roll along in second gear and make the chain jump through the water, although it tips the scales at 25 pounds per foot. The light machines replace four teams of horses.

Review Progress In tracing development of method to combat the menace of moss in canals, Manager Gooding pointed out that in the early years of the company, a series of dikes were used on the canal bottoms, operating in a manner similar to field cultivation. Dragged along the bottom of canals, they cut loose the moss and force away deposits of silt.

Then the idea of heavy anchor chains was introduced, and this method has since been used almost exclusively, as they combine speed and efficiency. In the "stoker" high line and low line canals, tractors have previously been used successfully, but only development of the small tractors made use of the machines feasible on the smaller laterals.

At the end of a year we plan to compile a comparison of costs on the two methods to determine whether the tractors will entirely replace horses," commented the manager.

$25,350 Damage Suit Filed Here

Charging a "wicked and vicious" plot to undermine his reputation, a former insurance man today had filed suit in district court against two Twin Falls insurance agents for $25,350 damages.

Buell Warner, automobile salesman who left the insurance business after the alleged "conspiracy," is plaintiff in the case. Defendants named in the suit are Harry Barry, G. E. Austin and the General Insurance company of America.

The action is a result of an embezzlement charge filed against Warner last February 25 by Harry Barry, G. E. Austin and the General Insurance company of America.

Warner was acquitted in district court June 5, 1940, his complaint to pay costs he incurred in fighting the embezzlement suit, his attorneys are Rayborn and Rayborn.
