MAYOR TO SEEK SEWER PROJECT

Announces Intention to Start Move for New Drain Lines

Because recent heavy rains and hail storms have shown that the city's old drainage facilities are inadequate in care for the heavy runoff, Mayor Joe Koehler said last night that he will ask the council to apply for a storm sewer project at Monday evening's meeting.

The city has authority of the council to apply for such a project, declared Mayor Koehler, as extensive damage can result unless, he makes this improvement.

The official indicated that he had conferred with a number of engineers who saw the need for a storm sewer system, particularly on Alhambra street and Main avenue.

Jerome Man Hurt By Runaway Team

JEROME, Sept. 19.—Charles Turner, 40, who suffered a scalp wound, which required more than 100 stitches to close, when his team ran away with him Wednesday evening, is reported to be in good condition in his home by his attending physician.

Mr. Senabough, about 50, was driving a team of horses when a "blowing" occurred when the accident occurred about 5 p. m. at this time a mile west and a quarter south of Jerome.

His brother, Rex Senabough, was with him at the time of the accident, but managed to escape injury.

Besides the evulsion of a scalp, Mr. Senabough is suffering from numerous bruises, cuts and shock.

KIWANIS SET RESORT SESSION

Utah-Idaho District Meeting Will Open Sunday at Sun Valley

Complete program details for the Utah-Idaho district Kiwanis convention, which opens in Sun Valley Sunday with registration last night, have been received by Twin Falls Kiwanis members, many of whom will attend part or all of the sessions.

A. S. Gilbert, president of the local club, with Mrs. Gilbert, will head the Twin Falls delegation.

Feature of the convention, among other things, will be an address by Bennett O. Knudson, immediate past president of the Kiwanis International, who will be a featured speaker at the Kiwanis convention in Sun Valley, beginning Sunday.

Other speakers will be Eric A. Johnston, speaker, secretary of the United States Chamber of Commerce who will speak on "Our National Defense," Prof. Arthur Garfield Hays, secretary of the Federal Reserve Board, and George H. R. Hall, secretary of the Federal Reserve Board.

Provo, Utah, and a member of the Provo Kiwanis club, Mr. H. H. Miller, formerly of Caldwell, Idaho, will be in charge of the convention.

The convention program has been outlined by Hugh N. Caldwell, district governor, John Wynn, general chairman, and Mrs. Frank Blumquist, chairman of the women's committee, all of Caldwell.

Guests attending the Caldwell group are: Mrs. H. H. Miller, Mrs. W. H. Miller, and Mrs. J. H. Miller.

Besides registration Sunday, the program includes a regular meeting of the board of trustees early in the afternoon at a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Knudson.

At 7 p. m., delegates will be registered at the Kiwanis hotel at the Twin Falls resort.

Monday will be the convention proper, with many with musical sessions and addresses slated for the afternoon. The Kiwanis club dinner will be in the lodge dining hall at noon, and the ride to the site of the convention will be in the afternoon.

The governor's banquet, which is the most brilliant event of the convention, is scheduled for 7 p. m. Sunday at the Sun Valley lodge dining room, followed by the dancing carnival at 9 p. m. and during the afternoon.

Tuesday's program begins at 7:45 a. m. with breakfast in the lodge dining room and business sessions at 9:30 a. m. in the afternoon.

The Idaho Kiwanis club dinner will be held at 12:15 p. m. in the lodge dining room and election of officers in the afternoon.

San Valley management will provide buses and guides to conduct the Kiwanis and their wives on tours of the buildings and grounds without charge.

H. H. Johnston of Twin Falls, division No. 3, lieutenant governor, is among the district officers.

IDAHOAN URGES FOREST HIGHWAY

Congressman White Points
to Bottleneck in Lewis,
Clark Road

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Representative White today urged John Carmody, federal works administrator, in a letter to complete the Lewis and Clark highway through national forests in Idaho and remove a bottleneck in the road which he said has been designated a strategic highway by the war department.

White pointed out Idaho and Montana had spent three millions in constructing the highway to the national forest and the forest service already has spent a million dollars in working on the 32 miles of road-way in the forest.

He said that for 450 miles north and south in Idaho the road was crossing either by road or railroad. He said the highway extending from McCall, Mont., across the lowest pass in the Bitter Root range and follows a water grade to Leucostoe, and then follows a water grade to the Pacific west and northwest. He urged that the uncompleted section of the highway in the national forest be given first priority in the government's road building plans.

"In 1893 Lewis and Clark crossed the Bitter Root range of the Rocky mountains over the same route that surveyed and designated as the highway," he said.

White said, "In 1877 Chief Joseph, during the Indian war, escaped over this same route into Montana taking with him all of the members of his tribe. This route is the only one in military history as the most strategic ever undertaken."

White said that the highway in the greatest stand of white pine in the United States is in the area served by the same route as the highway and with much of the timber overripe it would be a tremendous loss to the nation if the loss of transportation were not provided so it could be harvested.

The Idahoan said that the defense angle becoming paramount the Lewis and Clark highway "becomes a necessity."

Burley Rites for Former Resident

BURLEY, Sept. 19.—The body of Mrs. Alice Clements Kane, 29, who died Thursday morning by the power machinery from Stockton, Calif., where she died Tuesday.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Presbyterian church here with the Rev. Louis Harro officiating.

She had been attending summer school at Stockton, Calif.

Burial services for her husband are at a daughter, Diana, 4, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Clements of Burley, three brothers, Eugene L. Clements, North Dakota, N. O. Clements of Boise and Ted Clements of Twin Falls.

Favorable Conditions Boost Butter Output

BOISE, Sept. 19.—Favorable conditions in major producing states last week kept American production of creamy butter at levels much higher than a year earlier, although the seasonal decline in autumn continued, it was reported today by Richard C. Rex, federal agricultural statistician.

Compared to production of the preceding week, a five per cent increase was recorded for the week ending Sept. 12. However, compared to the same week a year earlier, output was seven per cent higher.

The seasonal decline in far western states was only one per cent this year, and the gain in production over the same week of 1938 was five per cent.

NAZI SPOKESMAN, MUSSOLINI MEET

German Foreign Minister in Rome to Discuss Axis Program

ROME, Sept. 19.—German Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop came to Rome today on an arranged train equipped with anti-aircraft guns and conferred for two hours with Premier Mussolini on joint anti-plot to defeat British and rule Europe.

Spoken "representative" in winning the war, said Ribbentrop as he returned, was "satisfactory" between the two leaders.

Green and Turner, last Monday, against Axis domination of southern Europe, were held in Rome, brought up.

In the war in the Pacific, British, American, Canadian, Australian, New Zealand, Dutch, and other European nations, particularly the United States, were included "as co-operating forces."

This was considered a reference to Spain, and there have been no confirmed reports of any attempts to persuade Spain to at least permit from persons to land attack on Britain's stronghold at Gibraltar.

Italy claimed to have bombed Arab objectives (5), while the British claimed they raided Aswah (6) and Massawa, as well as Siracchamania (6). Fighting was reported on the Kenya border.

United States, French, since the trade of 30 American destroyers for British warplanes, have been reported by observers as involved in the talks—which may prove a point in the war's next phase.

Some French observers, through the axis, might be considered "settled," and added that the conference would be "very confidential."

Russia has a close affinity with Yugoslavia, Italy's neighbor, and the British, Turkey, studies the Dardanelles, gateway to Russia's Black sea.

The senate passed, 45 to 22, an excess profits tax bill. The measure, which goes to a joint committee, contains provisions to speed up the defense program and to lay huge tax increases should the United States go to war.

Secretary Stimson announced tentative plans for calling about 30,000 more national guardsmen into federal service in November.

The house approved a $300,000,000 appropriation bill for barracks and other construction of army posts.

President Roosevelt signed legislation authorizing $2,660,000 of naval drydock construction.

Jesse James was born in 1847, of a family of frontiersmen. He now heads both the commerce department and the federal law agency.

A lawyer defending a thief in a Cairo court asked his witness to testify that the prisoner had picked his pocket as a last.
